THE OLDEST CHRISTIAN HYMN. Shepherd of tender youth, Guiding in love and truth. Through devious ways; Christ, our triumphant King! We come Thy name to sing, And here our children bring, To shout Thy praise, Thou art our holy Lord! The all-subduing Word, Healer of strife! Thou didst thyself abase, That from sin's deep disgrace Thou mightest save our race, And give us life.

Thou art Wisdom's High Priest Thou hast prepared the feast Of holy love! And in our mortal pain None calls on Thee in vain; Help thou dost disdain, Help from above.

Ever be Thou our guide, Our Shepherd and our pride, Our staff and song! Jesus! Thou Christ of God! By the perennial Word, Lead us where thou hast trod, Make our faith strong. So, now, and till we die, Sound we Thy praise on high, And joyfully sing, Infants, and the glad throng, Who to Thy Church belong,

To Christ, our King! In Book III. of Clement of Alexandria, given (in Greek) the most ancient hymn of the Primitive Church. It is there (one hun-dred and fifty years after the Apostles) asserted to be of much earlier origin. The above version will give some imperfect idea of its

LOWER CALIFORNIA.

In a recent number, a brief sketch was given of the geographical position and varied resources of that vast Peninsula on our Western coast, known as Lower California, and which, jutting as it does, down the Pacific for full six hundred miles, vinces of Northern Mexico, which are destined, ere long, to become, like Lower California itself, integral parts of the United States. This Peninsula may now be said to be in its transition state.
