

THE ADVERTISER.

THURSDAY, APRIL 20, 1871.

Publishers' Notices. Extra copies of the Advertiser for sale by G. H. Decker, Bookkeeper, Stationer and News Dealer, No. 5 Main street, next door to the Postoffice.

Local Notices. An ordinary reading matter, will be charged ten cents per line, each insertion, less a discount of twenty-five per cent. additional above rates.

Advertisements under the head of "Wanted," "For Rent," "For Sale," "Lost," "Found," &c., will be charged twenty-five cents for each advertisement of five lines, each insertion. Advertisements over five lines, at the rate of five cents per line, each insertion.

CITY AND COUNTY. New Advertisements.

Hope, of all sizes, at Swan & Bro's. All sizes of hogs for sale at Star Hotel.

Keystone Corn Planters for sale by the first premium at Nebraska State Fair. For sale by new hardware firm.

Little Boy's Hat. A large variety and styles on hand and for sale at Mrs. E. Johnson's millinery store.

Farmers, emigrants and citizens, do your trading at Don's. He can fill your orders in any kind of merchandise you may call for.

A Sabbath School has been organized on the bottom near Thos. Healy's. The Rev. Mr. Jones, of Sonora Island, is the superintendent.

B. F. Sonder keeps constantly on hand a good assortment of harness, saddles, collars, &c., which he will sell very cheap for cash. Give him a call.

Chairs.—The Wibley Furniture House, in this city, has in receipt of several car loads of chairs, call and see them. He sells cheap for cash and keeps all styles.

Col. Furnas finds his injured arm longer in healing than at first anticipated. It has now been nearly two weeks in a sling and is quite painful at times.

Wall Paper and Window Shades of styles and variety to suit, for sale at McCreech & Nickell's. They are determined to sell lower than any other house in town and they will do it.

Patronize Home Industry.—All kinds of Marble work can be had at Neidhardt's Marble Works in this city, cheaper than it can be had elsewhere. None but the best materials used.

Testimony.—Thousands of mothers are constantly speaking in exalted terms of commendation of the magical effects of Mrs. Wibley's Syrup for soothing infants' teething.

A constant effort to please and satisfy his guests is the only phrase that will apply to the management of Geo. Daugherty of the Restaurant next door to Carson's Hotel; and his success is truly wonderful. Try them!

Canton Clipper Plowers.—They have been tried by the farmers of Adams county and need no commendation at our hands. It is only necessary to say that W. D. Shellenberger keeps them for sale.

Lecture.—Grand Worthy Chief Templar Blackburn delivered a lecture at Hillsdale on last Saturday evening, under the auspices of the Good Templars of that enterprising town. It was a very interesting paper.

We were in Aspinwall last Saturday. The town streets are just getting under way, and the cutting out of streets gives to that town an air of bustle. Long lines of good hard wood line the streets in every direction.

Loss of Time.—Housekeepers should not experiment with untried stoves, if they would save time and money. The Charter Oak has been tested by time, and is guaranteed or your money refunded. This is a truth easily proved. Ask your neighbor.

New Arrivals of Dry Goods.—John McCrech has just received and placed on the shelves a large variety of prints, muslins, shirtings, gossams, notions, dress goods and fresh groceries. Mr. Rainey, one of our most experienced salesmen, is head of the department. The goods have been brought by Mr. Rainey, and he is determined that no house in Brownville shall undersell him, so look out for a lively trade.

M. K. Rice keeps in his new furniture rooms, in Theo. Hill & Co's brick block, bedsteads made of the calico ash—the real wood, no painted imitation, which he offers for sale at a low price. He is now engaged in putting together and carrying a large variety of furniture made of the best material. He expects, this week, a boat load of material from St. Louis. When it arrives his house will be under full headway.

Facts Worth Knowing.—During a recent trial or comparison of ordinary baking powder in New York, with Dooley's Yeast Powder, it was shown conclusively that the latter was obtained with from one-half to two-thirds the quantity of the latter, than with any other in market. The secret of the success lies in the care with which Dooley's Yeast Powder is prepared, and in the freedom from substances that are injurious to the system. We challenge comparison at any and all times. The verdict of the consumer is always in our favor. For sale by all grocers.

New Grocery Firm.—Mr. P. H. Frank M. Vancil, late of the Brownville Democrat, has formed a partnership with Geo. W. Vancil, and will carry on the grocery business as successors to Rich & Gilmore. Mr. Gilmore is well settled up in the business, having been engaged in that line of trade for some years. Mr. Vancil is a wide-awake and enterprising young man, who takes to business easily. The new firm mean business. They know the times equal for live men and they have got them. They have the good will of all, so let them sail in larger a fair breeze.

J. A. Bizer has just received, direct from Eastern manufacturers, an immense quantity of all kinds of household furniture, including beds, for style, lumber and finish, are superior to any others in this market. His bureaus for parlors and Misses bed rooms, with mirrors attached, are better and cheaper than any other in the kind. He has also a large stock of window shades, frames, etc., which they are selling at the lowest possible figures for which the same can be got out of the log and shipped to this point. They are determined to continue as pretore to supply the bulk of lumber, etc., used in this Land District. Call and see them! 4616w

Blacksmiths, Wagon and Carriage makers will be pleased to learn that there is a depot for their supplies near home, where they can get everything they need and at prices competing favorably with Chicago and St. Louis markets. Messrs. Mansfield, Ellingwood & Co., of St. Joseph, Mo., keep a large and varied stock of Iron, Steel, Wood, Work, Carriage Makers' Hardware, and all other articles used in the manufacture of Wagons, Plows and Carriages. Call on them and see their prices, and we feel confident they will be well pleased. 16-y

Rooms to Rent.—Enquire of J. C. Deuser.

Whitely sells that backed Chairs, for $4.50 a set.

Cheap plug tobacco, for smoking, at Swan & Bro's.

Photographs twice as natural as life at Bennett's gallery.

General Railroad and Foreign Ticket Office at Star Hotel.

Watch Repairing neatly and promptly done by Dunn & Hays.

For Choice Jewelry, warranted pure stuff, go to Dunn & Hays.

Hardware, of all kinds, at reduced prices by the new hardware firm.

Seeds.—Osage, Garden and Field seeds of all kinds, at McCreech & Nickell's. 18-3m.

Chromos.—E. S. Wibley has something nice in the way of Chromos. Call and see them.

The Original Golden Crown Cigar is manufactured by A. F. Cohn. It is the favorite everywhere.

Business men should examine Amberg's Letter File and Binder, just received at McCreech & Nickell's.

McCreech & Nickell offer for sale, their Nevada Horse, which they know to be the best horse in the world. 15-3m.

Keystone Corn Planters took the first premium at Nebraska State Fair. For sale by new hardware firm.

Little Boy's Hat.—A large variety and styles on hand and for sale at Mrs. E. Johnson's millinery store.

Farmers, emigrants and citizens, do your trading at Don's. He can fill your orders in any kind of merchandise you may call for.

A Sabbath School has been organized on the bottom near Thos. Healy's. The Rev. Mr. Jones, of Sonora Island, is the superintendent.

B. F. Sonder keeps constantly on hand a good assortment of harness, saddles, collars, &c., which he will sell very cheap for cash. Give him a call.

Chairs.—The Wibley Furniture House, in this city, has in receipt of several car loads of chairs, call and see them. He sells cheap for cash and keeps all styles.

Col. Furnas finds his injured arm longer in healing than at first anticipated. It has now been nearly two weeks in a sling and is quite painful at times.

Wall Paper and Window Shades of styles and variety to suit, for sale at McCreech & Nickell's. They are determined to sell lower than any other house in town and they will do it.

Patronize Home Industry.—All kinds of Marble work can be had at Neidhardt's Marble Works in this city, cheaper than it can be had elsewhere. None but the best materials used.

Testimony.—Thousands of mothers are constantly speaking in exalted terms of commendation of the magical effects of Mrs. Wibley's Syrup for soothing infants' teething.

A constant effort to please and satisfy his guests is the only phrase that will apply to the management of Geo. Daugherty of the Restaurant next door to Carson's Hotel; and his success is truly wonderful. Try them!

Canton Clipper Plowers.—They have been tried by the farmers of Adams county and need no commendation at our hands. It is only necessary to say that W. D. Shellenberger keeps them for sale.

Lecture.—Grand Worthy Chief Templar Blackburn delivered a lecture at Hillsdale on last Saturday evening, under the auspices of the Good Templars of that enterprising town. It was a very interesting paper.

We were in Aspinwall last Saturday. The town streets are just getting under way, and the cutting out of streets gives to that town an air of bustle. Long lines of good hard wood line the streets in every direction.

Loss of Time.—Housekeepers should not experiment with untried stoves, if they would save time and money. The Charter Oak has been tested by time, and is guaranteed or your money refunded. This is a truth easily proved. Ask your neighbor.

New Arrivals of Dry Goods.—John McCrech has just received and placed on the shelves a large variety of prints, muslins, shirtings, gossams, notions, dress goods and fresh groceries. Mr. Rainey, one of our most experienced salesmen, is head of the department. The goods have been brought by Mr. Rainey, and he is determined that no house in Brownville shall undersell him, so look out for a lively trade.

M. K. Rice keeps in his new furniture rooms, in Theo. Hill & Co's brick block, bedsteads made of the calico ash—the real wood, no painted imitation, which he offers for sale at a low price. He is now engaged in putting together and carrying a large variety of furniture made of the best material. He expects, this week, a boat load of material from St. Louis. When it arrives his house will be under full headway.

Facts Worth Knowing.—During a recent trial or comparison of ordinary baking powder in New York, with Dooley's Yeast Powder, it was shown conclusively that the latter was obtained with from one-half to two-thirds the quantity of the latter, than with any other in market. The secret of the success lies in the care with which Dooley's Yeast Powder is prepared, and in the freedom from substances that are injurious to the system. We challenge comparison at any and all times. The verdict of the consumer is always in our favor. For sale by all grocers.

New Grocery Firm.—Mr. P. H. Frank M. Vancil, late of the Brownville Democrat, has formed a partnership with Geo. W. Vancil, and will carry on the grocery business as successors to Rich & Gilmore. Mr. Gilmore is well settled up in the business, having been engaged in that line of trade for some years. Mr. Vancil is a wide-awake and enterprising young man, who takes to business easily. The new firm mean business. They know the times equal for live men and they have got them. They have the good will of all, so let them sail in larger a fair breeze.

J. A. Bizer has just received, direct from Eastern manufacturers, an immense quantity of all kinds of household furniture, including beds, for style, lumber and finish, are superior to any others in this market. His bureaus for parlors and Misses bed rooms, with mirrors attached, are better and cheaper than any other in the kind. He has also a large stock of window shades, frames, etc., which they are selling at the lowest possible figures for which the same can be got out of the log and shipped to this point. They are determined to continue as pretore to supply the bulk of lumber, etc., used in this Land District. Call and see them! 4616w

Blacksmiths, Wagon and Carriage makers will be pleased to learn that there is a depot for their supplies near home, where they can get everything they need and at prices competing favorably with Chicago and St. Louis markets. Messrs. Mansfield, Ellingwood & Co., of St. Joseph, Mo., keep a large and varied stock of Iron, Steel, Wood, Work, Carriage Makers' Hardware, and all other articles used in the manufacture of Wagons, Plows and Carriages. Call on them and see their prices, and we feel confident they will be well pleased. 16-y

A set of Curtains just received at Moore's Book Store.

Bohn and Newton wagons for sale by the new hardware firm.

The cheapest syrups in the market can be found at Swan & Bro's.

Largest Store in America on exhibition by the new hardware firm.

Wm. H. Hoover, Real Estate Agent and Copywriter: Court Room.

Agricultural implements of all kinds for sale by the new hardware firm.

The Celebrated St. Joseph Hand Corn Planter, at Mansfield, Ellingwood & Co. Send for sample.

E. S. Wibley sells the best article of Wall Paper in town. His variety is large and his prices moderate.

J. R. Bell is receiving a large stock of all kinds of Pine Lumber which he is selling in large quantities cheap.

Remarks by F. A. Tisdell & Co.—Corn Planters, Cultivators, Pocket Knives, and Seed Drills just received.

$3.50 for Cottage bedsteads at Wibley's, oh, who wouldn't get married now sleeping as cozy as this.

See advertisement of Dr. Butts' Dispensary, headed Book for the Million—Marriage Guide—in another column. It should be read by all.

Remember Daugherty's Restaurant in the time of the hunger, for there is the place to get a "Pease" meal," served up to the "Moore's taste."

Moore has just received a new lot of goods. Blank books, inkstands, pocket knives, pencils, and a great variety of articles too numerous to mention.

Blacksmith's Iron, of all kinds, constantly on hand, at Shellenberger's. This is a great advantage to Blacksmiths, and one which they ought to patronize.

Livery Stables.—Ben. Rogers can be found either at old stand on Main street, or in Cogswell Block on first street, where he will supply customers with livery to order.

Pictures.—W. W. Mount is in town again with his "Eagle." Those in want of pictures will do well to call soon, for his superiority as an artist is admitted by all. He will remain but a short time.

Investigation.—We noticed several men and women, after a partial examination, buying large quantities of groceries at Rich & Gilmore's. They sell good goods so low that many speculate that they buy close to cost.

John P. Manny's combined self-raise "Pease" meal, is the machine which is attracting the attention of our stock and grain raisers this spring. W. D. Shellenberger has them for sale.

New Goods for Spring.—A full line of seasonal and staple Dry Goods, also a full line of Spring Clothing just received, and to be sold cheap for cash or produce at Geo. Daugherty, No. 112 Main Street.

Day Boarders Wanted at the Star Hotel.—$1.50 per week. The Table is the best in the city, and the most courteous attention always given to guests. Would be pleased to have you stop with me.

A Teacher's Institute will be held in the Illinois settlement next Saturday and Sunday evening. The Advertiser reporter will be present armed with note book and pencil. Will receive one inform our contemporaries of this fact.

Geo. Crow, Nelson Gilland, Smith Thompson, Milo Gates and others have just returned from a reconnaissance of the Solomon and Republican. They find much good country, and some they did not like, especially on the Solomon.

Ignorance is blind, and obstinacy is deaf. Poverty, misery and hopeless dependence are the children, inheriting the calamities of both parents. A better inheritance is from philosophy and prudence—Life Insurance in the Westinghouse.

Loss of Time.—Housekeepers should not experiment with untried stoves, if they would save time and money. The Charter Oak has been tested by time, and is guaranteed or your money refunded. This is a truth easily proved. Ask your neighbor.

New Arrivals of Dry Goods.—John McCrech has just received and placed on the shelves a large variety of prints, muslins, shirtings, gossams, notions, dress goods and fresh groceries. Mr. Rainey, one of our most experienced salesmen, is head of the department. The goods have been brought by Mr. Rainey, and he is determined that no house in Brownville shall undersell him, so look out for a lively trade.

M. K. Rice keeps in his new furniture rooms, in Theo. Hill & Co's brick block, bedsteads made of the calico ash—the real wood, no painted imitation, which he offers for sale at a low price. He is now engaged in putting together and carrying a large variety of furniture made of the best material. He expects, this week, a boat load of material from St. Louis. When it arrives his house will be under full headway.

Facts Worth Knowing.—During a recent trial or comparison of ordinary baking powder in New York, with Dooley's Yeast Powder, it was shown conclusively that the latter was obtained with from one-half to two-thirds the quantity of the latter, than with any other in market. The secret of the success lies in the care with which Dooley's Yeast Powder is prepared, and in the freedom from substances that are injurious to the system. We challenge comparison at any and all times. The verdict of the consumer is always in our favor. For sale by all grocers.

New Grocery Firm.—Mr. P. H. Frank M. Vancil, late of the Brownville Democrat, has formed a partnership with Geo. W. Vancil, and will carry on the grocery business as successors to Rich & Gilmore. Mr. Gilmore is well settled up in the business, having been engaged in that line of trade for some years. Mr. Vancil is a wide-awake and enterprising young man, who takes to business easily. The new firm mean business. They know the times equal for live men and they have got them. They have the good will of all, so let them sail in larger a fair breeze.

J. A. Bizer has just received, direct from Eastern manufacturers, an immense quantity of all kinds of household furniture, including beds, for style, lumber and finish, are superior to any others in this market. His bureaus for parlors and Misses bed rooms, with mirrors attached, are better and cheaper than any other in the kind. He has also a large stock of window shades, frames, etc., which they are selling at the lowest possible figures for which the same can be got out of the log and shipped to this point. They are determined to continue as pretore to supply the bulk of lumber, etc., used in this Land District. Call and see them! 4616w

Blacksmiths, Wagon and Carriage makers will be pleased to learn that there is a depot for their supplies near home, where they can get everything they need and at prices competing favorably with Chicago and St. Louis markets. Messrs. Mansfield, Ellingwood & Co., of St. Joseph, Mo., keep a large and varied stock of Iron, Steel, Wood, Work, Carriage Makers' Hardware, and all other articles used in the manufacture of Wagons, Plows and Carriages. Call on them and see their prices, and we feel confident they will be well pleased. 16-y

Schuttler and Jackson wagons at Den's.

Nice business suits at Jacob Marohn's for $5 and upwards.

Plows and Harrow teeth at cost, by the new hardware firm.

If you want a good picture go by all means to Bennett's gallery for it.

Farming Implements at reduced prices by the new hardware firm.

The largest store in America on exhibition by the new hardware firm.

Board by the day or week, at Daugherty's Restaurant, one door west of the Bank.

Norman Red, stable horse is the name of that big draft horse, owned by R. S. Hannaford.

Pine Lumber at cotton wood prices can be had at J. R. Bell's lumber yard in Brownville.

Unclassified Accounts.—Those which are due A. May & Co., are in the hands of J. Morgan for sale or settlement.

The New Hardware Firm are agents for Drain and Sewer Cement Pipes, and Cement Plugs and Chimneys.

Fishing.—W. T. Den is repairing and adding to his fishing net. Every one who knows Den is aware that that means business.

Settlement Wanted.—Those indebted to J. C. Deuser or to Deuser & Shurts will call immediately at the State Bank and settle the same.

J. S. Hetzel is now in New York City looking after his Spring and Summer purchases. Look out for a fine stock soon as he returns.

Journal Painters Wanted.—Messrs Berkley & Bryant will give constant employment to the first class painters. None other need apply.

Economy.—Save your doctor's bill and a second doctor's visit by taking a few doses of Dr. Henry's Root and Plant Pills. See advertisement.

The Latest Agency.—That is what they call it here. It is a new kind of business, and one which they ought to patronize.

Keystone Corn Planter took the first premium at State Fair. Its advantages being double, open door, light and dark marker. Sold by the new hardware firm.

Hon. John Gillespie the State Auditor, was in town this week and dropped in on us for a special call. He notes much improvement in our city since his last visit, especially in the town of Brown.

A. C. Edmunds is now engaged in this city editing a book to be entitled "The State of Nebraska," and to contain besides a brief statement of the resources of the State, a biography of its business men.

A German Lutheran Minister preached quite an interesting sermon at the Baptist church on last Thursday evening. Deacon Knepler, of this city, passed the hat and took the lead in the singing and other service.

Day Boarders Wanted at the Star Hotel.—$1.50 per week. The Table is the best in the city, and the most courteous attention always given to guests. Would be pleased to have you stop with me.

A Teacher's Institute will be held in the Illinois settlement next Saturday and Sunday evening. The Advertiser reporter will be present armed with note book and pencil. Will receive one inform our contemporaries of this fact.

Geo. Crow, Nelson Gilland, Smith Thompson, Milo Gates and others have just returned from a reconnaissance of the Solomon and Republican. They find much good country, and some they did not like, especially on the Solomon.

Ignorance is blind, and obstinacy is deaf. Poverty, misery and hopeless dependence are the children, inheriting the calamities of both parents. A better inheritance is from philosophy and prudence—Life Insurance in the Westinghouse.

Loss of Time.—Housekeepers should not experiment with untried stoves, if they would save time and money. The Charter Oak has been tested by time, and is guaranteed or your money refunded. This is a truth easily proved. Ask your neighbor.

New Arrivals of Dry Goods.—John McCrech has just received and placed on the shelves a large variety of prints, muslins, shirtings, gossams, notions, dress goods and fresh groceries. Mr. Rainey, one of our most experienced salesmen, is head of the department. The goods have been brought by Mr. Rainey, and he is determined that no house in Brownville shall undersell him, so look out for a lively trade.

M. K. Rice keeps in his new furniture rooms, in Theo. Hill & Co's brick block, bedsteads made of the calico ash—the real wood, no painted imitation, which he offers for sale at a low price. He is now engaged in putting together and carrying a large variety of furniture made of the best material. He expects, this week, a boat load of material from St. Louis. When it arrives his house will be under full headway.

Facts Worth Knowing.—During a recent trial or comparison of ordinary baking powder in New York, with Dooley's Yeast Powder, it was shown conclusively that the latter was obtained with from one-half to two-thirds the quantity of the latter, than with any other in market. The secret of the success lies in the care with which Dooley's Yeast Powder is prepared, and in the freedom from substances that are injurious to the system. We challenge comparison at any and all times. The verdict of the consumer is always in our favor. For sale by all grocers.

New Grocery Firm.—Mr. P. H. Frank M. Vancil, late of the Brownville Democrat, has formed a partnership with Geo. W. Vancil, and will carry on the grocery business as successors to Rich & Gilmore. Mr. Gilmore is well settled up in the business, having been engaged in that line of trade for some years. Mr. Vancil is a wide-awake and enterprising young man, who takes to business easily. The new firm mean business. They know the times equal for live men and they have got them. They have the good will of all, so let them sail in larger a fair breeze.

J. A. Bizer has just received, direct from Eastern manufacturers, an immense quantity of all kinds of household furniture, including beds, for style, lumber and finish, are superior to any others in this market. His bureaus for parlors and Misses bed rooms, with mirrors attached, are better and cheaper than any other in the kind. He has also a large stock of window shades, frames, etc., which they are selling at the lowest possible figures for which the same can be got out of the log and shipped to this point. They are determined to continue as pretore to supply the bulk of lumber, etc., used in this Land District. Call and see them! 4616w

Blacksmiths, Wagon and Carriage makers will be pleased to learn that there is a depot for their supplies near home, where they can get everything they need and at prices competing favorably with Chicago and St. Louis markets. Messrs. Mansfield, Ellingwood & Co., of St. Joseph, Mo., keep a large and varied stock of Iron, Steel, Wood, Work, Carriage Makers' Hardware, and all other articles used in the manufacture of Wagons, Plows and Carriages. Call on them and see their prices, and we feel confident they will be well pleased. 16-y

Reduced Prices by the new hardware firm.

All kinds of dried and can fruits at Swan & Bro.

New stock of Wall Paper at Moore's Book Store.

Burr Oak Sawn posts for fencing, are for sale by J. R. Bell.

Plows and Harrow teeth at cost, by the new hardware firm.

Salt Lake Peaches.—A fresh lot just received at Swan & Bro's.

Climax and Wood Reapers for sale by the new hardware firm.

Milk Crock and Jar, of the celebrated Akron made at Swan & Bro's.

Bain, Newton, Harrison and Dutton wagons for sale by the new hardware firm.

Julian Churns and Doby's Washing Machines for sale by the new hardware firm.

Hollie Cultivator took prize at the State cultivator trial over all others. For sale by the new hardware firm.

Concentrated Lye in Porcelain cans, a decided improvement over lard and fat in all boxes, for sale at Swan & Bro.

Wall Paper.—The largest and the best variety to be found in Brownville is now for sale at H. C. Lett's Drug Store on Main street.

Beautiful Styles Just Opened.—Tapestry, English and body Brussels carpets, in great variety, at short notice, at eastern prices by Theo. Hill & Co.

The Hon. P. W. Hitchcock will accept of one hundred acres of land in the State of Pennsylvania, on the bill for the protection of life and property at the South.

Window and door frames of all styles and prices constantly on hand and for sale at the lumber yard of J. R. Bell, on the corner of college and first Street Brownville.

The Spring Fashions.—All W. Morgan has now on hand a full line of cloths and cutters, which Dolan will cut and work into the latest spring styles of coats, pants and vests for the fashionable gentry of Brownville.

Parlin's Iron Beam Cultivators are for sale by W. D. Shellenberger. Farmers are requested to give them a thorough examination. They will stand the test of actual field trial and are superior to other like machines now in use.

Day Boarders Wanted at the Star Hotel.—$1.50 per week. The Table is the best in the city, and the most courteous attention always given to guests. Would be pleased to have you stop with me.

A Teacher's Institute will be held in the Illinois settlement next Saturday and Sunday evening. The Advertiser reporter will be present armed with note book and pencil. Will receive one inform our contemporaries of this fact.

Geo. Crow, Nelson Gilland, Smith Thompson, Milo Gates and others have just returned from a reconnaissance of the Solomon and Republican. They find much good country, and some they did not like, especially on the Solomon.

Ignorance is blind, and obstinacy is deaf. Poverty, misery and hopeless dependence are the children, inheriting the calamities of both parents. A better inheritance is from philosophy and prudence—Life Insurance in the Westinghouse.

Loss of Time.—Housekeepers should not experiment with untried stoves, if they would save time and money. The Charter Oak has been tested by time, and is guaranteed or your money refunded. This is a truth easily proved. Ask your neighbor.

New Arrivals of Dry Goods.—John McCrech has just received and placed on the shelves a large variety of prints, muslins, shirtings, gossams, notions, dress goods and fresh groceries. Mr. Rainey, one of our most experienced salesmen, is head of the department. The goods have been brought by Mr. Rainey, and he is determined that no house in Brownville shall undersell him, so look out for a lively trade.

M. K. Rice keeps in his new furniture rooms, in Theo. Hill & Co's brick block, bedsteads made of the calico ash—the real wood, no painted imitation, which he offers for sale at a low price. He is now engaged in putting together and carrying a large variety of furniture made of the best material. He expects, this week, a boat load of material from St. Louis. When it arrives his house will be under full headway.

Facts Worth Knowing.—During a recent trial or comparison of ordinary baking powder in New York, with Dooley's Yeast Powder, it was shown conclusively that the latter was obtained with from one-half to two-thirds the quantity of the latter, than with any other in market. The secret of the success lies in the care with which Dooley's Yeast Powder is prepared, and in the freedom from substances that are injurious to the system. We challenge comparison at any and all times. The verdict of the consumer is always in our favor. For sale by all grocers.

New Grocery Firm.—Mr. P. H. Frank M. Vancil, late of the Brownville Democrat, has formed a partnership with Geo. W. Vancil, and will carry on the grocery business as successors to Rich & Gilmore. Mr. Gilmore is well settled up in the business, having been engaged in that line of trade for some years. Mr. Vancil is a wide-awake and enterprising young man, who takes to business easily. The new firm mean business. They know the times equal for live men and they have got them. They have the good will of all, so let them sail in larger a fair breeze.

J. A. Bizer has just received, direct from Eastern manufacturers, an immense quantity of all kinds of household furniture, including beds, for style, lumber and finish, are superior to any others in this market. His bureaus for parlors and Misses bed rooms, with mirrors attached, are better and cheaper than any other in the kind. He has also a large stock of window shades, frames, etc., which they are selling at the lowest possible figures for which the same can be got out of the log and shipped to this point. They are determined to continue as pretore to supply the bulk of lumber, etc., used in this Land District. Call and see them! 4616w