THE ADVERTISER.

THURSDAY, JUNE 13, 1878.

William Cullen Bryant is dangerously sick.

Emperor William is recovering from his wounds.

The State Journal has some stalks of rye seven feet in length.

The Tecumseh Chieftain favors for 1880 a Presidential ticket standing on its head.

Governor Garber's commutation of Clough's sentence, seems to meet the approbation of everybody.

Four hundred foreign immigrants from New York city will arrive in Lincoln Nebraska this week, says the Journal.

The solid capital manufactured for Democratic use by the evidence of that notorious liar, W. E. Anderson, is not immense by any means.

The law firm of Cobb & Marquette, Lincoln, has dissolved. Mr. Marquette continues the business and Gen. Cobb goes on the Supreme bench.

The New York Sun thinks a congress cannot adjust, satisfactorily, the difficulties between England, Russia and Austria, and that a war is inevitable.

The Central City Courier, (Merick county, Neb.), recently issued 3,000 immigration extras, and distributed them throughout the East. That's business,

The Bannock Indians, have begun depredations upon the whites, and General Howard's command are going to punish them. The Bannocks number about 400 warriors and are located in Idaho, 150 miles of Ft. Hall.

The Prohibitionists of Illinois—about 100 delegates—held a convention at Decatur on the 16th and nominated J. M. Garvin, of Decatur for State Treasurer, and Rev, W. S. Post, of Belleville, for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

A decree has been issued from the royal headquarters at Berlin, signed by the old Emperor and countersigned by Prince Bismarck, proclaiming a Regency and nominating the Crown Prince, Frederick William, as Regent. This may be only temporary, and to exist only during the illness of the Emperor.

The Stewart hotel of New York, built by the great merchant of that name, for the accommodation of working women, is said to be a most disgusting humbug as now managed by one Hilton, Stewart's executor. Mrs. Matilda Fletcher, the orator, recently visited the institution just to see how it is managed. She saw, and "goes for" the management in a most sarcastic, and no doubt truthful style.

The more Hayes' title is investigated the stronger becomes the evidence that he was honestly elected. A fair election in Louisiana would have given him twenty-five thousand majority; but considering the frauds practiced by the Democrats, the rascals, such as Anderson, having charge of election districts, and the temptations of bribes from Tilden's agents, it is a wonder that he received any majority whatever in that State.

Late dispatches indicate that the principal cities of the Middle and Western States are truly much alarmed at indications of an outbreak of the communists. It is believed it will begin in Chicago. A Des Moines telegram of the 8th says: "Communists, here, say boldly that on the day when Congress is to adjourn (June 17), every car-wheel will stop in the United States at noon. They are evidently preparing for some important event."

Our liberty loving patriotic president says he will be the head of this government or nobody shall—even if he has to send the country to h—l to do it.

The above is another Nebraska City News lie. Hayes never said a word that could be construed into any such avowal. But the people have said in effect that Hayes shall serve his full four years even if they had to thrash the Democratic party again, or send it to hell, where whining around to have political disabilities removed will be in vain.

The chances of Col. Tom Majors to be seated as a Nebraska Congressman is not so hopeless as some may suppose it is. The sub-committee it will be remembered gave him a favorable report, and while the full committee agreed to report adversely to him, he has a strong minority, the vote in committee being six against five in favor of seating him. The committee having the privilege of submitting a full minority report as well as a majority report. From the division of the committe on the case it seems that a Democrat or two voted to recognize Nebraska's rights, and that it is not a purely partisan matter. In this view of the case, with all the arguments on our side, there is still room to hope that justice and right will triumph by the admission of Col. Majors. The second Wednesday in December is the time fixed for discussion and the final disposal of the question.

Since the above was put in type we receive a letter from the Col., which we lay before our readers, reviewing the case thoroughly.

The eighteenth annual convention of the United States Brewers' Association, was held in Baltimore on the 5th inst. The president in his address congratulated the association that the sales of their products during the year were about as large as those of any previous year. He stated that the income realized by the government for the year ended June 30th, 1877 was $9,489,789 and the total amount realized by the government since 1863 is $99,780,491. Referring to temperance the speaker said:

It remains as much as ever a matter of regret that the temperance party of this country persists in classing distilled and fermented drinks as equally dangerous to the welfare of society, and to oppose their manufacture sale, and consumption with the same unyielding bitterness. We believe that in the popular consumption of ale and beer is found one of the best safeguards in controling the desire for stimulants, and those which are the best adapted to satisfy the desire for alcoholic stimulants without danger of abuse.

The Reverend ediditor of the Hastings Nebraskan, "doubts the propriety" of commuting the sentence of Warren Clough. But with all who have a great dread of the responsibility of possibly leagally murdering an innocent man, no doubt can exist. With such there is no doubt that the Governor did right in granting the prayer of petitioners who knew all about the evidence. And with such can exist no doubt that the petitioners and people did right in choosing to err—if error there be—on the side of humane promptings rather than that of savage retaliatory hatred or reckless revenge.

The Potter investigation will not serve to change the opinions of very many reading men. Such witnesses as Anderson, of Louisiana, and McLin, of Florida, who, to begin their testimony, had to acknowledge themselves liars, tricksters and perjurers, are not at all weighty. It was the stories of these oath-breakers that deceived Tilden and his Potter and induced them to go into an investigation which is proving so disastrous to them and the party they so poorly serve.

Judge Levisse, one of the Republican electors of Louisiana, was a witness last week before the Potter committee. He swore that he was offered $100,000 to support Tilden. The proof of frauds and most damnable rascality, by creditable witnesses, has in every instance fastened crimes upon the Democrats alone. Tilden and his agents who forced this investigation are getting terribly sick of the revelations now daily going upon the record as historical facts.

The Omaha Republican speaks of the Deaf and Dumb Institute of this this State, located at Omaha, as follows: "The school year will close on the 15th inst. Under the efficient charge of Prof. Kinney, the principal, Mrs. Thompson, the matron, and their able assistants, the pupils in this institution have made brilliant progress during the past year, and the institute ranks to-day among the best managed of all Nebraska's benevolent institutions.

A Shelbyville (Ind.) man who had been living in gorgeous style was found to have been attempting the starvation of his daughter, in order to get her property, by keeping her confined in a room. A mob of young men released her, and were about hanging the father when the City Marshal prevailed on them to let her go, and they escorted him to the depot and compelled him to leave the city. His wife refuses to go to him.—Exchange.

They ought to have cut his ears off, anyway, before they started him.

The Beatrice Courier is still hard at work nominating candidates. The last fortunate (?) gentleman immortalized by that brilliant nominator is Calhoun of Nebraska City for Chief Justice. Mr. Calhoun is no doubt a very fine man and a good lawyer, but the Republican State convention will hardly nominate him, he being a Bourbon, and without such nomination how can he be elected; Now, Alex., who next.

Hon. Lorenzo Crounse has been brought out by a number of the State papers as candidate for Congress, to succeed Welch.—Fairmont Bulletin.

The number is very small—perhaps one; and Crounse stands about a thousand chances of being struck by lightning to one of succeeding Frank Welch.

At a recent meeting at Plymouth Church to consider the case of Mrs. Tilton, a letter was sent in by her, and read, reasserting that she and brother Henry were, at one period of their lives, unlawfully intimate. Thereupon it was moved and carried that sister Tilton's name be dropped from the church roll.

The President has nominated Gen. John C. Fremont, first Republican candidate for President, for the position of Governor of Arizona Territory. Good for our generous hearted President. His recognition of an unfortunate old veteran will be approbated by a generous people.

The Senate terribly mutilated the House army bill as soon as it reached that body, and it is hoped the loyal majority in the Senate will remain firm in its efforts to maintain something approximating a respectable army.

Last Sunday at the Farmers' Hotel, at Millard Station, on the U. P. railroad, Lewis Erdman, a railroad station man, was shot by J. L. Wheeler. Wound probably mortal. Wheeler escaped.

Postmaster General Key denies that he gave $200 or any other sum to the Republican campaign fund.

The atmosphere of Germany is becoming quite ungenial to socialistic orders.

There will be an eclipse of the sun, visible here, on the 29th of July.

The State press, so far as we have observed are unanimous in approval of the appointment of Gen. Amasa Cobb to the Supreme bench. From this we may reasonably conclude that Judge Cobb will be his own successor this fall.

Nobling, the would-be assassin of Emperor William, is not dead, as was first reported, but he will probably not recover from his wounds made by his own hand.

Dr. B. F. Holsclaw, of Durham station, Cal., on the 8th, killed his wife and then himself. Cause, jealousy. He had been married only one week.

The Union Pacific railroad company has armed all its employes on the overland passenger trains with guns for protection against robbers.

A Letter From Col. Tom Majors.

WASHINGTON D. C., June 4th, 1878.

DEAR WASH:—Knowing the solicitude you, with other good friends in Nemaha, have as to the termination of my efforts in behalf of fair representation for our young and growing State, I write this to say that the subcommittee, composed of Stenger, of Pennsylvania, Culberson, of Texas, and Lapham, of New York, from the Judiciary Committee, had the matter under consideration, and after months of deliberation, reported in my favor—the last two. Their report was then submitted to the whole committee, which this morning decided by a vote of 6 to 5 against us. They, however, ordered the reports—majority and minority—to be made to the House, and fixed the second Wednesday of December for the consideration by that body. They all concede the equity of Nebrask's claim, but plead "troublesome precedent," and when confronted with the California precedent, established in 1852, which is analogous to our case, and a precedent made by a Democratic Congress, they only say, "It is a bad one." The truth is that political considerations have had much to do with their conclusions; but in justice to many fair minded men in Congress, I must say, I have full faith yet that Nebraska will be righted; and that when the full merit of our claim is heard, as it will be when discussed in the House next December, political bias will yield to a sense of fairness, and Nebraska will have conferred upon her equal representation, as guaranteed by our national constitution, which expressly provides that "representation and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several States, which may be included within this Union according to their respective numbers." A comparative statement of the internal revenue collections for the year ending June 30th 1877, shows Nebraska to have paid nearly $14,000 more revenue for the same period, than eight other States of this Union; said eight States having twenty-nine members in the present House, and sixteen senators; while Nebraska has but one member and two Senators. When viewed from a constitutional standpoint with the facts and figures relative to "direct taxes," and the further undisputed facts and figures of the requisite population in 1870, had we have had a just enumeration of our people, it will puzzle our good people to understand why our claim was not recognized. While I, as the chosen prosecutor of Nebraska's claim, have done everything in my power, ably seconded by our entire delegation in Congress, backed by our whole people irrespective of party, am sorry that no better or speedier results have been reached, yet, as before said, I do not despair of reaching the desired end, and fully believe after the fall elections are over and the political caldron shall have boiled down, enough fair minded men will be found in this Congress to pass our bill for relief. Having pressed the case thus far, the people may rest assured that no effort shall be spared on my part, to secure them their rights, until the House shall, by their votes, reject the reasonable and just demands of our State to equal representation in the National Cangress. To the whole people, Democrats and Republicans of Nebraska, great credit is due for the encouragement given me in the unequal struggle, but especial credit is due to Dr. G. L. Miller, of the Omaha Herald, and J. Sterling Morton, of Nebraska City—both leading Democrats of our State—and Hon. P. W. Hitchcock, who have been here, and labored "both in season and out," and "spared not," to secure a just recognition for Nebraska. Their unselfish, persistent efforts will not be forgotten by a grateful people. Especially would I commend the earnest, patient, watchful care and untiring zeal manifested by our Senators and Representative in this, as in all else Nebraska has an interest in. Our people may feel satisfied that all that an equal number of representatives of any State can do will be done by ours. To name all public men who have given our efforts encouragement, and to whom we are indebted for courtesies and kindness, would be trespassing upon your time and space. Suffice it to say that to no one ought we, as a State, to feel greater grattitude, than for the disinterested, unselfish, unpartisan and effective efforts of Hon. D. B. Culberson of Texas—a man with whole heart and honest purpose, willing at all times to accord justice to each and every subject of legislation that calls for his action. No man stands higher, and no man deserves better of his immediate constituency or of the whole people. To know he is right is a sufficient apology for his official acts regardless of attendant consequences. Feeling it due to those whose interests I have sought to serve, that a brief synopsis of my stewardship should be given, is my apology for trespassing on your valuable space

Yours &c.,
TOM MAJORS.

CRIMES AND CASUALTIES.

The postmaster of Cincinnati, O., Jno. P. Loge, has been sued by Jos. J. Crone for seducing, and alienating the affections of Mrs. Crone. Crone asks $20,000 from the p. m. for his damaged household.

At Omaha last week a Danish woman named Olson, in a fit of "temporary insanity" took her thirteen year old daughter and rushed into a pond, where they were both drowned.

A miner named James DeLong was killed by the falling of the roof of a tunnel, near Deadwood, recently.

An explosion in the Evans colliery, near St. Helena, Lancashire, England, last week killed about 250 miners.

A young lady of Lincoln, Neb., named Eliza Davis, suicided by drowning, in Salt Creek, last week. Her parents reside in Lincoln. No cause for the act known.

Recently the Rev. James Deverigny abandoned his pastoral charge and his family, eloping with deacon Snell's daughter.

Henry S. Holmes and his son Arthur, and David Brown, were drowned by the upsetting of a skiff, at Duxbury Point, Mass., on the 7th.

Louis C. Bauer, of Co. C, Fourth Infantry, was killed at Ft. Fetterman, while at work in a steam saw mill, by a fragment of wood thrown by a broken saw.

Two boys at St. Paul, Minn., named George Scott and Marcelles Anderson, aged 10 and 12 years, went to sleep on a railroad track and were both killed by a train of cars, 6th inst.

At Schuylerville' N. Y. recently, a lady named Mrs. Jesse Billings was shot and killed in her room by an unknown assassin, who fired through a window.

Miss Julia Till, working in a hat factory in Newark, N. J., recently had her scalp torn off by her hair catching in the machinery.

Near Princeton, Ill, on the 5th, a young man named Long fell under a large iron roller and was crushed to death.

A lad 13 years old, named Brewster was drowned at Pontiac, Ill., on the 5th.

At Washington Heights, Ill., on the 6th, the residence of Bernard Weimler was burned. A babe asleep up stairs where the fire caught, was burned to ashes. A four year old boy playing with some matches up stairs, struck one, which started the fire.

Texas issues a public document entitled "A List of Fugitives from Justice." It contains 225 pages, and puts the number of fugitives at 4,402, with forty counties yet to hear from, which cover some of the most populous portions of the State. Of these criminals 750 are charged with murder. Rewards ranging from $50 to $1,000—the aggregate being $90,000—are offered for 300 of the fugitives, and detectives out of a job might find this State a good one to emigrate to. It is estimated that over 10,000 horses have been stolen in Texas in the last three years, and some 750 indicted horse thieves are fugitives from justice in the State.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

"Money," says the Boone Democrat "is the missing link between our subscribers and the editor."

A sheep ranche, as large as the State of Rhode Island, has been established in Tom Green Co., Texas.

The New York Sun openly declares that the object of the Congressional investigation is to unseat President Hayes.

The Rev. Mr. Dunsford, late pastor of a Baptist church in Adrian, Mich., has been disfellowshipped for immoral conduct.

The result of a test case foreshadows that Alleghany county must pay for all goods destroyed in the Pittsburg labor riots.

Mr. Henry W. Shaw (Josh Billings) is reported to have secured an income of $20,000 in some years from his wit and bad spelling.

Three enterprising Assumption, La., men have killed nine thousand alligators the past year, and sold the hides for seventy-five cents apiece.

As the result of an all night dance in a Chicago concert saloon, fifty young boys and girls were found drunk on the sidewalk in the morning.

A Nevada farmer gathered a pint of grasshopper eggs from a piece of land not two feet square, and says there are acres of land just as thickly covered.

Specimens of domestic tea raised in South Carolina and cured in Baltimore, were exhibited in Washington, and were so fine as to deceive the largest dealers.

The Clydesdale horse owes its origin to one of the Dukes of Hamilton, who crossed some of the best Lanark mares with stallions which he had brought over from Flanders.

Mr. George Gross, of Kansas City, Mo., has in his posession the first dollar greenback ever issued. He paid $25 for it and has since been offered as high as $700, but refuses to part with it.

Judge Kelly has written a letter to his Philadelphia constituents declining to be a candidate for Congress at the next election, and announcing his intention to make an extended tour in Europe.

The New Orleans Times refers to James E. Anderson as a disreputable party scullion, and says that every one in New Orleans indorses the statement that his testimony is absolutely worthless.

The masses are nowhere in sympathy with disorganizing and scheming politicians who would stir up discord and retard the prosperity solely for the purpose of their own aggrandizement.

The relative strength of the free-trade and protection sentiment in the Republican party was well expressed in the House on the Wood tariff bill. For the defeat of the measure there were 115 Republicans and 19 Democrats; for its passage, 113 Democrats and 7 Republicans. Free-trade newspapers professing Republicanism will please take notice.

The New York World is candid enough to say that "judicious people will be slow to accept any conclusions as to the guilt or innocence of any human being which rests either on the unsupported testimony of James E. Anderson, or even on 'documentary evidence' supplied by him alone." The World denominates Anderson 'a speculative apocalypse,' so to speak.

The Evening Post says the Postmaster General continues to receive letters, mostly from the South, approving of his recent letter on the political situation. His Southern friends, whose requests for his opinion on the subject called forth the letter, stand by him in the position he has taken, and numerous prominent men in the South warmly indorse his sentiments.

A sensation, producing considerable excitement, has developed itself within a few days on the farm of Josiah Wright, near Lancaster, O. A boy 15 years old, lately taken from the infirmary to live with a tenant of Mr. Wright, has, within the past week, been struck a number of times, not harmfully, but not less alarmingly, by some unseen force. The stones, the size of an egg, and marked with a cross, strike the boy out doors and in, if a door or window be open, and no one can see them till they fall at his feet. Numbers of the missiles are exhibited by the family as spirit land visitors.

SCENE IN CONGRESS.

The Great Debate—in Brief.

Hon. Clarkson N. Potter, Democrat, of New York [rising and unrolling a spool of resolutions] —'Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of privilege. I move that a committee of eleven be appointed, seven democrats and four republicans, to investigate republican frauds in Florida and Louisiana."

Hon. Mr. Garfield (rep.)—"I move to amend by including all frauds in all States, without regard to party"'

Mr. Potter [jumping up excitedly and with a flushed face]—"No, sir, that ain't fair! I rose to a question of privelege, and I insist on having the privilege!"

Mr. Conger, (rep)—"I'd like to know what the gentleman from New York calls a question of privilege?"

Potter—"Why you stupid dunderhead, I mean the privilege of having your side investigated and not having our side investigated. That's a privilege, ain't it ?"

Speaker [rapping enthusiastically with his gavel]—"I decide that it is a privilege."

Hale (rep.)—"It seems to me that this is not what the Constitution and rules of the House mean by the word 'privilege.' For instance, I hold in my hand some evidence of corruption by friends of Mr. Tilden; some telegrams" (screeches and cries of "order" from the democratic side making it impossible to hear what was said, except in bits, as follows: "Yours Gobble"—"'Tain't fair! 'Tain't fair!"—"Can bulldoze enough colored voters to"—"Shut up! Put him out!" Perfect chaos reigned.)

Cox [making himself heard at last by superior personal magnetism] "Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that non constat aliunde non compos video meliora proboque deteriora sequor,—it certainly seems so to me."

Garfield—"I wish to have the clerk read these two dispatches and then have the investigation cover them."

[Democrats rush out to the restaurant while the clerk reads]:

J. N. H. PATRICK,

I fully indorse this, JAMES K. KELLY.

Potter [jumping up and yelling at the top of voice]—"this is an outrage! We want to investighte republican frauds,—not democratic frauds! What the country wants is to have democratic frauds let alone,—they are doing well enough as they are. You don't want to stir 'em,—not if you want to continue to breathe the air of the atmosphere.

Great applause on the democratic side, joyous groans of "That's it! That's what's wanted to restore prosperity!"

Hale—"But what hurt will it do to have this same democratic committee examine the alleged democratic irregularities in Oregon and South Carolina?"

Potter—"They musn't be stirred up, I tell you! I rose to a question of privilege of having your frauds exposed and ours kivered up and left alone."

Speaker—"I decide that this is the correct thing to do. It is a privilege the country needs."—N. Y. Graphic.

On the 15th day of July, next, the sale of the Pawnee Reservation will commence at Central City, Merrick county. It covers a tract of country 15x30 miles in area, making in all 450 square miles, or 288,000 acres. The great part of this land is the best in the State, and about 2,000 acres of it is under cultivation. The provisions of the sale are such, that it cannot be sold only in tracts of 160 acres, at not less than $2.50 per acre. Undoubtedly, the sale of those lands will cause a large influx of strangers into Merrick county, during the coming month. Many of them will doubtless see, and realize the beauties of the Great Platte Valley, and although they may not like to go quite so far from the railroad, may yet feel that 80 or 160 acres of land in so promising a locality as Merrick county will warrant pecuniary reward.—Central City Courier.

Fremont has organized "hug sociables." It costs ten cents to hug any one bteween efifteen and twenty, five cents from twenty to thirty, one dollar to hug another man's wife, old maids two for a nickel while female lecturers are free with a chromo thrown in. At these prices it is said that the old maids are most productive because they can stand so much of it without getting tired.—Kearney Press.

The corner-stone of the attempted revolution of 1861 was slavery; that of the the attempted revolution of 1878 is perjury.—Toledo Blade.

SALT LAKE, May 29.—The Indian Tambago, convicted of the murder of Alexander Rhoden, at Fort Hill, was to-day sentenced to be hung at Boise City, Idaho, on the 29 of June, by the District Court, at Malado, Idaho.

This was the young man buried here last spring, a son of one of the oldest residents in Cass County and we most heartily rejoice that the government for once, exacted justice and proposes to meet out punishment to the cowardly red-skin who shot young Rhoden.—Plattsmouth Herald.

State Journal: It is generally supposed by our people that the emigration which has been pouring into Nebraska from the east during the spring is over for the present year. This is not so; we have the assurance of one of the "main guys" in the B & M. Land Department, that there will be no let up in the tidal wave, and that immigrants will continue to pour into our State during the summer and fall. The B. & M. Co., are now at work on a scheme which will send us thousands of tillers of the soil, before next spring.

The Democrats profess to find much in Secretary Sherman's letter to Anderson and Weber to condemn. What do they think of this?

PORTLAND, Nov. 28, 1876.

W. T. Pelton, No. 15 Gramercy Park, N. Y.—Certificate must be issued to one Democrat. Must purchase a Republican elector to recognize and act with the Democrats to secure the vote and prevent trouble. Deposit $10,000 to my credit with Kountze Brothers, Wall street. Answer.

J. N. H. PATRICK,

I fully indorse this. JAMES K. KELLY.

If Secretary Sherman keeps on at this rate, he will soon become the most popular man with the greenbackers in the country. His prompt action yesterday in countermanding the order for the destruction of greenbacks, deserves the thanks of the liberal currency advocates all over the country.—Inter Ocean.

Arrangements are fast being perfected to have one of the grandest Fourth of July celebrations ever held in Lincoln. The parade, it is expected, will be very imposing, consisting of all the different secret organizations, military companies, fire department, and other organizations, Sunday Schools, etc.—State Journal.

"The thing is slightly confusing" to the Courier Journal, and it wants somebody to decide just what the Republican party believes about Tilden and Anderson. It is short; it believes the Democracy murdered Weber, and had small trouble in coaxing Anderson into perjury.—Inter Ocean.

After months of discussion, Wood's tariff bill, iniquitous and destructive in its provisions, is at last sent to merited rest for the present session at least. The industrial interests of the country will breathe.—Inter Ocean.

Pendleton says the democrats have made a great blunder; Miller says they haven't. Miller, like Cronin, nose.—Omaha Republican.
