RUCASIA

MURCIBET.

ESTABLISHED 1856. Oldest Paper in the State.

The crimson sunset faded into gray:

The last warm breath of the delicious day

Above my head in the soft purple sky

soard west,

speech:

may reach,

Passed with a mute farewell.

That seemed to say "Farewell!"

"Farewell, farewell, farewell?"

All human voices the sad chorus swell:

Though mighty love to heaven's high gut

Perpetually breathe from all who dwell

Upon its bosom, for no place is found

Yet may he say, "Farewell!"

Where is not heard, "Farewell!"

In this one cry, "Farewell!"

BECKY'S FORTUNE.

stopped to say a word about the weather at the back gate.

I've heard that's lucky. I-"

her if her wish'll come true."

at this moment.

-From the October Atlantic.

BROWNVILLE, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1874.

VOL. 19.-NO. 21.

DEAFNESS.

Probably the most frequent way in orlnadvance.

SOCIAL DIRECTORY.

ed. J. C MCNAUGHTON, odge No. 5, 1, 0, 0, F.-Regular HENRY COHN, N. G.

vision No. 19, Sons of Tems drug store. Main Three gulls met, whealed, and parted with a dley Lodge No. 4, A. F. & A. M.

le Chapter No. 4, R. A. M .- Stated rnas Council No. 3. R. S. & S. E. M.ommandery No. 3, K. T. - Stated | That mournful cry the empty sky po-sessed. ally Conclave, No. 63, K. R. C. R. r No. 2. -Order of the Eastern Star, ags third Monday in each month.

CHURCHES. E. Church. - Services each Sabbath nd 7:30 p. m. Sun hay School at er Meeting Thursday evening. an Church. - Services each Sabbath Sabbath School at 2 o'clock

CITY OFFICERS. Meets the First Monday in each A. Judkins: Third Ward-k-arker. Marshal, D. Camp-Docker. Tremoser, J. Blake.

umissioners-A. J. Ritter, H. Hock-A. H. Gilmore, Serveyor, J. uperintedent, D. W. Pierson.

GRANGE DIRECTORY

Officers of the National Grange.), W. Adams, Master, Wankon, Iowa. O. H. Officers of the State Grange.

orman: W. 6 Swan, rows on edge in the pantry, all the think," said the gypsy. Bridge, Peru: J. Marlatte closed in the well dusted room—she head.

GRANGES. SECRETARY.

Watkins ... Mariatte.. L. Mason.. B. Rewett J. B. Piper ... J. Skeen...

TIME SCHEDULES.

RAILROAD TIME TABLES. n & Missourt River Railroad in Nebraska.

MAIN LINE. Pintismouth 205 p.m. arrive Lincoln 11:15 a.m. leave Kearney June 5:45 a.m. leave OMAHA BRANCH. _ Plattsmouth... | 12:15 s.m. arrive

RRIVE GOING EAST DEPART her elbow; but as she recovered ed: W. H. STENNETT, Gen. Pas. Agt.

ity, St. Joe. & C. B. Rathroad A. C. DAWES, Gen. Pass. Agent.

Midland Pacific Railway.

BUSINESS CARDS.

ATTORNEYS.

B. C. Parker,

E. E. Ebright, AT LAW, Notary public and Real blushed again.

see her thoughts," said the gypsy. T. L. Schick AT LAW. MAY BE CONSULT J. S. Stull.

AND COUNSELOR AT LAW. J. H. Broady,

BLACKSMITHS.

J. W. Gibson,

HOTELS.

ITH AND HORSE SHOER, First

CAN HOUSE, L. D. Robison, Proprietor

to order and satisfaction guaran-

E. W. Thomas. Strongen & Cross's Hardware Store, Brown. said nothin'," and sat down on the som, and an end of a candle in her part in the contests through which W. T. Rogers,

AND COUNSELOR AT LAW .to question her. ito his care, Office in Court Heuse Hewett & Newman.

sies did not read the stars for love, woman stopped her. as she knew very well.

lieve in 'em."

the woman. "Besides," said Becky, "I hain't no small change." The gypsy looked grave. Then mind?"

smiled again, and said:

Upon the murmurous sea the twilight fell all alone and shall be all night, so behind her.

you see-" A wild note sounded like a shrill-voles the lady gave the cook. I wouldn't sies read the stars." touch one that wasn't honestly come | When Dr. Cope and his wife came I watched them; one sailed east, and on

And one went floating south; while like a "Farewell!" I thought, it is the earth's one thing dark and deep-"

The rolling world is girdled with the sound, tongs. There now."

From wind to wind; earth has one tale to room," said Becky. "That's so." "Well," said the woman, "It's bet- Pilkins. All other sounds are dulled and drowned and ter to be a gypsy, and not care for things like those. They are all trouble. But see how we run away from our talk, and the light-haired man, a- large letters and put as the caption of riding in a cart, a thinking of you all the following items, and placed in a the while. I see him," said the wo- conspicuous place on the door of a As Becky sat on the doorstep of the man, squeezing up her eyes. "He systematic merchant in New York, doctor's cottage, knitting in the twi- has red cheeks, and very thick boots, for constant reference : light, all the work done for the eve- and, yes-a striped shirt, not a white ning-the milk strained and put by one." wm. B. Porter, Master; Wm McCaig, Secretary; in the shining pans, the cups and "I vow and declare!" said Becky. your pocket. saucers all polished and standing in "And he hasn't proposed yet, I > fell a-thinking of Bob Parker, and "I see he hasn't" said the prophet-> wondering whether he meant any- ess. "And what you want to know is thing by grinning at her so when he when he will!" "I never did," said Becky, not as a denial, but as an ejaculation, "I'd like to know," said Becky to "Listen, pretty lady!" said the herself. "Bob is a good young fellow, woman glancing down the road, along and I'm mos tired of livin' out; even | which a sulky-looking man, with a if I wasn't, doctor does want a man tinkers outfit, was just then plodding. on the place, and Mrs. Cope I don't "Listen, lady. I can tell you all you you refuse to credit him. think would mind hevin' married want to know, and I'll make a bargain. I'll ask you nothing now, and "Heigh, oh! I reckon married life I'll come back in a year; and if I've has its trials, too. There's some turns told you true, you can pay me then. out very bad; but you don't want to Could anything be fairer?"

go and sot down an old maid after all, "Wny, I reckon not," said Becky. you do, you'll be sorry. So you gypsy, "the pretty lady will come to his vices. might as well have somebody to find the corner of the old barn yonder, and the marketin' as not. Bob is hand- the gypsy will work a spell with three some, too, in his Sunday better-most, hairs of the pretty lady's head, and and he's light, and I'm dark, and a bit of something the man she thinks of has touched, and she shall know "Want to have your fortune told, what she wants to know. It's a good pretty lady?" said a voice at her ear fortune; the lady needn't be afraid. clothes until you can pay for new Wait! Does h s name begin with A, ones. Becky was a good Methodist and or R?

believed heartily in a peripatetic Sa- "B, is it? Well, we'll know all tan. When this inquiry came so pat about B-Bo-about Bob? eh?-at 9 upon her day dream, she jumped up to-night behind the old barn;" and and uttered a little scream, feeling off she walked, following the trudgquite sure that it was the old gentle- ing tinker down th road, while Becky man in proper person that stood at clasped her hands together and cri-breath, she saw nothing more dread. "It's more than nat'ral. Lord for-ful than a slight, young gypsy wo- give us all?" man, in a red flannel saque and short | Nine o'clock seemed very long in brown calico dress, with a handker- coming to Becky. Perhaps the gypsy chief over her head, a baby strapped woman found the time long, too. All to her back, and some odd triffes- woman are impatent, but the tinker, shoe-strings, buttons, a comb or two, who had trudged back along the road. and a few boxes of matches, ranged took it quietly, lying among the long as if for sale, in a dingy little chip grass under the trees, quite hidden basket, which she carried in her hand. from all observation by the shadow of "Let the poor gypsy tell the lady's the foliage and the dusk of eventide, fortune," said the soft voice again, thinking of something pleasant that "She knows what she was thinking made him grin, and chewing bad to-

of as she sat there, and she can tell bacco. When a girl, simple or gentle, looks or fast, time went on, of course, and the history of our opponents? into vacancy and simpers to herself, brought nine o'clock with it. Becky The Republican party was the things. They see in this triumph ous. She said "Law, now!" and shook the door of the hen coop to see ages. that it was fast, and hurried toward

An English girl doubtless would When she was out of sight, the elevate mankind and make the world the immediate future a revival of the have disclaimed the title "lady," and tinker arose out of the grass and leant happier and better. remarked that she "was but a ser- over the fence of the garden, and vant;" but Yankee help, what is left chewed there a long while. Then he of it, considers itself entitled to the slipped his long legs across it and term as well as its mistress. And as came into the door-yard.

for the "pretty," Becky had her mir- The gypsy and her baby waited for ror and her vanity as well as you and Becky according to promise, and the I. She merely responded, "I hain't gypsy had a pack of cards in her bopoarch again. But she looked at the pocket. She lit the candle with sibyl with longing eyes, and longed matches from the same receptacle, and Becky held it while she read her fate If it had bee a common fortune-tell- for her. Firstly, the gypsy saw the er, like Mrs. Bobbs, in the village, light young man, and then the ring, Heaven who does not insist on the why, of course, it would not have and then a heart turned toward her, same terms of citizenship for all; on been a temptation, becaus no one be- and then-oh, yes!-then was the the same laws for all; and on the lieved old Mrs. Bobbs knew much wedding. Bob would offer himself same respect for all the rights of all. after all, even if she did tell Maggie in three days, and they would be marcame from foreign parts. And every prophetess. warming with her sub- success, life itself would be as insecure bustle. He knows very well that the one knew that came true, for Maggie ject, predicted two children, and a sa valueless to colored Republicans Democracy will need him; and that was Mrs. Schwackhammer, the Ger- wagon and horse, three cows, and and their white friends in the South. now that they have the power, they man blacksmith's wife, that day. But numberless pigs. To rural vision a real gypsy-a gypsy with black eyes nothing more was needed. Becky and hair, and a brown skin, and a lit- produced a calico dress which might tle dusky baby on her back-why, still be worn, and a ginger-cake for that was some one worth while, and the baby. The woman praised the Becky felt it too good an opportunity dress, thanked her, bade the child say to let slip; but what should she do? "ta ta" to the pretty lady, and Becky H. HOOVER, Real Estate and Tax She had spent all her wages, and gyp- would have gone away but that the

"I haven't told you all vet." she "I dunno about fortins, she said, said; "not all. I see a surprise; pergaining time to think. "Don't be- haps it is a present. Sit down. Let us see. But perhaps you can see it "Wait till you've heard yours," said yourself. Put your handkerchief over your face, lady. Now shut your eyes. Think hard of what you'd like

"Grand'ther always promised," be-"Oh, I might find one," said Becky gan Becky, but she did not finish just she would. She sots store on me, his wraith, a harder thing-a bit of Mrs Cope does-but she and the doc- clothes-line. The handkerchief fell tor has gone away in gig to see their from her face-the gypsy woman was darter that has a new baby, and I'm helping the tinker to bind her arms

"You need not be afraid, pretty "Oh, yes!" said the gypsy, with a lady, you will not be hurt," said the sudden flash in her eyes, "but as for soft-voiced sibyl; "not hurt at all, money, no matter. I have taken a lady. Only you must not follow us; spoon, a silver spoon, you know, that and the fortune-that is all true. Gyp-

back next morning they found their "Of course not," said Becky, "I silver gone, the wardrobe robbed, and wouldn't sit here a talkin' with you every chicken flown; a little after if I thought you would; but Mrs. they found Becky gagged and bound Cope ain't one to give away spoons." behind the barn, and, though an The Elections-Tweed - Vanderbilt-"Nor to have much silver," said the acute detective was called in to find the property, he never found it. But, "Much you know," said Becky, of course, although he could not "Why, she's got a dozen tea and a make Mrs. Becky a confederate, he dozen dessert and six table and two got the story of the gypsy out of her: salt; tea-pot, cream-jug and butter- and Bob Parker has been heard to deplate; and two knives and sugar clare, speaking of poor Becky, that "sich a darned fool he never heard "Yes, I know" said the gypsy. ."I tell on," the prophecy does not seem can see 'em shining in-in-some- likely to prove true. And Bob, the two children, the wagon, horses, "The old sideboard in the sittin'- cows, and pigs are still only dreams vainly nourished in the soul of Becky former years, and remark, "Things to know of the people who are to in-

SOME EVERY DAY MAXIMS.

"Moral Courage" was printed in Have the courage to discharge debt while you have the money in Have the courage to speak your mind when it is necessary that you Treasurer, Erownville, flies scared out, and all the shutters Becky unconsciously shook her should do so, and hold your tongue when it is prudent that you should do

Have the courage to speak to friend in a 'seedy' coat, even though you are in company with a rich one and richly attired.

Have the courage to tell a man why you will not lend him your money. and I kind o' expect whichever way "And at nine to-night," said the a friend's infirmities, but not with

Have the courage to show your respect for honesty, in whatever guise it appears, and your contempt for dishonesty and duplicity by whomsoever

Have the courage to wear your old

Have the courage to prefer comfort for knowledge under false pretenses. Have the courage, in providing an entertainment for your friends, not to exceed your means thereby pay your debts in full. Maker at the risk of being ridiculed

However, whether it seemed slow lican management be shown from would it be hard if a shrewd bystander listenend to the last stroke dropping growth of necessity, the creation of the election of a Democratic Presicould not guess her thoughts. But from the eight-day clock in the kitch- the ideas of the nineteenth century dent in 1876, which gives unto them this apt hit struck Becky as miracul- en, as she locked the door after her, against those that took hold of other the unchecked control of the city, the

"The pretty lady knows that I can the big barn tremulous with expecta- for, the party has not fulfilled its mis- of positions of trust unhampered, and try will never be developed.

He is a traitor to humanity and

In the reign of terrorism that would

What does Governor Leslie, of Kencolored girl ?"

A COROLLARY.

Susan B. Says that she Never sat on Theodore's knee, H. W. B. Says that he Never once touched Mrs. T. Now, if we Do agree. Susan B. Had nothing to do with Theodore T.

H. W. B. Did not touch 'Lisabeth's L. E. G.

Business-The Weather.

Correspondence Nebraska Advertiser.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14, 1874. THE ELECTIONS.

friends, asking you how you like it? ever come in his way.

Have the courage to own you are poor, and thus disarm poverty of its

Have the courage to tell a man why Have the courage to cut the most agreeable acquaintance you have when you are convinced that he lacks principle; a friend should bear with and propriety to fashion, in all things Have the courage to acknowledge your ignorance rather than to seek

Have the courage to insure the property in your possession, and

Have the courage to obey your

The Democratic party wants to pre-

Can anything to compare with our made a speech, as did Tilden and the progress and prosperity under Repub- other magnates.

Colored citizens have borne their we have passed, and we must not shrink from fairly enforcing the guarantees we have given them.

Local Larkin that she'd marry a man that ried in three months. After that the surely follow a national Democratic in, he wants to be in a position to

It was the protest of humanity and will not permit him to languish in justice against cruelty and tyranny- bonds. and to it came all who believed in equal right before the law, freedom gets his hand on the wires once more, for all mankind, and honesty as the the Republicans who were so fast to enges the admiration of patriots.

Then you see, We agree,

OUR NEW YORK LETTER

"Your reason?" I asked. "Because," was his reply, "it is Cornelius, died young. time to slap somebody in the face. William is looked upon as his fath- escaping, and the membrane becomes The good old party has gone estray. er's successor-indeed, it is said that diseased, and worse may follow. The en loafers in broadcloth. We promised civil reform, and we the great king of the rail has made ear should never be cleaned out with have not done a thing in that direc- his will, leaving him his entire es- the screwed up corner of a towel. tion. We promised the settlement of tate, specifying particularly, howev- Washing should extend only to the affairs in the South, and anarchy er, how it is to be used. He desires outer surface, as far as the finger can reigns there. We pledged ourselves that the supremacy in transportation, reach .- Hinton's Physiology for Practo purity in the administration of af- which he has held so many years, tical Use. fairs, and lot Ben. Butler runs the shall remain in the family, and that appointing power. Simmons was it shall go on and accumulate, as such NEBRASKA CITY AND THE TRUNK made Collector of the Port of Boston interests always do if they are conagainst the protest of every merchant trolled by a hand strong enough to of that city. Shepherd is in favor in keep them together. Washington, and, in short, the buzzards, the camp-followers, the brig-

a note of warning.' As this man did, so did thousands -that within the party evils had grown up that required radical and very severe treatment. And so they either voted the Democratic ticket, or refused to vote at all. which is the headquarters of the leadday night, a scene of revelry of the fore a golden calf. wildest possible kind. Champagne erve intact "white civilization" in flowed freely, and the more Demothe South. It had better get some cratic fluid-whiskey-was as common as water. Thurman, of Ohio,

No wonder they feel jubilant. They see ahead of them a long vista of good State, the whole country. Through With such principles yet to contend the minds of these men float visions sion, but yet has work to do that shall of plunder unlimited. They see in glorious days of Tammany, when the is more like June than November. It Till the South recognizes the digni- great city, bound hand and foot, was is warm, and oh, how dry. There ty of labor, equality of political and in their hands, bleeding money at ev- has been no rain for two months, and civil rights, and the utmost freedom ery pore. They see the revival of the everything is suffering. In the counof political faith, her magnificent coun Americus Club, with its jolly gang of try round about the suffering is terriroysterers; of the old Tweed times; ble. What is the matter? No rain in brief, when every man who could and Democratic victories everywhere? control fifty votes had his bands in There ought to be a change. the treasury, elbow deep. And, by

is the most jubilant man living. He expects an early pardon and a quick deliverance from his bonds. The old man chafes under his confinement now more than ever. He wants to be out. Now that the Democracy have lost in the river over which he rowed. Possibly when Tweed gets out, and vote for Tilden may conclude that it Though the Republican party, or would have been better to have borne rather the men elected by the party, the ills they had rather than fly to every day that the man who first have not always discharged their those they knew not of. New York made a shirt to open behind did more duties with fidelity, the record made will taste the sweets of ring rule once for the world than one who has disduring the past fourteen years chal- more, sure. What short memories covered five comets.

SOMETHING ABOUT VANDERBILT. Gladly, oh how gladly, do I turn tucky, mean when he talks in a re- my eyes from the political field in "Yes; she was ownty donty darling best to have. What comes into your cent proclamation about a "female any other direction. Who is there on duckums." Exit old married man, this side of the water who has not heard of Vanderbilt the railroad king? A San Francisco man committed Would you know something more of Albert Edward can pay his debts if "P'raps I might. If Mrs. Cope was then. Something twined itself-about suicide because a pictorial sheet char- him? Well, the old gentleman is he wants to. He don't want to, howhome she'd lend two shillin' to me, her waist, not the arm of a lover or acterized him as an "old nuisance." now eighty-two years of age and is as ever.

strong and vigorous as he ever was, or, at least, he does as much work as he ever did. He has outlived all his which the ears are injured is by the hour from your jocular Democratic Corning is true of everybody who has a mischief negligent ones avoid.

your back with a vigor unknown to long hold out, and it is some interest when it ought to become dry and sca-

The people have different hopes, and it is well that time is always on ands, of the party are too close to their side. The power wielded by headquarters. I am going to vote Cornelius Vanderbilt is too great to with the Democracy just this once, as be safely entrusted to any one man.

liam, the son, will be content to give nothing about the utter and silly itself naturally.

BUSINESS is thin enough, though it is improv- played in the above. ing itself to save the year from dry bas been subscribed in Plattsmouth rats can be excluded from the smokerot, and that is about all. The West and Cass county, for said river line, house at a trifling cost by observing that it will improve now that the another source was once offered (and stone, excavated from the earth withelections have given a prospect of may be again) if the projectors would in the foundation to the depth of Democratic supremacy. Willit? We run down by Factoryville, and in twelve or fifteen inches. With rock

THE WEATHER

PIETRO.

An Indiana clergyman sued newspaper for libel and dropped dead within a week. The Detroit Free Press says these fellows will learn something by and by.

Todd's manual down to date-a much needed work, for there is very little in that manual of Old Todd's about modern mixed drinks. A ferryman was asked by a timid lady whether any persons were ever

"Oh! no," said he, "we always find

The opinion is being strengthened enraged and disgusted.

Love's Language-Young bride

'Was she his own darling duckums?'

contemporaries. The great bulk of attempt to clean them. It ought to his enormous fortune he has made be understood that the passage of the within the last ten years. When he ear does not require cleaning by us but the Devenport Democrat thus bought Harlem stock it was down- Nature undertakes that task, and in sums up some sensible lessons which worth nothing-he made it valuable. the healthy state fulfills it perfectly. To make it more valuable he got con- Her means for cleansing the ear is the them : trol of its only rival, the Hudson Riv- wax. Perhaps the reader has never er, and to make that just as profitable heard what becomes of the ear-wax. as it could be he gobbled the Central. I will tell him. It dries up into thin, And then to give Central a proper fine scales, and these peel off one by Western outlet he took in the Lake one from the surface of the passage. Shore and Michigan Southern. Hav- and fall out imperceptibly, leaving ing a direct line to Chicago, the Com- behind them a perfectly clean, modore adopted one idea, viz: that smooth surface. In health the passthe only points to be considered were age of the ear is never dirty; but if New York and Chicago, and whoev- we attempt to clean it, we infallibly er interferred with this notion was re- make it so. Here-by a strange lack morselessly killed. Erastus Corning of justice, as it would seem, which, made a fight for Albany, and he went however, has no doubt a deep justice Did you hear anything drop out under. Dean Richmond made a fight at the bottom-the best people, and your way? Are you, dear Republi- for Buffalo, and he was swamped. those who love cleanliness, suffer can reader, in receipt of notes every And what is true of Bichmond and most, and good and careful nurses do Washing the ears out with soap and Does your Democratic neighbor slap In the course of nature he cannot water is bad; it keeps the wax moist have kind o' changed, aint they?" herit his vast estate and vast power. makes it absorb the dust with which That is what is affecting the Republi- He has had thirteen children. The the air always abounds. But the cans of New York just now. A more oldest is the wife of J. M. Cross, Esq., most hurtful thing is introducing the hilarious, jolly set of men than the of this city; the next is the wife of corner of the towel screwed up, and Democracy are not in existence. The D. B. Allen; Ethelinda Eliza mar- twisting it around. This does more enormous majority given to the De- ried a broker, Osgood, and Emily is harm to the ear than all other mismocracy in this city is very easily ex- the wife of W. K. Thorne. Next af- takes together. It drives the wax plained. A vast number of Republi- ter the four girls came a boy, who was down upon the membrane much cans-the best and hardest working named William. "Billy," as he is more than it gets out. Let any one Republicans formerly-voted deliber- familiarily known, is his father's who doubts this make a tube like the and not the money of their beaux. ately and in cool blood for Tilden and lieutenant in the railroad world, and passage, especially with the curve the Democratic ticket. They did has very great ability-in fact, it is which it possesses; let him put a thin this, not because they have lost their said he is stronger and quite as hard membrane at one end, smear its in-Republicanism and propose to go in- as his father. Then come three ner surface with a substance like the to the Democratic party, but because daughters, and another boy, Corneli- ear-wax, and then try and get it out they believe that the leadership of the us. The latter is a widower, and a so by a towel! But this plan does party has fallen into bad hands, and man of little account. He is a spend- much more mischief than merely that a rebuke is necessary. One sol- thrift, and so utterly unlike his fath- pressing down the wax. It irritates id, substantial merchant, who has al- er that the old man refuses to pay his the passage, and makes it cast off men. ways given liberally of his time and debts, or, for that matter, have any- small flakes of skin, which dry up money to the Republican cause, told thing to do with him. It will be re- and become extremely hard, and n.e the day before election that he membered that the late Horace Gree- these are also pressed down upon the should vote the straight Democratic ley lent this Vanderbilt a large sum, membrane. Often it is not only deafwhich the father refused to pay. ness which ensues, but pain and in-Francis and George, who followed flamation, and then matter is formed which the hard mass prevents from

In speaking of the Trunk Road, the Nebraska City News says: "A gust and September, for then the poor connection with Plattsmouth is of no spots appear. particular importance to us; and any Rule for Measuring Grain in A attempt to secure bonds either in BIN.-Multiply the length, breadth would be futile." He holds the keys to the transporta- If some young newspaper fledgling bir. 8 feet long, 4 feet wide, 3 feet tion facilities of the country. He has had written the above we should not high, equis 96 solid feet, multiplied of others. The Republicans of the the serews in his hands, and a single wonder, but we are informed that the by fourfifths, equals seventy-six and city felt that a change was necessary turn costs the farmers of the West News' men are old Nebraskans, and four-fifths, the number of bushels in and the merchants of the East mil- how any man who has sense and has the bin. lions. He has it in his power to make watched the effects of railroads on or ruin cities, and who can say what this State can pen such nonsense is injustice, caprice or interest may do? beyond our comprehension. If this He is too strong to be fought, and so Trunk road had been built years ago, The Democracy are as jubilant as the whole country has got down on towns and villages would have sprung men can be. The Manhattan Club, its knees before this gray-haired old up on the Nebraska side of the river, man and worships him. It is not the and wealth and prosperity centered ers of the organization, was, on Fri- first time the people have bowed be- here. The A. & N. would have never been built and probably the M. P. Let us hope that when he dies, Wil- Setting aside this view and saying up this great power and let it divide selfishness of Nebraska City, (if that is her view of the case) please look for one moment at the ignorance dis-does not come up as it ought. What or one from north to south through the following directions. In the first is the matter? The Democracy say the county and $150,000 more from place, build your house of brick or With a savage county seat fight on amizing) spread the broken rock six her hand, and the people of Cass, and inches deep, and thoroughly saturate the Trunk line above their own lim- saturate as before. Then tin the botka City to a point on the A. & N., loads of rock, and one of sand, ten and the money has almost been ready bushels of lime, are sufficient for any several times. Kind of twist your ordinary sized a mokehouse, will you.-Plattsmouth Herald. The Medina Gazette says that both ligion is." Cook-"Oh, ma'am, I alits Liverpool and Brunswick letters mentioned the strange fact on the religion as the family I'm in." Old Dr. Todd's son is bringing 17th ult., after a heavy shower of rain. Mr. Wm. Newton discovered great numbers of little fish, of the black whom life seemed a blank and furthbass tribe, in the grass in his pasture or existence a burden, tried to comlot, which could only have got there mit suicide by flinging himself into a peck around, and look at it this way.

A youthful Pennsylvania Granger, about to be chastised by his father. the other day, called for his grandfather to protect him from the middle-by being rained down.

A Troy woman who got all ready to elope with a young man, but finding that he had been eating onions for supper, she went back to her hus-

A poor sewing girl at Indianapolis has fallen beir to $88,000, and the man for whom she made shirts at 20 cents each wants to make her his able to suppose that I will not pay

An act of great politeness-Polishing a stove.

ADVERTISER

ADVERTISING RATES.

Space.	1 w	1 m	Per Month.	Per Year:
inchesinches	$1 00 2 50 4 00 7 00	$2.00 4.00 6.00	$1 00 1 50 2 75 5 (0)	$10.00 20.00 36.00

Legaladvertisements at legal rates: One square (10line of Nonparell space, or less.) first insertion $1.00; each subsequent insertion, 50c. All transcient advertisements must be pa

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE COUNTY

What Shall We do with Our Daught-

Mrs. Livermore has made this query the text to one of her fine lectures. It is certainly an important problem, should early be impressed upon Teach them self-reliance. Teach them to make bread.

Teach them to made shirts.

Teach them to foot up store bills. Teach them not to wear false hair. Teach them to wear thick, warm Bring them up in the way they should go.

Teach them how to wash and iron clothes.

Teach them how to make their own Teach them that a dollar is only a hundred cents. Teach them to cook a good meal of victuals.

Teach them how to darn stockings and sew on buttons. Teach them everyday, dry, hard practical common sense.

Teach them to say No, and mean it or Yes, and stick to it. Teach them to wear calico dresses and do it like queens. Give them a good substantial common school education. Teach them that a good rosy romp is worth fifty consumptives. Teach them to regard the morals Teach them all the mysteries of the kitchen, the dining-room, and the Teach them that the more one lives within his income the more he will Teach them to have nothing to do with intemperate and dissolute young Teach them the further one lives beyond his income the nearer he gets to the poorhouse. Rely upon it that upon your teaching depends in a great measure the weal or woe of their after life. Teach them that a good, steady mechanic without a cent is worth a doz-

Teach them the accomplishments music, painting, drawing, if you have time and money to do it with. Teach them that God made them in his own image, and no amount of tight lacing will improve the model.

DOMESTIC. THE best time to buy a farm is Au-

Cass or Otoe for such river bank line and height together, and that produet by four-fifths. For example : A

THE Herald of Health is of opinion that the simple color of ones surroundings has a marked influence on his health. It says: "Yellow on the walls of our rooms has a very depressing effected on the mind. Violet is worse. A man would go mad in a little while in a violet papered or painted room. Black rooms, or rooms heavily draped in mourning, produce gloom and forecoding. Never wear mourning long, unless you wish to be sad and sorrowful beyond what nature ever intended. ing slowly. There is enough show- Bonds are voted in Cass. $150,000 A RAT PROOF SMOKEHOUSE.-The through Otoe west of Nebraska City, well broken, (such as used for macadmany in Otoe keen for this move, no with thin lime and small mortar. editor, with horse sense, would write When this becomes hard add another that Nebraska City had no interest in coat of rock eight inches thick, and its. This road will be built, if not tom and edges of the door, and the down the river, then back of Nebras- protection is complete. Three wagon > Lady-"Before I engage you, I should like to know what your reways feel it my duty to he of the same

> A rejected lover in Switzerland, to bear's den. He insisted upon being hugged, anyhow.

"Uncle, how do you do? Which would you like best, work for wages, or part of de erop?" "Waal, I 'elar. I tink bofe de best, if you can only brung 'em togedder."

There is evidently a very brilliant future before Weston, but the general opinion is that he wont begin to realize it much until somebody saws off

A Georgetown man advertises concerning his runaway wife, that "As I never pay my own debts, it is reasonhers."

A yawl-boat-One filled with crying babies.