orally, or shall send there a competent officer to reduce it to writing, or shall ask of him a written arms of their nation, with the inscription : "Con- authorities. sulate General," Consulate," "Vice-Consulate," or "Consular Agency," as may be. They shall also be at liberty to hoist the flag of they reside in a city where the legation of their ARTICLE V.

The consular archives shall be at all times in-known to the respective authorities in the United suls, vice-consuls, or consular agents. States, or in the Austro-Hungarian empire, shall and privileges conferred npon them by this con-

ARTICLE VII.

Consuls-general and consuls shall have the power to appoint vice-consuls and consular agents in the cities, ports and towns within their consular districts, subject, however, to the approbation of the government of the country where they

These vice-consuls and consular agents may be the two countries or from foreigners, and they expenses incurred through salvage and the presershall be furnished with a commission issued by the appointing consul, under whose orders they are to be placed. They shall enjoy the privileges and liberties stipulated in this convention. To vice-consuls and to consular agents who are not citizens of the State which appoints them, the privileges and immunities specified in Article II shall not extend. ARUICLE VIII.

Consuls-general, consuls, vice-eonsuls, or consular agents of the two countries may, in the exercise of their duties, apply to the authoritize within their districts, whether federal or local, judicial or executive, in the event of any infraction of the treaties and conventions between the two countries; also for the purpose of protecting the rights of their countrymen. Should the said authorities fail to take due ty, in the absence of any diplomatic representa-tive of their country, to apply to the government warded to the parties interested. notice of their application, they shall be at libercountrymen as are intended to be drawn up in an authentic form and verlfied. 2d. Any and all acts of agreement entered upon between citizens of their own country and inhabitants of the country where they reside.

All such acts of agreement, and other in truments, and also copies thereof, when duly authenticated by such consul-general, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent under his official seals, shall be received in courts of justice as legal documents, or as authenticated copies, as the ease may be, and shall have the same force and effect as if drawn up by competent public officers of one or the other. up by competent public officers of one or the other of the rwo countries.

Consuls-general, consuls, vice-consuls, or consular agents of the respective countries shall have the power to translate and legalize all documents issued by the authorities or functionaries of their own country; and such papers shall have the same force and effect in the country where the aforesaid officers reside as if drawn up by sworn interpreters.

ARTIELE X. Consuls-general, consuls, vice-consuls, or consular agents shall be at liberty to go on board the vessels of their natiou admitted to entry, either in person or by proxy, and to examine the captain and crew, to look into the register of the ship, to receive declarations with reference to their voyage, their destination, and the incidents of the voyage; alto, to draw up manifests, lists of freight, to assist in despatching their vessels, and finally to accompany the said captains or crews before the courts and before the administrative authorities, in order to act as their interpreters or agents in their business transactions or applications of any The judicial authorities and custom-house of ficials shall in no case proceed to the examination or search of merchant vessels without previous notice to the consular authority of the nation to which the said vessels belong, in order to enable them to be present. They shall also give due notice to consuls, vice-ments to be made in courts of law, or before local are of a nature to disturb the peace and public order in port or on shore, or when persons other than the officers and crew of the vessels are parties to the disturbance; except as aforesaid the local authorities shall confine themselves.

ARTICLE XII. Consuls-general, oonsuls, vice-consuls, or consular agents, shall have the power to cause the arrest of all sailors or all other persons belonging to the crews of vessels of their nation who may be guilty of having deserted on their respective territories of the high contracting powers, and to than is indispensable for the administration of the laws of the country.

To that end they shall make a written application to the competent local authority, supporting it by the exhibition of the ship's register and list of crew, or else, should the vessel have sailed previously, by producing an authenticated copy of these documents, showing that the persons claimed really do belong to the ship's crew.

That is indispensable for the administration to the administration for the ship's register and list offices, or of their dwellings, the arms of their native flows of the country.

Consuls General, Consuls, Vice Consuls, and Consular Agents may place over the outer door of their tit to offices, or of their dwellings, the arms of their native flows of the country.

Consuls General, Consuls, Vice Consuls, and Consular Agents may place over the outer door of their tit to office, or of their dwellings, the arms of their native flows of the country.

Consuls General, Consuls, Vice Consuls, and Consular Agents may place over the outer door of their to office, or of their dwellings, the arms of their native flows of the country.

Consuls General, Consuls General, Consuls, Vice Consuls, and Consular Agents may place over the outer door of their to office, or of their dwellings, the arms of their native flows of the country.

Consuls General, Consuls, Vice Consuls, and Consular Agents may place over the outer door of their to office, or of their dwellings, the arms of their native flows of the country.

Consuls General, Consuls, Vice Consuls, and Consular Agents may place over the outer door of their to office, or of their dwellings, the arms of their native flows of the country.

Consuls General, Consuls, Vice Consuls, and Consular Agents may place over the outer door of their the office, or of their dwellings, the arms of their native flows of the country.

Upon such request the surrender of the deserter shall not be refused. Every aid and assistance shall, moreover, be granted to the said authorities be allowed to examine or seize the pale and the said authorities of them. When, however, a consular officer is engaged in other business, the for the detection and arrest of deserters, and the papers relating to the consulate shall be kept in a exceed the term of three months, at the expira- used as places of asylur

ARTICLE XIII. In all cases where no other agreement to the contrary exists between owners, freighters and of the two countries, whether they enter the respective ports voluntarily or by stress of weather, shall be settled by the consuls-general, consuls, ARTICLE XIV. In the event of a vessel belonging to the government, or owned by a citizen of one of the two upon the coast of the other, the local authorities ere government may be established. They shall also shall shall inform the consuls-general, consuls, be at liberty to hoist their flag on board the ves- vice consuls, or consulsa agents of the district of b violable, and under no pretence whatever shall All proceedings relative to the salvage of Amerthe local authorities be allowed to examine or lean vessels wrecked or cast on shore in Austro- All such acts of agreement and other instruments ARTICLE VI.

In the event of incapacity, absence or death of consuls-general, consuls, chancellors, or secretaries, whose official character may have been previously made known to the respective authorities in the United States consuls, or consuls general, consuls agents; also all proceedings relative to the salvage of Austro-Hungarian vessels wrecked or cast on shore in American waters shall be directed by the United States consuls general, consuls, vice consuls, or Consular Agent under his official seal, shall be received by public officials and in courts of justice as legal documents, or as authenticated copies, as the case may be, and shall have the same force and effect estif drawn up or authenticated by consular agents; also all proceedings relative to the salvage of Austro-Hungarian vessels wrecked or cast on shore in American waters shall be directed by the United States consular agents; also all proceedings relative to the salvage of Austro-Hungarian vessels wrecked or cast on shore in American waters shall be directed by the United States consular agents; also all proceedings relative to the salvage of Austro-Hungarian vessels wrecked or cast on shore in American waters shall be directed by the United States consular agents; also all proceedings relative to the salvage of Austro-Hungarian vessels wrecked or consular agents and also copies and translations thereof, when duly authenticated by such Consular Agent under his official seal, shall be received by public officials and in courts of justice as legal documents, or as authenticated copies, as the case may be, and shall have the same and also copies and translations thereof, when duly authenticated by south consular Agent under his official seal, shall be received by public officials and in courts of justice as legal documents, or as authenticated to consular Agent under his official seal, shall be received by public officials and in courts of justice as legal documents, or as authenticated to please and effect to still developed to the same and al

An interference of the local authorities in the be admitted at once to the temporary exercise of two countries shall take place for the purpose only the consular functions, and they shaff, for the of assisting the consular authorities in maintainduration of it, enjoy all the immunities, rights, ing order and protect the rights of salvors not belonging to the crew, also for enforcing the regulations relative to the import or export of the merchandise saved. In the absence and until the arrival of the consuls-general, consuls, vice-consuls, or consular agents, or their duly appointed delegates, the local authorities shall take all the necessary measures for the protection of persons and the preservation of the property saved from the wreck. No charges shall be made for the interference of the local authorilies in such cases, except for which, under similar circumstances, vessels be- either on board ship or on land, during the voyage or in the port of destination.

tion in the country in which the wreck takes place shall be free of all duties. ABTICLE XV.

Consuls-general consuls, vice-consuls, and con-sular agents, also consular pupils, chance flors, and consular officers, shall enjoy in the two countries all the liberties, immunities, and privileges granted to functionaries of the same class of the most favored

ARTICLE XVI.

In case of the death of a citizen of the United States in the Austrian-Hungarian Monarchy in the United States, without having any known heirs or testamentary executors by him appointed, the com-petent local authorities shall inform the consuls or isular agents of the State to which the deceased

SEAL.
And whereas the Senate, by their resolution of the twelfth of May, 1871, did advise and consent that the period within which it was stipulated in the said convention that the ratifications thereof should be exchanged might be extended for a period of three months:

And whereas the said convention has been duly ratified on both parts, and the respective ratifications of the same were exchanged, in this city, on the twenty-sixth day of June, 1871, by Hamilton Fish, Secretary of State of the United States, and Baron Lederer, Euvoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of his Majesty the Emperor of Austria to accordinate this government on the part tria, &c., accredited to this government on the part Grant, President of the United States of America.

in witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be af-Done at the city of Washington this twenty-ninth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy[SEAL.] one, and of the Independence of the United States of America the ninety-fifth,
"U. S. GRANT.

CONVENTION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE GER-MAN EMPIRE.

Hamilton Fish, Secretary of State,

RESPECTING CONSULS AND TRADE MARKS.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas a Convention between the United States of America and the German Empire, relating to the rights, privileges, immunities, and duties of Consuls, and to the Protection of Trade Marks, was signed at Berlin on the eleventh day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, by their respective Pienipotentia

And whereas a Protocol thereto was signed by the as follows:
The President of the United States of America, and His Majesty the Emperor of Germany, King of Prussia, in the name of the German Empire, led by consuls, or consular agents, in order to enable them to be present at any depositions or statements to be made in courts of law, or before local ments to be made in courts of law, or before local magistrates, by captains or persons composing the crew, thus to prevent errors or false interpretations which might impede the correct administration of justice.

The notice to consuls, vice-consuls, or consular agents shall name the hour fixed for such proceedings, and upon the non-appearance of the contracting Parties agrees to receive the contraction of the Contracting Parties agrees to receive the contraction of the Contracting Parties agrees to receive the contraction of the Contracting Parties agrees to receive the contraction of the Contracting Parties agrees to receive the contraction of the Contracting Parties agrees to receive the contraction of the Contraction of the Contracting Parties agrees to receive the contra agents shall name the hour fixed for such proceedings, and upon the non-appearance of the said officers or their representatives, the case shall be proceeded with in their absence.

ARTICLE XI.

Consuls, vice-consuls, or consular agents, shall have exclusive charge of the internal order of the merchant vessels of their nation. They shall have therefore the exclusive power to take cognizance of and to settle all differences which may arlse at sea or in port between captains, officers, and crews, in reference to wages and the execution of mutual contracts, subject in each case to the laws of their own nation.

The local authorities shall in no way interfere, except in cases where the difference on board ship are of a nature to disturb the peace and public

Each of the Constructing Parties agrees to receive from the other Consuls, Consuls, Vice Consuls, Vice Consuls, Vice Consuls, and Consular Agents, in all its ports, clifes, and this parties without also apply in the contracting Parties of those where it many not be converted by consultant Agents, in all its ports, clifes, and this ports, clifes and this ports, clifes, and consular Agents, in all its ports, clifes, and this ports, clifes, and officers. This reservation, be converting Parties and goods not destined for consults, of consults, Vice Consuls, Vice Consults, V eside, or engage in commerce, they shall be sub-ect to the same taxes and imposts, and to the same in isdiction, as citizens of the country, property-olders, or merchants. But under no circumstances shall their official income be subject to any tax. Consular officers who engage in commerce shall not plead their consular privileges to avoid their commercial lightlities. Consular officers of either character shall not in any event be interfered with in the exercise of their official functions, further than is indispensable for the administration of the

ART. V.

The consular archives shall be at all times inviofor the detection and arrest of deserters, and the latter shall be taken to the prison of the country and there detained at the request and expense of the consular authority until there may be an opportunity for sending them away.

The duration of this imprisonment shall not the consular shall the expense of the case of the pursuit for grimes, under any pretext invade them. In no case shall they examine or seize the papers there deposited. In no event shall those offices or dwellings be said as places of asylum.

tion of which time, and upon three days' notice to the consul, the prisoner shall be set free, and he shall not be liable to re-arrest for the same cause.

Should, however, the deserter have committed on shore an indictable offence, the local authorities shall be free to postpone his extradition until due sentence shall have been passed and executed.

Set the death, prevention, or absence of Consuls General, Consuls, Vice-Consuls, and Consular Agents, their chancellors or secretaries, whose official character may have previously been made known to the respective authorities in Germany or in the United States, may temporarily exercise all the rights, prerogatives, and immunities granted by this convention to the incumbents.

ABT. VI.

Consuls General and Consuls may, with the approbation of their respective Governments, and the consult of their respective Governments.

Consuls General and Consuls may, with the approbation of their respective Governments, appoint Vice-Consuls and Consular Agenta in the cities, ports, and places within their consular jurisdiction. These officers may be citizens of Germany of the United States, or any other country. They shall be furnished with a commission by the Consuls of the United States, or any other country. They shall be furnished with a commission by the Consuls of the United States, or any other country which he represents. They shall enjoy the privi-

ART. VIII. contrary exists between owners, freighters and Consuls General, Consuls, Vice Consuls, and Consuls are Agents shall have the right to apply to the authorities of the respective countries, whether Federal or local, judicial or executive, within the extent of their consular district, for the redress of any infraction of the treaties and conventions ex-isting between the two countries, or of internationvice-consuls, or consular agents of their respective at law; to ask information of said authorities, and nation, provided no interests of citizens of the to address said authorities to the end of protecting declaration.

Article IV.

Consuls-general, consuls, vice-consuls, and consular agents shall be at liberty to place over the chief entrance of their respective offices the chief entrance of their respective offices the chief entrance of their respective offices the consular agents shall be at liberty to place over the chief entrance of their respective offices the chief entrance of their respective offices the chief entrance of their respective offices the consular agents shall take place under supervision of the local take of their country where they reside.

Article IV.

Consuls-general, consuls, vice-consuls, and case, and in the absence of a friendly compromise to the end of protecting the address said dathorities to the end of protecting the registres and address said dathorities to the end of protecting the rights and interests of their countrymen, especially in cases such Consuls, etc., shall be presumed to the their legal representatives. If due notice should not be taken of such as the rights and interests of their countrymen, especially in cases such Consuls, etc., shall be presumed to the their legal representatives. If due notice should not be taken of such as the time of their country men, especially in cases such Consuls, etc., shall be presumed to the their legal representatives. If due notice should not be taken of such as the consultance of their country men, especially in cases such Consuls, etc., shall be presumed to the their legal representatives. If due notice should not be taken of such as the consultance of the consultance of the consultance of the case, and in the absence of a friendly compromise to the eddress said dathorities to their countrymen, especially in cases such Consuls, etc., shall be active to the distribution of the case, and in the absence of a friendly compromise to the case, and in the absence of a friendly compromise to the case, and in the absence of a fine distribution of the case, and in the absence of a friendly compromise to the case, and in the absence of a fine Consuls General, Consuls, Vice-Consuls, or Conmar Agents of the two countries, or their chan-ellors, shall have the right, conformably to the laws and regulations of their country-. To take at their office or dwelling, at the resitheir country on the consular edifice, except when contracting States, being wrecked or cast on shore own nation, the depositions of the captains and rews, of passengers on board of them, of merchants of any other citizens of their own country. 2. To receive and verify unilateral acts, wills, and ests of their countrymen, and any and all acts sel employed by them in port for the discharge of the occurrance; or, if such consular agency does their duty.

of agreement entered upon between citizens of their own country, and between such citizens and their duty. general, consul, vice-consul, or consular agents of the latter, provided they relate to property situated or to business to be transacted in the territory of

ART. X.

In case of the death of any citizen of Germany in the United States, or of any citizen of the United States in the German Empire, without having in the country of his decease any known heirs or testamentary executors by him appointed, the competent local authorities shall at once inform the nearest consolar officer of the nation to which the deceased belongs of the aircumstance, in order that the necessary information may be immediately forwarded to parties interested. warded to parties interested. The said consular officer si warded to parties interested.

The said consular officer shall have the right to appear personally or by delegate in all proceedings on behalf of the absent heirs or creditors, until on behalf of the absent heirs or creditors, until they are doly represented.

In all successions to inheritances citizens of each of the Contracting Parties shall pay in the country of the other such duties only as they would be liable to pay, if they were citizens of the country in which the property is situated or the judicial administration of the same may be exercised.

Abt. XI.

Consuls General, Consuls, Vice-Consuls, and Consular Agents of the two countries are exclusively charged with the inventorying and the safe keeping of goods and effects of every kind left by sallors or passengers on ships of their nation, who die either on toard ship or on land, during the voyage

The judicial authorities and custom house officials shall in no case proceed to the examination or search of merchant-vessels without baving given provides notice to the consular officers of the nation to shigh the self-section to section to self-section to section the section to self-section to section to section the section to section to section the section the section to section the section that section the secti ty, in the absence of any diplomatic representative of their country, to apply to the government of the country where they reside.

Article XVII.

Consuls-general, consuls, vice-consuls, or consuls agents of the two countries, also their chancellors, shall have the right to take at their of ship, the depositions of the captains and crews of the expiration of the said term of the contracting parties spin, the depositions of the captains and crews of their own nation, of passengers on board of them, of merchants, or any other citi-local contracting parties shall have exclusive consenting the immediately for the countries, the residence of the presentatives, the case may be proceeded to representatives, the case may be proceeded to the orders entered therein, to fadvice of the orders entered therein, to fadvice of the orders consuls their absence.

Article XVII.

Consuls General, Consuls, Or Consuls are Agents shall have exclusive charge of their merchant-vessels of their merchant-vessels of their merchant-vessels of the firm and the confirmation in force for the space of the presentatives, the case may be proceeded.

Article XVII.

Consuls General, Consuls, Or Consuls are Agents shall have exclusive charge of their merchant-vessels of their nation and shall have the exclusive power to take cognization of the firm and the determine differences of a proceed of the presentatives, the case may be followed their absence.

Article XVIII.

Consuls General, Consuls, Or Consult and Article VI. After comparing their agents of the transfer of the merchant-vessels of their nation and the letters inclosing the orders posted for delivery.

The lists, by means of which each office of exchanges of the presentation of the special vessels and the exclusive power to take cognization of the transfer of the contracting parties gives and the exclusive consultants. Neither any court or authority shall be a time of their stay in the port, at the dispesal of the Consuls. Their release shall be granted only at the request of the Consuls, made in writing. The expense of the arrest and detention of those persons shall be paid by the consule.

ART. XIV.

Consuls General, Consuls, Vice-Consuls, or Consular Agents may arrest the officers, sailors, and all other persons making part of the crews of ships-of-war or increhant-vessels of their nation, who may be guilty or be accused of having deserted said the guilty or be accused of having deserted said ships and vessels, for the purpose of sending them on board or back to their country.

To that end, the Consuls of Germany in the United States shall apply to either the Federal. State, or municipal courts or authorities; and the Consuls of the United States in Germany shall apply to any of the competent authorities, and make a resuest in writing for the deserters, supporting it by an official extract of the register of the vessel and the list of the crew, or by other official documents, to show that the men whom they claim belong to said crew Upon such request alone thus supported, and without the exaction of any oath from the Consuls, the deserters (not being citizens of the country where the demand is made either at the time of their shipe demand is made either at the time of their ship ping or of their arrival in the port) shall be given up to the Consuls. All aid and protection shall be furnished them for the pursuit, seizure, and arrest of the deserters, who shall be taken to the pritons of the country and there detained at the request and at the expense of the Consuls, until the said Consuis may find an opportunity of sending them away It, however, such opportunity should not present itself within the space of three months, counting from the day of the arrest. The deserters shall be set at liberty, and shall not again be arrested for the same cause. ART. XV. In the absence of an agreement to the contrary between the owners, freighters, and insurers, all damages suffered at sea by the vessels of the two

ART. XVI.

In the event of a vessel belonging to the Government, or owned by a citizen of one of the two Conraciting Parties being wrecked, or cast on shore, on he coast of the other, the local authorities shall in-orm the Consul General, Consul, Vice-Consul, or consular Agent of the district of the occurences, or said Plenipotentiaries on the twenty-ninth day of April last; which Convention and Protocol, in the English and German languages, are, word for word as follows:

Consular Agent of the nearest district.

All proceedings relative to the salvage of American vessels wrecked or cast on shore in the territorial waters of the German Empire shall take place in accordance with the laws of Germany; and, re-ciprocally, all measures of salvage relative to Ger-man vessels wrecked or cast on shore in the territhan vessels wereket of cast on shore in the territorist waters of the United States shall take place in accordance with the laws of the United States.

The consular authorities have in both countries to intervene only to superintend the proceedings having reference to the repair and revictualing, or, if necessary, to the sale of the vessel wrecked or cast on shore. For the intervention of the local authorities no charges shall be made except such as in similar cases are paid by vessels of the nation.

In case of a doubt concerning the nationality of a snip-wrecked vessel, the local authorities shall have exclusively the direction of the proceedings provided for in this article.

All merchandian and goods not destined for one and sealed this Convention, Berlin, the 11th of December, 1871,

[L. s.] GEO, BANCROFT. The undersigned met this day in order to effect the credit of the United States in the quarties to the disturbance; except as aforesaid the local authorities shall confine themselves to the rendering of forcible assistance if required by the consuls, vice-consuls, or consular agents, and shall cause the arrest, temporary imprisonment, and removal on board his own vessel, of every person moval on board his own vessel, of every person where name is found on the muster-rolls or region. That in accordance with the instruction given personal or sumpthary taxes, duties, and contribute and consultance of the same rank of the most factoristic decision of the country where they are accredited, shall english the country where they are accredited, shall englis construed as meaning and intending "real estate."

2. That, according to the laws and the Constitution of the United States. Article X applies not only to persons of the male sex but also to persons of > executed. Berlin, the 29th April, 1872. GEO. BANCROFT. And whereas the said convention has been duly ratified on both parts, and the respective ratifications of the same were exchanged at Berlin on the wenty-ninth day of April last:

Now, therefore, be it known, that I, Ulysses S.
Grant, President of the United States of America, have caused the said convention and protocol to be twenty-ninth day of April last : have caused the said convention and protocol to be made public, to the end that the same, and every clause and part thereof, may be observed and in-filled with good faith by the United States, and the citizens thereof. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the scal of the United States to be af-Done af the city of Washington this first day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and of the Independ-ence of the United States of America the ninety-

U. S. GRANT. HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State, POSTAL CONVENTION-GREAT BRITAIN. .

Convention between the General Posta office of the United States of America and the General Post-office of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireiand.

Done in duplicate and signed in London on the thirtieth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and in Washington on the and Ireiand. The general post-office of the United States our Lord one thousand eight hundred and of America and the general post-office of the seventy-one.

United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ire- [SEAL:] JNO, A. J. CRESWELL. land, being desirous of establishing an ex-change of money-orders between the two [SEAL.]

[SEAL.]

By the President:

HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

Washin_ton, July 27, 1871.

leges stipulated for consular officers in this convention, subject to the exceptions specified in Article Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and when issued in the United States, at fifty dollars in the national paper currency of the latter country. ARTICLE 2. the United States since my last dispatch (List No.) for orders payable in Great The British post-office shall have power to. fix the rates of commission on all money-or-ders issued in the United Kingdom, and the Britain and Ireland, amounting in the ag gregate to $...... Be pleased to examine, complete, and re United States post-office shall have the same power in regard to all money-orders issued in the United States. Each office shall comturn to me the original copy of this list, with your acknowledgment of its receipt indors-ed thereon. nunicate to the other its tariff of charges or rates of commission which shall be established under this convention, and these rates shall, in all cases, be paid in advance by the remitter, and shall not, in any event, be repayable. It is understood, moreover, that each office is authorized to suspend, temporarily, the exchange of money-orders in case the course of exchange or any other circumstance should give rise to abuses or cause detriment to the postal revenue.

ARTICLE 3. Each country shall keep the commission charged on all money-orders Issued within it, but shall pay to the other country one per cent on the total amount of such orders. ARTICLE 4. No money-order shall include a fractional part of a penny or of a cent. ARTICLE 5. The service of the postal money-order sys-tem between the two countries shall be performed exclusively by the agency of office of exchange. On the part of the United State-, the office of exchange shall be New York, and on the part of the United King dom, London,

Any person in the United States desiring to remit to the United Kingdom a sum of money within the limits prescribed by article one, may pay it into any post-office in the United States de ignated for such purpose from time to time, by the postmaster general of that country, Such person shall at the same time give the name and address of the person to whom the amount is to be paid in the United Kingdom, and his own name and address. Any person in the United Kingdom desiring to remit to the United States a sum of money, within the same limits, may pay it into any money-order office of the United Kingdom, giving at the same time the name and exact address of the person to whom the amount is to be paid in the United States, and his own name and address. The receiving postmaster in either country shall, in accordance with the rules established by his postal administration, notify every such payment to the despatching ex-The postmaster of New York, upon receipt of every notification of that kind, shall make out and forward to the payee in the which, under similar circumstances, vestels belonging to the country where the wreck happens would have to incur.

In case of a doubt concerning the nationality of the wrecks, the local authorities shall have exclusively the management and execution of the provisions laid down in the present article.

The high contracting parties also agree that all merchandise and goods not destined for consumption in the country in which the wreck takes place or in the port of destination.

ART. XII.

Consuls General, Consuls, Vice-Consuls, and Consuls, and Consults, and Con the other country a certified list of sums payable in that country, and received since the despatch of the previous list. predvious notice to the consular officers of the nation to which the said vessels belong in order to enable the said consular officers to be present.

They shall also give due notice to the said consular officers in order to enable them to be present at any depositions or statements to be made in courts of law or before local magistrates, by officer or persons belonging to the crew, thus to prevent errors or falle interpretations which might impede the correct administration of justice. The notice to Consuls, Vice Consuls, or Consular Agents shall nave reaches de the New York office and been verified, this office shall make out inland money-orders in favor of the payees for the amount specified in the list, and shall promptly forward them to the payees or to the paying office, in conformity with the regulations existing in the United States, for the payment of money-orders.

The list forwarded to the United Kingdom consuls, vice Consuls, or Consuls, or Consuls, or Consuls, vice Consuls, or Co The list forwarded to the United Kingdom shall be accompanied by the relative letters change shall be numbered consecutively, commencing with No. I, at the beginning of board of them, of merchants, or any other citizens of their own country.

They shall have the power also to receive and verify conformably to the laws and regulations of their country:

Ist. Wills and bequeaths of their countrymen, and all such acts and contracts between their countrymen as are intended to be drawn up in an object.

In testimony whereof, the respective Pientpoten. In testimony whereof, the respective Pientpoten. Except as aforesaid, the local authorities shall that the officers and crew of the verse are parties to the disturbance.

Except as aforesaid, the local authorities shall that the officers and crew of the verse are parties to the disturbance.

Except as aforesaid, the local authorities shall that the officers and crew of the verse are parties to the disturbance.

Except as aforesaid, the local authorities shall that the officers and crew of the verse are parties to the disturbance.

Except as aforesaid, the local authorities shall that the officers and crew of the verse are parties to the disturbance.

Except as aforesaid, the local authorities shall that the officers and crew of the verse are parties to the disturbance.

Except as aforesaid, the local authorities shall that the officers and crew of the verse are parties to the disturbance.

Except as aforesaid, the local authorities shall that the officers and crew of the verse are parties to the disturbance.

Except as aforesaid, the local authorities shall that the officers and crew of the verse are parties to the disturbance.

Except as aforesaid, the local authorities shall that the officers and crew of the verse are parties to the consults, when they may ske it in order to only the other consults, when they may deem it in the lists of the creating of the consults, when they may deem it is to the consults, when they may deem it is to the consults, when they are of our the consults of the consults of the consults, when they are of our the that the officers and crew of the verse are for ficial that the officers and crew of the consul ARTICLE 9.

Should any list fail to be received, in due course, the despatching office shall, on receiving information to that effect, transmit without delay a duplicate of the list, duly ertified as such. ARTICLE 10. Each office of exchange shall promptly communicate to the other the correction of any simple error which it may discover in the verification of the lists. When the lists shall show irregularities which the receiviug office shall not be able to rectify, that office shall apply for an explanation from the despatching office; and this explanation shall be afforded without delay. ARTICLE II. Duplicate orders shall only be issued by he postal administration of the country of which the original orders were drawn, and in conformity with the regulations established or to be established in that country. ARTICLE 12. At the close of each quarter three copies of an account shall be prepared and transmit-ted by the office at London, exhibiting the balance found due on the exchanges of orders during the quarter; which balance, af-ter proper verification, shall, if due by the United States office, be paid at London; but if due by the British office, it shall be paid at New York, and always in the money to the country to which the payment is made If, pending the settlement of an account, one of the two postal administrations shall countries, whether they enter port voluntarily or are forced by stress of weather, shall be settled by the Consula-General, Consula, Vice-Consula, and Consular Agents of the respective countries. If, however, any inhabitant of the country, or citizen or subject at a third power, shall be interested in the matter, and the parties cannot agree, the competent local authorities shall decide.

Aut VVI. mediate remittances, shail be in accordance with the Forms C, D, and E, annexed to this ARTICLE 13. Until the two general post-offices shall consent to an alteration, it is agreed that, in all matters of account relative to money-orhere be no such consular agency, they shall in-m the Consul General, Consul, Vice-Consul, or ders which shall result from the execution of the present convention, the pound sterl-ing of Great Britain shall be considered as equivalent to four dollars and eighty-six cents of the gold coin of the United States, ARTICLE 14.

Each exchange office shall certify its or ders to the other in amounts designated in the denominations of the money both of the despatching and receiving country at the rate of conversion established upon the ba-sis of gold by Article XIII of this convention. This conversion shall be checked at the receiving office of exchange.

ARTICLE 15. All payments for money orders, whether to or by the public, if not in gold, shall be made at the nearest practicable equivalent. ARTICLE 16.

The value, in gold coin of the United States of deposits in paper money made in that country for payment in Great Britain, shall be determined at the exchange office of New York, according to the rate of premium on gold on the day of receipt at that office of notification of such deposits. On the other hand, the value, in United States paper currency, of money orders certified in the lists sent from the exchange office of London to the exchange office of New York, shall be determined (also at New York) in accordance with the premium on gold on the day of the receipt of such lists.

ARTICLE 17. Orders which shall not have been paid within twelve calendar months from month of issue shall become void, and the sums received shall accrue to, and remain at, the disposal of the country of origin-The British office shall, therefore, enter to Repayment of orders to remitters shall the female sex.

After the undersigned, President of the office of the Chancellor of the Empire, had expressed his concurrence with this declaration, the acts of ratification, found to be in good and due form, were exchanged, and the present protocol was in duplicate executed.

Repayment of orders to remitters shall not be made until an authorization for such repayment shall first have been obtained by the country of issue from the country where such orders were payable, and the amounts of the former country in the country of the country of the country of the country of issue from the country of the co the former country in the quarterly account. It is the province of each postal administration to determine the manner in which repayment to the remitter is to be made.

> ARTICLE 19. The orders issued by each country on the which they are drawn. ARTICLE 20. The general post-office in each country shall be authorized to adopt any additional rules (if not repugnant to the foregoing) for the greater security against fraud, or for the better working of the system generally. All such additional rules, however, must be promptly communicated to the post-office of he other country. ARTICLE 21, The present convention shall take effect on the first day of October next, and shall continue in force until twelve months after the date at which one of the contracting parties shall have notified to the other its intention to terminate it.

Post-Master Gen. of the United States.

AL.]

W. MONSELL,

Her Majesty's Postmaster-General. I hereby approve the aforegoing conven-tion, and in lestimony thereof I have caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Current number of in-Number of list. No. of original order. Date of list. Date of original order. Office issuing orig'l ord'r No. of international order. Office where payable. Name. Address. Name. Number of list. Address. Date of list. Am't of order in United States currency. Number of order. Date of receipt at New Premium on gold on day of receipt. Value of order in United Statesgold Number of list. Date of list. Amount in British money. Number of Date of payment. Paid in year of issue. Paid in following year. Amount of international erders issued in the United One per cent, on amount of Amount of void orders of Brit-Renewable orders: ish issue as per table Amount of international orders repaid in the United Kingdom as per table. Total. Remarks. Converting into sterling. United States credit to be de-Balance to credit of British of-MONEY-ORDER OFFICE, of the United States .. orders from No...... to No....., inclusive, for sums received in the United States for pay-

York Office.

Postmaster, New York.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit to you perewith, in duplicate, a list containing detailed statement of the sums received in

I am, respectfully, your obedient servant,

To the Controller Money-order Office, Lonnent in the United Kingdom, amounting it the aggregate to $......, and which is to be paid to the net amount of £.....s....s.d.

The said list was found to be correct with the following exceptions: I am, sir, your obedient servant, To the Postmaster Money Order Exchange Office, New York, ternational orders.

Number of original money-order.

Date of original order.

Full name of romitter

Full name of the payee.

Amount received in

United Kingdom.

Value of order in U.S.

Value of order to U.S.

paper currency.

No. of home order is-

Office.

State.

Remarks.

sued.

| No. of list.

EQ

the 2 5

No. of list.

ISSUED STATES

2

Office of issue,

Place of res-

County.

Place of res-

County.

State.

Current number of in-

One per cent. on amount of such issue... Amount of voldorders of United States issue as per table... amount of international orders repaid in the United States as per fable..... Converted into dollars British credit to be deducted. Balance to credit of United States office ... Paid on account by the office of Great Britain Dol. Cts. Balance remaining......

(Signature of proper accounting officer of the British office.) The above statement of account is accepted Washington,....., 187... hereby acknowledged.

MONEY-ORDER OFFICE, Sin: The list of international Money-or sum of £ equal to Difference sums, viz.:

Difference remaining $ In accordance with the terms of Article VII. of the convention of, a bill of ex-change on New York for $....... is herewith transmitted, the receipt of which you will be pleased to acknowledge in due form. To the Postmaster General of the United States.

POST-OFFICE DEPARTMENT, Washington, D. C., SIR: The list of international money-or ers which the exchange office of New York has transmitted to the exchange office of, from......187..., amount to the sum of $... equal to The list transmitted by the exchange office..... to the New York office during the same period, amount to £ Difference remaining In accordance with the terms of Article be pleased to acknowledge in due form.

Ducking Powder AND ALL TISDEL & RICHARDS.

JOB PRINTING. CF ALL KINDS, Neatly and Promptly Executed. AT THIS OFFICE.

tional order.

Number of list.

No. of interna-

Date of list.

TO CREDIT OF BRITISH OFFICE. Balance remaining...

TO CREDIT OF UNITED STATES OFFICE. Amount of international orders issued in the United

The within account exhibits a total balance of, which, after deduction of the pay-ments on account as herein stated, leaves a balance remaining of......due the.....office.

with a balance of due the......office Auditor of the Treasury for the Post Office De-The payment on account of having been receipted by special vouchers, the re-ceipt of the balance remaining of.......ls 187....

ders which the exchange office has transmitted to the New York exchange office romto, 187 ..., amounting to the The lists transmitted by the New York office to theoffice during the same period, amounting to . . . $ On account of which the British office has already paid the following Washington.

States office has already paid the foilowing sums;

transmitted, the receipt of which you will Superintendent Money-order Office.
To the Postmaster General, &c., London, England.

Ammunition

POLAND CHINA HOG. And grower of Hedge Plants and General Nur-

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Hurrah! Hurrah! Now is the time to get your

We have just received a full and complete stock of

BIRD CAGES, WAGON AND CARRIAGE TIMBER! GENERAL LINE OF HARDWARE

Persons desirous of purchasing will SAVE MONEY by calling in

REMEMBER THE PLACE. Sign of the Red Stove and Plow. No. 74, McPherson Block.

Public Sale. STOCK FANCIERS

TISDEL & RICHARI'S.

WILL take notice that the subscriber offers for sale a rare lot of graded Cows and Heifers, all bred to a Thoroughbred Bull. Will be sold

Saturday, December 7th, dence in Bedford Precinct, Nemaha County, Neb, one-haif mile west of Hanna's bridge on Big Muddy, the following proberty, to-wit:

16 Head of Cows and Heifers, and two first-class male Calves. This stock is direct descendants of Goldfinder First, imported from England to Il-linois by the Illinois Stock Importing Association, at great cost. at great cost.
Also, one span of four year old mules, well brok to work; one good Two-Horse Wagon; one Com-bined Reaper and Mower; one Spring-Tooth Hay Rake: one second-hand Buggy; Sod Plow; Stubble Piow; Walking Wheel Cultivators, and various NO POSTPONEMENT ON ACCOUNT OF WEATHER. TERMS OF SALE. All sums not exceeding ten dollars, cash on de livery. Over that sum, a credit of nine months will be given, free of interest, the purchaser giving note with approved security. If not paid at maturity, then interest to be computed, at 'ten per cent.

per annum, and charged from date of note.
R. A. STEWART.

WE GUARANTEE THAT

THE CELEBRATED

Will cheerfully recommend it as the most DURABLE, PRACTICAL,

SIMPLE & PERFECT COOKING APPARATUS

THEY HAVE EVER USED, ADAPTED to ALL LOCALITIES EVERY KIND OF FUEL.

ST. LOUIS, And all Live Stove Dealers Like STEVENSON & CROSS. BROWNVILLE, NEB.

S. T.-1860-X.

This Wonderful Vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. B. F. SOUDER, As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachies. As a LES, ness to which women are esing every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

Beautiful Woman!

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM gives to the Complexion the Freshness of Youth HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM overcomes the flushed appearance caused by heat, fatigue and excitement It makes the lady of forty appear but twenty, and so naturally and perfect that no person can detect made to rival the pure radiant texture of youthful eauty. It removes reducas, blotches, and pimples, It contains nothing that will injure the skin in the > MAGNOLIA BALM is used by all fashlonable ladles n New York, London and Paris. It costs only 75 cents per Battle, and is sold by all Druggists and

J. J. GOSPER, Combined Sheller and Grinder, Wind Mill and Steamer. Also Breeder and Shipper of the celebrated other means, and vital organs wasted beyond the Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Parn the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chee Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Indammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other paints symptoms, are the off-springs of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its menia than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or out married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display a jecided an influence that improvement is so

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rhenmatism and Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Inter-mittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal Such Diseases are caused by Viriated Blood. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Toxic, possessing the merit of acting as a mation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, and h For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Sar-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Bolls Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried on Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR Br. istained the sinking system R. H. McDONALD & CO. Druggists and Gen. Agts., San Francisco, Cal., & cor. of Washington and Charlton Sts., N.Y. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS & DEALERS.

of the system in a short time by the use of these

L.D.SINE'S NINETEENTH To be drawn Wednesday, January 1, 1873,

IN VALUABLE GIFTS. 10,000 IN AMERICAN GOLD! 10,000 IN AMERICAN SILVER! 5 Prizes of $1,000 % Gree 1bar one Horse and Buggy, with Silver-mo sted as

ness, worth $600. One Fine-toned Rosewood Piano, worth | 100 Ten Family Sewing Machines, worth $1 each. Five Gold Watches and Chains, worth $1 each. Five Gold American Hunting Wutches, worth $12 each. Ten Ladies' Gold Hunting Wetches, worth Weach. 60 Gold and Silver Lever Hunting Watches, (in all) worth from $20 to $100 each. Whole Number Gifts, 6,500. Tickets Limited to $60,000. Agents wanted to sell tickets, to whom liberal Pre-SINGLE TICKETS $2; 6 TICKETS $10; 12 TICK

ETS $20: 25 TICKETS $40.

Circulars containing a full list of prizes, a description of the minner of drawing, and other information in reference to the Distribution, will be sent to any one ordering them. All letters must be L. D. SINE, Box 86. Cincinnati, Ohlo. Office, 101 W. 5th St.

OMAHA LOTTERY. A NOBLE CHARITY. To erect the Nebraska State Orphan Asylum, To be Drawn in Public December 30th, 1872. $230,505.00.

Tickets $1 Each, or Six for $5. Tickets sent by Express C.O.D., if desired. Grand Cash Prize. Grand Cash Prize, Cash Prize, 2 Cash Prizes, $3,000 each,... 4 Cash Prizes, $2,000 each,... 2 Cash Prizes, 31,000 each 50 Cash Prizes, each $100 200 "

465 cash prizes, amounting to ... $200.505 This Legal Enterprise is endorsed by the ighest authority of the State and best busi-Over one-half the tickets taken before Oct. st. The limited number on hand will be arnished those who apply first. Money can be sent by mail, in Registered Letters, Post Office Money Orders, or by Express.
All Prizes will be paid in full. AGENTS WANTED. For full particulars, address J. M. PATTEE,

General Manager, Omaha, Neb.

WHIPS, CANVAS COLLARS, ROBES, BROWNVILLE, NEB.

The best for excluding WIND, DUST, OR RAIN, from under doors. Swan & Bro. -

Clocks, Watches, Jewelry JOSEPH SHUTZ, No. 59 Main Straat, Brownville. Keeps constantly on hand a large and well assorted stock of ganuine articles in his line. Repairing of Clocks, Watches and Jewelry

the on short notice, at reasonable rates

GUM TISDEL & RICHARDS.