

THE NEBRASKA ADVERTISER

Is an independent Republican journal--free to do right--free to approve honesty or denounce corruption, because no political or religious ring or clique owns any part or parcel in it, and it owes indorsement to no man except to him who has acquired the right to be indorsed by discharging his duties well and honestly as a private citizen or a public official.

THE ADVERTISER believes in Free Thought, Free Schools, Free Politics, and the broadest individual liberty consistent with the rights of others; and that every individual South, North, East and West, should be protected in the enjoyment of those rights by the General Government in obedience to the guarantees of the National Constitution.

AS A LOCAL PAPER, the publishers of THE ADVERTISER labor assiduously, and with unremitting industry, to make it a success. Without prejudice or partiality for or against any particular localities, they desire the welfare of all; and anything a newspaper can do for the advancement of the general prosperity, THE ADVERTISER is not only willing, but anxious, to do. Believing in TOWN AND COUNTRY, and that the prosperity of the one depends more or less upon the prosperity of the other, we can co-sistently work for the prosperity of all. As an evidence that we labor to give our readers an honest paper, and the most and greatest variety of reading matter possible, we invite attention to the columns of our paper, and comparison as to quantity and quality, with any other weekly in the State not made up from the matter of daily papers. Our type are all of our own office, and we never leave in old advertisements, or other "dead" matter to "fill up" and save labor. When our advertisements cease to "pay," we set them out and fill up with reading matter. We do this because it is due our patrons--those who support and read our paper, and because we are determined to make a paper that the people will seek for, and receive full value for the money invested in it.

THE ADVERTISER is about twenty-one years old, is a fixed institution, upon a sure foundation. While it has acquired age and stability, it has also accumulated, from year to year, all the conveniences and facilities of a number one News and JOB OFFICE and to keep it so, we keep it supplied always with the latest and most fashionable styles of type, which enables us to do as neat job work, of any kind, including pamphlet work, as any office in the west.

THE ADVERTISER is only $1.50 a year, invariably in advance; six months, $1.00; or until after the November election, 50 cents. Address, FAIRBROTHER & HACKER, Brownville, Nebraska.

Table with multiple columns containing names, addresses, and other details, organized into sections like Hillsdale, Nemaha City, and others.
