GENERAL HOLD IN A duty and pleasure to give ou the benefit of my experience in the use of Coe's longh Balsam. From taking a heavy cold, I was down with the consession of the industrial to fall, under the sest care until I was th before mg. I was told that further modified states and medicibe was useless, and I was received to death, when a friend, who had been greatly edited by using the Balsom, brought me a bottle, a was after I had done with the doctor and medic, and I continued to improve, until my cough aped, and my lungs healed, and got well. I used bottles. I remain, gents, with great respect, Your ob't serv't.
