The Board of County Commissioners met on Monday at the County Clerk's office and Board of Equalization to equalize the assessments of the lands in the different precincts. The Board will at work as we go to press, and we cannot speak of the matter fully and understandingly this week. We learn that many complaints are made of the gross inequality of assessments. The ideas of the valuation of lands is entertained by different assessors are most wonderfully inharmonious, it would seem.

Our correspondents are becoming numerous that we have to caution them to study brevity. Long-winded articles about matters of minor interest do not suit our readers. It must be a subject of very general interest that will justify us, hereafter, in inserting articles that will make more than one-half column. Longer articles may, when we think we can spare the space, and keep up the general variety of interesting reading, find a place in our columns, but short articles stand much the best chance of getting into print. Short, pointed articles upon local or other subjects of general importance and interest are just what we want, and we seldom do more than many of them, but long, weary communications, the gist of which could be told in a dozen lines, are just what we do not want, and which bore us and our readers whenever we gratify the vanity of shallow authors by printing their spiteful, uninteresting effusions.

Johnny Smith, the popular city barber has just added another useful and pretty ornament to his splendidly furnished shop, in the shape of a new chair. We are not an expert in describing a barber's chair, but this one has a revolving seat, and when Johnny is through rubbing you down and sneaking you up, he touches a spring with his toe, the seat revolves throwing his delighted customer out on the pavement. Call on Johnny and try it. He makes everybody feel good who takes a seat in that new chair.

NEMAHA CITY ITEMS.

J. B. H. is making large shipments of grain on the steamer Wolff. Dr. Crim and lady, of Aspinwall, were in town the other day, getting photographs taken at the picture car.

Our new city officers say they intend to enforce the laws strictly hereafter. That is what the people here want to see.

A most singular orange was recently to be seen at the store of J. B. Hoover. The juice of which was very nearly as red as blood.

Everything quiet in town. Farmers in the vicinity are busy putting in crops, and a large yield of wheat is expected the coming harvest.

A horse race came off on our race track last Saturday. The boys had fun but everything was quiet and everybody sober and good humored.

J. B. Hoover was planting potatoes early last week. He is in his glory when making garden. Birk always has the earliest truck in town.

We still have hopes of getting the Trunk R. R. before long. Then look out for Nemaha City—she will surely hold her head up proudly then.

J. B. Hoover went hunting between Saturday and Monday and killed a fine lot of ducks and other game. He met Den and Alex. Robison at the same business.

J. B. Hoover's song now is "let me go to the far distant west, to chase the antelope o'er the plain," and he says he is going "by George," and we think he will for he has told it so often. If the Indians scalp him it will not hurt him, as he wears a wig.

We have been blest with but one crusader. A woman went to a saloon where one of her sons was playing cards and drinking, and prayed so loud she could be heard all over town. While she was praying for one of her boys, the other one was in a saloon on the other side of the street, playing cards. He is, or was, a Good Templar, too. We say bully for such women. Somebody wants to know which is the worst, to drink cards for the drinks and do the drinking yourself, or pay for somebody else's drink?

Ladies! That room where the paper has become soiled and torn, which your husband said could be patched to do another year—put your foot right down, and assert your rights; and say to him that H. C. Lett has his new stock of wall paper, and so cheap you cannot afford to patch, and if he expects you to make his home cheerful let him go at once and buy enough to paper every room in the house. Every good wife will make this demand and no loving husband will refuse the request.

Peru last week enjoyed a Sunday School Institute, which was a very profitable meeting. Quite a number of ministers and delegates were present from the district.

Rev. H. P. Burdick, M. D. gave an excellent temperance lecture in the M. E. Church last Thursday night. Mr. Burdick has the happy faculty of keeping the congregation awake.

If the Glen Rock "Itemizer" don't keep his scurrilous, slanderous tongue quiet, he will have something published that will open his eyes, and the eyes of the public, too. The morals of Peru will get along very well without a man whose fingers stick to things.

Bishop F. G. Andrews preached in the M. E. Church last Sabbath, morning and evening. The Church was in debt about one thousand dollars, but after the Bishop's sermon in the morning about eight hundred and fifty dollars were subscribed, and in the evening the subscription was swelled to over one thousand dollars. Bishop Andrews will long be remembered in Peru as a able expounder of the word, and a very pleasant christian man.

Mary Clemmer Ames' New Book. TEN YEARS IN WASHINGTON—LIFE AND SCENES IN THE NATIONAL CAPITAL, AS A WOMAN SEES THEM.—A NEW ILLUSTRATED VOLUME OF PERSONAL EXPERIENCE, INTERESTING REMINISCENCES, AND OBSERVATIONS.—BY MARY CLEMMER AMES—PUBLISHED BY A. D. WORTHINGTON & CO., BOSTON, MASS.

The name of Mary Clemmer Ames has become a familiar and honored household word. She has enjoyed rare facilities for observation and for obtaining reliable information concerning the "inner life" at Washington, its mysteries, wonders, marvels, secret doings, ect., such as no other person of either sex has ever before been able to command. Her keen eye has been watchful of every person cognizant of every fact. In this volume she takes us with her and points out to us not only what an ordinary observer might see and describe, but what with a woman's wit and a patriot's devotion she herself has seen and felt.

It is a book of National interest.—a book for everyone. It is actually overflowing with good things for every man, woman and child—full of amusements and instruction for all. Mrs. Ames shows us the wonders and workings of the elaborate machinery of the Government, and tells us all about the men and women whose words and deeds are making up today's history of our country. She explains what they do and how they do it; and in a charming manner she gives us the Ten years experience of a clever and wide-awake woman. She tells us every incident and fact which can instruct or amuse. Everywhere we witness wonders. At every step the Author pours forth a fund of information and anecdote, which is as charming as it is unexpected.

No other book ever published, has appealed so large a constituency as does this one. It is a book for no one class, condition, set or party; it is a work for all. It is indispensable to every wide-awake and progressive person—everywhere. It is a book for American homes and heartstrings, and wherever there is an American family, there is a waiting customer for this charming work.

In point of printing binding gilding ornamentation and above all beautiful and costly illustrated, this work is unequalled; while the superb steel-plate portrait of Mary Clemmer Ames, engraved for purpose, and the first and only portrait of any kind ever engraved of her will be highly prized by the tens of thousands in all sections of our country who love and admire her genius.

This work will be sold only to those who order of the Agent, who will soon introduce it to our citizens. We bespeak for it a most cordial reception—for it is worthy of it.

Louis E. Snurr, of Brownville is the appointed agent to sell the book, for the following precincts in this county: Brownville, Douglas, Glen Rock and Peru.

A child of Wm. Stoddard's died very suddenly on Wednesday of last week. The cause of its death is not fully understood. It was about 14 months old.

Saturday last was a warm, pleasant day; but Sunday was quite different. The wind blew, and the rain fell, and a position near a good cheer full fire, was the most pleasant place to be found.

Fourty acres of land just north of, and adjoining the present site of Sheridan, will be surveyed into town lots the coming week. This is done to supply the increasing demand for Sheridan town property.

Sheridan has two mails a day, Sunday excepted, which are delivered with astonishing regularity by the K. & N. Stage Co. They have not missed a mail in the last ten months. This is more than some R. R. towns can boast of.

Fred Parker of Brownville passed through town astride an animal of the equine species a few days ago. His position on the beast, and his skill in managing it, reminded us of the marine on shore who thought to amuse himself while off duty by indulging in a little equestrian exercise. Seated prettily well astride he was urging his horse along, who seemed disposed to object to the location of his rider, when he met his commanding officer. "Sit a little more amiable, Jack, and you'd be easier," said the captain. "No," answered Jack, "this is the first craft I ever commanded, and I'll be blown if I don't ride on the quarter deck."
