

THE ADVERTISER.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. 8, 1874.

PUBLISHERS' NOTICES. EXTRA COPIES OF THE ADVERTISER FOR SALE BY G. W. DENN, BOOKSELLER, STATIONER AND NEWS DEALER, No. 77 Main Street, next door to the Postoffice.

ADVERTISERS under the head of "Wanted," "For Rent," "For Sale," "Lost," "Found," etc., will be charged twenty-five cents for each advertisement of five lines, or less, each insertion. Advertisements of five lines, at the rate of five cents per line, each insertion.

Authorized Agents. A. J. RITTER, at St. Deroin, is our authorized agent at that place, to receive subscriptions and advertising, and to collect and remit for money due to this paper.

THE CITY.

J. W. Brush favored us with a call on Monday.

A rain shower came around our town on Monday last.

Small has fed from 50 to 100 men every day this week.

Our grain buyers are now paying 60 to 65 cents for wheat.

John A. Ponn started east on Sunday last for his fall and winter goods.

Small notifies his customers that he has just received a barrel sour-kraut.

Mr. S. P. Davidson, a lawyer of Tecumseh was in the city on Wednesday.

"Neither foreigners nor niggers," says Howe, "should be permitted to hold office in this country."

Judge Ganitt arrived in the city on Monday at 11 a. m., and opened court immediately after dinner.

See the card of the "Cannon House," Lincoln. Persons visiting that city will find that house the best in the city.

J. P. Lore, of Pawnee, has been nominated for the State Senate by the Republicans of the district composed of Otoe, Johnson and Pawnee.

Gov. Furnas is in the city. He came down on Saturday last. His health is good, and his hopes bright for the success of the State Republican ticket.

Republicans, go to the polls early, vote diligently, see that every voter in your precinct is at the election, vote the straight ticket, and the victory will be ours.

Church Howe went back on his old friend Pat Mullen and refused to pay for his dinner after inviting Mullen to dine with him. That was about the smallest trick we ever knew a reformer to be guilty of.

If any man tells you that Mr. Bailey ever had any idea of withdrawing from the race, or that any of his friends ever thought of drawing him off the track, just mark it down as a lie for there is not a word of truth in it.

The best place in the city to get a good square meal is at the Bank Restaurant. On Jim Boy's table you will find the very best of everything that the market affords, and cooked in a style to suit the most fastidious epicure. Call at Bank Restaurant if you want the worth of your money.

Church Howe the other day, when he created that riot on our streets, said that God gave him his mouth to talk with and he was going to use it. Howe must have been mistaken about that, for if the Lord had had anything to do in getting him up he would have put some honest brains in his head.

Church Howe made an ass of himself last Tuesday while in the city by posting himself in front of the court house and talking so loudly the sheriff had to shut him up twice before the nuisance could be suppressed. We presume he was not drunk, as some supposed, for he is a good temper. It wasn't that, he was only windy.

Clem Howe, last Saturday, in the presence of a number of men, made this declaration: "Church is my own brother but I cannot vote for him. He is not the right kind of a man for the people to trust—he cares nothing for them—I have heard him say so, and that office was what he was after—Church is a d—d—and no mistake." Clem gives his reasons for his opposition to his brother Church, and they are good ones.

Judge A. J. Ritter of St. Deroin, is in attendance at the Commissioners court this week. He called at our sanctum on his arrival in the city and requested us to say that the story which is being circulated that he is trading Mr. Fisher for votes for the Republican ticket, the whole ticket and nothing but the ticket, and urges every Republican to vote straight and not to match or trade. That there is no necessity for fearing that the whole ticket will not be elected. Mr. Ritter is true to the party and every one of the ticket, and any report to the contrary does him injustice.

Hon. Geo. R. Shook called at our sanctum on Monday.

Vote for Hewitt and you vote nearly directly for Tipton, the salary grabber.

Church Howe's nearest neighbors, and own brothers, do not support him.

"Neither foreigners nor niggers should have the right to hold office," says Church Howe.

Howe thinks the negroes should not hold office, and that foreigners are no better than the niggers.

Thanks to Fred. A. Moore, across the creek, for some of the finest potatoes we have enjoyed this year.

Vote the straight Republican ticket and you will not only vote for the best interests of the country, but for the best men.

Hon. H. M. Atkinson returned home last Friday, after a short trip into the interior and up the river. He says everything is lovely and the goose hangs high.

Attorneys' present at District Court. G. P. Uhl, District Attorney Weaver and S. E. Price of Falls City; T. B. Stevenson, O. P. Mason and Wm. McLeannan, of Nebraska City.

Hon. J. B. Fisher, our worthy candidate for State Senator, gave us brief call on Friday last. He thinks the prospects for the election of the whole Republican ticket is very flattering.

Barney Mullens at first thought Church Howe was offering to treat him to a dinner through friendship, but afterwards discovered that it was his vote he proposed to buy with a fifty cent dinner.

Rabe Elliott collared us the other day on the street and—subscribed for the ADVERTISER to send to his brother Lewis at Silver City, N. M. That's the way to do—take your home paper and send it to your friends abroad.

Mr. Perry Backles, of Johnson, Neb., called this week and subscribed for the ADVERTISER to send to a friend in Ohio. That's the way to do it—The ADVERTISER will be read with interest by all its readers whether at home or abroad.

Arthur V. Walsh was admitted as a member of Brownville Division No. 19, S. of T., on last Friday evening. A young man who joins the Division and sticks to it, does one of the best things for himself and community that is possible for him to do.

C. F. Haywood, one of the most thrifty and intelligent farmers of Lafayette precinct, and of course a straight Republican, called in and gave us a pleasant chat one day last week. He thinks the Republican ticket will get a good vote in his precinct.

Last Friday we were favored with a call from our old friend Nelson G. Baker, the poet laureate, of Brownville. He is now acting as agent for the "Home and Fireside," a good monthly. He exhibits some fine pictures which he gives to subscribers.

Gov. Furnas has consented to address the people of this county at McPherson Hall, in this city, on Monday night next. His subjects will be State politics and other matters in which we are all directly and vitally interested. His familiarity with State officers the past two years will enable him to impart much valuable and reliable information. Let there be a full turnout.

A man by the name of Wayland Hinckley, who resides some fifteen miles southwest of this city, fell off of the east porch of the Sherman House in this city on Monday night of this week, hurting himself badly but not thought to be seriously. The back of his head was considerably cut and bruised and an ugly gash in the left hip just below the small of the back. He fell about eight feet among a lot of broken bottles, boxes and other debris.

Gen. G. H. Roberts, Republican candidate for Attorney General, and Hon. Paul Vandevort, were present as per appointment on Tuesday evening of this week, and addressed a large audience of ladies and gentlemen, in McPherson Hall. Their addresses were able and well received. General Roberts, although suffering severely from hoarseness and cold which had affected his lungs made a brilliant speech, which made him many warm friends amongst those who had not before had the pleasure of seeing or hearing him speak. Gen. Roberts will get a good vote in Brownville. And he deserves well the favors of the people.

Mrs. Dowling is an estimable lady—no blot or blemish on her character, and whose word, with all the truth of it, we refer as gold. For the know her to us as good as gold. For the know her to us as good as gold. For the know her to us as good as gold.

See Dave McLaughlin's card.

Work is going on vigorously on the Trunk R. R., between Nebraska City and Peru.

Sheridan Items, and "Mission of the Republican party," we are compelled to put over for want of room.

The Rev. J. G. Miller will preach at the M. E. Church in this city on next Sunday, 11th inst., at 10 o'clock A. M.

We deferred the publication of our paper this week one day, to get in the proceedings of the Board of Commissioners, but failed to do so after all, because they were not prepared for us yet.

Mr. Frank Rother and wife spent a couple of days in the city this week. Frank is the kind of a Republican we like to meet; he is a whole team to work for his party, and if the Republican ticket does not get a very large majority at Aspinwall, it will not be his fault.

Miss Nettie Wilson, of this city met with a painful accident on last Thursday. While standing on chair or box before a glass door, cleansing it, she fell forward, and in the attempt to save herself, ran one of her hands crashing through a pane of glass. Her hand, fingers and arm are badly cut in several places.

The Omaha Republican says: The State Fair has succeeded beyond all reasonable expectation. Everything has been favorable, and there are many features of it which recall old times. The boys and girls, with their big sticks of winter-green candy, were there. The old-fashioned Ohio and Indiana quilts were on exhibition—"Rising Sun," "Jacob's Ladder," &c. Sunny, happy and healthy faces were there; visitors and citizens all seemed to be satisfied, and the financial condition is good.

At the Republican meeting at Bedford school house, Mr. Howe's home, on Wednesday night, some of Howe's ruffian friends tied Mr. Bailey's buggy wheels together, and those of others, with fence wire, which however, was fortunately discovered before any serious damage was done. We would say to those Independents, that resorting to such mean measures, which is only a step from kukluxism, will not secure Mr. Howe's election nor in any way redound to their or his glory.

Capt. J. S. Minick, of Aspinwall, called on us on Wednesday last. He informed us that he had received news of the death of W. J. Sanger, who died recently at his home on Long Island N. Y. He died from lockjaw produced by a hurt on his hand. We have not time now for further notice of this brilliant young man out of so permanently by the hand of death. Mr. Sanger was well known here, and if any of his friends will furnish us with an appropriate obituary, we will be much pleased to publish it.

George Harkin, the man whose team ran away and killed another man's horse last week, asked us to correct the statement we made so far as it related to his whereabouts when his team started. He says he had not stepped away from his team, leaving it unlighted, and that he was in the wagon when the horses started, that as he was turning between two piles of railroad ties the wagon became locked by the short turn, and that then his horses became frightened, jumped forward suddenly, throwing him out and getting away. He says he has been blamed for leaving his team unlighted, and he wants his friends to know the truth.

City and county orders taken at par for goods at Den's.

Go to Small's Bakery and Restaurant if you want a good meal. Fresh Oysters constantly on hand and served in any style. The best market affords will be dishes up, and if you call for sour-kraut, he has it—and it is good.

W. T. Den proposes to rent his residence in Brownville. The house contains eight rooms. In connection with the house there is a smoke house, wood house, well and cistern; also a stable, wagon shed, cow stable and granaries. For further particulars apply to W. T. DEN.
