

TIME TABLE.

Daily Stage Lines. Daily Stage Lines. Daily Stage Lines.

Midland Pacific Railway. Midland Pacific Railway. Midland Pacific Railway.

Brownville Bass Line to Phelps. Brownville Bass Line to Phelps. Brownville Bass Line to Phelps.

Chicago & North Western Railway. Chicago & North Western Railway. Chicago & North Western Railway.

Publishers' Notices. Publishers' Notices. Publishers' Notices.

Authorized Agents. Authorized Agents. Authorized Agents.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

Local Matters. Local Matters. Local Matters.

The Beatrice Express speaks of a squash vine grown in that city, 370 feet in length. Well, that will do pretty well.

Rev. T. B. Lemon, presiding Elder Nebraska Dist., will hold his 1st quarterly meeting for the Brownville M. E. Church for the present conference upon Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 16th and 17th.

Grand Opening of Boots and Shoes by L. Lowman. Do not be deceived by the heading of your ticket. Many tickets will be headed "Republican ticket," that have the names of Democrats or Independents on them.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Our article from Aspinwall is pretty severe upon friend Gilbert; but we must say that it is not at all too severe if he is working against the ticket, or any part of it; for we were at the convention and remember well that Mr. Minick did pledge Gilbert to the support of the ticket, and it was done after Mr. Jones was nominated.

Grand Opening of Clothing by L. Lowman. We have been very reliably informed that Mr. Scofield's name will appear on a Republican ticket, gotten up to deceive voters. Readers, Mr. Pound, the Republican candidate for Judge is the man we want. He is a sober and very able man, while Scofield is neither.

Grand Opening of Notions by L. Lowman. Mr. Church denies, since he has become a candidate, that he is the author of the article signed "Nixie," which so insulted Penick's men. Of course he denies it and the reason why is very plain to every one—because he is a demagogue and politician seeking office, and wants the support of Penick's men and their friends.

Grand Opening of Notions by L. Lowman. The editor of the Granger charges, around the corners, when he whispers to men, that Wils. Majors once refused to let his hired girl eat at the table with himself and wife. But the sneaking villifier of honest men is too much of a coward and paltrone to make the charge through the columns of his paper.

Grand Opening of Notions by L. Lowman. The editor of the Granger charges, around the corners, when he whispers to men, that Wils. Majors once refused to let his hired girl eat at the table with himself and wife. But the sneaking villifier of honest men is too much of a coward and paltrone to make the charge through the columns of his paper.

Grand Opening of Notions by L. Lowman. The editor of the Granger charges, around the corners, when he whispers to men, that Wils. Majors once refused to let his hired girl eat at the table with himself and wife. But the sneaking villifier of honest men is too much of a coward and paltrone to make the charge through the columns of his paper.

Grand Opening of Notions by L. Lowman. The editor of the Granger charges, around the corners, when he whispers to men, that Wils. Majors once refused to let his hired girl eat at the table with himself and wife. But the sneaking villifier of honest men is too much of a coward and paltrone to make the charge through the columns of his paper.

Grand Opening of Notions by L. Lowman. The editor of the Granger charges, around the corners, when he whispers to men, that Wils. Majors once refused to let his hired girl eat at the table with himself and wife. But the sneaking villifier of honest men is too much of a coward and paltrone to make the charge through the columns of his paper.

Grand Opening of Notions by L. Lowman. The editor of the Granger charges, around the corners, when he whispers to men, that Wils. Majors once refused to let his hired girl eat at the table with himself and wife. But the sneaking villifier of honest men is too much of a coward and paltrone to make the charge through the columns of his paper.

Grand Opening of Notions by L. Lowman. The editor of the Granger charges, around the corners, when he whispers to men, that Wils. Majors once refused to let his hired girl eat at the table with himself and wife. But the sneaking villifier of honest men is too much of a coward and paltrone to make the charge through the columns of his paper.

Proceedings of the Nemaha County Republican Central Committee.

Brownville Neb., Sept. 30, '75. Meeting called to order by former chairman. The committee then elected G. W. Fairbrother as permanent chairman, and W. A. Polock as Secretary.

Pleasant Hill school house, Monday evening, Oct. 4th. Johnson, Tuesday evening, October 5th. Benton, (Steinman's school house,) Wednesday evening October 6th. Sheridan, Thursday evening, Oct. 7th. Nemaha City, Saturday evening, Oct. 9th.

ASPINWALL PRECINCT, Oct. 5, '75. Editor Nebraska Advertiser. We had an excellent Republican meeting at this place last night. Mr. Curtis was called to the chair and Mr. Jones took the floor. Mr. Jones made a few remarks on general principles concerning the party, he then referred to the slanderous reports being circulated as to his being a man of intemperate habits; he called on any man in his Aspinwall-precinct to make it known if he had ever seen him under the influence of liquor.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Mr. Higgins, Independent candidate for County Commissioner, tells the people through the county that it is absolutely necessary to elect him again, and that the interests of the public, in railroad matters especially, will suffer greatly should he be defeated. What a tremendous fellow Higgins must be by his own estimation. County affairs must be in a horrid shape if nobody but Higgins can attend to them.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Mr. Clapp spoke just long enough to let the people know that he was a man of deep thought and few words. It was shown plainly that the story circulated by the Independents in regard to Mr. Clapp's voting for bonds was utterly false, as the poll books of Lafayette precinct show that no man by the name of Clapp voted at either of said elections.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Mr. Dundas next spoke, confining himself to matters pertaining to the schools of the county. He also referred to the unfair means taken by the opposition to create the impression that the school funds of the State had been stolen by a Republican legislature. He thought that other reasons could be given for the decline in the interest in the schools for the last two years, and said if he (Dundas) did not get but twelve votes in the county, he wanted to get those twelve by fair play and not by any misrepresentation.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Col. Majors was called out and made an excellent speech. He presented a certificate signed by the chairman of the Independent meeting at Peru and Mr. Buck of that place, stating that Mr. Howe did not challenge or ask Mr. Majors or anyone else to deny or dispute his statement. This certainly does not agree with the declaration made by Mr. Howe in almost every meeting that he has attended, that he dared Majors or any one else to deny, and that Majors took his hat and sneaked off like a whipped cur.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Hon. C. Hayward was called for and spoke at some length. He was in favor of the ticket for two reasons; first, because it was the sound Republican ticket and secondly because the ticket was made up of the best men in the county.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Mr. L. Mason came forward and made a few remarks. Mr. M. is a Democrat but says he can support only a part of the men on the Independent ticket.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. John Wixen was called out and made the people laugh heartily by his remarks and actions. He will make a splendid actor if he will but practice. He has very elastic limbs and a very pliable tongue.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. The very newest thing in the SHOE LINE at McPherson's corner, No. 66. A good temperance friend said to us that we ought to support Mr. Church from the fact that he belongs to the same temperance organization that we do. We answered him by saying that that was no reason at all for us, and that the organization referred to requires no such thing. We would not belong to a secret society a quarter of a second that would undertake to dictate, politically or religiously, to us. Mr. Church does not suit us even as a temperance reformer.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. We differ upon that question material. He believes in totally prohibiting the manufacture, sale and use in any form, of spirituous liquors, while we do not. We intend to believe in the manufacture and use of liquor so long as whiskey is considered the most effective remedy for snake bites, and so long as it is considered the best thing for any other good use. Mr. Church believes that laws regulating the liquor traffic are a curse and should be done away with, while we, as a temperance man, believe the contrary, and that any evil dangerous to the public welfare, that cannot be prevented should be regulated by well considered and reasonable laws.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Furthermore, while we love to see athletic sports, we despise, in a political sense, a political acrobat and jig dancer. Mr. Church being such a politician. If we agreed on temperance matters, we would not support him if he were bleached with spring water and chalk until he and those who believe it will be sadly victimized.

A CARD.

Editor Nebraska Advertiser. In last week's Granger appears an article written by some one over the signature of "Aspinwall."

I would consider it altogether beneath my notice were it not for the base, lying insinuations contained therein. Now, I am greatly mistaken if I am not pretty well acquainted with the author of that beautiful composition, and also with the reason of his personal animosity to me, and beg leave to assure him, that judging from his appearance he must be better able to decide the question "how often in a year a man can get 'boozey' (as he so classically expresses it) and still be a temperance man," than I am; for, judging from the gentleman's appearance and manners I am inclined to think that sometime, many years ago, probably during the late war, (as I believe he claims to have been in the service,) he must accidentally have come across a jug of whiskey and got most gloriously drunk; to recover from the effects of which he has ever since been indulging in sedulous powders and soda water, with occasionally something stronger, without any beneficial results. At all events his reason for joining the temperance society at Aspinwall exhibited more selfishness than desire to benefit the community; to avoid the expense of treating his friends.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. The article altogether exhibits ignorance and mendacity worthy of the source from which it sprang. Respectfully, HENRY M. JONES.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Mr. Higgins, Independent candidate for County Commissioner, tells the people through the county that it is absolutely necessary to elect him again, and that the interests of the public, in railroad matters especially, will suffer greatly should he be defeated. What a tremendous fellow Higgins must be by his own estimation. County affairs must be in a horrid shape if nobody but Higgins can attend to them.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. A Mr. Keelar and his wife, who are of the Keelar family of Spiritualists, so noted among spiritualists everywhere, of Moravia, New York, arrived in this city last Wednesday, and have given several seances in Brownville and Nemaha City. We had the pleasure of attending some of the meetings and saw many wonderful performances that were unaccountable to us and baffled every effort of committees to detect deception. Mr. Keelar invites the closest possible scrutiny, and up to this time, during eighteen years in the business, no fraud of his has been detected, if any were practiced, and the various astounding feats performed, have never been accounted for by any person not a spiritualist. Everybody has heard and read of the unaccountable performances of the Davenportes. The Keelars give about the same kind of demonstrations, equally as difficult to understand. We will not at this time go into detail of what we saw, heard and felt at the seances. We had the privilege, as all have, of free, perfect and unconditional examination of the paraphernalia and fixtures connected with the mediums, and were perfectly satisfied that we witnessed acts entirely removed from the possibilities of mortal man or woman to perform. Should we fill columns about what we saw and otherwise experienced, as we could, the bigot and self-conceited fool would say we were deceived, and the truth would amount to nothing. We are an investigator and dare seek for truth wherever and whenever opportunity offers, not being like a door upon his hinges nor bound to run in any doctrinal groove. Let those who dare investigate. Those who dare to investigate this subject can have ample opportunity offered them by attending the seances of the Keelars.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Gents, if you want a NOBBY HAT, call on H. H. Dolen, at McPherson's corner, No. 66.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Mr. Campbell, Postmaster at Howard, called on the ADVERTISER this week. He says the communication signed "Washington," in the THE ADVERTISER of week before last regarding the understanding heretofore between the Republican and Democratic Independents, was exactly true, and that the Democracy for two years now have been outrageously imposed upon by the Republican wing of the Independent party; that last year the only Democrat on their ticket, Mr. Stokes, was defeated by the Republican Independents throwing off on Stokes, and that this year there is not a single Independent Democrat on the ticket. Dave Plasters is not an Independent and never pretended to belong to the party. Mr. Campbell says that in his part of the county the Democrats are supporting the straight Republican ticket; that if the brains of the Independent party belong solely to the Republican wing, he will take Republicanism in its purity and vote the straight ticket.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. "Nixie" and the editor of the Granger are both of rather "retiring disposition," and they ingloriously retire before the single battery of a Penick jawbreaker. "Nixie" will undoubtedly think at least twice before he again rushes frantically to the rescue of another editor possessed with a retiring disposition. A fool is wise in his own conceit; and "that's what's the matter" with "Nixie" and the Granger man.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. District Court is in Session in this city this week, Judge Gant, presiding. No important cases had been tried up to the time of going to press with our paper.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Voters look well to your tickets—read carefully just before you vote, and see that you are not deceived. We give this caution from the fact that there are many tickets going out containing names from both the regular tickets. While we believe that a candidate has the right to have his name on both tickets and various kinds of tickets; we also believe that every voter should vote for whomever he pleases, and should not inadvertently vote for anybody. Read the names on your ticket before you vote.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. The members of the Episcopal Church will celebrate this occasion in grand style, by a festival and a happy social time, on Thursday evening, 7th inst. at McPherson's Hall. The public are cordially invited to attend and participate in the enjoyments of the evening. There will be services in the church on the morning of the 7th.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Buy your BACON, HAMS, PICKLED PORK, and LARD, at W. T. DEN'S. Dr. Holladay at the Salem Fair. It is with some degree of pride that we announce that a citizen of our city carried off several of the most coveted prizes from the Richardson County Fair held at Salem last week. "Nebraska Maid" took two pacing premiums, one on Thursday and one on Friday. The Maid also was awarded the first ribbon as the best saddle nag. The Doctor's mare Nello, took the first premium as a roadster; and his by three-year-old Stallion, "Hamiltonian Chief," received the first award as a thoroughbred horse. By-the-way we will note that Hamiltonian Chief is a fine colt, over fifteen and a half hands high and weighs fully one thousand pounds.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. The best prints 8 cents at McPherson's, old stand of F. E. Johnson & Co.

"A GOOD INVESTMENT."

We take pleasure in announcing this week that we have secured, from Harper Brothers, New York, the right to publish one of the most interesting serial stories that was ever written.

"A GOOD INVESTMENT," will be introduced to our readers the first week in November, and will run between four and five months. The story does not already take the ADVERTISER and desire to do so during the continuation of this splendid story can have it for the reduced sum of 50 cents, only the price of the story as published in book form. We make this offer in order that all may have a chance to read the story, and at the same time, as an inducement to try our paper. The story needs no comment as to its fitness to be read by any one further than to say it has been deemed worthy of a place in Harper's Monthly, one of the most carefully edited, most interesting and popular magazines in the world; besides this, after a careful perusal, endorse it as one of the most interesting and least pernicious stories we ever read. The plot is during the late rebellion, and runs through Ohio, Kentucky and Louisiana; opening about the time of Morgan's memorable raid into Ohio. The scenes through which it passes cannot fail to be familiar to many of our readers; and the incidents connecting it with the war are so correctly and vividly described as to give it a historical value.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Any person sending us a trial club of ten or more, accompanied by the cash, will receive the paper free to the end of the story. Considering that the offer is a great reduction for the paper, with the story as an inducement over and above our well filled columns of home and foreign news, &c., &c., it will be a comparatively easy task for any canvasser to make up a club in any neighborhood, as the most astute cannot fail to see that either the ADVERTISER by itself, or the story by itself, (both for less than the usual price of either,) is

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. A Mr. Keelar and his wife, who are of the Keelar family of Spiritualists, so noted among spiritualists everywhere, of Moravia, New York, arrived in this city last Wednesday, and have given several seances in Brownville and Nemaha City. We had the pleasure of attending some of the meetings and saw many wonderful performances that were unaccountable to us and baffled every effort of committees to detect deception. Mr. Keelar invites the closest possible scrutiny, and up to this time, during eighteen years in the business, no fraud of his has been detected, if any were practiced, and the various astounding feats performed, have never been accounted for by any person not a spiritualist. Everybody has heard and read of the unaccountable performances of the Davenportes. The Keelars give about the same kind of demonstrations, equally as difficult to understand. We will not at this time go into detail of what we saw, heard and felt at the seances. We had the privilege, as all have, of free, perfect and unconditional examination of the paraphernalia and fixtures connected with the mediums, and were perfectly satisfied that we witnessed acts entirely removed from the possibilities of mortal man or woman to perform. Should we fill columns about what we saw and otherwise experienced, as we could, the bigot and self-conceited fool would say we were deceived, and the truth would amount to nothing. We are an investigator and dare seek for truth wherever and whenever opportunity offers, not being like a door upon his hinges nor bound to run in any doctrinal groove. Let those who dare investigate. Those who dare to investigate this subject can have ample opportunity offered them by attending the seances of the Keelars.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Gents, if you want a NOBBY HAT, call on H. H. Dolen, at McPherson's corner, No. 66.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Mr. Campbell, Postmaster at Howard, called on the ADVERTISER this week. He says the communication signed "Washington," in the THE ADVERTISER of week before last regarding the understanding heretofore between the Republican and Democratic Independents, was exactly true, and that the Democracy for two years now have been outrageously imposed upon by the Republican wing of the Independent party; that last year the only Democrat on their ticket, Mr. Stokes, was defeated by the Republican Independents throwing off on Stokes, and that this year there is not a single Independent Democrat on the ticket. Dave Plasters is not an Independent and never pretended to belong to the party. Mr. Campbell says that in his part of the county the Democrats are supporting the straight Republican ticket; that if the brains of the Independent party belong solely to the Republican wing, he will take Republicanism in its purity and vote the straight ticket.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. "Nixie" and the editor of the Granger are both of rather "retiring disposition," and they ingloriously retire before the single battery of a Penick jawbreaker. "Nixie" will undoubtedly think at least twice before he again rushes frantically to the rescue of another editor possessed with a retiring disposition. A fool is wise in his own conceit; and "that's what's the matter" with "Nixie" and the Granger man.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. District Court is in Session in this city this week, Judge Gant, presiding. No important cases had been tried up to the time of going to press with our paper.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Buy your BACON, HAMS, PICKLED PORK, and LARD, at W. T. DEN'S. Dr. Holladay at the Salem Fair. It is with some degree of pride that we announce that a citizen of our city carried off several of the most coveted prizes from the Richardson County Fair held at Salem last week. "Nebraska Maid" took two pacing premiums, one on Thursday and one on Friday. The Maid also was awarded the first ribbon as the best saddle nag. The Doctor's mare Nello, took the first premium as a roadster; and his by three-year-old Stallion, "Hamiltonian Chief," received the first award as a thoroughbred horse. By-the-way we will note that Hamiltonian Chief is a fine colt, over fifteen and a half hands high and weighs fully one thousand pounds.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. The best prints 8 cents at McPherson's, old stand of F. E. Johnson & Co.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. The members of the Episcopal Church will celebrate this occasion in grand style, by a festival and a happy social time, on Thursday evening, 7th inst. at McPherson's Hall. The public are cordially invited to attend and participate in the enjoyments of the evening. There will be services in the church on the morning of the 7th.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Buy your BACON, HAMS, PICKLED PORK, and LARD, at W. T. DEN'S. Dr. Holladay at the Salem Fair. It is with some degree of pride that we announce that a citizen of our city carried off several of the most coveted prizes from the Richardson County Fair held at Salem last week. "Nebraska Maid" took two pacing premiums, one on Thursday and one on Friday. The Maid also was awarded the first ribbon as the best saddle nag. The Doctor's mare Nello, took the first premium as a roadster; and his by three-year-old Stallion, "Hamiltonian Chief," received the first award as a thoroughbred horse. By-the-way we will note that Hamiltonian Chief is a fine colt, over fifteen and a half hands high and weighs fully one thousand pounds.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. The best prints 8 cents at McPherson's, old stand of F. E. Johnson & Co.

Musical Notice.

A full attendance of the members of the CHORAL UNION and the musical friends who have been invited to assist them in the production of the Cantata of the "Pilgrim Fathers," is earnestly desired on Monday evening next at the Presbyterian Church, at 7 o'clock. On that evening the cast of the characters will be made, and the rehearsals thereafter conducted with a view of performance at the earliest practicable date. Let every one attend, and who will participate and whether or not they will accept the part assigned them. It is desired to make this affair a grand success, and to this end, the hearty co-operation of each and every singer should and we hope will be given.

Harvest Home Festival. The members of the Episcopal Church will celebrate this occasion in grand style, by a festival and a happy social time, on Thursday evening, 7th inst. at McPherson's Hall. The public are cordially invited to attend and participate in the enjoyments of the evening. There will be services in the church on the morning of the 7th.

Buy your BACON, HAMS, PICKLED PORK, and LARD, at W. T. DEN'S. Dr. Holladay at the Salem Fair. It is with some degree of pride that we announce that a citizen of our city carried off several of the most coveted prizes from the Richardson County Fair held at Salem last week. "Nebraska Maid" took two pacing premiums, one on Thursday and one on Friday. The Maid also was awarded the first ribbon as the best saddle nag. The Doctor's mare Nello, took the first premium as a roadster; and his by three-year-old Stallion, "Hamiltonian Chief," received the first award as a thoroughbred horse. By-the-way we will note that Hamiltonian Chief is a fine colt, over fifteen and a half hands high and weighs fully one thousand pounds.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. The best prints 8 cents at McPherson's, old stand of F. E. Johnson & Co.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. The members of the Episcopal Church will celebrate this occasion in grand style, by a festival and a happy social time, on Thursday evening, 7th inst. at McPherson's Hall. The public are cordially invited to attend and participate in the enjoyments of the evening. There will be services in the church on the morning of the 7th.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Buy your BACON, HAMS, PICKLED PORK, and LARD, at W. T. DEN'S. Dr. Holladay at the Salem Fair. It is with some degree of pride that we announce that a citizen of our city carried off several of the most coveted prizes from the Richardson County Fair held at Salem last week. "Nebraska Maid" took two pacing premiums, one on Thursday and one on Friday. The Maid also was awarded the first ribbon as the best saddle nag. The Doctor's mare Nello, took the first premium as a roadster; and his by three-year-old Stallion, "Hamiltonian Chief," received the first award as a thoroughbred horse. By-the-way we will note that Hamiltonian Chief is a fine colt, over fifteen and a half hands high and weighs fully one thousand pounds.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. The best prints 8 cents at McPherson's, old stand of F. E. Johnson & Co.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. The members of the Episcopal Church will celebrate this occasion in grand style, by a festival and a happy social time, on Thursday evening, 7th inst. at McPherson's Hall. The public are cordially invited to attend and participate in the enjoyments of the evening. There will be services in the church on the morning of the 7th.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Buy your BACON, HAMS, PICKLED PORK, and LARD, at W. T. DEN'S. Dr. Holladay at the Salem Fair. It is with some degree of pride that we announce that a citizen of our city carried off several of the most coveted prizes from the Richardson County Fair held at Salem last week. "Nebraska Maid" took two pacing premiums, one on Thursday and one on Friday. The Maid also was awarded the first ribbon as the best saddle nag. The Doctor's mare Nello, took the first premium as a roadster; and his by three-year-old Stallion, "Hamiltonian Chief," received the first award as a thoroughbred horse. By-the-way we will note that Hamiltonian Chief is a fine colt, over fifteen and a half hands high and weighs fully one thousand pounds.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. The best prints 8 cents at McPherson's, old stand of F. E. Johnson & Co.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. The members of the Episcopal Church will celebrate this occasion in grand style, by a festival and a happy social time, on Thursday evening, 7th inst. at McPherson's Hall. The public are cordially invited to attend and participate in the enjoyments of the evening. There will be services in the church on the morning of the 7th.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. Buy your BACON, HAMS, PICKLED PORK, and LARD, at W. T. DEN'S. Dr. Holladay at the Salem Fair. It is with some degree of pride that we announce that a citizen of our city carried off several of the most coveted prizes from the Richardson County Fair held at Salem last week. "Nebraska Maid" took two pacing premiums, one on Thursday and one on Friday. The Maid also was awarded the first ribbon as the best saddle nag. The Doctor's mare Nello, took the first premium as a roadster; and his by three-year-old Stallion, "Hamiltonian Chief," received the first award as a thoroughbred horse. By-the-way we will note that Hamiltonian Chief is a fine colt, over fifteen and a half hands high and weighs fully one thousand pounds.

Grand Opening of Hats and Caps by L. Lowman. The best prints 8 cents at McPherson's, old stand of F. E. Johnson & Co.

MR. GILMORE.

Candidate for Treasurer. The people's high appreciation of Mr. Gilmore, as a gentleman, a citizen and an officer gives him an easy race for re-election. In fact he has no race at all but will be permitted to take the prize by merely walking over the course. This is as it should be, and speaks well for the good sense of all parties. For the balance of the offices, unless perhaps it be that of clerk, there is considerable strife and some doubts as to result, but for the office of treasurer, Mr. Gilmore has no opposition. We did suppose that while the Independents were nominating they would put a full ticket in the field, but they refused, hence Mr. Gilmore is running without opposition, and they felt so jolly over the blank in their ticket that they perpetrated a joke on an old gentleman. The severest joke of the season. A man as popular as Mr. Gilmore and running without opposition needs no newspaper arguments in his favor; and it is only from our high appreciation of the man and the faithful officer, in common with others, that we accord him this passing notice.

MR. CLAPP, Candidate for Commissioner. Mr. Clapp is not so well known through the county as we could desire. Were he well known his election would be overwhelming. In his own neighborhood and precinct he commands the highest esteem of every body irrespective of party, and while he may not receive a majority of the votes of his precinct—Lafayette—as it is supposed to be strongly Independent, he will get the full vote of the Republican party and out deeply into the ranks of the opposition. Mr. Clapp is a farmer of integrity and ability, and of broad, generous views regarding public enterprises, and is just the man for a most excellent county commissioner. We assure our readers that should Mr. Clapp be elected the general interests of the county will be cared for and fostered in a manner that will give the best satisfaction to the tax-payers of the county.

THE BEST FORT SCOTT COAL. And Wood for sale by the Brownville Transfer Company.

An Aspinwall Shyster. Editor Nebraska Advertiser. There is a man in this town by the name of Gilbert. He clerks in John S. Minick's store. This man is our Aspinwall shyster, as I suppose all noted places has his shysters and demagogues. This man is making himself very busy about election matters, and very odious to those who are acquainted with him. I wish to show him up by briefly reviewing his political course of the present campaign. His course has been extremely crooked.

At the Republican county convention Mr. Gilbert's name was presented for the office of Superintendent of schools. John S. Minick, his employer and friend presented his name, and pledged him, whether nominated or not, to the full support of the Republican ticket. Mr. Minick certainly did not do this without authority from Mr. Gilbert—if he did, Mr. Gilbert's conduct since has brought Mr. Minick's words uttered in his remarks on that occasion, into fearful jeopardy, or else he did not know his clerk as well as he thought he did regarding his "unswerving fidelity to the Republican party." But fortunately for the vindication of honesty, Mr. Gilbert was not nominated. Mr. Gilbert was in honor bound, by the pledge he there made through his friend, to support the Republican ticket. Well, how has he done it, and how is he treating that promise? The very next Saturday, after the Republican convention, found Mr. Gilbert at Sheridan mingling with the Independents and making an effort to secure the nomination for Superintendent from that party. Now, Mr. Editor, how are we to regard such a man? Would he not most surely have been supporting the Republican ticket now had he got the nomination? Would it have been an honest support? Of course not, selfish motives alone prompting him. Gilbert is not satisfied, it appears, with what he can do about Minick's store in opposition to the Republican ticket, but has to vent himself against the Republican nominee for Probate Judge by rushing his falsehoods into the Granger. His charges and mean insinuations over the signature of Aspinwall last week are known to be false. Mr. Jones, without half the pretensions of Mr. Gilbert is a more successful advocate of true temperance reform than is the latter gentleman. Mr. Jones, since his residence in the precinct has taught school many months and was always at his post of duty giving universal satisfaction, and as for his getting drunk or "boozey," it is a most glaring and unkind falsehood. As much as he has been about here I never knew him to be drunk, or even to drink. On the contrary he has always been found sober industrious, quiet, and always on time in the discharge of duty. Mr. Gilbert's most outrageously inconsistent course has called for this correspondence from me. The true Republicans of this precinct are going to stand firmly for the whole ticket, believing the time for solid action to be here, and Mr. Jones, notwithstanding the style of cowardly warfare indulged in by Gilbert and other such stumbling blocks in the temperance cause, will receive at least a respectable majority over either Church or McCommas.

Remember the Harvest Home Festival at McPherson Hall on the evening of the 7th inst.

We had the pleasure of meeting Hon. O. P. Mason in the city on Monday.

The best prints