Patrol Wire, in abundance at Shellenberger Bros.

Wanted.—Two girls. Highest wages paid. Apply at Star Hotel.

Shellenberger Bros. showed us some of the most plated table silver ware, it has been our pleasure to see for some time.

The City Council will meet this evening for the purpose of canvassing the vote cast for City officers at the election last Monday.

Marsh's Dollar Store has been the scene of a much luck in the past week, that it would be impossible to tell all, or half. Go and see for yourself.

Geo. S. Dunn, Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue for the District, will be found at Marsh & Hays' Jewelry Shop, where he now has his office. He is an efficient official.

Dunn & Hays have now a large and fine stock of Jeantone's, together with a full stock of clocks, at their shop one door west of the Registrar. They are also agents for the Florence Sewing Machine.

The Presbyterian Sociable will meet next Friday evening at the residence of H. C. Lett. These social reunions are the source of great good in any community, and we are glad to see them revived.

Lead, loaned or mislaid, J. S. Churel's new plat of the City of Brownville. Any one knowing of its whereabouts, or having it, will please return or leave word at this office that will lead to its recovery.

Marsh placed in his drawing last Saturday five pair of Pants Patterns of fine goods, and they were all sold for $1 each. He will make this a feature hereafter, and who will object to wear a fine pair of Pants, if it can be had for $1?

Henry Hart, boss Timmer at Shellenberger's is certainly the best workman in this, or any other, that ever struck this section. We have known several Timmers to admire his ingenuity and work, and must pronounce it No. 1, in all respects.

Judge Morgan is doing a lively business in the matrimonial line, both in leasing, it is the public is correct; for although we had not the pleasure of being "led" for better or worse, by the judge, we know he does it up neatly and in good style. His popularity is generally well deserved.

Alfred W. Morgan Jr. Merchant tailor of this city, has just received a new lot of goods—unusually in this market, and has decided to make it up in the very latest and neatest style. Mr. Morgan is determined to please the people both in the style and price of his goods both in the style and price, if perfect. Give him a call at No. 87, Main street.

Mrs. J. W. Bennett's Class in Music will give an entertainment at the High School Building to-morrow (Friday) evening, from 7 to 9 o'clock. Mrs. Bennett has great musical talent herself, and an aptitude for teaching truly wonderful, and under her management a good, enjoyable entertainment must be the result. Other exercises besides music will be a portion of the programme.

A Swindler.—We have seen several bills, sold by a person representing himself as a co-partner to farmers west of this city, for which he charged $1, which are not so good as those sold in this city; he is representing that the profit—very small, by the way—was to go to some benevolent object. We say this much as a warning to those who have not yet been bit. Don't be!

Hill & Co. have made a splendid improvement in the front of their building in the Block, by placing small sash covers over the windows. It is the finest front in the city, and doubtless a distinguished looking business house, as there is in the State. Their enterprise stops not at having the finest and largest stock of goods in Southern Nebraska. They are determined that all their surroundings must be in unison. Correct.

May, the Dry Goods and Clothing Price Regulator, has now a magnificent stock of Dry Goods and Clothing, unexcelled and unsurpassed, in extent, variety or lowness of price. 1 X L, is his motto, and to that he works with a will. All that can be desired in the way of plain or fancy dress goods, has, and the latest fashions from the Eastern market are constantly coming. He claims that he can dress men up in finery at less cost than any man in Southern Nebraska. Go and see him, if you wish to bargain.

J. C. Deuser, Pioneer Store and Hardware Merchant of this city, has just received and opened a complete stock in his line, consisting of everything that may be desired, from the smallest to the largest article usually kept in a Hardware Store. These goods he bought in Chicago, at such prices that St. Louis runners freely admit they cannot do, as they see special sales at Deuser's store, and bought while good was at its lowest ebb. He has also a large lot of Fence Wire. An inspection of his goods and prices is all he asks to recommend him, as he knows they will do so to advantage.

SHELLENBERGER BROS. Have, during the past week, received at least $10,000 worth of Hardware of every kind, which makes their stock the largest and best ever opened in Southern Nebraska. Their large store room is now full to the ceiling with Hardware, Stoves, and Tinware, and below a room of equal size is filled with Glass, Fence Wire, etc. Their extensive business, and consequently can, and do, do it on small profits. Their great desire is to sell largely, which, at the same time that it advertises them, enables them to sell on a smaller profit. They are ever preparing, energetic, honorable men to deal with, which all will find by calling on them at No. 74 Main street, Brownville.

NEW BELLIARD HALL. As we progress in size and civilization, new and larger places of recreation become highly necessary. Billiards being the most fashionable as well as the most scientific game of amusement, our enterprising young townsman, Wm. H. Yalieu, champion billiardist of Nebraska, to accommodate the public has opened a large and commodious Billiard Hall, on the south side of Main street, No. 12. It is in all respects a first class Billiard Hall, both for size and the number of Tables he keeps. He has two pocket and one carom table of Brunswick's manufacture, with three revolving cue racks, and one of the finest finish—brilliant cue racks never saw. He has also in the same room one of the finest bars, supplied with the choicest liquors in the State. The new Hall was opened last Tuesday evening under the most favorable auspices; a free lunch was given and the room was crowded to overflowing. Mr. Yalieu has evinced fine taste in the fixing up of his Hall and its outfit, generous, and will, no doubt, reap the benefits of his enterprise in an extensive and liberal patronage, as in his line he is the most popular man in the city. The Senate, across the way from it, will be run as usual, being in reality the wholesale portion of the outfit, where will be kept a full stock of pure Liqueurs, Cigars and bar fixtures generally; to which he has no hesitation of inviting the attention of all who need anything in that line. In Southern Nebraska, as he can and does sell pure liquors in wholesale lots cheap than there is no profit in going to St. Joseph or elsewhere. He is enterprising, industrious and energetic to such an extent that his success is whatever he undertakes he foregoes conclusion, and is deserved.

WEEKLY MESSANGE.

Boliver Ware, the swindler who went through the ranks along the Missouri and J. L. Carson's of this city, with the rest, last fall, and who was captured at Lexington and escaped, has been recaptured in Arkansas. The river is in good boating condition. An Insurance Agent, representing himself as Dr. Joseph, went through several of our citizens for small sums last week. The weather, this week has been beautiful and spring-like, inducing many to make garden. Fourteen car loads of goods for this point arrived at Phelps city last Saturday. A race was made last Friday, April 1st, for the run just west of the country; a large crowd went out to see it and were told it was the "human race." Our townsmen are faithfully observing the ordinance for cleaning out the gutters in this city. A ferry boat for the morning of each week, a ferry boat for each point above, passed this city last Saturday morning. A large number of emigrants for the west, crossed at this point during the past week, bringing some fine blooded stock. Timothy McLaughlin has commenced work on his brick building adjoining the postoffice. The foundation for the Bratton Block, corner of Sixth and Main streets, is now on laid. Rainey & Lewis have been fore to erect an additional temporary warehouse, on the levee to accommodate the large amount of grain they have on hand. Tisdell's for a four-horse sign and hoisting apparatus. Jonas Deuser has finished his residence building on Main Street above Seventh. The big cut in Atlantic street is about filled up; thanks to the enterprise of our coming Marshal, David Campbell. We were sorry to see a large Atlanta steamer, the E. E. Deuser, on the river last Friday. Merchants have decided to close up from one to two o'clock to-day to attend the funeral of James Berry. Grant has moved Mack's Delmonico to the foot of Main street, south side. Nothing has moved his warehouse to McLaughlin & Small's Auction and Commission Store.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. See the advertisement of F. A. Tisdell, Jr., & Co., in to-day's paper. This firm has now on hand the most complete stock of Agricultural Implements ever kept under one roof in Southern Nebraska. They have their machines all direct from manufacturers at the factory, buy in large quantities, and have them shipped by the car load and put together here, thus enabling them to sell at the lowest possible prices. They also make it a point to keep machines of known worth and reliability, so that those who buy of them may rely upon what they get being true and tried. Go and see them on First street, between Main and Atlantic.

He is to be well known, however, to need comment from us.

Andrew Tynon, of Peru calls on his friends who were so well, he would be glad to see now and pay what they owe him. "Absolute" is the heading of another card. "PRINCIPLES, NOT MEN."

The annals of history contain few illustrations of unflinching heroism and bravery; in the face of the most dire opposition equal to the subject of this article, and few instances of so complete a triumph over all obstacles as that of our countryman, George Martin. The All his surroundings were such as would lead a weaker mind to yield, would cause one less fixed in one glorious principle to yield to the common enemy. But he has not yielded, and with this belief "he came, he saw, he conquered" the good will of all who have so far felt with him. In a little over one year he has built up a trade which may well be envied, and has brought on season after season stocks of goods unequalled in the State. This season has only opened and yet we see box after box of goods rolled into his store, and watch with pleasure the opening of case after case of the choicest Clothing and Gent's Furnishing goods the eye ever rested upon, from the best looms in the land and made up by Manufacturers whose every aim is to gain the applause of the public for the neatness and durability of their work and its fashionable style. He has Gent's suits of all styles of spring goods, and the most complete assortment of Furnishing Goods to be found within hundreds of miles. His new stock of Boots and Shoes is from establishments who will stake their reputation upon their goods, and for service he sells not at a loss, but at a profit. He has a full stock of Hats and Caps, together with Trunks, Valises, etc., etc. All of these he has just opened and is still opening, and he is still buying for this market, knowing that the day is not far off when he can sell them, to see them in to love them, and to price them to see them. He is a pioneer at heart and can appreciate the impetuosity occasioned by the present hard times, therefore he sells not at a time but at so low a price, that all may buy. This man is medium size, rather heavy set, jovial, good natured and his name is

J. S. HETZEL, At No. 70 McPherson Block, Brownville.

The amount thus far subscribed exceeds $1,000. There are many who have not been applied to, and the amount in the city will probably reach $2,000. Our Catholic friends in the country will be called upon soon, and will no doubt exert in proportion to their ability. The church will be built. Catholics abroad, looking for a location, will take notice and rest assured that the church will be the best possible price. They also make it a point to keep machines of known worth and reliability, so that those who buy of them may rely upon what they get being true and tried. Go and see them on First street, between Main and Atlantic.

W. A. POLOCK, P. M.

JUBILATION! Our city was the scene of considerable jubilation last Tuesday over the first tangible steps in our railroad affairs; that is, the complete organization of the R., Ft. K. & P. R. R. Company by the election of an efficient Board of Directors. The cannon was fired, and people generally felt good and liking enjoying themselves. In the evening, a few charges being left, several dummies of this city under the guidance of some white citizens, fired off about ten rounds in honor of the passage of the Fifteenth Amendment. It was a day long to be remembered.

Through the kindness of S. H. Clayton, Esq., just returned from St. Joseph, Mo., we learn that the city election in that city went Republican by majorities of from 300 to 500. "The negro troops fought nobly." Also that Donald & Saxson's large Warehouse was destroyed by fire yesterday about 10 o'clock.

Nearly an Accident.—Jacob Rogers' team engaged in the transfer of passengers from the R. R. Depot at Phelps, went through the bridge on Water street, and were only extricated after considerable trouble and labor, coming off with "no bones broken." We hope our Street Commissioner will attend to it as it should be.

New Postoffice.—A new postoffice has just been established at H. B. Shuttle's place, on the Study; the name of the office is Bratton, it is supplying a large portion of those who received their mail at Sherman, previous to the removal of that office.

I have for sale my own growing 10,000 Seedling Peach Trees; 2000 English Hop Trees; a few hundred of the finest variety of Rose Roots; Lilacs; Syringas; Houghton; Gooseberries, and a few bearing, five and six year old Grape Vines, which I desire to remove, and will sell.
