H. C. Lett's new residence, corner of 2nd stock is a better evidence than columns of and Missouri streets promises to be one of the puffs that Brownville is a wholesale point, Wholesale Clothing House. Nothing speaks so well for a city as the extent of the stocks of goods kept for sale. By these its trade must be judged, for it is nor custom nor Judgement to lay in more than is demanded. Fullsome puffs on generalities dwindle to insignificent nothingness in the face of such a magnificent and truthful detall as we give below. We saw an immens unbusiness like mind, so we thought we would particularize, and here is the result : 350 Overcoats, Sacks and Frocks, 615 Business Coats, 335 Frock Coats, 162 Black Dress Suits, 480 Business Suits, 1,800 Pants and Vests, 48 Silk Velvet Vests, 125 Cases Boots and Shoes, 550 dozen Overshirts, French cas, Bellknap, 50,000 Paper Cuffs and Collars, 20 dozen Cardigan Overjackets. 35 dozen White and Fancy Shirts, 400 Trunks and Vallses, 50 Sults Boys Clothing throughout, Besides a full assortment of Fur Goods, Suspenders, Hoslery, &c., in variety and quantity equal to the above. These figures indicate the amount of goods now on hend at J. S. Hetzel's Clothing Store, Life of New York, which insures on the cash
