Sherman House.
It is tolerably easy for a landlord to open a hotel with a flourish and set up a table as to establish for his house a popular reputation, but it requires a peculiar tact in the host or hostess to keep alive and healthy such a reputation. The Sherman House is one of the institutions of our city which improves with age—it wears well. Mine host Kaufman, on his part, unparagoned in providing supplies, under the culinary department under the competent direction and management of Mrs. K. The Sherman House is deservedly popular.

PERSONAL.
—Frank Carter, of St. Joseph, gave us a call last week. While here he received many orders for Woolworth & Co.
—Capt. J. N. Lucas left last week as the grand courier of Prof. Roscoe. We believe his absence will be but brief.
—Dr. McPherson is again at home. He says the reports about the severe cold in the neighborhood of Republican City, and parties being frozen there were untrue—that he had not seen a single man who had frozen a finger. The Dr. will remain here several weeks.

—Dr. Stewart paid us a pleasant visit on Tuesday. He reports that every man in Lincoln seems embarrassed as to whether he or somebody else is Governor.
—Hon. S. P. Majors dropped in on us last Tuesday. He says he is for-nist Hascall, and with James in the present emette for the Governorship, and will not go to Lincoln to-day.

—H. M. Atkinson, Esq., returned from Washington on Tuesday. He reports everything tranquil there, and Brownville and Ft. Kearney R. R. stock above par.
—F. G. Holmes, recently appointed Indian Agent from this county, met with a set-back when his name was sent into the Senate. In other words he was rejected. It is said that indubitable evidence was produced, showing that in 1858 he swallowed the Seymour and Blair ticket, and had since avowed himself as hostile to the Administration, and for this reason a dose of Gen. Jackson's Panacea. "To the victors belong the spoils," was doled out to him. As our readers are aware, such a report was current hereabouts, which Dr. H. indignantly denied, and authorized us to contradict. Of course we know nothing of the facts.

—Jas. M. Haeker, Esq., our efficient County Clerk, left on yesterday for his "native heath," Indiana, to visit the friends and relatives he left some seventeen years ago. He will be absent about two weeks.

"Union Hotel."
Geo. Daugherty, long known here as the prince of Restaurant keepers, has leased the well known Reynolds' House, christened it the "Union Hotel," and is now the Boniface of that establishment. Every body knows that Geo. Daugherty is a disher-up of good grub as hard to find, and that his superior cannot be found. He is now better than ever prepared to give satisfaction, and we commend him to the traveling public as a man who will care for them and theirs as well as they could wish. Long live the "Union Hotel!" and its large-hearted proprietor.

Brownville Pork House!
WHAT IT HAS DONE!
RECEIPTS OF HOGS!
EXPENDITURE OF MONEY!
Last October John F. Murphy then of Aspinwall, and James Walsh, then as now of St. Joseph, Mo., visited Brownville with the view of looking over the ground and determine as to its availability—and accessibility—as a pork market. Concluding that it was a good point they determined to invest here, and about the 1st of November last commenced the erection of a Pork House, in which to receive and slaughter hogs, and about the 15th of December Murphy & Co. commenced work, since which time they have extracted the squeal from 1,255 porkers and bought of farmers a little over 600 dressed hogs.
The live hogs purchased averaged in weight 306 lbs., the dressed ones 255, making a total of about 500,850 lbs. of pork.

Now we come to a very important consideration in connection with this subject, viz: the amount of money which the establishment of this pork factory has distributed amongst our people. For their hogs they have paid out upwards of $20,000—for their buildings about $1,700 and for labor some $1,000, making a sum total of from $23,000 to $25,000, and the season is not yet closed.

Next summer they propose adding to the dimensions and conveniences of the factory which will enable them to do a much larger business than they were able to do during the past or present season. They are pushing men, a credit to the business interests of our city and county.

Rev. W. B. Slaughter, of Omaha, will preach next Sabbath, Feb. 18th., at half past ten in the morning in the M. E. Church.

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE, No. 144, for the week ending Feb. 10, contains the following, among other notable articles: On Hibernicism in Philosophy, by the Duke of Argyll, Contemporary Review; Wanted—A Religion for the Hindus, Fraser's Magazine; Riquet a la Houppe, by Miss Thackeray, Cornhill Magazine; Clit Wings, by the author of "Gideon's Rock," St. Paul's; Melting and Regeneration of Ice, Nature; Thomas Fuller, Cornhill Magazine; The Russian Militia, Pall Mall Gazette; The Industrial Classes in Germany, Examiner; and the continuation of "The Maid of Sker." The preceding weekly number contained: Meters—Seedbearing and Otherwise, Cornhill Magazine; Faraday, Westminster Review; French Children, Blackwood's Magazine; The Current Street Ballads of Ireland, by Wm. Barry, Macmillan's Magazine; The Buddhist Ilite, Pall Mall Gazette; Russian Diplomacy in America, Spectator; the continuation of the "Story of the Pebeistic," by the distinguished French writer MM. Ercmann-Utrorian, with poetry, short articles, etc. The subscription price of this 64 page weekly magazine is $8 a year, or for $10 any one of the American 64 magazines is sent with The Living Age for a year. LITTELL & GRAY, Boston, Publishers.

The closing exercises of the Fairview School will take place on Friday the 1st of March, 1872, at the Church. In the day there will be a public examination, and an exhibition in the evening. The public are cordially invited to attend.

The P. O. on yesterday was filled to overflowing nearly all day with boys and girls aged from 4 years up to 40, enquiring for "letters for me." Many little girls and boys received their first missive on Valentine day, and the ecstatic pleasure of their receipt played upon the countenances of the lucky ones with striking effect, while the disappointed looked as though they were bereft of kindred and friends.

WAT DECLAIRE AND THE DEBT PAID.
And Brown's Illinois Corn Planter is the best and only Planter that you can adjust to four different widths of planting. Price $45 up. Three different patterns.
W. T. DEN, Agent.

An unprincipled merchant is he who sells his goods to judges for what he can get, and to those who are not judges for all he can. But the true principled merchant to deal with is W. T. Den, who sells to a boy at the same price as he does to a man.
Boy's Fancy suits of clothing, reduced below cost at Den's.
Fresh Peaches, Good Potatoes, Salt Lake Eggs, Cod Fish and Ladies' Dress Goods at Den's.

It is always cheaper in the end to pay a respectable price, for a good article, no matter of what character, than to pay a low price for an inferior one. This is especially true of patronize Bennett & Dolen are sure of securing a good garment and at prices but a shade higher than is charged for shoddy. Try them.
Another car load of Bain wagons at Big Stove, No. 81.
Dress does not make the man, but that man looks the better for being well dressed, cannot be disputed, and the citizen of Brownville who goes shabbily attired has no excuse for his dereliction of duty, inasmuch as Hettel will dress him up from top to toe, so that he will look the very gentleman, for an infinitesimal sum of money. If you don't believe it call on him and price his goods.

NEW DEPARTURE.
RAT BATE.
We will now proceed with the W. D. Rat Bate, with the view of cross-examining them, at the same time begging pardon of the gentlemen for the public mention of their names in connection with our little unpleasantness.
Q. Mr. Colhapp, you are a printer. What is the ability of J. D. on the borrow?
A. First class.
Q. How is he on the return?
A. Very poor.
Q. Considering the facilities of the two offices, which would be the greatest gainer from the borrowing system?
A. The Democrat, as it has not half the material the ADVERTISER has.

Q. Would you, if still in the office, borrow from or lend to the Democrat?
A. No sir—never did with my consent while I was in.
That will do, Mr. Colhapp.
The Sheriff will now please call Mr. Harrison.
Q. Mr. Harrison, I believe you are the principal witness on the other side. Now, what do you know about the printing business?
A. Wash boilers and coffee pots should always have copper bottoms.
Q. What do you know about editors of Democratic papers?
A. The wash boiler principle should be reversed.

Q. Is J. D. C. in the habit of returning anything he borrows?
A. I am a friend of his and don't want to say anything to hurt his reputation.
Q. Do you know anything to the credit of J. D.?
A. No sir, I never gave him credit.
Q. Were you asked by him to testify relative to our language last week?
A. No sir, he put that in without my consent?
Q. Would he in your opinion, pay court to a red headed chambermaid just to kill time?
A. I will say nothing to injure my friend.

Q. Would he, in your opinion, tell the truth if a falsehood would answer the same purpose?
A. I don't like to answer.
Q. Do you think he will ever go to Kansas City again?
A. No, I don't think he could bear it.
That will do.

Gage county is to build a jail 30x33 feet in size and two stories high. It is to be of stone and to have six cells when completed. So says the Fairbury Gazette.
Work on our public well, at the juncture of Third and Main streets, has been suspended. The contractors dug and drilled down some eighty feet and then becoming discouraged, abandoned the job.

Calumnies of the Brownville Democrat, is enveloped in a chimeras of disturbed fancy, and calls us "a spunky piece of belligerent nonsense." The language he stole from Tilton's Golden Age, and the type to set it up with, he borrowed from the Advertiser. Whew.—Pawnee Tribune.

McCreery & Nickel have Clover, Timothy, Osage Orange and Blue Grass seed for sale and Garden Seeds Fresh. 187m.

Mrs. Booth.
This lady is in the last stages of consumption. She can live but a week or two more. She has been confined to her bed for several weeks. She is without the care, necessary food, and medicine which one in her condition should have. Dry bread-wheat cakes and a hard bed would be poor fare for the robust and rugged, but it is all she has to make her short stay in this world endurable. She resides just east of the cemetery grounds. Learning that a widow lady who supports herself and five children, by washing, was sending to this poor sick woman provision to keep her alive, the matter was bro't to the attention of our business men, when Marlon, Den, Swan & Bro., Russell, Gilmore, Gibson & Vancil, F. E. Johnson & Co., Col. Austin and J. S. Church sent her ample supplies of provision for the present. She needs most a change of clothing and such attention as our christian ladies can readily render to her. The little time she has in this world should be made more comfortable than has been her lot for several weeks past. Let her case receive immediate attention.

Col. Rhodes, Johnson County, wit and legislator, is out in an article in the last Tecumseh Chief, in which he charges that we receive inspiration in writing our editorials from and through the medium of S. P. and "Absalom" Majors. The Majors' say we are inspired by Daily, and two weeks since, when William D. read our commentary on the revolutionary action of the rump legislature, he said we were inspired by the devil. Some of them must certainly be wrong. Col. Rhodes then says we are pretty fresh for a "new comer." When the Col. was a "new comer" in Johnson County, we are informed that he was so "fresh" that he sought office before the lapse of time required to establish a residence. How fresh is that?

We learn that there is some talk of establishing a soap factory in this city. Dr. Holladay is one of the movers in the enterprise, and proposes investing therein so soon as he can realize from the $1,000 mortgage, which he holds on the Democrat. Were he to build down the Democrat and its editor he would certainly realize he enough to keep a soap factory going a full year.

"There was a frog who lived in a spring. He was so fat that he could not sing. He found a toad who had a bad cold. In what a sad plight he must have been. And yet his misfortune was one that often befalls singers. Many a one-tuneful voice among those who belong to the "genus homo" is utterly spoiled by "cold in the head," or on the lungs, or both combined. For the above mentioned croaker" we are not aware that any remedy was ever devised; but we rejoice to know that all human singers may keep their heads clear and their throats in tune by a timely use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, both of which are sold by druggists.

Nebraska in the Late War.
Editor Advertiser:
I have before me the "Report of John R. Patrick, Adjutant General of the State of Nebraska," dated January 1st, 1871. This Report gives a history of the Regiments and Battalions that served during the war, and while I do not wish to cast one particle of censure on "General" Patrick, I find that the history of the 1st Nebraska, which regiment served full five years, is condensed in 22 pages. The 2nd Nebraska, which served over a year has scant 3 pages. It happened that during the war, Nebraska being a Territory, sparse in population, and weak in financial resources, did not indulge in the luxury of an Adjutant General. It is true, there was a gentleman known by that title, but his office was all honor and no pay, he could not afford to devote his time to keeping records of the doings of the soldiers of Nebraska. Nor did the officers of the different military organizations send reports to him. Adj. Patrick very truly says in his Report, "I found very incomplete records, and all papers pertaining to the office in a terrible condition. There had been no one whose duty it was to look after the records and properly file them so as to preserve them for future use."

Having served in a Nebraska regiment during the whole of the "late unpleasantness," I have a natural desire that the history of the Nebraska soldiery shall be handed down to posterity in a more interesting and detailed manner than a dry official report of 30 pages, of course print, for two regiments. I therefore call upon all Nebraska soldiers, whether they served in Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas or Missouri regiments, to send me an account of their marches and battles, and anecdotes, and any and every thing that will make an interesting and readable book, one that our children will refer to with pride and pleasure. Comrades, help me in this work. The more facts and incidents you send to me, the more valuable and interesting the history will be.

I hope all the newspapers in the State will publish this request, and I want all letters in reference to this matter sent to W. A. POLLOCK, Brownville, Neb.

A CHANGE.—This week the possession of Shellenberger's stock of hardware passed by purchase into the hands of F. A. Tisdell, Jr., who will hereafter run the business, and we need scarcely add, that possessing as Tisdell notoriously does, a huge stock on energy and public spirit, he will render his store an oasis to those desiring anything in the hardware line.

It having been maliciously circulated that I intend closing my boarding house, I wish to contradict the report; I will continue, as heretofore, to supply the best the market affords. And as to any disparaging rumors about actuals or treatment my guests receive, I refer to them, and will abide their verdict. MRS. ELLEN McFALL.

Some three years since a woman living in Illinois, persuaded her husband to sell his farm there and move west. He did so and she started in advance with $1,000 and located near Tecumseh, where she married. When husband No. 1 came to see her he found that she had proved true. He then employed himself as a stage driver, and a week or two ago the poor man's mind became crazed and he is now in Fairbury awaiting the required legal formula to send him to Lincoln. His name is Wm. Clapp. We glean from Fairbury Gazette.

From last week's Democrat we learn that some mischievous boys down South, once took an ambitious cow from a Menagerie, drove her into a pond, and so frightened the poor beast that she dropped a calf. The strange part of the story is that the calf grew up and is now daily throwing mud at gentlemen through the snout columns of the Democrat, and at night is fresh meat for rats across the hall.
