LOCAL MATTERS.

Don't forget the "Blakes." If you want anything, first call on Stevenson & Cross.

Abbot & Emery are busy turning out first class work. "Speed the Plough," Tuesday evening, McPherson Hall Co.

Much plowing was done last week, and much wheat was sown. The best and cheapest plows for sale and will soon be sold by Stevenson & Cross.

If the weather continues mild, peach trees will be in bloom within a few days. Lime, hair cement, plaster, sand, building paper and paint, at the Chicago Lumber Yard.

"Speed the Plough"—nobody should miss seeing it at McPherson Hall next Tuesday evening.

Penny runs, Perennial Philox, Rhubarb, Currants, Blackberry and Strawberry plants can be had of R. W. Furnas, Brownville.

March came in rather lionish. If the old saying be true, it will go out like a lamb. Thanks to the clerk of the weather, if he be true.

Harvey McGee went East Monday to purchase his spring stock of goods. We may expect a grand display and a mammoth stock when he returns.

The "Old Reliable," presided over by that good natured Englishman Joseph Body, had fresh fish for sale last week, which were very fine and went off rapidly.

Ford Marohn intends visiting Chicago soon, making it both a business and pleasure trip. He will bring back with him a nice line of sample goods—nearer, if possible, than any they have ever had before.

Prof. Tice's predictions for March says, "let to second clear and fair." It rained all the afternoon of the first day, and the second all day was remarkably dark and rainy. That is about as near as he generally guesses at the weather.

The city marshal of Kearney must be an excellent official. We draw this conclusion from the way a saloon keeper pitches into him, in the columns of the Press. But the Mayor, the s. k. says, is a bully fellow, for he always pays for his whiskey.

The Blakes on next Tuesday evening will give the public "Speed the Plough," said to be the best selection they have yet made. The company is making elaborate preparations, and we may expect a gratifying performance. McPherson Hall should be filled to overflowing.

The Republican says the young men of Omaha have organized a well-regulated gymnasium. Something that the young men of every town ought to do for, as the Republican says, "the value of moderate gymnastic exercise for the benefit of health can scarcely be over estimated."

A building was burned in Kearney last week—the work of incendiary who when caught confessed the felony. The Press says the infuriated citizens of Kearney placed a rope about the fellow's neck, and would have hanged him if any one had pulled the rope. His name is John Nelson—a Swede, and from the Press' account he must be a fool—a rather dangerous one, however.

E. F. Warren, Esq., of Nebraska City came into Brownville last Friday. He intended to arrive in our city Thursday evening, but notwithstanding he wears a red ribbon, and other temperance emblems, he got off the train at Peru, thinking it was Brownville. Mr. Warren informs us that the various temperance organizations of the city are flourishing grandly. We inquired: "Have you caught Peckham yet?" "Yes, sir; we initiated him into the Temple of Honor at our last meeting." And we said we were very glad to hear that our old friend had done so good a thing.

Graham Flour, at Huddart's. Corn Shellers by Stevenson & Cross. Hand-made harness at Bauer's, cheap for cash. Early vegetables and fruits, at Stevenson & Cross.

J. C. McNaughton as "Bob Handy" Tuesday night. Cheap Sulky and Gang Plows, by Thomas Richards. Stevenson & Cross are doing a big business in plows and stoves.

Cottonwood fencing and split oak posts, cheap, at the Chicago Lumber yard.

Large variety of notions and boys' clothing, and a new invoice of shoes, just received at McPherson's.

Garden and field seeds, by the ounce, pound or bushel, by HAWLEY & DOUGLAS.

Dr. Ed. Arnold returned last week from Chicago, where he spent the winter attending the Rush Medical College.

Do you wish number one Conover's Colossal Asparagus plants? Furnas has a few thousand choice plants at one dollar per hundred.

An old lady named Corbin, residing near Dunbar, Otoe county, while going home from Nebraska City on Thursday, last week, fell out of the wagon and was instantly killed.

Mrs. Hayden and Miss Hattie Smith arrived in Brownville on Friday last from Oregon Mo. Miss Hattie was initiated into the Good Templars' lodge that evening, and her numerous young lady friends were "just delighted" to see her and welcome her back to Brownville.

From the Sheridan items in the Peru Herald, we clip the following: Mr. David Hacker's house is quite an ornament to our future county seat, being the first house built on a diagonal lot of the square. He is fitting up his house as fast as possible for a good hotel and boarding house.

The local editor of the State Journal, speaking of a certain lady of Lincoln, says she, like Patiphar's wife is above suspicion. Mrs. Potiphar, we believe, was the lady who was so sweet on Joseph, but Joseph wasn't that kind of a young man. The Lincoln lady must feel highly complimented by the comparison.

The inventor of "Artificial stone" is exhibiting some of his made stone in Omaha and Lincoln, and the "folks" of those cities have something to write column puff about. They say this artificial stone beats nature "all hollow." Mr. Stout thinks it a good thing, having purchased the right to make it for Lancaster county.

On Friday last we had the pleasure of forming the acquaintance of Mr. J. M. Patrick, of Grant, this county. Mr. Patrick called to have us print some cards for him, setting forth the fact that he is paying special attention to the breeding and shipping of high class poultry, and has constantly for sale eggs of the most favorite varieties.

Following is the list of jurors chosen for the term of the District Court which sits on the 18th inst: GRAND JURORS. L. S. Velder, Jacob Good, O. K. Fisher, J. P. Miller, Henry Steinman, Jesse Sheridize, Geo. R. Edwards, Charles Towne, Daniel C. Cole, C. E. Bingham, William Cathart, Francis Redfern, Joseph Body, Green Edwards, John Ebbas, Henry Hillers, PETIT JURORS. J. A. Campbell, Henry Curtis, William Bridge, Samuel Miner, Corydon Hill, John Titus, J. W. Weber, Geo. S. McGrew, Daniel Watkins, T. J. Kealy, Fred Seitz, R. B. Smith, Stephen Gilbert, Wm. Holroyd, J. H. Dunn, Joseph Lash, Jas. McCandless, Wm. Stevenson, J. P. Tooland, G. W. Halladay, John Hinton, Jas. A. Adamson, Wm. Cummings, Alex. McKinney.

In answer to a recent local item of ours the Falls City Journal says: The Falls City merchants that we are not lost any ground recently, that we are aware of. On the contrary, we venture the assertion that no city of equal size in the State, can boast of better stocked and more numerously patronized stores, or a more active and enterprising set of merchants than Falls City. There has been no material reduction in the trade of this city during the past year, naught but a steady increase and a constant advance toward a surer footing and a broader grasp of patronage has characterized the trade. And to this wonderful success and marked activity in every line of business, our merchants are largely indebted to liberal use of the columns of their city papers. They are sensible of this fact, and mean to continue this means of success more extensively in the future, even, than they have in the past.

We spoke as we thought, and still think, understandingly, when we said that the enterprising dry goods, lumber, stock and furniture merchants, and grocers of Brownville, have been for the past year drawing trade away from Falls City and other competing towns. When farmers come from Richardson county and within a few miles of Falls City to haul away lumber, agricultural machinery, dry goods, etc., and when those farmers bring their hogs all the way to Brownville—which has been done and which is being done from week to week, we think we have sufficient evidence upon which to base the opinion that the merchants of Brownville offer better inducements for trade than do the merchants of any city in Southern Nebraska.

Canary Seed, at J. L. McGee & Bro's, 15c. per pound. Three-foot show case for sale cheap. Enquire at this office. A small grain field seed drill for sale. Apply to J. L. Carson, or Robt. W. Furnas. Square dealing and low prices is the style of doing business at the Chicago Lumber Yard.

WALL PAPER. And Window Shades, of every pattern and style, at Nickell's Drug and Book Store. Our friend Reed, Merchant of Sheridan, favored us with a call and substantial aid for our paper this week. Mr. Reed is a pleasant gentleman.

You can save money, even if you live twenty-five miles from Brownville, by buying your lumber of the Chicago Lumber Co. of this city. Fact; come and get prices.

Do you want the worth of your 35 cents? Then go to McPherson Hall Tuesday evening and witness the "Blakes" in the great five act comedy-drama, "Speed the Plough."

Elder Cartwright, of the Christian church, has been holding a protracted meeting in this city for the past two weeks, during which time there has been nineteen accessions to the church.

On Wednesday, noon, this week Mr. Lee Zoek and Miss Rachel Thompson, by Elder Cartwright, were immersed in the Missouri river, at the foot of Main Street, for the realization of their sine.

Tell your readers that McPherson started east last Monday to purchase his Spring goods, and to wait patiently until his return with the biggest and cheapest stock ever brought to Brownville. All right—our readers are posted.

We learn there was a donation party at the residence of Prof. McKenzie on Tuesday evening last, for the benefit of Rev. Wilson, which footed up the handsome sum of $50.00. Surely Bro. Wilson should feel proud of this expression of the high esteem in which he is held.

The undersigned hereby offers his three work horses, wagon and harness for sale cheap for cash; also a fine lot of shoats. If you want a good bargain, and like a "match team," come and buy before March 10th 1878. DR. A. OPPERMANN, SHERIDAN NEB.

Old settlers of this county will remember A. L. Coate, the first surveyor Nebraska county ever had. Mr. Coate writes to Wm. H. Hoover from New Orleans, and wants some old friend to write him a "big letter," full of news. He has been in New Orleans for twelve years. We'll send Allen an ADVERTISER, with our best wishes, for the "days of auld lang syne."

Following is the report of attendance at the Brownville schools for February, 1878:

Table with 4 columns: School, Boys, Girls, Total. Includes Grammar School, Intermediate Dept, 1st Primary, 2nd Primary.

The average attendance was low for February on account of whooping cough among the children of the lower rooms. JARVIS S. CHURCH, Director.

H. C. LETT. Has just received two lots of that extra Fall Wheat Flour made by R. F. Davis & Co., St. Joe, which takes the premium everytime it is put in competition. The best is the cheapest.

W. T. Moore of the "West End" tailors shop, says his is not simply a cut-throat business, but that he intends to continue during the summer, and that he is now perfecting arrangements whereby he can supply his customers with meat, fresh and sweet, during the "heated term."

Some meddling folks are trying to have an ordinance passed forbidding our two very decent and respectable barbershops to open on Sunday. Such are those who strain at a gnat and swallow a camel. We believe in people—Christians and all-attending to their own business so long as their rights are not interfered with.

Mr. Marsh, one of the proprietors of McPherson Block, and of the magnificent hotel now being finished, arrived in the city last week. He is making arrangements for speedy completion of the work on the hotel, and the construction of a large barn and other valuable improvements in connection with the hotel—the "Marsh House."

Mr. Lewis Fisher, President of the Nemaha Coal company, informs us that the meeting last Friday was very poorly attended on account of the rainstorm at the hour of meeting, and that the meeting adjourned to the 8th inst, to 1 o'clock p. m. at Larkin's school house. Every member is interested, and therefore urgently requested to be present.

There was an omission in printing the bills for the "Blake" dramatic entertainment on Tuesday evening next. It was and is the intention of the company to sell "half" tickets, admitting children under twelve years, for 25 cts. The price of admission are, and Mr. Dolan of whom tickets can be procured is so instructed, adults 50 cents, children under twelve 25 cents. No extra charge for reserved chairs.

The case of the foreclosure of mortgage on the Brownville Ft. K. & Pacific R.R. and the sale of the road under the decree which has been published, and in which our people are much interested, has suddenly come to grief. Mr. Broady, on behalf of the county, city, and other stockholders, put in an appearance to have the decree and sale set aside and to be permitted to defend on the grounds, among other things, that they were not made parties to the proceedings, and had no knowledge thereof until after the same had taken place, and that the appearance and confession of the B. Ft. K. & P. R. Co. Company entered by Judge Mason was unauthorized, and that this whole foreclosure proceeding was instituted to circumvent the note case already pending to break the consolidation and cancel said mortgage, and restore the ties and iron taken from the road. The decree and sale were set aside, and stockholders let in to defend—not on the ground of want of authority in Judge Mason to make said appearance, but on account of the strong equitable showing in behalf of the stockholders. So through the masterly management of Mr. Broady the tables are turned again, and the whole field again open for a fair fight on the merits of this railroad litigation, which is very much the heaviest litigation that ever originated in this county, and our people here still hold the inside track in the fight.

Uncle Sam's Harness Oil fills and cures the most distressing itching, burning, and smarting eruptions of the face, neck, and scalp, and restores the hair to its natural growth. Uncle Sam's Harness Oil fills and cures the most distressing itching, burning, and smarting eruptions of the face, neck, and scalp, and restores the hair to its natural growth. It is the best remedy for itching, burning, and smarting eruptions of the face, neck, and scalp, and restores the hair to its natural growth.

General Order No. 2: For your Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., &c., go to LOWMAN'S.

Rheumatism, neuralgia, strains and bruises will be relieved by Uncle Sam's Nerve and Bone Liniment. Sold by A. W. Nickell.

Davenport Iron Sulky Plow, two levers to regulate on sliding line, the best made, by Thomas Richards.

Cod Fish, at Huddart's.

Corned beef at the West End meat market. We noticed some very fine lettuce at Stevenson & Cross'. Hannaford is in need of money, and wants to exchange furniture for it. Second spring order of farm implements have come for Stevenson & Cross. Dr. Collins, our new dentist, says business is opening up even better than he anticipated. I will sell a Singer sewing machine, or any other, for cash, at the old list prices, for the next sixty days, more or less. B. G. WHITTEMORE.

See the new advertisement of Chase, Helmer in another column. He has purchased the custom shop of A. Robison, which he has removed to No. 62 Main street. Charley has been with Mr. Robison seven or eight years, and needs no recommendation from us; his work in the past speaks for him.

Look Here Farmers! I have the best thing in the shape of a Horse Collar ever sold. It is the Turkey Patent Rope-rim, easy adjusting collar. Will not break into it. I warrant these collars to give satisfaction or money refunded give them a trial. B. F. SOUTHER.

The undersigned hereby offers his three work horses, wagon and harness for sale cheap for cash; also a fine lot of shoats. If you want a good bargain, and like a "match team," come and buy before March 10th 1878. DR. A. OPPERMANN, SHERIDAN NEB.

Death. At London, on the 14th of January 1878, Mrs. Tillie Sage, in the 24th year of her age.

In the loss of our young friend we are again admonished of the fact that "in the midst of life we are in death." Selma has the dearest enemy of our race removed from our midst one so universally loved as she, and no wonder, for in all the relations of life the ennobling qualities of her mind and heart were constantly displayed. The young husband of her bosom, found in her the perfection of tenderness and affection, and her young companions and acquaintances everywhere will bear evidence to her private worth, her moral influence, and endearing friendship and mingle their tears of sorrow with those of her afflicted relatives and her broken husband, her loving father and grief-stricken sister, at her sudden departure. Rarely have we seen an occasion so deeply impressive as at the funeral and burial of the deceased. Mrs. Sage conducted the services, and delivered a most solemn and feeling discourse, from Rev. 14 chap, 13 verse. But few eyes were undimmed with tears, and but few hearts kept back their sorrow. It occurred to us as though that large funeral train was composed entirely of mourners. But why mourn? Ah! we know it wrings the heart with anguish when the dear form in the pride of life is wrested from the warm embrace of friends by death.

But why mourn when we have the comforting assurance that the soul of the departed one is now happy in the skies?—that she has made an exchange of this sorrowing world for heaven? Remember, too, that the separation is not final; that every day brings us nearer and nearer to each other; and that after the lapse of a few years at most, our reunion will be perfected in the skies. We will miss our dear sister in the Sabbath school and church, where we have so often met in the past; but she is with her Savior. Her last words give her dear relatives every comfort—"My blessed Jesus is with me."

May you all meet her and her blessed Jesus in that home above. A FRIEND.

Large stock of Farm Implements will arrive in a few days, for Thomas Richards.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS. Parished by Special Correspondents for The Advertiser. London. Teachers' Club at London school house next Saturday night. More than usual acreage of wheat will be sown this spring. Feb. 26th, infant child of Alex. McKinney departed this life. "Of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." Sam. Hayden still sick. Who can discern the signs of the times? The war spirit seems to prevail among the nations. Is the great "battle of Armageddon" near? Is the long, weary day of sin drawing to a close? Is a brighter day dawning? Is the "Kingdom of heaven" to be ushered in after the last great battle, the Lord hasten the time! Public speakers should not presume much on the ignorance and dullness of their hearers, sometimes they come to grief by it. When a speaker denounces Spiritualism, or any other belief, and the next sentence preach that doctrine it is too thin; the people look right through it. It looks very much like taking other men's nets in which to catch your own fish. Cling to your own lanky craft if it sink you, rather than take the sails from the more seaworthy ships of your neighbor, and then turn and say, "your ship is not safe."

It occurred to us as though that large funeral train was composed entirely of mourners. But why mourn? Ah! we know it wrings the heart with anguish when the dear form in the pride of life is wrested from the warm embrace of friends by death.

But why mourn when we have the comforting assurance that the soul of the departed one is now happy in the skies?—that she has made an exchange of this sorrowing world for heaven? Remember, too, that the separation is not final; that every day brings us nearer and nearer to each other; and that after the lapse of a few years at most, our reunion will be perfected in the skies. We will miss our dear sister in the Sabbath school and church, where we have so often met in the past; but she is with her Savior. Her last words give her dear relatives every comfort—"My blessed Jesus is with me."
