Perhaps it is not generally known that the much talked of tricking spiralls, or pork worm, was fra discovered in America by Dr. R. C. Kendall, of Philaderphia, Pa., with that American instrument known as the Craig Microscope, costing only $2.75, after repeated failures to discover the worm with an imported microscope, costing $55, "of feebler power and less reliable." This fact Dr. Kendall stands ready to prove at any time. The "Craig" Micro cope in neat box with full direction is mailed any where for $2,75, by E. H. Ross, 313 Locust St., St Louis Mn.

Read the advertisement in this paper. 31-3n A Wonderful Microscope. Rev. Daniel Wise, D. D., editor of the New York inday School Advocate, thus speaks of the cele grated Craig Microscope: "Its simplicity, cheapness, and great magnifying ower struck me with surprise. Then I was exam ping a fly's eye by its aid, and was struck with wonder at the skill and power of the Creator which s displayed in its structure. When I saw a statement in an advertisement that the Craig Microscope magnified one hundred diameters, and could be bought for $2.50, I thought it was one of the hum bugs of the hour, for I had paid $20 for a microscop not long before. But now I find it to be really val able instrument which I should like to see intro pairing of Clocks, Watches or Jewelry.
