A Puzzle.

There is a story of how a chambermaid got twelve commercial travelers into eleven bedrooms, and yet to have given each a separate room. Here we have eleven bedrooms.

1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | 10 | 11 | "Now," said she, if two of you gentlemen will go into No. 1 bed room and wait there a few minutes, I'll find a spare room for one of you as soon as I've shown the other's to their rooms.

Well, now, having bestowed two gentlemen in No.1, she put the third in No. 2, the fourth in No. 3, fifth in No. 4, sixth in No 5, seventh in No. 6, eighth in No. 7, ninth in No. 8, tenth in No. 9, elevnth in No. 10, you remember, she had left the twelfth gentleman with the first, and spare; so, if one of you will step into room.
