We notice that the young women exhibit preference for the young men and sometimes the fascination of the oc casion and the person leads conversation into other chanels than that of temperance. Rumor to the contrary notwithstanding, not a saloon keeper in Lincoln has abandoned his calling owing to the crusade, and there is not a saloon less here now than there was when the "cruel war" first opened. Miss Garrison, the peripatetic inaugurator of the movement, has given currency to contrary reports on her travels, but her assertions are not warranted by fact.

I notice that our old friend Dr. Hol-

A PAYING ORCHARD ON EXTRA-

We have a few thousand extra size-7 to 10 feet-shape and quality of the fine large Siberian varieties of crab apple trees, four year old, some of which fruited in the Nursery rows last season, to dispose of the present spring. We believe there is more money, and an earlier realization in a crab apple orchard than in any other. To show our faith, we will dispose of these trees to reliable, careful, permanently established farmers, or fruit growers, this spring on the following terms: We will take as pay for the trees one crop of the fruit they produce, at any season by us to be designated with in ten years from date of planting, or, purchaser can pay for them at 50 cts. each with 10 per cent. interest within three years from date of planting. Not less than 100 trees to be taken. Articles of agreement with bond for faithful performance of contract to be entered into. The varieties are Hyginia. The sizes we offer retail at 75 cts and $1. each in Eastern tree markets, and are worth that here in the Nursery row.

JOHN STRAIN. BROWNVILLE, April 10, 1874.

John Strain, Esq.-Dear Sir; My aversion to all explanations, as one of the original committee from plice. the Granges of Nemaha county, to negotiate with me for starting the "Nemaha County Granger," induces me to leave the following statement you will make it public, if you find upon investigation that it will in any way protect me from injurious im-1st. I stated in the Grange Convention at Grand Prairie, that no partnership ever existed between Dr. A.

S. Holladay and myself in connec tion with the Granger. This statethe contract on file in Judge Thomas' office shows the same. By this contract I was responsible for all expenses of the office, which of itself bars the idea of partnership. I was also SUPERINTENDENT'S NOTICE left entirely free to carry out my pledges to the Grange committee, in conducting the principles of the pa- will please take notice per. By the contract Dr. Holladay 42tf was to receive one-half the nett profits of the office, he disclaiming the the contract as I understood it, was in Brownville, Neb. simply to place the rental of the office on a basis which it was hoped would prove more beneficial to the stock-holders of the Granger. 2nd. I stated in the convention that MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY the contract alluded to above was not anticipated by me, at the time I negotisted with the Grange committee, and that it was arranged and signed | 42w1 subsequent to my agreement with the committee, and this statement Dr Holladay will also confirm, as he has already done so in conversation with Dr. S. W. McGrew and myself: be sides the date of the contract shows this. Previous to the written contract a verbal agreement on my part to pay Dr. Holladay fifteen dollars a Guns made to order. Repairing neatly done mouth for the rent of the office had existed, and the examination of the books by Mr. Vancil showed that but one month of the fifteen dollars rent was unpaid when the Granger start ed. Every obligation I have con tracted has been fully settled.

I believe, Mr. Strain, these are the only points on which my conduct might be misapprehended, according to your conversation with me, and I should regret to know that I left a single hard feeling against myself, in a community towards which my own sentiments are altogether friendly. I had no business transactions with Dr. Holladay until he bought in the Democrat under a mortgage which Mr. J D. Calhoun had made to the Doctor. This was in September, 1873. In 1872, Mr. E. H. Porter and myself paid Mr. Calboun one thousand dollars eash, in part payment for the Brown ville Democrat, which we both agreed to lose, and did lose, rather than pay the mortgage and carry out the remainder of the bargain. Dr. Holladay had repeatedly told me, after the foreclosure of the mortgage, that one thousand dollars in each would pur chase his interest in the Granger. In January, 1874, I tried to borrow one thousand dollars from Mr. John L Carson, who had been very kind to me, offering as security, should I purchase, a mortgage on the paper, together with a lien on one thousand dollars worth of real and personal property. Mr. Carson assurred me that the credit of the bank was worth more to him than anything else; the panic was raging, the funds had to be held, and at that time the bank was accommodating no borrowers. Soon after this the accounts of the Granger were carefully examined : the receipts of the paper did not jus-Respectfully. R. O. WHITEHEAD.

MURDERED AND ROBBED.

A Young Tennesseaen's Terrible Crime in Texas-The Degenerate Son of an Illustrious Sire.

Recent advices from Texas give the details of a terrible crime committed in that state by a young Tennesseean . Among the passengers on a stage running between Fort Worth and Jacksboro, a few days ago, were Charles Gentry, a son of the late Hon. Merdith P. Gentry, and a wealthy Missourian, named Shire. Gentry evinced considerable anxiety to establish intimate relations with Shire, but his advances were in every instance repulsed. By a sudden change of tactics, Gentry attempted to bring apout an altercation, but failed also in this, as the other party seemed determined to avoid trouble. Finally an insulting epitaph and a blow in the mouth brought the Missourian to his feet, with the remark that if Gentry was spoiling for fight he could step out on the road. The driver was ordered to stop and the two dropped behind the stage. A shot was heard and the team dashed off at full speed. One of the passengers looked back and saw Gentry, pistol in hand, bending over Shire, who was stetched upon his back in the road. When the team had run about half a mile, the passenger drew a bead on the driver and theatened to shoot him through the head unless he turned back to Shire's assistance. When they reacher Shire he was breathing his last. An ugly hole in his temple told how The consumption of sugars in the deed of blood had been done. The truth about that matter is. Mr. Thomas was not the temperance candidate nor any other kind of a candidate. There was no temperance candidate for Mayor. The temperance candidate for Marshal, Mr. Campbell, was elected; and if there was any struggle in Brownville between temment Dr. Holladay will confirm, and perance and anti-temperance it was over the Marshalship.
