INFANTILE CONUNDRUMS.

"Mamma, how did baby
Find the right way
From the angel's home
That summer day?"
Said little Ernie
At eventide
As he nestled close
Down by my side.

"Did God send her soul
On a silver cloud?
Did he call to you
So very loud
'Here's a baby dear
For you to love,
Coming down from heaven
Like a gentle dove?'

"I think an angel
Came just before,
To show the baby
Our papa's door.
Oh say, mamma dear,
Did you hear her sing,
And then let our
Dear little baby in?

And did she have wings
When she came that day,
That you've taken off
And put away?
Did the angel tell you
To lay them by,
'Till God should call her
Again on high?

"If I hear Him call her
I'll quickly say,
Dear heavenly Father,
O's! please let her stay!
You've babies enough
In your heaven above,
And we've only one
Little sister to love!"

THE BREWER HEIRS.

A Tale of Seventy Million Dollars.

Scarcely a day passes by that the public is not made acquainted with the fact that some fortunate man has fallen heir to a princely estate left him by a long forgotten representative of the family tree in Europe. These rumors, when sifted down generally prove to be mere creation of an imaginative mind, and for some years past there has been a settled conviction in the breasts of the majority of the intelligent newspaper readers that these tales are scarcely worthy of perusal, and that under no circumstances are they to be believed. And yet in view of the fact that hundreds and perhaps thousands of the original settlers of America were members of wealthy and noble families, who were for religious, political and other reasons, obliged to leave their own countries, it can not be considered so strange that heirs to mamoth and ofcentimes unknown fortunes have ere this been discovered among the decendents of these early emigrants. How often do we hear of indistinct and imperfect family traditions of foreign possessions, which are looked upon as visionary and without foundation, yet when followed up have resolved themselves into living and substantial facts.

A case has recently come to light which involves the division of an enormous fortune among the heirs of Sarah Weber and Wintjie Sybrant Brewer, of Holland, when their identity is once fully established. Comparatively few of our readers are unacquainted with the history of the now celebrated controversy between the heirs of Anneke Jans and the Trinity Church corporation for possession of what is known as the Trinity Church property of New York City. Large sums of money have been spent in the suit by the contestents, and the archæological records of the past two centuries have undergone such an overhauling as has seldom been known.

A MERE MATTER OF $70,000,000.

An agent of the Anneka Jans heirs, who had been sent to Holland to examine the records of that kingdom a year or two since, in his researches came in possession of the knowledge of the existence of a fortune of nearly $70,000,000 for which there were no claimants. His discovery was made known to the government as soon as possible, and upon his return to the United States, a vigorous search was made for the heirs, though the story did not gain much publicity on account of the prominence given the Trinity Church difficulty on every hand. The circumstances connected with this curious history, are substantially as follows: The record of the bank of Holland, (a Government institution,) show that in 1641, 232 years ago, a disposit of 35,000 pounds sterling was made in that bank by a wealthy Dutchman. This money was placed there in trust for two children known as Sarah Weber and Wintjie Sybrant Brewer, and was to come into their possession upon the death of an invalid relative, who was to receive the benefit of the interest accruing on the deposit during his lifetime. Before the demise of the invalid relative, however, the heirs came to this country, where they were married shortly afterward. The relative maintained his grip on life with that remarkable tenacity so often displayed by invalids, and refused to shuffle off for a period of twenty years; at least the records at the bank show that he enjoyed the interest on the £35,000 for twenty years, and the receipts are on file to that effect. After the ailing one had ceased to have earthly use for the accretions of the base coin, the Government held the deposit for delivery to the rightful claimants upon demand. But for some unexplained reason, the heirs failed to put in an appearance, and the money was not called for. The inference is that the invalid relative outlived the heirs, or that they were in ignorance of their would be benefactor. At any rate the fortune remained untouched and has continued to increase in value ever since until it has assumed the gigantic proportions above named. When the Dutch government became acquainted with the history of the case and collossal fortune which it was holding in trust for somebody, advertisements were at once made for the heirs, as the amount had assumed such frightful proportions that unless it was removed soon it would require the entire contents of the Royal exchequer to liquidate the indebtedness. Such a practical demonstration of the astonishing workings of compound interest has before been seen as this, and will afford the philantrophic T. S. Arthur substance for innumerable interesting tales, setting forth the advantages of depositing tobacco and gin money in good savings institutions. The youthful reader will be told how his progeny in after generations may be made to raise up and call him blessed, by depositing his cash and leaving it for the benefit of infirm relatives who will die and forget to tell anything about it. Such a compilation of facts so clearly proving the truth of the adage that "Truth is stranger than fiction" does not occur every day, and the modern romance producer should not fail to profit by it without delay.

THE DISCOVERY OF THE HEIRS.

But the most interesting portion of this strange and remarkable narrative yet remains to be told. When the discovery of the Anneke Jans agent became known it raised a terrible commotion among the descendants of the early Dutch settlers in this country, and a general building up of genealogical trees among those who were so unfortunate as not to have one of those auxillaries so essential to the peace of every well regulated family. As a result of this sudden manifestation of interest in historical research, about five hundred citizens became convinced that they were entitled to a slice from the ancestral possessions, and it is needless to say that none failed to let their names be enrolled in the list of applicants. Whatever doubts may have been entertained of the reality of the $70 000,000 were dispersed upon the publication of the advertisement offered by the Government of Holland, and the claimants already began to fancy themselves gloating over their suddenly accumulated wealth. A large number of the heirs reside in and about New York, though the decendents of one branch of the family can be found in no small numbers in this State and in Mercer county, Kentucky. It is with the heirs in this locality, however, that we have principally to deal at present. Although the Anneke Jans and Brewer fortunes are totally separate and distinct, it has been discovered that the families were closely connected, and many of the claimants to the Trinity Church estate also appear as descendants of the Brewer family. In the year 1780, the people of the coast States become imbued with a restless feeling which resulted in a general immigration towards the West; and from a letter in the Sullivan County Union, a short time since, we learn something of the history of the Brewer family and its peregrenations. At that time Daniel Brewer Sr., a son of Wintjie and Sarah Brewer, together with his sons Abram, John and Daniel, with their families, and his daughter Phoebe, the wife of Cornelius Demaree, Susan, the wife of Samuel Demaree, Mary, the wife of Cornelius Cozine, with their families, came to Kentucky and settled near Harrodsburg, Mercer county. A few years afterwards the daughters, Leath and her husband, James Stagg, and Rachel and her husband, Henry Comingor, joined the remainder of the family in its new home. The family branched out, soon after, and became established in three or four localities in this State, where they now exist. With a view of

CALLING TOGETHER THE REPRESENTATIVES

of the different families in the State for consultation, the following letter has been sent them by Mr. Charles W. Stagg, of this city who is one of the heirs:

"INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 23, 1873.

You have doubtless learned already that there is about seventy million of dollars in the hands of the Government of Holland, belonging to the descendants of the Brewer family, who came to America at an early day, and that the Dutch Government has advertised for the Brewer heirs. There are known five hundred persons entitled to a share of this fortune, so that a partition will give each person about one hundred and forty thousand dollars. A convention of the heirs will meet at New York City on the 10th day of November 1873, at which time the Indiana members of the family ought to be represented; and for that purpose we address you this letter, appointing a meeting of the Brewer heirs in Indiana, at this city, on the 5th day of November next. At that meeting a suitable person will be selected to represent the interests of the heirs in this State in the General Convention at New York, and provision made to defray necessary expenses. You are requested to attend and to convey notice of the meeting to any others of the persons interested with whom you may be acquainted.

"The meeting will take place at the office of Charles W. Stagg, No. 5 Parker's Block, North Delaware street, between Washington and Market.

LIST OF THE HEIRS.

The names of the members of this interesting and now popular family in Indiana, so far as now known, are given below. In Indianapolis we have Mr. C. W. Stagg, Dr. Comigor, W. C. Smock, H. W. Caldwell, Mrs. Sarah Wood, Mr. Charles French, Mrs. Cady and perhaps one or two others. Southport, Marion county, sends in a delegation, among which are; Samuel Brewer, Alfred Brewer, John Brewer, Albert Simmons, Elizabeth McGuire. From Greenwood Johnson county, are the following: John Brewer, Mrs. B. Smock, John C. Brewer, Mrs. H. Bass, Harvey Brewer, Abram Brewer, Jacob Comingor, John Comingor and W. R. Lemartin. Whiteland, Johnson Co., is represented by John Brewer, Daniel Brewer Bonta, and Abram Sharp. Those in other portions of the State are as follows: Wm. Brewer, of Crawfordsville, Rev. Daniel DeMotte and Prof. DeMotte, of Greencastle; John Brewer, of Greysville. In addition to the above, several representatives of the Kentucky branch of the family are expected, among which are several of the grandchildren of Daniel Brewer, sr., the progenitor of the Indiana and Kentucky heirs, by whom it is proposed to prove that Daniel was the son of Wintjie and Sarah Brewer.

WHAT BECAME OF THE MILLION DOLLARS.

Another interesting fact has been brought to light in conection with this which explains to a certain degree the reason why H. W. Caldwell did not get his million dollars. It will be rembered that Mr. Caldwell, well known as the General Superintendent of the Exposition, as a representative of the Cozine family laid claim, a few years since, to the possession of a large tract of land in the most densely populated part of New York City. He showed by pretty conclusive evidence that he held the title to the land upon which a hundred year lease had just expired. He went to New York and laid his claims before those in possession of the lands, and a compromise was effected whereby the holders were to pay over to Mr. Caldwell the sum of $1,000,000, who would then relinquish all claims thereto. Mr C. duly announced the fact to his friends, and one day started of to the metropolis in the most elated frame of mind imaginable. He returned shortly laboring under the deepest dejection and gave all interested to know that he did not get his million dollars, though refusing to give any explanation for the failure. As might have been expected this provoked a vast deal of not very favorable comment from all sides, which lasted several months. Recent developments would seem to show, however, that he failed to establish his claims through a discovery made at the last moment that he was a representative of the wrong branch of the Cozine family. Should this prove true it will forever clear up the mystery of the million, which had began to be looked upon as about as unfathomable as the mystery surrounding the supositious individual who voted for Daubenspeck. An agonized public will await with intense interest the coming developments in the settlement among the claimants to a fortune discovered after the lapse of over 200 years under the peculiar circumstances above narrated.

A justice of the peace in Illinois, before whom a citizen had prosecuted his daughter's lover for ejecting him from his own parlor, the Sunday evening previous, solemnly decided as follows—"It 'pears that this young feller was courtin' the plaintiff's gal in plaintiff's back parlor, and was put out by defendant. Courtin' is a public necessity, and must not be interrupted. Therefore, the law of Illinois will hold that a parent has no legal right in a room where courtin' is afoot, and so the defendant is discharged and plaintiff must pay costs.'

In Kansas they seem disposed to encourage the vanquishment of the emissaries of the adversary by the preachers. Recently at a camp meeting near Parsons, the officiating minister, an elderly man, descended from the platform and, unaided, soundly thrashed three ruffians who were disturbing the exercises, after which he resumed his exhortations with renewed fervor, and the congregation raised $50 for him on the spot.

MEDICAL.

VINEGAR BITTERS
VEGETABLE — FREE FROM ALCOHOL
PURELY — CALIFORNIA
DR. WALKER'S
EUREKA
VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked. "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.
