

TIRED MOTHERS.

a titlicelbow leans upon your knee. etdid's dear eyes are looking lovingly derneath a thatch of tangled hair. the velvet touch of warm moist fingers holding yours so van do not prize this blessing overmuch. yog are atmost too fired to pray to-night.

as it is blessedness ! A year ago Last not see it as 1 do to-day, wante su duil and thankless; and too slow the sunshmentill if slins away. reat while I have the badge of motherhood statud kiss more oft and tenderly.

you miss the elbow from your tired knee ma restless curling head from off your sintitis's roled hand had slip-Rental TOUL OF S tral marier ugain (in-while feet into the grave had tripped Found not blame you for your heartache timi mothers ever fret. alidizen clinging to their gown; lion, passed a merry evening with mouch to make them

NI sonid find a little muddy boot. dram, or incket, on my chamber floor ; of could kiss a new, residence front. is thear its patter in any home once more end a broken eart to-day also a wite to reach the sky-Enteritable dataty pillow next my own istrate complet by a stiming head-Mysinging building from Us nest has flown

OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

most as much as when gold was 200 your tired knee, that has so much to bear; Suicides-Newspaper Buildings-Olen- per cent. The best beefsteak costs at margarine-Business-The Cost of retail 35 cents per pound. An average business suit, $60, (cost in Lon-

> Correspondence Nebraska Advertiser. NEW YORK, May 9, 1874.

THE WEATHER AND SUICIDE. It would be curious to trace the connection between the weather and su- iyn for a man and wife at $12 per icide. The moon rules the tides and affects potatoes and man, to such an $30. I don't believe all this can beseems surpassing strange to me, extent, she gives the name of lunacy come righted without a tumble in prito the craziness she is believed to cer, and that of a radical and thora more off and tenderly, shill that brought me only good, cause, and why should not the weath- ough sort. It is all very well to have er of the last ten days drive perplex- a currency as good as gold, but not if night when you sit down to ed and sensitive natures to despair a gold dollar won't buy any more and death ? Seven New Yorkers, of than a paper dollar did when it took high and low degree, suicided (to use two of them to be worth a gold one. the new word) last week, and the It is true that prices have not declintongue that chatters con- weather was had enough to account ed as our money became more valuafor it. There may be no new thing ble, as they should do and must do. under the sun, but we are getting the But how and when? nestle in your palm old done over with surprising varia- The almanac says May, but the tions, as was shown by one of these weather says March.

unfortunates, who hunted up a newspaper reporter, asking him to accompany him to a certain hotel on Staten Island, where he would find a sensa-vints, when the days are him, and retiring for the night, he drank his last dram from a bottle of laudanum and supplied his newspaper friend with a capital news item in the morning, as he lay composedly stark and stiff in death. One would er would have saved the victim had farmers are not unmindful of their full capacity of this soil?

THE STATE FAIR,

ANNOUNCEMENT BY PRESIDENT J. S. MORTON.

don, $25,) a fashionable male hat, $9; THE ANNUAL ADDRESS AND ITS ditto, female, $30. These are war pri-SUBJECT. ces, and yet gold is only 12 per cent.

Good private board before the war At the city of Omaha September could be had in this city and Brooktwenty-ninth (29th) 1874, the Nebraska State Fair will open. With propweek. As good now costs at least er interest on the part of our farmers and fruit growers, the season having been propitious, that exhibition will be a complete demonstration of the wonderful fertility of Nebraska soil, and its perfect adaptability to the productions of cereals, root crops and frult incident to this latitude. Every citizen can do something to forward the affair towards success. Every citzen has an intesrest in helping to the best of his ability, and each farmer in the State will certainly have something worthy of exhibition. In Eng-PIETRO. land premium crops are raised systemmatically, the plowoing is premium

THE FARMER AND MERCHANT. Effitor Nebraska Advertiser. tendance of the crop is of a premium It is not often that I take this mode character, that is, first rate, best. to express my opinions, or talk to my But here in the west, where soil is obliging friend G. A. Brown, but as rich and easily tilled, we too often the season is late and seed time is up- leave extraordinary qualities and on us, the farmers have not time to quantities in productions to fortutious spend a day every week to gratify his circum stances. Can we not turn over longing desires, or console him in his a new leaf in this regard, and make julike to think that the favored report- great troubles and afflictions. The dicious efforts to demonstrate the he anticipated his intentions; let us obligations and duties to their fellow If without especial effort seventy man in God's world could say believe he would, although newspa. creatures, nor do they overlook or and eighty bushels of corn freper rivalry runs high, and if I really disregard the rights of others ; much quently raise upon an acre of ground. wanted to be stopped from doing any more those of our friend Brown, why not, by extra tillage, produce an sensational deed, I should not select The farmers have been and are at hundred bushels, and even an hunpresent carefully investigating the dred and forty of the same grain upon matter on both sides, giving equally the same breadth of land? And to saint and sinner his due porttion, whereas, with ordinary cultivation, demanding nothing but what is right forty bushels of wheat have been and just, and which belongs to every given to the acre in Nebraska, quite citizen of our country. The right to frequently, why not endeavor by superlatively careful sowing and a just compensation for his labor. The Grange movement has no doubt harvesting to produce sevent-five bushels? succeeded beyond his powers of mind

The juice was absolutely sucked uation as stevedore on a steamboat. dry from Bross's orange. He arose; and soon blurted something about the lateness TURNED UP of the hour, and the fact that the in New Orleans. From Orleans he left at Petroleum Center, and who had a wife, only one, to whom he ground had been so well covered by sailed for Cuba, and then sailed to have believed him dead. Sneger says had always been an indulgent and previous speakers, and then flopped Rio Janeiro. He stayed there a short he has been twice apprehended; one loving husband. They had no child ; into his chair again.

While Oglesby and the Lombards trailia. In course of time he found and escaped on horseback ; and on ise to never take another wife. One were winding up the show, Bross his way across to Old Mexico. Then two other odcasions he paid them for day while he was out, one of his servslipped out and hastening to the de- he wandered up through the North- his freedom, the price of liberty in ants came and told him to go home, pot, telegraphed to the coming train ern States of the old empire into Low- these instances being about $10,000 and to enter the house by a private and secured the whole of the only re- er and finally Upper California. But each time. maining section in the sleeping car. he was too restless to tarry long in a For four years past a standing re- did so, and went to his chamber to His revenge was coarse, but sweep- place, and so he crossed Arizons into ward of $100,000 has been offered for find it locked. With one blow it was ing, for, while he was sprawled com- Texas, and settled down at San An- Seager's arrest and return to the au- open, and his dishonor was only too fortably in his berth, his whilem per- tonio. secutors were obliged to sit up all night .= Washington Letter.

HYM FOR A LITTLE CHILD. God make my life a little light, Within the world to glow : A little flame that burneth bright, Wherever I may go.

God make my life a little flower. That giveth Joy to all. Content to bloom in native botter. Although its place be smail.

God make my life a little song, That comforteth the sad ; That helpeth others to be strong, And makes the singer glad,

God make my life a little staff Whereon the weak may rest. That so what health and strength I have May serve my neighbors best.

God make my life a little hymn Of tenderness and praise; Of faith-that never waxeth dim, In all his wonderous ways. -Good Words.

AN EXCITING NARRATIVE.

bovine for awhile, and then steppe

BETOND THEIR REACH ; but he claims to have made provision for his wift and children, whom he name of T. L. McGee. He became, it a short time, one of the best known of the successful cattle owners of Texas. His brand is now on forty thousand head of bovines. He is, moreover, one of the best-known characters on the Texan frontier, having been exposed to all manner of dangers, and made innumerable hairbredth escapes, both from copper-colored and M. E. W. pale-faced foes. He has traversed all the cattle-trails between Texas and

VILLAINY. A Sane Man Confined to a Lunatic As of stock-men, mostly of the roughest Appropriated by his Persecutors.

[From the Sioux City Journal. McGee had some caltle which he Covington, our trans-Missouri wanted to put upon the Denver marneighbor, has had a sensation of metket. So he selected his men, and ropolitan proportions. For six years started a drove from Texas about the she has numbered among her resibegining of last March. They reachdents a man named Thomas Carter, ed camp eight miles from here two and a woman named Mrs. Dracott, days ago. The same evening McGee the twain, as is alieged, bearing relamounted his horse and rode into town tion's to each other which it is incumleaving the herders in camp. He hunted up some stockmen, talked bent upon couples in similar circama stances to have ratified according to

THE PASHA'S REVENCE. The Olive Harper's Constantinople biter to the Alta, Californiii.

A certain Pasha in high position time, and then sailed around to Aus- time lie knocked the detective down, but still be kept faithful to his promway, open only to the servants. He thorities at Petroleum Center. Ben- apparent. He was armed, but he In Texas he is known only by the nehoff has been notified by telegraph, made no use of his pistols or sabreand a requisition will be forwarded He simply addressed the man, who immediately, no doubt. Sheriff Cook | was one of his intimate friends, and stands a good show of striking a big told him that he could not leave the stake by this fortuitous circumstance. room until he was paid. The man A detective, Hale, from Philadelphia, stared in hopeless astonishment and I believe, who is looking up another fear, when the Pasha demanded five case, spent nine months, in 1859, in francs. The Pasha addressed noan effort to find Saeger, but without word of reproach to his wife, but left so much as striking a trace. And the room, and commanded a banquet now he is nabbed right under his to be served that night, but only for himself and wife. He remained alone until then. His wife had always eaten with him and been his companion instead of plaything. He had always ylum for Twelve Years-His Fortune | honored her above all women in the world, and she was treated by him in every respect not only as an equal, but a superior being. The banquet was spread. He went and gave his arm to bit wife, conducted her to the table, placed her is usual, and took his seat opposite. He smiled on her and talked as usual ; but before he had eaten anything he had taken the five franc piece and laid it on the table before her and between them. For six months he ate every meal with her and slept by her side, but always with five franc piece between them. Where he had bought her one dress before, he now gave her three

Where he had been kind before, he was ten-fold tender in manner, and he allowed her perfect liberty of action Yet every day and every night.

like an accusing angel, was that piece of money laid between them. She could not eat, though pressed most affectionately, with that silent accuser there; she could not sleep, though the best physicians tried their skill, with that spectre beside her, and so, when six months were passed, one day the wasted skeleton body of the woman was found dead on the divan.

died, and when they entered the Pasha lay dead on the same divan.

Fats not dead, but sleeping here:

For you must come and sleep with E

Repent, my love, before you die,

She was dead, and laid in the tomb

FROM IOWA.

This Committee Allowert see Aren't the last number of the AD convision a little bit sensational in its Surely Conrad been committing matrimony so fearfally as your columns would seem to it must be sensa-

Cam dords county has five railroads sendering over her prairies, all of which have been constructed within the last five years. Until recently and owners have been satisfied to live in the eastern States surrounded by the conveniences of their lands from tax liens, but now a lie wake of the railroads they wealth of their labar and their menagement to the immense resources of this rapidly vising State. It is won agricultural forces which are making this good the weathlest counties four and line are the ris. The products of te: me kilus and of five water power grist-mills, consuming each market in all the lown and Mintennets. soft wealth are values es without tailroads. With present tach article of exportation is some- ished from the sincere milk of the don't rest in ignorance of your true Wing, but on all they sell the aggre- cow Units to a small fortune annu-We do not wonder that many hearm that foods him, but the wise and prudent will conserve the goose not likely. People will continue to that lays the golden egg.

the alert reporter to do it.

NEWSPAPER BUILDINGS. The rivalry of the leading journals in this city, and elsewhere, shows itself in the fine and costly buildings they have got into the way of erect ing for their own use. The Times, Harms and Dr. Matthews have not the Herald, the Staats Zeitung, the Express, are housed in magnificent structures of their own; the Tribune indicate. Contrad is too wary a fox to is creeting one equal to the best, and betrapped at his age, and the Doctor the venerable Evening Post proposes are before and ought to to emerge from the straitened faciliup this distnal wail from the gloomy ties of Nassau street, and sit conspicheart of our freuzied friend. It is not ical. If you deny it, ash Conrad, uously down on Broadway. All this because the farmers have not been as ostentation costs money, which must > come out of the earnings of the journals, unless they rent the space they don't use at a profit; and it reaily as their hands. A better knowledge and fine crops. makes little or no difference to a readof the prices of goods places the farmet of any newspaper what sort of a building it is issued from. The Lonion Times occupies dingy quarters on country, hence better times to the an aliev, and who cares for that? farmer and less profit to the merch. Fair ? The grand essential of a newspaper ant who has sacrificed so much to acnow-n-days is news, and plenty of it. A Michigan weekly has a correspondent in a neighboring town, who underiakes to supply that commodity to i s columns. This is one of his recent

'The canponitors of cabarels, in brought upon himself, by stepping Galesburg, was visited last week by into the shore of a respectable farmer Mrs. R. Ransom and Mrs. A. H who is so well paid for lifs labor, and Proctor, in the interest of temperature. raise corn for fifteen cents put bushel They had an elongated nuncupative to pay for shoddy that some country interparance with D. Harris, who merchaot will sell him at a hundred met their appropriation with approvper cent. profit to clothe himself and ne sentiment. Mr. Harris thinks family. I would advise him to try they are lattice of prbanity and pulthe remedy, put in sixteen good hours chrytude, and he likes to exchange per day, heep an account of the cost his facts with them." All journals cannot expect such a benutiful style of correspondence as this, but should do the best they can. OLEOMARGARÍNE which has so is what they call it. It is made from Brown and become an independent making general notice of the fact however, by a combination-lock, that Prof. Perry will positively be which was known only to the by point of the compass. It such a substitute for the genuine old-fash- put the price on your produce and la- present and speak as above stated. means of ioned butter. Tallow will do, also bor. All you have to do is to receive this rigorous cli- suct, and goodness knows what be- the money, pay your honest debts if not the citizens of sides. Not only is an imitation but- you can, and if you have any left lay ure. sumincentory hope for under similater made out of this stuff in full, but it out in side walks and planting in advaninges? What a fearful tax it is being used to adulterate honest trees, shrubs, &c., to beautify and imevery county indirectly pays which butter, and manufacturers of it bold- prove the streets and yards of our The is announce that it is a healthier and country towns; join the Grange, elesading of Gero Gordo farmers upon better article than the real thing furn- vate yourself, run for the legislature,

"Cow Combroch is a very good cow, she has been always true to the path the own will often strike down market with her golden butter by the tion and a superior race of beings. refuse of the slaughter house? It is

> prefer lying down to final rest under MASON ON TEMPERANCE. the green coverlet of the church-yard Judge Mason is just as apt to say to admit. He not comprehending its The premiums offered by the State true motive, and being too compress. Board of Agriculture are liberal and ed in mind and body to contrast the will be promptly paid when the rative so remarkable as to seem like a disjointed ligaments, therefore comes awards have been made. In addi- fable. It proves that the way of the tion to this incentive the Union Pa. transgressor is hard. It shows what cific and Burlington and Missouri a gauntlet a criminal has to run : River railroads offer special induceprompt in paying for their goods, but ments, as purchasers, at remunerative to; what miseries he has to endure to the contrary. Farmers have been rates, of specimens and samples from training their minds to work as well all premiums or extraordinary large hands of the detectives at last. It

Will not numbers of the farmers is a poor paymaster at best, and his er on more equal grounds with the of Nebraska endeavor this year to service always ends in remorse and merchants and manufacturers in our cultivate premium crops and bring misery. But no more of this moralsamples of the same to the State

Among the attractions for the incommodate them with the necessa- telligent cultivators of the soil, at the ries of life while they were organiz. next State Fair, will be the address ing their Granges. The farmers, no on that occasion. It will be delivered eloquently.

Fair, is:

"THE FOES OF THE FAMERS."

of his crop expenses, interest, tax, wear and ture after delivered in Peru man, and the time, and the place. The newspapers of Nebraska will or Brownville- This will give him a better idea of the farmer's profits, and confer a great favor upon the reading the happy life he leads. Try it friend and thinking citizens of the State by

J. STERLING MORTON,

Home Farm, April 21st, 1874.

OLD BUT GOOD.

When Oglesby and Bross were at the head of the Republican gubernatorial ticket, some years ago, in Illinois, a quartette of speakers launched position; come out boldly and take themselves into the interior of the your position with the back bone of State, on a stumping tour. The parthe country; say to the world that ty consisted of Dick Oglesby, Gen. The bitmers are discontented. The And is she to be driven out of the you are in favor of a higher civiliza- B. M. Prentiss, J. D. Ward and Mr. Bross. Of course the Lombardi sing-HONEY CREEK GRANGER. ers were along.

Dixon, Morrison, and other thriv-

The Record of a Life Blotted b Terrible Crime.

HUNTED DOWN-THE GREAT-PENNSYLVANIA ROBBERY. Special Correspondence St. Louis Globe. DENVER, COLORADO, April 20.

I hasten to lay before your readersa having a drink or two ahead, commenced talking on the high notes. very exciting narrative. It is a story This stiracted the attention of the of a man whose record of life is blotted by a terrible crime. Yet is a nar- proprietor's wife, MRS. POTTER.

Colorado. He has of late years furnished employment to large number and toughest stripe.

what perils he is constantly exposed face. Sure enough, she knew the Dracott has been kept up, depriving while at large, only to fall into the emphasizes the truth that the devil

An extraordinary robbery was committed, it will be recollected, at Petro-The other Potters gathered around leam Genter, Venango county Pennsylvania, some time in 1865, the vic- and looked in speechless amazement. It was a thrilling episode to all parties tim being an old gentlemen, named doubt, deeply sympathize with him by Authur Lathan Perry, the able Bennahoff, an oll-king and a millon- present. McGee hadn't heard the and well-known professor of Politi- aire. Five men, effectually disguised, Saeger before in six years. Those six yet find a remedy for the evils he has cal Economy at Williams College, entered Bennshoff's house early in years had been like six centuries to the evening, while the family were at him. Gus. Potter recognized in the Prof. Perry is the author of a supper, and, after "bucking" and fictitious McGee the man who had standard work on Politcal Economy, "gagging" the inmates, from the adopted him as a child when he was > ly, writes perspicuously, and speaks two safes, which stood together in a home and come West to grow up with bed-room, of a sum little short of 2000. The mountains, long after Saeger's His theme of the address, which 000. The money was in the shape of flight, and he knew all the circumwill be given at the Nebraska State greenbacks, mostly in bills of large stances of the crime. Potter is a nephew of Pheiffen, who was Saeger's denomination. The safe contained, along with this currency, something right-hand bower in the robbery, and It will be an effort worthy of the near $60,000 in gold, which, being too who is now serving out his fifteen bulky for convenient handling, was years' term in the Pennsylvania Penleft scattered about the floor. In itentiary. McGee seemed like an apthe other safe was nearly a million parition to the Potters, who, with of dollars. This was secured, their friends in the East, had concludhad ever been received from him. not had the detectives, so far as was old gentleman's son, who hapknown, over gained the slightest clue pened to be absent at the time, but to his whereabouts. President State Board of Agricuit- who returned to the house shortly af-McGee was no longer McGee. Sae> > promises of reward by Saeger. They relied on being able to Uribe the Potcarried the greenbacks away in a bilters into silence and so reappeared at low slip. After secreting the plunder dropped into a ball-room singly, and early the next day. But within an guish he has endured while suffering spent the remainder of the night in hour after the first separation Fotter as the helpless object of the capidity the joyus mazes of the dance ing towns were visited, and addresses had ended the story of the robbery nition. Cook, who is the best known were made, afternoons and evenings, was being noised about. The next and most skillful detective in the

iaw. Twelve years ago they were into Gus. Potter's restaurant, on residents of Oregon, the woman be-Blake street, and ordered a dozen ing the wife of a man by the name of fried. There he met an acquaintance, Dracott, who was worth at that time a cow-puncher by occupation, just up the very comfortable sum of $95,000. from the lower country, and McGae, By conspiring with a couple of the physicians connected with the Territorial Insane Asylam, Carter and his paramour succeeded in kidnapping Dracott, and having him wrongfully incarcerated in the institution on a who thought she recognized the voice, charge of insanity, thereby gaining and who accordingly passed around possession of his fortune. For twelve to where she might see the speaker's long years this villainous fraud upon face, knew it like a book, though it him of his liberty, and compelling had not appeared to her before since him to associate with lunstics and she was a girl, and, starting forward, madmen. By some means he sucshe said, "How are you Mr. Saeger ?" | ceeded in conveying knowledge of McGee wouldn't have been half as his deplorable situation to persons prepared for her. That night a shot much startled at the crack of a gun. outside, and an investigation of the was heard in the room where she had He stood speechless for a moment, matter was instituted. So strongly while his color changed to a deadly had the job been put up, however, shot by himself through the heart. that an expense of $40,000 on the part of the authorities was required in order to break up the toils by which Dracott was held. The efforts at ferreting out the iniquity finally lod to the discovery of the prime actors in vill not weed, my dearest life the monstrous imposition. A United For I have not chother with States Detective was instructed to I cannot come "" I sizen with thee proceed to Covington and procure the For I must go and cleep with she.

arrest of Carter and Mrs. Dracoti. Upon arrival at Omaha, the officer PROF. AUGHET ANSWERS. learned that Carter had started for The following is from Frof. Augh-Salt Lake City. He telegraphed to ey, in answer to the Blatic, as pat-Ogden, and succeeded in securing the lished by that paper the other day : arrest of his man at that place on last The inquiry of the Blade "What

Wednesday. He then came up to are the properties of pure whisky?" Covington and arrested Mrs. Dracott I prefer to an wer with the testimoon Thursday. Yesterday he went to ny of an emineat chemist. "Brandy, Dakota City to examine the county rum, gin and whisky are spiritnoas records for the nurpose of discovering liquids which contain about one-half what property the pair had, in order their weight of alcohol, and are therethat proceedings may be instituted for fore nearly in the conditiont of street ed that he must be dead, as no word transferring the title of it to Mr. Dra- spirits. They are obtdined by distillcott, as a partial restitution for what ing various fermiented figuids. They he has been deprived of by the much- chiefly consist of fleohol and water. nations of the guilty parties. Carter with a very small propertion of solid has invested some money in Coving- matter. They owe their peculiar ton, and liakota county, and was one oders and flavors to the presence of of the principal capitalists who gave oily and ethernal products of fermenthat town the impetus it had three or tation. When genuine they are neufour years ago. tral, and leave only a slight residue

We hope that whatever wrong has on evaporation." (Brands and Taybeen committed may bring to its do- lor's Chemistry, p. 582) The same ers a prompt punishment, but it is authorities on the next page give the out of the reach of possibilities for following analysis of whisky;

the unfortunate Dracott to over realze anything like an adequate recom pense for the misery and mental anhad notified Deputy Sheriff Cook of of a faithless wife and an uncorupu-

WHAT ZACCHEUS DID.

als whith harmed styres mate In this anniosis the only and etherist substances, whileb give the peeuliar laste to liquors, are included in the alcohol. Not more than one per

THE RESTAURANT

By the time the dancing festivities the unexpected and amazing racog- lous knave.

ger was himself again. It was useless to deny his identity. He stayed were James Sacger and a man named with the Potters away into the night Pheiffen. Of the other four two were then mounted his horse and rode into professional burglars, who had been camp. Then again, he was McGee. brought from Philadelphia under He made no attempt to escape, but

and removing their disguises, they all ter the flight of the robbers.

THE LEADERS OF THE GANG

and is a gentleman who thinks clear- oldest to the youngest, robbed one of but twelve years old. Gus. had left his hely assistants only forty dollars Permonth. There were no facts or results to warrant this great dispro- in the various departments of city remarks : Portion of compensation. Either the trade continues dult, with little prosthis week for Wisconsin.

JARVIS S. CHURCH. Mappin Colu, Lower, May 5, 1874.

----aid a young hopeful to his father, a a chip of the old block ?' " a juestion ???

2001 110 "

Two heads are better than onesepecially in a barrel.

grass in despite of cremation, and dy and found it in about the same

BUSINESS

Principal receives too much or his assistents too little, and such glaring was supposed that when Congress Christ, and said that it mattered not Governorship, he insisted on having anybody about the derpetrators. No- his arrest. ing to Hercules for help, and each wisely say many; badly say some.

"Why, my son, do you ask me such from this action, and the season is so ready to supply the poison. He said en the meeting in the evening.

hunting, I saw fifty squirrels up one will try the bottom of staunch firms, drinkers are the parties who should be pursued with a whip of scorpions ceived. "and I was 'a chip of the old block." " and to a much greater extent than is thought saloons a nuisance and that > customers at home. THE COST OF LIVING is about as high as ever; in fact what the things that were.

sensible things as anybody. He re- to big gatherings. Oglesby, Ward day the outrage was chronicled in Rocky Mountain country, had singu- A story is told of a certain newspathought saloons a nuisance and that and with accurately simulated voice. this day. Then suspicion fell and a bright, piercing eye, which inthe country and the evil of intemperance will soon be known only among without a variation in sentiment, an- other for fifteen years. ecdote, gesture, or tone.

will still look to the kindly cow for cently made a temperance speech in and Frentiss varied their speeches to every daily newspaper in the land. lar to relate, been on the look-out for per proprietor who relieved his dissatisfactory condition as that in butter despite Oleomargarine. What butter despite Oleomargarine and truthful declaration of the grade a temperance speech in and Frentiss varied their speeches to every daily it displayed in all Western Saeger since '68, at which time he re- honesty by a spice of humor. Nebraska City which was full of gen- as to relieve the montony of the trin. a word! Pah! "The gorge rises at une reasoning and truthful declara-a word! Pah! "The gorge rises at une reasoning and truthful declara-as to relieve the montony of the trip." Pennsylvania, it was the sole topic of the man from The agent of a large manufacturing tions. The Chronicle gives the fol- But Bross had one staple oration, talk, and everybody was wondering Chief of Police Hague, of Pittsburg, house went to him to protest against lowing brief synopsis of the Judge's which he delivered with the same who could have been the perpetrators. To-day Cock took Saeger into custody frequent assaults in the editorial coltones, facial contortions, and genu- Saeger and Pheiffen, and their poor while he was lipping a friendly glass umus.

He referred to the ideas of Brother flections on every platform. As he hirelings, were prominent in the with his adopted son, Potter, who "What the devil is the matter" the discreditable to any inter-bill, that whatever that action might to had said, that elernal principles the crime. Saeger was a merchant mod cumbed to the officer like a little man. on. What shall we do to stop it ?" the distribution of his best and enjoying the be, business would revive, because matter, which could be understood if doomed to sit miserably by until he erately well off, and enjoying the be, business would revive, because matter, which could be understood if doomed to sit miserably by until he erately well off, and enjoying the billing,) found in a bottle of "choice will question his beingthe country would be done with look- properly presented to the mind. He attained his backneyed peroration. confidence of his acquaintances, at said, he was without his pistols and for a few moments, and then remark- select wine," a quarter of an ounce of believed crusading or praying in sa-loons a sheer humbug, but thought Can Brantian will be and the remark-loons a sheer humbug, but thought Can Brantian will be and the remark-sugar of lead. He also analyzed the man would put his own shoulder to the use of the ballot in female hands Gen. Prentiss mildly mutinied, and after the robbery had been commit-less. But he cooly observed, that had ter in the Bible. Let me see; his brandy found at the principal hotels, his respective wheel. Well, Congress a powerful and effective means of prepared a vile scheme for the disa Chip of THE OLD BLOCK .- "Pa," has acted, and so has the President, controlling the liquor traffic. He said the whisky seller in the do? Oh, jes; he climbed a tree a glass, and found them to be manuthe eternal war on the whisky seller was a mistake, as it did not strike at prominent citizen, "what is meant by One thing remains certain so far. what is meant by One thing remains certain so far. what is meant by One thing remains certain so far. What did he do then? Him, either. What did he do then? Trade has not received an impetus men would drink there would be men so that Ward and himself should op- from the place where they had been one of them, would fight for him at Do you remember, Mr. Adent, what which are used all over the fand, and secreted, and, giving his "pals" the the drop of a hat, and fears are rife ne did then ?"

from this action, and the season is so ready far advanced that little improvement far advanced that little improvement Because I was out hunting this is expected before fall. A good many he didn't drink," was calculated to spot selected for the springing of the train, in broad daylight, and rode to undertake a rescue, though such he didn't drink," was calculated to spot selected for the springing of the train, in broad daylight, and rode to undertake a rescue, though such is expected before fall. A good many he didn't drink," was calculated to spot selected for the springing of the train, in broad daylight, and rode to undertake a rescue, though such is expected before fall. horning, and after returning home I houses will have hard work to pull injure rather than benefit the cause conspiracy, was immense, and Ward's away in the direction of Pittsburg, an attempt would prove futile, as the He came down, sensible fellow; he to the want of time I did not extracts aid some gentiemen that, while out through, and the coming summer of temperance, declaring that the opening address was rapturously re- still not being suspected. Soon after jail is strongly sentimeled.

two more of the unsuspected party of Saeger is a man about forty years of The parable was fitting. The agent ive amount of it present. This is au the. They kept trying to make me Meantime money accumulates in our depursued with a whip of scorptons and driven into decent conduct, insay that i did not see but forty-nine, banks, lying idle and timidly looking stead of pursuing the liquor seller ror of the startled Bross, made the peated. The whereabouts of these and stands as straight as a lightning and the journalistic batteries were inand because I wouldn't say so, they for safe and profitable investments, either with statutes or prayers. He latter's identical bow to the audience, two men remains a mystery to rod; has black, grizzly looking beard, stantaneously spiked.

"Hem! Well, my son, they meant known, the money of the country public sentiment was the only means began to recite Bross's stereotyped or- upon Pheiffen and the other dicates great determination of character Cass County has a population of that you were smart and honest, like banks is used here in buying business of doing it. Freach temperance at ation. Its manifold repetition had semaining one. They were arrested, ter. He says he is the man they have 10,415, according to the recent returns Mr. Barnum has offered one thoupaper instead of accommodating their the fireside and instill ideas of mod- made Prentiss familiar with every tried, convicted and sentenced to the been looking for, but he'll be some- of her precinct desessors. eration into the mind of the youth of word, and he followed it through rententiary-one for seven and the thing very unpleasanted if they recover any of the money he stole. A Chicago minister is effectionately Sarger went to Pittsburg, gol a alt- That, he says, is

Infernal lie! But, then, we feel that to chemists that liquors are extensive-came down."

-

advertised as being "out of a job."

cent, of these are present in good whisky. All the authorifies simong chemists agree in this, that in genuing liquors analysis gives no trace of lead, strontia, strychnine, &c. The sime is true of brandy and gin. These extensive chemical works are in the University library and open to York, (no one will question his feriathey differ from them only, so far as my analysis goes, in the larger relas-Gu fusil oil, but there was no excess-is so poisonously adulterated as spir-Huous Hypors, S. AUGHEY.

sand dollars for the "minsteen bricks."

A New York dentist gives a prema ium chromo for every tooth he draws,
