S. S. PRICE Editor Nebraska Advertiser,

Since the Democratic ticket has no newspaper advocate in Nemaha county allow me to elip the following from the Omaha Herald:

This gentleman resides in Falls City, and is the Democratic candidate considered him an imposter as a Howe to recommend him, except cial district. We met him frequently at the State Convention. All who saw him were impressed with his digstreets. The scholars did as they mendation is "That energy which high character. One who knows him pleased and of course learned nothing prompts him to work while others intimately assures us that we did not mistake the man. Mr. Price, in othboss the schoolmaster.
