For guns, powder, shot, ammunition and cartridges, go to W. T. DEN'S.

WANTED—A good cook to whom good wages will be paid. Enquire at the Reynolds House.

The largest and best assortment of perfumery, soaps and toilet articles in the city at Lett & Creigh's.

QUEENSWARE.—Swan & Brother can and will sell Queensware cheaper than any other store west of the Missouri.

Stages leave the Reynolds House for all points West or South. Buss goes to Phelps each train.

Low figures at Big Stove. Down, low down, with the wagon prices. W. T. Den will sell you better and cheaper wagons than can be had in the State.

Sugar boxes, buckets, pails, tubs, wash boards, clothes lines, &c., &c., together with a good many other articles, can be found at Swan & Bro's.

Bizer is now fully prepared for the fall trade and cannot be undersold. His stock is open and invites inspection.

AT SHELLBERGER'S can be found all kinds of farming tools—scythes, snathes, forks, shovels, spades, hoes, rakes, rake teeth, at prices to suit the times.

Jack McFall has just moved his new stock up to 56 Main Street, where a big crowd is expected to be seen, from this time on, buying furniture at his wonderfully cheap rates.

As to the financial results of the State Fair just closed here, we have time only to say that it was a success. The total receipts were $3,626.75.

The Fruit Trees, Evergreens and Hedge plants on exhibition at the State Fair, were donated to the Board, and are for sale. Call on R. W. Furnas at his office.

A man who has attended a good many fairs, thinks that the "American Prize Package" is the vegetable which has been cultivated with the best success throughout the United States.

The butter premium was carried off this year by Mrs. H. B. Strong, of Tecumseh, who had five jars, representing butter made in the months of April, May, June, July and August. She hasn't got an equal in the world when it comes to butter.

RELIGIOUS.—There will be services at the Catholic church in this city, at 10 o'clock, a. m., next Sabbath, by the priest from Nebraska City. All are cordially invited to attend.

We are in receipt of a communication from Rev. Clark Braden, taking us to task for our criticism of his lecture on the new constitution, delivered in this city a short time since, which we will publish so soon as we are enabled to write a paragraph to accompany it.

Low figures at Big Stove. The Star Hotel has again changed hands. Our well known citizen Rufus Leach is now the Lessee. "Rufus" is big enough, genial enough and accommodating enough to make an A. No. 1 landlord, and we believe he will exactly fill the bill at the Star.

It is tolerably easy for a landlord to open a hotel with a flourish and set such a table as to establish for his house a popular reputation, but it requires a peculiar tact in the host or hostess to keep alive and healthy such reputation. The Sherman House is one of the institutions of our city which improves with age—it wears well. Mine host Kaufman, on his part unparading in providing supplies, while the culinary department is under the competent direction and management of Mrs. K. The Sherman is a deservedly popular.

Low figures at Big Stove. A new Stock of Goods. Staple Dry Goods and Notions, Men's Seasonable Clothing and Hats in great variety.

A fine assortment of Shoes and Boots of all kinds.

A fresh lot of Groceries and Queensware.

My goods were bought low for cash, therefore I will be prepared to sell at reasonable prices to suit the times. Call and see me at the old stand.

4 GEO. MARION.
