See the advertisement of The Chicago Post, appearing in another column to-day. The Post is one of the staunch and reliable papers of the day, and its terms are so low that the weekly edition, at least, is within the reach of everybody. The scale of prices, as stated in the advertisement, shows it to be the cheapest first-class publication in the Union, and as all of our readers are more or less interested in the Metropolis of the West, we commend The Post, either Weekly or Daily, as the best, all things considered, that they can possibly have, outside of their own local publications, which, of course, they should take.

Farmers, bring in your Produce. We want it, and will pay you the highest price for it.

A few days ago Dr. Holladay took us in his buggy behind his fast team and gave us a most pleasant ride into the country. We don't think the doctor could have administered any better medicine to us than that recreative ride. We visited the farm of Mr. Henry Richards some six or seven miles west of town, and took a look at Henry's fine colt. We think he has the best looking colt in the county, and had had to "get away" with all of "em." It was sired by Dr. H's horse, Hambletonian, is only four months old, yet is at least twelve hands high, and as perfectly formed animal as we have ever seen. It is a sorrel horse colt. Henry has refused a hundred dollars for him. The doctor's horse certainly shows more excellent colts than any other horse that was ever brought to this county. If you go in the neighborhood of Mr. Richards', stop and see his Hambletonian colt.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For County Judge, JOHN S. STULL, of Brownville.

For County Clerk, WILSON E. MAJORS, of Peru.

For County Treasurer, A. H. GILMORE, of Brownville.

For Sheriff, R. V. BLACK, of Lafayette.

For Sup't of Public Instruction, PHILIP CROTHER, of Nemaha City.

For County Commissioner, JOHN H. SHOOK, of Aspinwall.

For Coroner, C. B. PARKER, of Lafayette.

For Surveyor, JAMES M. HACKER, of Nemaha City.

The foregoing is the ticket nominated by the Republican county convention which met at Sheridan last Saturday.

Mr. Stull, the nominee for Judge, is a lawyer of this city, of acknowledged legal ability not only at home but throughout the State. He possesses stability and decision of character, integrity and firmness, honor and ability, which eminently qualify him for the position for which he has been nominated. He is a gentleman who attends promptly, studiously, and industriously to his business. Although not a member of any temperance organization, is at least by his example, a temperance man. Judge Stull two consecutive years was elected Police Judge of the city, and is at this time Mayor of the city, honored as such by the votes of the people. A more fitting selection for the office of County Judge could not have been made, and those who appreciate the necessity of having an able man to fill that responsible office, will, irrespective of party, give him their votes.

Mr. Majors, the candidate for Clerk, is the present incumbent. The people know him well and appreciate his business qualifications, his promptness, industry and efficiency in discharging the arduous and responsible duties of the office. And we may mention as not least among his qualifications for clerk, his always pleasant demeanor and accommodating disposition. He is never tired nor harassed by perplexing business to greet all with a pleasant word, and to accommodate them with any information he is able to give. The people respect such a man, they admire such an officer and will without doubt triumphantly re-elect him.

Mr. Gilmore, the nominee for Treasurer is also the present incumbent of that office. He, too, is so well known that it may seem superfluous for us to say a word in his favor. A pleasant, quiet, unobtrusive gentleman, always at his post, naturally fitted socially to serve in such a capacity--to do business with and for the people--the very soul of honor, he has the universal esteem and confidence of everybody. We have had much experience in county offices and can say to the people from personal knowledge that a more careful, accurate and efficient county Treasurer we never saw. The people are careful to select honest men to take charge of their money. They were not mistaken when they chose Mr. Gilmore, and before they discharge him from the Treasury office, they should know well into whose hands the responsible trust is to fall. Appreciating these truths, and that the present Treasurer is all that could be desired as a good and true officer, he will again be endorsed by the voters of Nemaha by an overwhelming majority.

R. V. Black, the nominee for Sheriff is a well-to-do farmer and blacksmith of Lafayette precinct. He entered the Union army in Illinois at the beginning of the rebellion, as a private soldier, and before the expiration of his three years' term of service was promoted to the captaincy of his company as a token of the respect of his comrades for gallant and soldierly conduct. He has been a resident of this county for twelve or fifteen years, is highly esteemed by his neighbors and will receive the vote of his precinct nearly unanimously. Captain Black is not an office-seeker. During his long residence in the county he has never asked for and would never accept an office. This year the people who were acquainted with his sterling character and peculiar fitness for the office of Sheriff, have brought him out, nominated him, and mean to make him the next Sheriff of Nemaha county.

John H. Shook, of Aspinwall precinct was nominated for re-election to the office of county commissioner. We believe he had no opposition in the convention. His nomination was demanded by the tax-payers of the county; for he has made them a most faithful, capable and honest official. A man of unswerving integrity is Mr. Shook, with excellent judgment and business qualifications, understanding the interests of the county, it would be exceedingly unwise to not re-elect him. Mr. Shook has on various occasions given evidence of his firmness in doing right, and fairly representing the wishes of his constituents, and whilst he has some bitter enemies, they are very unreasoning ones, and he will no doubt receive the cordial endorsement of a large majority of the voters of the county.

Philip Crother, the nominee for Superintendent of schools, is a resident of Nemaha City. He is at this time, as he has been for a number of years, teacher of the schools of that place. Mr. Crother is a scholar, a student, an industrious steady young man of small family, and should receive the cordial support of the people. He is highly esteemed by his neighbors and acquaintances, and the people of the precinct, and will receive nearly the solid vote of the precinct.

Mr. Parker, for Coroner, we are not personally acquainted with, but learn that he is a steady, industrious, popular young man of Lafayette, against whom no objections can be urged, and of course he will receive the united support of the party.

James M. Hacker was again nominated for Surveyor. The people seem determined to keep him in that position, and they could not do better and perhaps not nearly so well by electing any one else. Jim is a "born surveyor"

WAGONS! $65 WAGONS!

I have made arrangements with the Milburn Wagon Company, by which I can sell either 3, 3 1-4 or 3 1-2 Wagons for $65.00 cash. Call and leave your orders at once. Proceedings of the Republican County Convention.

SHERIDAN, NEB., Oct. 6, 1877.

The Republican County Convention met and was called to order by A. H. Gilmore. A. W. Morgan was chosen Chairman and R. H. Roberts, Secretary.

On assuming the chair, Judge Morgan thanked the convention, and counseled harmony in a few timely and pertinent remarks.

On motion R. W. Furnas, S. P. Major, B. M. Bailey, Alex. McKinney, Levi Johnson, Charles Blodgett, Henry Steinman, and H. O. Miniek were elected delegates to the Republican State Convention, to be held at Lincoln on the 10th of October, A. D. 1877, and the delegates present at said convention were empowered to fill all vacancies in their number.

On motion of G. R. Shook the following named persons were designated as the County Central Committee for the ensuing year:

Island--N. McArthur and Maurice Marsh.

Peru--Wm. Bridge, R. H. Roberts, George Wm. Joseph, Lash, C. H. Thomas.

Lafayette--Chas. Blodgett, Charles Parker.

Washington--John Snodgrass, Geo. Hoge.

Douglas--A. W. Morgan, S. Cochran.

London--Alex. McKinney, Richard Keesterson.

Brownville--C. F. Stewart, A. H. Gilmore.

Nemaha City--Levi Johnson, Philip Crother.

Aspinwall--J. B. Fisher, G. R. Shook.

St. Deron--A. J. Ritter, P. Fraker.

Bedford--A. T. D. Hughes, McFarland Campbell.

Benton--Henry Steinman, James Gavitt.

It was then moved and carried that the convention proceed to nominate candidates for the
