

THE ADVERTISER.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1871.

Never Satisfied. A man in his carriage was riding along. A lady dressed with a fine air...

AGRICULTURAL.

Nemaha County Agricultural and Mechanical Association. Notice is hereby given that the regular semi-annual meeting...

Special Premiums to be Awarded at Next State Fair.

The following special premiums have been offered by private individuals and will be awarded by the State Board of Agriculture...

By W. W. Abbey, of Richardson county, in cash, on best managed and most productive farm...

By J. J. Gasper, Lincoln, best yield per acre, 10 acres corn, not less than 75 bushels per acre...

By Capt. Jas. L. Carson, Brownville, for best plan or model for a farm barn, one Short Horn Durham calf...

By W. W. Abbey of Richardson county, for best model or plan for a farm residence, one pair Poland China pigs...

By Gasper & Tullis, Lincoln, for best plan or model of a Piggyery, one pair Poland China pigs...

By F. W. Peaman, Nebraska City, best 10 acre orchard five years old, $25.00; Second best, $15.00; best 5 acre orchard, $20.00...

Best collection of Nebraska grown Evergreens not less than 20, nor less than 5 varieties, cash, $30.00.

By Furnas, Sons & Co., Brownville, for the best stand, cheapest plan and best cultivated, not less than 5 acres, and not less than 80 live fence, not less than three years growth...

By F. A. Tisdell Jr. & Co., Brownville, for the best 20 acres fall wheat, with sample of five bushels, A. P. Dicksey's Premium Fanning Mill...

No one permitted to compete for premiums offered by themselves.

R. W. FURNAS, Pres't. D. H. WHEELER, Sec'y.

NOTE. We are authorized by the Board of Directors, to say that the list for special premiums is still open to any and all who desire to offer.

The "Special" Premium list will be printed on extra, colored sheets and inserted in the pamphlet premium list, now in press.

From the Cedar Falls Gazette. Producers of the following address before the adjourned meeting of the Farmers Institute, last week. -Ed.

When negro slavery was abolished we all felt that ours was really the land of the free. But in many respects a worse condition of slavery exists to-day...

Worse, because the slave of the present day has many masters. Worse, because the masters are becoming more numerous, poorer, avaricious and exacting in the tasks to be performed.

And worse, because the slave bears his chains more meekly from day to day, and shows less disposition to throw them off and assert his rights.

Common and skilled laborers, farmers and mechanics are the slaves who now suffer. Our masters are the middle men generally, who stand between the producer and consumer.

As farmers and mechanics, have we not willingly permitted the chains to be forged with which we are now bound? And do we not the leading cause of our wrongs lie at our own doors?

Our fathers were farmers, and they employed 24 or 30 male teachers for their children. When the weather was favorable for work in the fields, they counted the time of their sons lost, if spent in the school room.

They argued that a thorough, liberal education was unnecessary except for boys who intended to become teachers, statesmen, business or professional men.

Very many of us have studied only a few of the best books which are used in our common schools and none of those taught in high schools or academies.

We have labored faithfully with our hands but not with our heads. When the truth is told, we are unable to play the different parts of the great games of the world.

And too many of us are recklessly permitting our sons to grow up as ignorant as their parents. Our best educated men live in the towns and cities.

They appreciate the value of a good education, and having but little work for their boys to do, they compel them to attend school regularly where only first class teachers are employed.

Between the education and general training of town or city and country boys, cause the one to look upon the other as inferior to him in mental culture, in manners, in clothing, in fact beneath him in every respect.

Having been brought up in idleness, the city youth has learned to look upon labor with contempt. He determines that he will be a dry goods merchant as he can buy all the goods which he will want by furnishing good references. A per centum is added to the price of the goods on account of the credit.

The carriage and couple he eyed. And said in his carriage on a log. "I wish I was rich and could ride."

The man in the carriage remarked to his wife. "One thing I would do if I could; I'd give all my wealth for the strength and the health."

The man who is sawing the wood. "A pretty young maid with a bundle of work. Whose face as the morning was fair. Went tripping along with a smile of delight. While humming a love-breathing air."

She looked in the carriage—the lady she saw. Arranged in apparel, "I wish in my heart Those satins and laces were mine."

The lady looked out on the maid with her work. So full in her calico dress. And said, "I'd relinquish position and wealth. Her beauty and youth to possess."

Thus it is in this world. Whatever our lot, Our mind and our time we employ. In longing and sighing for what we have not. Ungrateful for what we enjoy.

AGRICULTURAL. Nemaha County Agricultural and Mechanical Association.

Notice is hereby given that the regular semi-annual meeting of the Nemaha County Agricultural and Mechanical Association, will be held on the first Saturday in March, (4th), at the office of R. W. Furnas, in Brownville, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The election of officers will take place at this time, and much more important business involving the interests of the organization, will be transacted. Let there be a full attendance.

H. O. MINICK, Sec'y.

Special Premiums to be Awarded at Next State Fair.

The following special premiums have been offered by private individuals and will be awarded by the State Board of Agriculture, at the next State Fair, to be held at Brownville, commencing September, 20th, 1871:

By W. W. Abbey, of Richardson county, in cash, on best managed and most productive farm, of not less than 40 acres, $100.00.

J. J. Gasper, Lincoln, best yield per acre, 10 acres corn, not less than 75 bushels per acre, one "Challenge Feed Mill," $50.00.

By Capt. Jas. L. Carson, Brownville, for best plan or model for a farm barn, one Short Horn Durham calf, $50.00.

By W. W. Abbey of Richardson county, for best model or plan for a farm residence, one pair Poland China pigs, $30.00.

By Gasper & Tullis, Lincoln, for best plan or model of a Piggyery, one pair Poland China pigs, $30.00.

By F. W. Peaman, Nebraska City, best 10 acre orchard five years old, $25.00; Second best, $15.00; best 5 acre orchard, $20.00; Second best, $10.00.

Best collection of Nebraska grown Evergreens not less than 20, nor less than 5 varieties, cash, $30.00.

By Furnas, Sons & Co., Brownville, for the best stand, cheapest plan and best cultivated, not less than 5 acres, and not less than 80 live fence, not less than three years growth, on the same farm. Nursery stock to amount of $50.00.

By F. A. Tisdell Jr. & Co., Brownville, for the best 20 acres fall wheat, with sample of five bushels, A. P. Dicksey's Premium Fanning Mill, $100.00.

No one permitted to compete for premiums offered by themselves.

R. W. FURNAS, Pres't. D. H. WHEELER, Sec'y.

NOTE. We are authorized by the Board of Directors, to say that the list for special premiums is still open to any and all who desire to offer.

The "Special" Premium list will be printed on extra, colored sheets and inserted in the pamphlet premium list, now in press.

From the Cedar Falls Gazette. Producers of the following address before the adjourned meeting of the Farmers Institute, last week. -Ed.

When negro slavery was abolished we all felt that ours was really the land of the free. But in many respects a worse condition of slavery exists to-day...

Worse, because the slave of the present day has many masters. Worse, because the masters are becoming more numerous, poorer, avaricious and exacting in the tasks to be performed.

And worse, because the slave bears his chains more meekly from day to day, and shows less disposition to throw them off and assert his rights.

Common and skilled laborers, farmers and mechanics are the slaves who now suffer. Our masters are the middle men generally, who stand between the producer and consumer.

As farmers and mechanics, have we not willingly permitted the chains to be forged with which we are now bound? And do we not the leading cause of our wrongs lie at our own doors?

Our fathers were farmers, and they employed 24 or 30 male teachers for their children. When the weather was favorable for work in the fields, they counted the time of their sons lost, if spent in the school room.

They argued that a thorough, liberal education was unnecessary except for boys who intended to become teachers, statesmen, business or professional men.

Very many of us have studied only a few of the best books which are used in our common schools and none of those taught in high schools or academies.

We have labored faithfully with our hands but not with our heads. When the truth is told, we are unable to play the different parts of the great games of the world.

And too many of us are recklessly permitting our sons to grow up as ignorant as their parents. Our best educated men live in the towns and cities.

They appreciate the value of a good education, and having but little work for their boys to do, they compel them to attend school regularly where only first class teachers are employed.

Between the education and general training of town or city and country boys, cause the one to look upon the other as inferior to him in mental culture, in manners, in clothing, in fact beneath him in every respect.

Having been brought up in idleness, the city youth has learned to look upon labor with contempt. He determines that he will be a dry goods merchant as he can buy all the goods which he will want by furnishing good references. A per centum is added to the price of the goods on account of the credit.

The carriage and couple he eyed. And said in his carriage on a log. "I wish I was rich and could ride."

The man in the carriage remarked to his wife. "One thing I would do if I could; I'd give all my wealth for the strength and the health."

The man who is sawing the wood. "A pretty young maid with a bundle of work. Whose face as the morning was fair. Went tripping along with a smile of delight. While humming a love-breathing air."

She looked in the carriage—the lady she saw. Arranged in apparel, "I wish in my heart Those satins and laces were mine."

The lady looked out on the maid with her work. So full in her calico dress. And said, "I'd relinquish position and wealth. Her beauty and youth to possess."

Thus it is in this world. Whatever our lot, Our mind and our time we employ. In longing and sighing for what we have not. Ungrateful for what we enjoy.

AGRICULTURAL. Nemaha County Agricultural and Mechanical Association.

Notice is hereby given that the regular semi-annual meeting of the Nemaha County Agricultural and Mechanical Association, will be held on the first Saturday in March, (4th), at the office of R. W. Furnas, in Brownville, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The election of officers will take place at this time, and much more important business involving the interests of the organization, will be transacted. Let there be a full attendance.

H. O. MINICK, Sec'y.

Special Premiums to be Awarded at Next State Fair.

The following special premiums have been offered by private individuals and will be awarded by the State Board of Agriculture, at the next State Fair, to be held at Brownville, commencing September, 20th, 1871:

By W. W. Abbey, of Richardson county, in cash, on best managed and most productive farm, of not less than 40 acres, $100.00.

J. J. Gasper, Lincoln, best yield per acre, 10 acres corn, not less than 75 bushels per acre, one "Challenge Feed Mill," $50.00.

By Capt. Jas. L. Carson, Brownville, for best plan or model for a farm barn, one Short Horn Durham calf, $50.00.

By W. W. Abbey of Richardson county, for best model or plan for a farm residence, one pair Poland China pigs, $30.00.

By Gasper & Tullis, Lincoln, for best plan or model of a Piggyery, one pair Poland China pigs, $30.00.

By F. W. Peaman, Nebraska City, best 10 acre orchard five years old, $25.00; Second best, $15.00; best 5 acre orchard, $20.00; Second best, $10.00.

Best collection of Nebraska grown Evergreens not less than 20, nor less than 5 varieties, cash, $30.00.

By Furnas, Sons & Co., Brownville, for the best stand, cheapest plan and best cultivated, not less than 5 acres, and not less than 80 live fence, not less than three years growth, on the same farm. Nursery stock to amount of $50.00.

By F. A. Tisdell Jr. & Co., Brownville, for the best 20 acres fall wheat, with sample of five bushels, A. P. Dicksey's Premium Fanning Mill, $100.00.

No one permitted to compete for premiums offered by themselves.

R. W. FURNAS, Pres't. D. H. WHEELER, Sec'y.

NOTE. We are authorized by the Board of Directors, to say that the list for special premiums is still open to any and all who desire to offer.

The "Special" Premium list will be printed on extra, colored sheets and inserted in the pamphlet premium list, now in press.

From the Cedar Falls Gazette. Producers of the following address before the adjourned meeting of the Farmers Institute, last week. -Ed.

When negro slavery was abolished we all felt that ours was really the land of the free. But in many respects a worse condition of slavery exists to-day...

Worse, because the slave of the present day has many masters. Worse, because the masters are becoming more numerous, poorer, avaricious and exacting in the tasks to be performed.

And worse, because the slave bears his chains more meekly from day to day, and shows less disposition to throw them off and assert his rights.

Common and skilled laborers, farmers and mechanics are the slaves who now suffer. Our masters are the middle men generally, who stand between the producer and consumer.

As farmers and mechanics, have we not willingly permitted the chains to be forged with which we are now bound? And do we not the leading cause of our wrongs lie at our own doors?

Our fathers were farmers, and they employed 24 or 30 male teachers for their children. When the weather was favorable for work in the fields, they counted the time of their sons lost, if spent in the school room.

They argued that a thorough, liberal education was unnecessary except for boys who intended to become teachers, statesmen, business or professional men.

Very many of us have studied only a few of the best books which are used in our common schools and none of those taught in high schools or academies.

We have labored faithfully with our hands but not with our heads. When the truth is told, we are unable to play the different parts of the great games of the world.

And too many of us are recklessly permitting our sons to grow up as ignorant as their parents. Our best educated men live in the towns and cities.

They appreciate the value of a good education, and having but little work for their boys to do, they compel them to attend school regularly where only first class teachers are employed.

Between the education and general training of town or city and country boys, cause the one to look upon the other as inferior to him in mental culture, in manners, in clothing, in fact beneath him in every respect.

Having been brought up in idleness, the city youth has learned to look upon labor with contempt. He determines that he will be a dry goods merchant as he can buy all the goods which he will want by furnishing good references. A per centum is added to the price of the goods on account of the credit.

The carriage and couple he eyed. And said in his carriage on a log. "I wish I was rich and could ride."

The man in the carriage remarked to his wife. "One thing I would do if I could; I'd give all my wealth for the strength and the health."

The man who is sawing the wood. "A pretty young maid with a bundle of work. Whose face as the morning was fair. Went tripping along with a smile of delight. While humming a love-breathing air."

She looked in the carriage—the lady she saw. Arranged in apparel, "I wish in my heart Those satins and laces were mine."

The lady looked out on the maid with her work. So full in her calico dress. And said, "I'd relinquish position and wealth. Her beauty and youth to possess."

Thus it is in this world. Whatever our lot, Our mind and our time we employ. In longing and sighing for what we have not. Ungrateful for what we enjoy.

AGRICULTURAL. Nemaha County Agricultural and Mechanical Association.

Notice is hereby given that the regular semi-annual meeting of the Nemaha County Agricultural and Mechanical Association, will be held on the first Saturday in March, (4th), at the office of R. W. Furnas, in Brownville, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The election of officers will take place at this time, and much more important business involving the interests of the organization, will be transacted. Let there be a full attendance.

H. O. MINICK, Sec'y.

Special Premiums to be Awarded at Next State Fair.

The following special premiums have been offered by private individuals and will be awarded by the State Board of Agriculture, at the next State Fair, to be held at Brownville, commencing September, 20th, 1871:

By W. W. Abbey, of Richardson county, in cash, on best managed and most productive farm, of not less than 40 acres, $100.00.

J. J. Gasper, Lincoln, best yield per acre, 10 acres corn, not less than 75 bushels per acre, one "Challenge Feed Mill," $50.00.

By Capt. Jas. L. Carson, Brownville, for best plan or model for a farm barn, one Short Horn Durham calf, $50.00.

By W. W. Abbey of Richardson county, for best model or plan for a farm residence, one pair Poland China pigs, $30.00.

By Gasper & Tullis, Lincoln, for best plan or model of a Piggyery, one pair Poland China pigs, $30.00.

By F. W. Peaman, Nebraska City, best 10 acre orchard five years old, $25.00; Second best, $15.00; best 5 acre orchard, $20.00; Second best, $10.00.

Best collection of Nebraska grown Evergreens not less than 20, nor less than 5 varieties, cash, $30.00.

By Furnas, Sons & Co., Brownville, for the best stand, cheapest plan and best cultivated, not less than 5 acres, and not less than 80 live fence, not less than three years growth, on the same farm. Nursery stock to amount of $50.00.

By F. A. Tisdell Jr. & Co., Brownville, for the best 20 acres fall wheat, with sample of five bushels, A. P. Dicksey's Premium Fanning Mill, $100.00.

No one permitted to compete for premiums offered by themselves.

R. W. FURNAS, Pres't. D. H. WHEELER, Sec'y.

NOTE. We are authorized by the Board of Directors, to say that the list for special premiums is still open to any and all who desire to offer.

The "Special" Premium list will be printed on extra, colored sheets and inserted in the pamphlet premium list, now in press.

From the Cedar Falls Gazette. Producers of the following address before the adjourned meeting of the Farmers Institute, last week. -Ed.

When negro slavery was abolished we all felt that ours was really the land of the free. But in many respects a worse condition of slavery exists to-day...

Worse, because the slave of the present day has many masters. Worse, because the masters are becoming more numerous, poorer, avaricious and exacting in the tasks to be performed.

And worse, because the slave bears his chains more meekly from day to day, and shows less disposition to throw them off and assert his rights.

Common and skilled laborers, farmers and mechanics are the slaves who now suffer. Our masters are the middle men generally, who stand between the producer and consumer.

As farmers and mechanics, have we not willingly permitted the chains to be forged with which we are now bound? And do we not the leading cause of our wrongs lie at our own doors?

Our fathers were farmers, and they employed 24 or 30 male teachers for their children. When the weather was favorable for work in the fields, they counted the time of their sons lost, if spent in the school room.

They argued that a thorough, liberal education was unnecessary except for boys who intended to become teachers, statesmen, business or professional men.

Very many of us have studied only a few of the best books which are used in our common schools and none of those taught in high schools or academies.

We have labored faithfully with our hands but not with our heads. When the truth is told, we are unable to play the different parts of the great games of the world.

And too many of us are recklessly permitting our sons to grow up as ignorant as their parents. Our best educated men live in the towns and cities.

They appreciate the value of a good education, and having but little work for their boys to do, they compel them to attend school regularly where only first class teachers are employed.

Between the education and general training of town or city and country boys, cause the one to look upon the other as inferior to him in mental culture, in manners, in clothing, in fact beneath him in every respect.

Having been brought up in idleness, the city youth has learned to look upon labor with contempt. He determines that he will be a dry goods merchant as he can buy all the goods which he will want by furnishing good references. A per centum is added to the price of the goods on account of the credit.

The carriage and couple he eyed. And said in his carriage on a log. "I wish I was rich and could ride."

The man in the carriage remarked to his wife. "One thing I would do if I could; I'd give all my wealth for the strength and the health."

The man who is sawing the wood. "A pretty young maid with a bundle of work. Whose face as the morning was fair. Went tripping along with a smile of delight. While humming a love-breathing air."

She looked in the carriage—the lady she saw. Arranged in apparel, "I wish in my heart Those satins and laces were mine."

The lady looked out on the maid with her work. So full in her calico dress. And said, "I'd relinquish position and wealth. Her beauty and youth to possess."

Thus it is in this world. Whatever our lot, Our mind and our time we employ. In longing and sighing for what we have not. Ungrateful for what we enjoy.

AGRICULTURAL. Nemaha County Agricultural and Mechanical Association.

Notice is hereby given that the regular semi-annual meeting of the Nemaha County Agricultural and Mechanical Association, will be held on the first Saturday in March, (4th), at the office of R. W. Furnas, in Brownville, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The election of officers will take place at this time, and much more important business involving the interests of the organization, will be transacted. Let there be a full attendance.

H. O. MINICK, Sec'y.

Special Premiums to be Awarded at Next State Fair.

The following special premiums have been offered by private individuals and will be awarded by the State Board of Agriculture, at the next State Fair, to be held at Brownville, commencing September, 20th, 1871:

By W. W. Abbey, of Richardson county, in cash, on best managed and most productive farm, of not less than 40 acres, $100.00.

J. J. Gasper, Lincoln, best yield per acre, 10 acres corn, not less than 75 bushels per acre, one "Challenge Feed Mill," $50.00.

By Capt. Jas. L. Carson, Brownville, for best plan or model for a farm barn, one Short Horn Durham calf, $50.00.

By W. W. Abbey of Richardson county, for best model or plan for a farm residence, one pair Poland China pigs, $30.00.

By Gasper & Tullis, Lincoln, for best plan or model of a Piggyery, one pair Poland China pigs, $30.00.

By F. W. Peaman, Nebraska City, best 10 acre orchard five years old, $25.00; Second best, $15.00; best 5 acre orchard, $20.00; Second best, $10.00.

Best collection of Nebraska grown Evergreens not less than 20, nor less than 5 varieties, cash, $30.00.

By Furnas, Sons & Co., Brownville, for the best stand, cheapest plan and best cultivated, not less than 5 acres, and not less than 80 live fence, not less than three years growth, on the same farm. Nursery stock to amount of $50.00.

By F. A. Tisdell Jr. & Co., Brownville, for the best 20 acres fall wheat, with sample of five bushels, A. P. Dicksey's Premium Fanning Mill, $100.00.

No one permitted to compete for premiums offered by themselves.

R. W. FURNAS, Pres't. D. H. WHEELER, Sec'y.

NOTE. We are authorized by the Board of Directors, to say that the list for special premiums is still open to any and all who desire to offer.

The "Special" Premium list will be printed on extra, colored sheets and inserted in the pamphlet premium list, now in press.

From the Cedar Falls Gazette. Producers of the following address before the adjourned meeting of the Farmers Institute, last week. -Ed.

When negro slavery was abolished we all felt that ours was really the land of the free. But in many respects a worse condition of slavery exists to-day...

Worse, because the slave of the present day has many masters. Worse, because the masters are becoming more numerous, poorer, avaricious and exacting in the tasks to be performed.

And worse, because the slave bears his chains more meekly from day to day, and shows less disposition to throw them off and assert his rights.

Common and skilled laborers, farmers and mechanics are the slaves who now suffer. Our masters are the middle men generally, who stand between the producer and consumer.

As farmers and mechanics, have we not willingly permitted the chains to be forged with which we are now bound? And do we not the leading cause of our wrongs lie at our own doors?