Probably never before in the whole history of nedicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply eries of years, and among most of the moss of nen it has risen higher and higher in their estima tion, as it has become better known. Its uniform aracter and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual ren gerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Crosp, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this anticate for them. Although settled Consumption is thought in-curable, still great numbers of cases where the disense seemed settled, have been completely cured. Peru & Brownville Coach
