LOCAL MATTERS

J. L. Colhapp, Editor.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1889.

Corn taken for goods at Den's.

Den has Trucks, as No. 41 main street.

Guns and Pistols, at Shellenberger's.

Shells and Blinds—Full stock at J. R. Bell's.

Penny Nails in abundance, at Shellenberger's.

Ladies' Furs selling at your own price, at Den's.

Sleigh Bells and Horse Blankets, at Bauer's.

Tricks, to perfume the breath, at D. H. Lewis & Co.

For choice Groceries, Winter Flannels, Fancy Dry Goods, go to W. T. Den's.

Pianos—J. R. Dye will sell and deliver first class Pianos at Eastern prices. 7-2

Winter Clothing—Gent's Shawls, Ladies' Cloaks and Fur Capes, of latest styles, at Den's.

C. G. Dorsey has just returned from Scotland. He reports matters still lively in the last business.

Drug Store for Sale—A complete and well selected stock of Drugs for sale, low for cash. Enquire at this office.

1st Premium—The Canton Clipper Flows manufactured by Parin & Orndoff, took the 1st Premium at our State Fair. For sale by Shellenberger Bros.

These Ladies' and Children's Furs have arrived at the Regulator, and from inspection we are forced to say they are splendid. They are going off rapidly.

E. E. Elbright has still quite a stock of Queneau on hand, and those wishing to purchase full sets, or single pieces to fill out broken sets, will do well to call on him at No. 61.

Dr. John A. Wroe, of Maryland, proposes to lecture in McPherson Hall this evening at the usual hour, upon the subject of Electro-Physiology. He is well spoken of as a lecturer by the Eastern press.

Wm. T. Den, accompanied by several hunters from this vicinity, started on a big hunt last week. They go for elk and buffalo, and Den will go till he finds them, and brings back something substantial to prove that he has been hunting. Success to them.

Mayor Fairbrother has resigned the office of Mayor of our city, and moved with his family to Tecumseh, where he will engage, in connection with his brother, F. M. Fairbrother, in the publication of the Tecumseh Chronicle. This leaves the office of Mayor vacant.

Among the many live and deserving men in our city now engaged in the grocery business, none are more so than Messrs. Rich & Gilmore, successors to Wm. H. Small, in the Red Store. This stand, so popular under its old proprietor, is daily gaining popularity, and its proprietors are building up a reputation for fair dealing and choice goods which cannot fail to satisfy all who deal with them.

One Trial Suffices to prove that Dooley's Cream Vest Backing Powder is superior to every respect to any other cream manufactured. It is put up in 1/2, 1/4 and 2 pound cans, which contain that quantity of powder by actual weight, while the majority of Backing Powders offered, fall short from one-eighth to one-half of what is represented. Ask your grocer for Dooley's, and you will not be satisfied with any other.

Removals—The Advertiser office has been removed two doors west of its former room; name entrance on Main street.

Went & Newman's law office has been removed two doors west of its former location; name entrance on Main street.

DeForest Porter's law office has been removed to the corner room, over McPherson & Tuttle's, No. 69 Main street.

The Deacons' office has been removed to Cogswell's new building, First street, between Main and Atlantic.

These Hill & Co. are leaving nothing undone that this community may be supplied with all the comforts of life in the Dry Goods line, for scores of day passes but they are getting the latest novelties from the Eastern market, and their stock is not a replica of the fashionable East. It is pleasant to deal with them, for more accommodating clerks than Capt. Hill or Clay's Shirts are hard to find, unless a crowd of business presses them into the service, than whom there is more pleasant man to deal with ever behind a counter.

J. B. Hoover, of Nemaha City, called last Tuesday. We are pleased to learn from him that Nemaha City is looking up, that several new buildings are going up, and that many persons are repairing and otherwise improving their residences, evincing renewed confidence in a prosperous future for that city as a point. Few men have done more for Nemaha City, by his confidence in keeping always a large stock of general merchandise on hand, and buying at the country produce office, than he has kept it up as a good trading point, which will ultimately make a city of it. He has prospered deservedly, and we hope he may continue to flourish.

F. B. Johnson & Co. Have just received another invoice of Dry Goods and Groceries, comprising in the grocery line the freshest goods in the Eastern market, pure and unadulterated; and in the dry goods line just what is wanted for the season. Wooden goods in abundance and variety seldom seen with in this market; dress goods of absolutely all styles and varieties; and their assortment of boots and shoes cannot be beaten for quality if for quantity, in the west. Their assortment of goods is a sample of every brand, and they are doing a handsome business in selling as low for cash as it is possible to sell, and are deserving of the large and splendid trade they are receiving. If you wish good ware, for a low price, go to F. B. Johnson & Co.

Assortment of all kinds, at Shellenberger's.

Price Den's Stores before purchasing.

Peckert Cutlery at Shellenberger's.

Best Doors in the West at J. B. Bell's.

For a good Saddle, go to Souder's 52 Main street.

Sausage Stuffers—The best made, at Shellenberger's.

Seedless Raisins for the holidays, at McPherson & Tuttle's.

The best Fanning Mills made can be seen and purchased at Tiedel's.

Carpenter's Tools and Blacksmith's Furnishings at Shellenberger Bros.

Organs—Call at J. R. Dye's residence and examine his new stock of Organs. 7-2

CIGARS at wholesale or retail at A. F. Cohn's Cigar Factory, 52 Main street.

Potatoes, Cabbage, Green Apples, Dried Apples, etc., at McPherson & Tuttle's.

Backwheat and Spring Wheat Flour—good and low, at F. E. JOHNSON & CO.

Smoked Hamlets, Coddish, Mackerel, and all the finny tribes usually kept for sale at McPherson & Tuttle's.

23,000 Bushels of Corn Wanted in exchange for Dry Goods and Clothing at A. May & Co's Dry goods regulator.

PAY OFF—All accounts due D. H. Lewis & Co. must be paid up immediately, or they will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection. "A word to the wise" saves costs.

The Old Saying—go farther and fare worse—is played out, for if you go to the foot of Main street, to Den's Saddle Shop, and buy anything in his line, you will be sure to get good ware at low prices. And he keeps most everything. Go and see him.

Leaf Tobacco Wanted—Farmers having on hand any leaf tobacco of their own raising, will find a purchaser therefor at this office. If you have any, bring it in soon. Those desiring to raise it as a crop will find it to their advantage to call on us.

COLHAPP & BRO. J. R. Bell's shed to keep his Lumber dry, is one of the best things in the city. His Lumber is well seasoned at all times, and can be had and used in any weather. Carpenters can now do as good inside work during inclement weather as during the best weather. We are pleased to see that it is resulting in increased patronage.

Blackwheat, Cakes and Passes is a dish for an epidemic, when both ingredients are good. Having tried several different lots of Blackwheat Flour, we find the best at F. E. Johnson & Co's, ground at the Thompson Bros. Mills at the Weddle bridge on the Nemaha. It is undoubtedly well ground and separated, and the genuine article. Try it!

NO. 11 Is the style of every thing that Grant sells. His boots are No. 1, his shoes are No. 1, his clothing is No. 1, his groceries are No. 1, and he is a No. 1 man to deal with, selling you always a No. 1 article, as low as it is possible to buy anywhere in the market. If you want anything in his line call on him No. 1, and you will go no farther. That's so!

Good Style—S. L. Swan, lately emigrated to the State of Matrimony, has a style fitting and peculiar to himself, for, upon being engaged by the Cornet Band last Monday evening, he gave orders at Mack's Delmonde for an oyster supper, which was partaken of by the members of the band, with admirable gusto, and Swan was voted the prince of good fellows, who vote could be made unanimous in this community any day.

Chas. Heilmer, as a Boot and Shoemaker, cannot be excelled. He takes a pride in his business, and has nothing but good ware—either of his own or Eastern make—which he can recommend. We have long been observers of his work, and after years of trial pronounce him as good a workman, and as honest a dealer, as can be found in a week's journey. He is now at No. 15, foot of Main street. Give him a call and foot for winter.

Hansford & McCall have about got their superb stock of Furniture arranged in their new building, opposite the Block, and it is a pleasure to look upon it. They are striving for the wholesale patronage of Southern Nebraska, and from the many wagon loads going west from their house daily, we judge they are receiving a large share of it. They will fill bills as cheap as you can get anywhere, and save you a trip east. And as for the retail trade, they have beyond reproach.

Mrs. Grover & Barker's Gaiters—It is a great pleasure in informing you that the machine which I purchased of you in June, 1877, has given me the greatest satisfaction. During the eleven years it has been in constant use, and it has never required the least repair. I take great pleasure in recommending your sewing machine as the very best for family use; and those of my friends who have induced to purchase the Grover & Barker machine, have all satisfactorily expressed their entire satisfaction.

Mrs. J. G. PHYFE, 108 West 13th street, N. Y.

Hides, Pelts and Furs, wanted at Den's.

A Most Liberal Offer—We will send the Omelette & Vegetable, price $1.50, Corn Schoolyard Vintner, one of the best magazines for boys and girls published in this country, worth $1.25 a year, and a magnificent steel-plate engraving, entitled "Hick Me Up," worth $2.00 per copy, all to anyone who will send us $2. The engraving will be sent post-paid, secure from injury, and will make a charming ornament for any parlor or sitting room. Send in the names, and secure $3.50 worth for only $2.

BENEFIT FESTIVAL. We learn that quite a number of the ladies of this city have determined upon holding a festival for the benefit of the Metropolitan Relief Cornet Band, one of the best bands in the coming holidays. The move is certainly commendable, for this Band has played gratuitously for every body else's benefit for the past two years—loyally for all charitable objects. The other is C. E. Stoddard, of this city, who has about arranged for them should also have a benefit. To say nothing of the time and money spent in learning, they have each from $50 to $100 invested in their instruments, which, in its stands, is an investment of private capital for public benefit. Again, we say, their time for a good benefit has arrived, and from those already awake to the enterprise, and the style of the men, we can predict that it will be a pleasant affair, and conducted in a manner to please and satisfy the most fastidious.

The following letter making inquiry for information, is handed us as a sample of many letters received by our worthy postmaster. We publish in hopes to aid the Dr. in his search: YORKTOWN, DELAWARE CO., IND., November 10, 1889.

Will the postmaster at Brownville be so kind as to turn in if two men have come to that place by the name of C. E. & C. D. Stoddard—very tall, green-looking fellows. One is a doctor, and the other is a carpenter in the M. E. Church when he gets a chance. The other is six foot three inches high, twenty-six years old, false teeth, mouth looks some like a rat, large hand, long fingers, his wife left him because he was lazy, and could not support her, very cowardly. Both are very religious, and are acquaintances of one Rev. Glover, who preaches, trans and preaches. These fellows sometimes teach school, so that they have been long days, and a little girl and had to run off with her, and she was very young, and she can sip away. C. D. Stoddard is his name. The other is C. E. Stoddard. They worked my place in Clinton, Mo. with my wife. They started or worked one of my horses, and the money, taking with them many of my things, as they had the use of all my household from a stove to a gimble, C. E. Stoddard was in a grocery store few weeks, and he was so long he got his pants put for some other place. He has but little money, and he is very poor, and he has a great ear, overloads his stomach and then he is sick.

Any information. With respect, Yours with respect, DR. W. H. HICKS.

McPHERSON & TUTTLE

Have been for the past week receiving large additions to their stock of DRY GOODS AND GROCERIES and have a full stock of everything in Southern Nebraska. Their groceries are

FREE NOTICES from adulterations of any kind, as they purchase none but what they know

TO be good; and their dry goods comprise just what

EVERYBODY needs and must have, to prepare for approaching cold weather. Remember Tears & Co's old stand.

WOOD WANTED. Ten Cords of Good Oak Wood wanted at the postoffice.

CHRISTMAS EVE BALL. We learn that Geo. P. Berkly is making extensive preparations to give a Grand Annual Christmas Eve Ball. He is in his element in this, as he is famed for getting up the most enjoyable Dances ever had in this section. From what we know of his preparations and of him, we predict the biggest dance ever held in Southern Nebraska.

For a No. 1 set of Harness, go to Souder's, 52 Main st.

Whitman & Co., (the company is Charley Butcher,) have opened up a meat market in McFall & Co's old stand, and will keep constantly on hand all kinds of fresh meat, dressed in the best of style; and will pay the highest price for all kinds of dressed geese, chickens, ducks, quails, etc. Give them a call and get your meat neatly dressed.

Who consult your interests, buy your groceries at Swan & Bro's.

McCreery & Nickel are special agents for the school books recommended by the State Dept., for use in the public schools of Nebraska, and are at all times prepared to supply the demand, either by retail or wholesale. This places these books within the reach of all at publisher's prices, which is undoubtedly a great accommodation.

All kinds of canned goods, and dried fruits at Swan & Bro's.

Lost—A gentleman's shawl, between Den, Rogers' stable and Capt. Carson's residence, on last Saturday. Any person returning the same to this office will be liberally rewarded. We are pleased to see that it is resulting in increased patronage.

Potatoes, Cabbage, Onions, Turnips, and beets, etc., at Swan & Bro's.

Payments—F. A. Tiedel is now engaged in building a plank walk from the corner of Cogswell's corner, Parson Davis Dr. Heckburn and others done a good thing in building a plank walk from the corner of Atlantic and 1st streets to the Episcopal Church. We would be glad to notice some pavement improvement on Main street. There is a good opening.

He is the pioneer tailor of Brownville, has roughed it through with us for the past twelve years, and is deserving of the patronage of all the old as well as new settlers. For good stuff and a good fit, go to Marston's.

Sausage Grinders—Best known to the market, at Shellenberger's.

Hetzel has, during the past week, sold over half of his magnificent stock of 600 Overcoats; and we saw several

MEN fitting up there yesterday, who declared they had been nearly

FROZEN under the shoddy they had bought elsewhere. They purchased, and went their way, nearly tickled

TO DEATH at the splendid bargains they had made

AND declared their hopes of a comfortable existence through an inclement winter had been

RESUSCITATED BY J. S. HETZEL.

We notice that Lieut. Polock, our worthy F. E. is maintaining the post office room some twelve feet. This looks like business. Although he has a good sized room now, we doubt if it will accommodate the business one year hence.
