Our "Neighborhood News" is full this week, for which we return thanks. With the assistance of our readers we flatter ourselves that THE ADVERTISER is the best county paper in the west.

Independents will be permitted to participate in the primaries on Saturday, and are even invited to come boldly. Now is the accepted time—not a month hence, when other overtures to them may make it for ever too late.

The Good Templars lodge at Aspinwall gave an "Old Folks" concert on Saturday evening of last week. A delegation of 30 or more of our people went down and were very well entertained and speak highly of the performances.

The call for a county convention on the second page has been inadvertently omitted heretofore. We hope the Republican electors will take notice of the call for precinct primaries on Saturday next, May 6th, at 3 o'clock p. m., and will send full delegations to the county convention. It is to be hoped that all who desire to co-operate with the Republican party in the approaching campaign will start in now at the primaries.

Marshal McCabe arrested a beligerent individual one day last week, and was quietly marching him to the Police Judge's office, when the fellow suddenly and unexpectedly attempted to give leg ball. It was a refreshing sight to see the marshal stretching himself away towards the Missouri river, and to the spectators it was doubtless the most interesting foot race ever witnessed on Main street. The marshal's shin bones were a little too long to make the race a fair one, and he succeeded in arresting the fugitive before he crossed the city limits.

The following obituary we take from the Rockport Journal. Judge Carnes was a brother-in-law to Dr. William Arnold of this city:

On Monday evening last Judge Carnes died at his home in Templeton township. He had been an invalid for several years and his death was not unexpected.

Judge Carnes was born in Allegheny county, Pa., Nov. 17, 1817; removed with his parents to Coshocton county, Ohio in 1820, and in 1825 removed to Missouri, making his home in Templeton township this county for a term of six years.

His remains were interred on Wednesday in Green Hill Cemetery near Rock Port, the funeral being conducted by the Masonic fraternity, of which order he had long been a member.

We regret to announce that our fellow townsman, W. D. Swan, who has been so long with us as to be one of the family, as it were, having now closed out his business, will soon take up his residence elsewhere. We are not yet advised as to the field of his operations in the future, but wherever he may chance to rein in the community which receives him will receive a good substantial business man, for such we all know we have lost.

On Saturday last a son of our townsman, J. L. Roy, was thrown from a fractions horse and seriously injured. The horse ran down to the levee and attempted to run up on the railroad track north of the depot, but got no farther than the railroad bridge on Atlantic street in which he was so badly injured that he died the day following. The boy is recovering.

Notice is hereby given that on Tuesday, May 9th, 1876, at 1 o'clock p. m., at the office of J. H. Broadly, at Brownville, Neb., there will be a meeting of the stockholders of the Nemaha Driving Park Association, for the election of five directors of said association. E. HUDDART, Pres't.

A citizen who has just come from there says Brownville is the quietest town he has struck since he had the measles. He had them in Nebraska City.—Falls City Globe-Journal. He didn't strike it right. We suspect it is the fellow that put up under the court house.
