No paper sent from the office until paid to t.

READING MATTER ONEVERYPAGE

ESTATE

IN NEBRASKA.

William H. Hoover.

Complete Abstract of Titles

TEMPERANCE

any one withing to play a quiet game of good style. If you want to drink a nice

CIGAR.

PHIL. FRAKER,

Peace and Quiet

Saloon and Billiard Hall!

BRANDIES, WINES.

GINS.

MAJOR J. J. WARD.

One copy, three months.

REAL

ly opened a strictly

ESTABLISHED 1856. Oldest Paper in the State. BROWNVILLE, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, MARCH 6, 1879.

VOL. 23.-NO. 37.

OFFICIAL PAPER' OF THE COUNTY

Legal advertisements at legal rates—Que square fellnes of Nonparell, or less) first losertion #2.00 each subsequentinsertion, Sec.

For All transient advertisements must be paid for in advance.

THE ADVERTISER

Publishers & Proprietors.

BONNER'S STABLE.

Horses in the World.

suddenly and mysteriously disappear- parts of rye flour, and ten parts of The greatest collection of road horses TAYLORSVILLE, TEXAS, Feb. 15 .- ed. Shortly afterwards two other ne- linseed flour; sometimes of twenty in the world belongs to Mr. Robert The recent burning at the stake of groes, friends of the missing ones, also parts of pea flour, twenty parts of Bonner. There are now in his sta-Mitchell and Ketchum in Nebraska- came into the neighborhood in search wheat flour, twenty parts of corn meal ble, West Fifty-fifth street, near Fifth and at the leaders' heads thought it a a scene in which Prentice (familiarly of them. These last two freedmen twenty parts of rye flour, ten parts of avenue, ten horses, every one of Print) Olive, formerly of this part of were captured by Bob and Print Ol- grated bread, and ten parts of linseed which, with a single exception, has "Now get in, friends," said the Texas, figured-has called forth a ive, who had evidently determined to flour. The ingredients are made into trotted in 2:20 or better. The excep-The middle aged gentleman was taking the middle seat; "but first de- ture of Many Citizens, setting forth several of the gang, and while a con- the best. These biscuits are made dam St. Lawrence Maid, one of a the many crimes and muurders perpesultation was being held in a grocery with a hole in the middle of each, so pair driven severally ears by Commotrated by Print and his brother Bob store the negroes made a bold rush they can be strung on a string, and dore Vanderbilt. She is a diminu-"Thee had better not delay; I feel Olive while residents of this county. and escaped. The bodies of their hung to the saddle bow, or be carried live specimen of horseflesh, standing The statement contains a record of friends were a short time afterwards, by the trooper around his waist. Each but 14.1. Unquestionably she is the dry, about two ounces. Seven tiscuits She has pulled a wagon a mile on a contrast so striking in all its features. The beautiful bay, as he has been appropriately called, is a fraction over sixteen hands, his head denotes in-

of Joe Downing, the son Alexander's slightest danger at present," he re- at this point. He proposed a post- wally a dozen good and determined his business in that neighborhood. When the hand was examined, it Edwin Forrest; his dam was a highsumed, "only when one is responsi- ponement till after supper, which he men of Williamson county, not being The boy, terrified, attempted to ex-"Nay," urged the Quaker, with an met and determined the bloody rule inhuman fiend would not listen to were comminuted extensively, and rest looks like a massive thoroughsway should end and their followers male witness of the affair, a Mrs. chance of saving the hand. It was, In the spring of 1877 he appeared at be punished. As a result of this com- Whitmire, the scoundrels set upon however, placed in hot water, and Kalamazco, wearing 18-oz. toe bination for self-protection, Jay Olive the boy with their heavy riding-whips kept there for two or three weeks, and weights. He was then six years old, and his trainer frequently galloped Michigan he went to Kentucuy, Bruises and injuries do much better where, in the early autumn of 1877, three races with the great mare Protoine and beat her in every one of The man turned pale, and struggled termined mob of their long-outraged these bloody demons in human shape. was one evening seated in the barroom igan circuit the past spring, and when to release his arm. In an instant one neighbors. In this part of the country And the desire of all good citizens of a country tavern in Canada. There he reached Cleveland, the last week Like the majority of Texas despe- and save the job to the citi- stances of war. In the course of his The field opposed to him was one of the dimensions of one he had seen. Woodford Mambrino, and yet he van-Placing the other pistol in my the drop was had on the victim. The citizens who put forth the state- Joe's Yankee would not allow him quished them without an effort. His hand, with direction to fire on the which amounts to the same thing, ment above referred to by your cor- to let such a base assertion pass un- only defeat in the Grand Central circuit was at Utica, where he was not on Lothario, from whose pocket, in Deets Phreme. Phreme was a highly following paragraph: "The bare redeny that is a fair sized cannon-but trotted an exhibition mile in 2:14; less time than it takes to tell it, he respected, seaceable young man of cital of these bloody deeds throws a you are a leetle mistaken in supposing and in the repeat went to the half produced every item of the missing Salado, Bell county, who moved into chill of horror over us. Words fail to it to be named the same minute with mile pole in 1:05; where no other > him on the road in one pound shoes forward and in half pound shoes bethat an agreement had been reached, are no delinquent subscribers within ord of 2:24. None of these have been brought down from the farm, for the reason that there are but ten boxes in two breaks, in 2:16. Those who have that State last year, and not one was

The Dining Room Magazine says

pumpkin or squash. A sheep-collar with sharp points victims by the throat. Farmers should meditate on what

ESTABLISHED IN 1856. OLDEST

AGENCY Paid-up Capital, $50,000

IS PREPARED TO TRANSACT A

Does a general Roal Estate Business, Sells Lands on Commission, examines Titles, BUY AND SELL makes Deeds, Mortgages, and all instruments pertaining to the transfer of Real Es-COIN & CURRENCY DRAFTS

MONEY LOANED on approved security only. Time Drafts discount.

DEPOSITS Received payable on demand, and INTEREST al-Billiard Parlor

DIRECTORS.-Wm. T. Den. B. M. Bailey, M. A. Handley, Frank E. Johnson, Luther Hoadley Wm. Fraisher. In the Hall joining the Sherman House, where JOHN L. CARSON, BROWNVILLE, NEBRASKA.

Good, Sweet, Fresh Meat

Always on hand, and satisfaction guar-

Brownville, - - Nebraska. HAVE YOUSEEN

Having purchased the

"ELEPHANT'

I wish to announce that I am prepared to do a first class livery business Josh Rogers.

A. BATH

and is prepared to accomodate the public with GOOD, FRESH, SWEET

MEAT

Gentlemanly and accommodating clerks will at all times be in attendance. Your paironage solicited. Remember the place the old Pascoe shop, Main-st.,

Keeps a full line of LCIES & CASKETS

Also Shrouds for men, ladies and infants. receive prompt attention.

P Bodies Preserved and Embalmed. 56 Main Street, BROWNVILLE, NEB.

MEALS AND LUNCH AT ALL HOURS.

FRESH AND CHEAP.

MEALS ONLY 25 CTS Oysters Cooked to Order. Rossels Old Stand.

Mrs. Sarah Rauschkelb.

AUTHORIZED BY THE U. S. GOVERNMENT First National Bank

BROWNVILLE.

Authorized "

General Banking Business

on all the principal cities of the United States and Europe

ed, and special accommodations granted to rs. Dealers in GOVERNMENT BONDS

R. DAVISON, Cashier. C.McNAUGHTON, Asst. Cashier.

HULLILLIADLU

Meat Market.

BODY&BRO

BUTCHERS.

BROWNVILLE

Ferry and Tranfers their victims?" the elder lady ner- I did so, but not one of the stolen

J. Bosfield, Gen. Supt.

Manufacturer and Dealer in SE Bepairing done on short notice. The cele-rated Vacuum Oil Blacking, for preserving Har-ess, Boots, Shoes, &c., atways on hand.

64 Main St., Brownville, Neb. J. RAUSCHKOLB'S

HALL.

I don't.

Phil, Deuser's old stand, Brownville, . . Nebraska "For at least two good reasons," T-come, sah!

was the reply, emphasized with a A OUAKER DETECTIVE. BY JUDGE CLARK.

We were five passengers in all; two ladies on the back seat, a middle aged ed; "and if one of thy sinful comgentleman and a Quaker on the mid- panions advances a step to thy relief, dle and myself on the front.

The two ladies might have been mother and daughter, aunt and niece, 500,000 governess and charge, or might have sustained any other relationship good time to go. which made it proper for the two ladies to travel together unattended. sprightly and talkative. He soon struck up an acquaintance with the ladies, towards whom, in his zeal to do he rather overdid, the agreeable- the spirit beginning to move my right bowing and chatting over his shoul. forefinger." ders in a very painfully suggestive, at Lothario. sted to deposit- his sect, and confined his speech, as many a parliamentarian would save I wish to inform my friends that I have recent- STATE, COUNTY & CITY SECURITIES his credit by doing, to simple "yeas" ty. He was especially facetious on and "nays " As for myself, I make the Quaker's prowess.

It an invariable rule of the road to be merely a looker on and listener. Towards evening I was aroused from one of those reverles into which is what thee means." a young man, without being a poet or

"Are you armed, sir?" "I am not," I answered, astonish-ble for the safety of the ladies, you proposed to go and order. know, such a thing as a pistol in reach dence.17 dressing the Quaker, "I presume are there is no time like the present."

as much opposed to carrying as to using carnal weapons?" "Yea," was the response.

vously inquired. "Or have they contented themselves with-with-robbing them?"

"Decidedly the latter," the amiable gentleman hastened togive assurance, "and as we are none of us prepared to offer resistance in the case of an attack, nothing worse than plunder can possibly befall us." Then, after blaming his thoughtlessness in having unnecessarily in- dead man." troduced a disagreeable subject, the gentleman quite excelled himself in pany, and had succeeded so well by the time night set in, that all had quite forgotten, or only remembered their fears to laugh at them.

himself hoarse. Perceiving which he BROWNVILLE TO PHELPS, took from his pocket a package of newly invented "cough candy," and tossed the paper out of the window. He was in the midst of a high encomium on the new nostrum, more than gentleman was receiving.

half theefficacy of which, he insisted. depended on its being taken by suceach window.

if things goes smoothly."

"Oh! certainly, they shall be the next stopping place. to a search, unless their conduct ren- Y. Ledger. ders it necessary." "And now, ladies," continued the and such other trinkets as may be ac- colored youth from Pike county ap- dared find a verdict against Print. cessible without too much trouble." The ladies came down handsomely, lowing conversation ensued: and were not further molested. One by one the rest got out, the middle-aged gentleman's turn coming first. He submitted with a winning grace, and was robbed like a very Chesterfield. My own affairs, like the sum I lost, is scarcely worth mentloning. The Quaker's turn came next. He when I gits stirred up.' quietly handed over his pocketbook and watch, and when asked if he had any other valuables, said "Nay." A Quaker's word is good, even nin fer.' about taking their departure.

a tone more of command than of re- Constitution. "Stop! what for?" returned the other, in evident surprise.

couple of Derringers cocked and pre-"Help!" shouted the robber.

"Stop!" the Quaker again exclaimthe spirit will surely move me to blow thy brains out."

The robbers at the opposite window liver up thy pistol." The other besitated.

The robber did as he was directed, his time of life, of a "crick" in the and the Quaker took his place by his neck. He was evidently a "gay" side, giving the new-comer the nidtle of the seat. The driver, who was The Quaker wore the uniform of frightened out of his wits, now set forward at a rapid rate. The lively gentleman soon recovered his vivaci-

"You're a rum Quaker, you are.

"Of the Hickory or rather of the desperate as himself, lover, will sometimes fall, by the ab- Old Hickory Stripe, I should say," rerupt query from the talkative gentle- torted the lively man; but the Qua- to the whole surrounding country. So est, most damnable deed perpetrated

bles, the conversation flagged. place it will be several hours in the bution of our effects till we should one robbery is reported to have been the process somewhat difficult be-(The ladies turned pale, but the It was now necessary, however, that litries of these men stretched through thing of which he was innocont. He file was on the anvil, and in this way blemish. Every muscle, every line stranger did his best to reassure it should be attended to at once, as many years, and the whole surround- was captured in the wood by the bru- the force of the hammer was arrested speaks of power and speed. He is our jovial companion had previously ing country was familiar with the red tal and devilish Print and his crowd about half an inch before it reached seven years old, and was got by a son "Not that I think there is the announced his intention of leaving us record of Print and Bob Olive. Event- of dirty menials. Print demanded the bed.

would materially add to one's confi- approach of abruptness, and laying of the Olives and their tyrannical him. According to a respectable fehis hand on the other's arm, "busi-"Your principles, my friends," ad. ness before pleasure, and for business "Will thee be good enough to search the prisoner?" he said to me, keep-"Have the villians murdered any of passenger's arm.

articles could be found! "He must have gotten rid of them added the younger, in a tremulous suggested, and immediately offered to 000, made tracks out of Texas and till his bones were, a few months afgo and search.

heart.

tightening his grasp.

"Stir a hand or foot, and you are a the principles of his persuasion.

Our genial companion fairly talked picious movement, he went to work ardly murders of the deeds of the Olives with the 'Poh, gentlemen,' said he, 'I wo'n't allowed to win. At Hartford Forrest after passing it first to the ladies be property, to the utmost amazement of Williamson in 1875, and, like the Oli- portray the deep and dark damnation one of our Yankee guns which I saw horse has yet gone in a race. Along helped himself to the balance, and the two ladies, who had begun, in no vers, engaged in cattle raising. From of these deeds, at which the demons in Charleston last year. Jupiter! it the backstretch competent terities say measured terms, to remonstrate as some cause the poor young fellow in- of hell would seem to blush. And was a cannon! Why, sir, it was so he trotted a two-minute gait. He left gainst the shameful treatment the curred the displeasure of these hu- yet I. P. Olive, the instigator, perpe- infernally large that the soldiers were his feet, and Green pulled him up and was no Quaker at all, but a shrewd one day, riding out on the beautiful out from behind his prison bars in Ne- 'The deuce they were!' exclaimed carefully watched the career of Edwin tion, when a shrill whistle was heard detective, who had been set on a band prairies, the lovely plains spread out braska that he is an innocent man!" one of his bearers, with a smile of tri- Forrest are confident that he is the and almost immediately the coach of desperadoes, of whom our middle like flowery carpets in the light of a stopped, while two faces, hideously aged friend-who did not look near semi-tropical sun Phreme was met blacked, presented themselves, one at so middle aged when his wig was off by Print Olive and party, also on -was the chief. The robbery had horseback, armed with six-shooters, "Sorry to trouble you," said the been adroitly planned. The leader of booted and spurred. Print began Blaine's aneedotes. Before the great hole!" man on the right, acknowledging the gang had taken passage in the savagely to abuse the young man, discovery of the "kiss-joker" ballot, with a bow two lady-like screams coach, and after learning, as he sup- whom he charged with stealing some a Boston drummer was traveling in A story is told of an editor who died, hind. * * from the back seat; "but, business is posed, our defenceless condition, had of the Olive cattle. Like a set of Alabama, and on election day he had went to heaven, and was denied ad- In addition to the ten 2:20 horses business, and ours will soon be over given the signal to his companions by sneaking, dastardly cowards, as they the curiosity to go to the polls in the mittance, lest be should meet some aboved named. Mr. Bonner has, at throwing out a scrap of paper already were, these men assaulted Phreme, little town where he happened to be delinquent subscribers, and bad feel- his farm, Pocahontas, who has trot-"Of course, gentlemen, you will mentioned. After the unexpected cap- giving him no chance, but beat him stopping. He went early in the mornings would be engendered in that ted in 2:17; Grafton, who showed a spare, as far as may be consistent ture of the first robber, it was attemp- over the head with their heavy six- ing, and found all the voters assem- peaceful clime. Having to go some public trial at Cleveland in 2-151; Joe with your disagreesble duty, the feel- ted to save the booty by secretly pass- shooters, and told him they would bled. There were about 100 whites place, the editor next appeared in the Elliot, with a public trial at Boston ings of these ladies," appealed the po- ing it to the accomplice, still believed kill him the next time they met him and 500 blacks, each race massed by regions of darkness, but was refused in 2:153; Welfesley Boy, who has trotlite passenger, in his blandest man- to be unsuspected, who counted on on the prairies. Sure enough, a few itself on one side of the little square admittance, as the place was full of ted in 2:19; Erie, who has trotted in being able to make off with it at the days afterward, Phreme was met by in front of the Court House. Three delinquent subscribers. Wearily the 2:20; Manetta, who has been timed quired to leave their places, or submit son, did the State some service. - N. and although the victim fought for space between the opposing forces. of the portal with a smile, who said: nial, who has trotted in 2:23; and proached a town negro and the fol-Whar bouts is de ticket office?'

'Right dar fo yo' eyes.' 'Fo' whose eyes ?' 'Yone.'

'Is you de ticket office?'

'Look yer, nigger, don't you gimme none o' yo slack.' 'I'm a mighty slack man, ole man. An you'll git stirred up of yo stan' roun' yer foolin' longer me.

among thieves; so, after a hasty And with that they clinched and

PRINT. OLIVE. The Leader of the Bandit Who Burn- deed are, however, still wrapped in The horses of the German army are The Foremost Collection of Trotting Quaker, still covering his man, and statement, published over the signa- murder them also. They summoned biscults. The first named mixture is tion is Mamie R., by Edward Everett, der hardly much surpassed by the late porbood. Bill Longely himself. Directly after the close of the late war the Olive family, who were resihad but little stock. Under the management of Print Olive, however, tions and those of their neighbors be-actual assass nations or killings after in this part of the country. his life, wounding Olive, he was shot down in cold blood. The crimson An eternal warfare seems to rage stream from his heart flowed out and

SOON BECAME A TERROR them, the Olives and their hangers heard three shots.

THEY MURDER A NEGRO. Now in Texas it is a dangerous minutes were consumed in debating 55,000,000 pairs in the same time. Ten Mr. Bonner say that probably this was, for the murder of Kelly, indicted should come when the last white man Builder. in the District Court of Williamson, had got in his vote. He went around 'Dat's de kinder ex'reise wat I's pi- To get rid of the evidence of Dock to the polling place again in the aftering saloon at the small village of Me-Dade, on the western branch of the tion, and the outlaw seems to have ecrated yesterday.'

accomplished the deed out of a pure The way German Army Horses are fed. desire for blood. The motives of the ed Two "Obscure Men" at the mystery. In 1876 two negroes from now fed with biscuits. These consist Liberty county, on the Trinity, en- of thirty parts of oat flour, thirty tered the Olive neighborhood and parts of dextrinated pea flour, thirty From the Turt, Field and Farm.

THE KILLING OF RED BANKS.

and Jack Dodson, traveling, alighted ter if convenient, otherwise dry- 2:21 1-4. She is fairly flying on the dents of this county (Williamson), in the wood opposite Print Olive's twelve at noon, and seven at night. road now, and Mr. Allie Bonner does ter from the well in the yard. Mrs. the march and campaigning, they are that will accept his challenge; and their herds grew to immense propor- Olive kindly granted the request, but, reported by all the cavalry and artil- well he may, for she has shown a quarcame beautifully less. "Print" show- before they could speak, rushed upon er can easily carry thirty pounds of shoe. Why, you don't quake worth a cent." ed himself to be utterly brutal, flerce them with a six-shooter and shot Red these biscuits, which will furnish his Edwin Forrest. the phenomenal "I'm not a shaking Quaker, if that and savage, and gathering around Banks dead on the spot. His com- horse with full rations for eight days; trotter, towers like a giant in size him a lot of cowboys and satellites as panion, Dodson, escaped, after being or will serve, with forage, for twelve above the little mare. Nowhere, shot at by this red-handed and cow- days' hard marching .- The Field- among firstclass flyers, can be found a ardly devil. But probably the dark- Glass. ker relapsed into his usual monosylla. completely were the people of the by these scoundrels was the killing of community bulldozed that neither a boy named Smith. The boy was Time sped on, and sooner than we Judges, witnesses, juries nor anybody aged sixteen years. With the happy The New York Medical Journal re-telligence, the brain being prominent. ed, no doubt visibly, at the question, expected the coach stopped where we else dared take any stand against and joyous anticipations of youth, he ports the following case, where hot He is wide between the jaws, high in "I am sorry to hear it," he replied, were to have supper and a change of them. Print boasted it was easier to thought no evil and dreamed not, as water was successfully used in a very the withers, immense through the move men than cattle. This ring of he passed through the Olive neigh- severe mashing of the hand; desperate characters became widely borhood, of the dreadful death he was The patient was engaged in a ma- erful quarters, with drooping hips, night, and we must pass over a por- reach this place, as the dim light of known as the "Olive party," and so soon to die. He had no quarrel with chine shop, and while his hand was The forearm is long, the cannon hone tion of the road on which more than the coach lamp would have rendered great was the tyranny they exercised the Olives or any of their clan. They, upon the anvil of a trip-hammer, the short, and the haunch is unusually even whisper about them. The dev- a spy from the officers of justice-a pounds, fell. It so happened that a and sound, and the legs are without able to stand it any longer, secretly plain the best he could, but the mass of pulp, The metacarpal bones of the great Levhiatan. Edwin For-> was killed and Print, the leader of the with which they continued to lash then taken out and dressed. band, seriously but not mortally him till he was tortured almost to the In three months the patient was him two miles before attempting to ing his hand in a friendly way, on the wounded. Finding that the commu- last gasp. Mrs. Whitmire testified sufficiently well to leave the hospital, pull him into a trot. He showed ternity, so long insulted and cowed that after they had whipped him and nine months after the accident rific speed, but had not had work down, emboldened by the leadership these infamous villains took the poor able to move the fingers, and has enough to make him steady. From of the lynchers, had arisen against boy into a pasture near by, when she quite a useful hand. in the coach," the gay gentleman on, taking their cattle, valued at $100. Nothing more was heard of the boy when treated with hot than with cold he was conspicuous as a bad went to Ne)raska. Had they remain- terward, found in a dried up tank be- about 103 degrees Fabreubeit. "Stop!" thundered the Quaker, ed they would all undoubtedly have longing to the Olives. Such are some been killed by the infuriated and de- of the almost incredible outrages of Joe Billings, a romancing Yankee, them. He trotted through the Mich-

of the Derringers was leveled at his reliable citizens tell many stories of here is that Print Olive, now in jail were assembled several old country- in July, was as good an acting and THE MANY MURDERS OF THESE OUT- in Nebraska, may be made men discussing various matters con- as fast a horse as the world ever saw. promptly to stretch hemp there nected with the pomp and circum. At this time he wore 6-oz. toe weights. The Quaker must have been awful- radoes, these assassins were at the zens of Williamson County, who remarks one of them stated that the the most formidable ever seen on the ly excited, so much so, as to com- bottom real cowards, and their mur- would most assuredly undertake it if British Government possessed the trotting course. It included Darby, efforts to raise the spirits of the com- pletely forget both the language and ders were generally cowardly, either these scoundrels are ever again caught largest cannon in the world, and gave Edward, Trampoline, Dick Moor, and first of the two men that made a sus- Among the nost dastardly and cow- respondent, conclude the gory recital contradicted. man devils. He had been in the trator, the head-devil of all this fear- obliged to employ a yoke of oxen to came home at his case, having made The Quaker, I need scarcely add, "range" but a couple of months when, ful shedding of human blood, cries draw in the ball!" An Anecdote by Blaine. This reminds me of one of Mr. 'em and drove 'em through the touch- possibly 2:10. Mr. Bonner is driving and that a white man should vote ourgates.'

'O, Lord,' a Kentucky minister bloody deviltry and unprovoked mur- found in a ravine in the Olive neigh- biscuit weighs, when baked hard and fastest trotter in the world, of hersize. are broken up and given to the horse three-quarter track in 2:23 1-2, and In 1876 two negroes, Red Banks in the morning, moistened with wa- has been timed a mile in harness in house, and asked to get a drink of wa- After careful experiment in camp, on not hesitate to brush with; anything seeing the negroes in the yard, Print, lery officers better than oats. A troop- ter in 32; seconds. She wears a 16 oz.

Skillful Surgery.

umph; 'pray, can you tell me how peer of any horse in the world-that they got the oxen out again?" is if he meets with no accidents, he 'Why,' returned Joe, 'they unyoked will trot a mile next year in 2:12,or

Print and his crowd on the prairie. or four men of each party were en- editor turned back to the celestial in 2:22; Astoria, the sister of Dexter, first attended to, and shall not be re- The result was that both, for a sea- They immediately made the attack, gaged in consultation in the open city, and was met by the watchman whothas gone a mile in 2:231: Centen-After a long confab, it was announced 'I was mistaken; you can enter; there | Keene Jim, with a four-year-old rec-> gan. When the second negro offered machines sewed, last year, 45,000,000 After looking through his wonderhis vote he was challenged, and ten pairs of shoes, while another pegged ful collection we were gratified to hear mark.'

thing to be even supposed to know his status and rights. A few more men can make 500 pairs of shoes in a year he would let the public see Edanything of the misdemeanors of your votes were cast, and then there was day. In New England, 450 bushels of win Forrest and two or three of his neighbors. Bob Olive had a negro another challenge and another long shoe-pegs are made in a day, and one teams trot. If we mistake not, Hart-tablished female seminary.

Allow [that strong tea does kill Central Railway. Apparently Null prayed, thou hast seen by the mornsome, sah; Yet, Col. Johnson killed had given the desperado no provoca- ing papers bow the Sabbath was des-

Kelly, a brother of the murdered ne- noon, and, sure enough, the last intent on getting shead of the law. pistol into his pocket, and with his separated, however, before a police- Olive, who was thenceforth a declared closed, leaving 400 negroes in line who to give Sunday night performances.

robber, the barrel of his pistol glitter- between the country negro and the reddened the soft, beautiful green first, then a negro, then a white man, ing in the light of the coach lamp, town darkey. This was illustrated at grass of the spot. Of course the mur- and so on alternately. Everybody Machinery for shoemaking produ- the town stable. "be so good as to pass out your purses, the passenger depot yesterday. A derers were not punished, for no jury said this was fair, and the voting be-two companions, one of whom had man came along, and the Pike coun- outlaw. The killing of Dock occur- had not voted, and the Democrats had held the reins of the leaders, were ty darkey found the ticket office. The red in 1876. His next feat in the line one majority in the town, although town negro, it may be well to men- of assassination was the murder of the Republicans outnumbered them 'If Aleck Stephens wasn't a Congress-"Stop!" exclaimed the Quaker, in tion, was badly used up.-Atlanta Cal. Null. This occurred in a drink- by five to one.-Cleveland Herald.

named Kelly, who was thought to argument. About every third man cent's worth of pegs will peg four ford will be selected as the theatre for know too much of the doings of the was challenged. Some were white pairs of shoes. There are 576 patents Edwin Forrest's display. Olives-more than they desired him men, to give the proceedings an air of on shoe-pegs and peggers, and 2,000 to know. The result was Keily was fairness. The Boston man observed on shoe machinery. Machinery turnkilled, for fear he might take a notion that the whites were killing time, so ed out over 2,000,000 shoe-lasts in the lates Rhode Island that 21,000,000 to "blow" upon them. Bob Olive that the hour for closing the polls United States, last year, -American passengers were carried by rail in gro, Dock was himself deliberately white man in the line had voted on have constructed a floating theatre in that carrots make excellent pies. "good-night," the robber thrust his had a right lively scuffle. They were and in cold blood murdered by Bob the stroke of six. The polls were the Erie Basin, in which they propose when sifted and made precisely like The Wheeling Sunday Leader says, projecting has been invented as a proman he would make a good book- tection against dogs, which seize their

> It is reported that a son of Brigham Young is going to marry a newly es- they read, and read that they may have food for meditation.

Brownville. - Nebraska. Blankets, Brushes, Fly Nets, &c.