God Bless America! God bless the land that gave us birth! No prayer but this know— God bless the land of all the earth.

There is no doubt now. Look! how they rush forward—stout-hearted John Hancock has securely time to sign his bold name, before the pen is grasped by another—and another.

God bless America! God bless the land that gave us birth! No prayer but this know— God bless the land of all the earth.

There is a silence in this hall—every voice is hushed—every face is stamped with a deep and awful responsibility.

God bless America! God bless the land that gave us birth! No prayer but this know— God bless the land of all the earth.
