RECIPES, ETC.

Most of the mustard sold by grocers is not genuine. It may contain a little mustard, but is composed mainly of wheat flour, turmeric, and sometimes capsicum. Cracker Pie .- Eight crackers pounded fine, on which pour boiling water to soften; eight table-spoonfuls of vinegar, eight of sugar, one lemon; if too stiff, add water. - Molasses Candy .- Two cups molasses, one cup sugar, one tablespoonful vinegar, butter six of a hickory nut. Boil briskly twenty minutes, stirring all the time. When cool pull until white. - Potato Custard .- Ten potatoes boiled soft, six or eight eggs, sugar to your taste, one cup milk, quarter pound of butter, nutmeg, essence of emon, brandy and wine to your taste.

Mash the potatoes very fine, -A theory is promulgated that corn is the cause of chicken cholerathat it and hog cholera are most prevalent when pigs and chickens are fed almost exclusively on corn-that corn contains less of the phosphates Oldest Paper in Nebraska. and more of the fatty matter than other cereals, and this accounts for

This should be gradually pushed until the reduction in weight is one or two pounds a week. This cannot fail, and will invariably improve health. - Dio Lewis. - Excellent Johnny Cakes .-- One cup meal, one of flour, one of sugar, one of milk, one agg, botter the size of an egg, soda and cream-tartar. Another. - Four tablespoons of corn meal, tablespoontule of flour, a little salt, pepper and cayenne, a large acid apple one small shalot, stock sufficient to cover it. Cut the meat into cutlets; take care to have a bone in each, and fry them a light brown with a little butter. The shalot should be fried at the same time. Peel and core the apple and cut it up; stew the meat, shalot and apple in the stock for half an hour, very gently; then add the curry powder and flour, having previously mixed them with haif a cup of stock. Let it boil up twice, dish up the cutlets, and pour the sauce over them. This curry is excellent. It may be made in the same manner with chickens or rabbits; and should apples not be in season, a little lemon juice may be added just before it is boiled up.
