ESTABLISHED 1856. Oldest Paper in the State. BROWNVILLE, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, MARCH 20, 1879.

crevice between the logs.

CHARMING BIRDS.

Little Western Girl.

VOL. 23.-NO. 39.

G.W. FAIRBROTHER

Each succeeding inch. per year One inch. per month Each additional inch, per monto

THE ADVERTISER

Publishers & Proprietors.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE COUNTY

J. H. BAUER, Manufacturer and Dealer in Cas copy, three mouths ...

Blankets, Brushes, Fly Nets, &c. Repairing done on short notice. The cele-brated Vacoum Oil Blacking, for preserving Har-ness, Boots, Shoes, &c., always on hand.

64 Main St., Brownville, Neb.

ESTABLISHED IN 1856.

ESTATE

OLDEST REAL

> AGENCY IN NEBRASKA.

William H. Hoover.

Does a general Real Estate Business. Sells Lands on Commission, examines Titles, makes Deeds, Mortgages, and all instruments pertaining to the transfer of Real Es-

Complete Abstract of Titles to all Real Estate in Nemaha County.

BILLIARDS!!

I wish to inform my friends that I have recent-

TEMPERANCE

Billiard Parlor In the Hall joining the Sherman House, where any one wishing to play a quiet game of

Will find everything clean and conducted in good style. If you want to drink a nice

LEMONADE

or smoke a good

CIGAR.

MAJOR J. J. WARD. Joseph Schutz,

Clocks, Watches, Jewelry Keeps constantly on hand a large and well

SPECTACLES & EYE GLASSES No. 59 Main Street,

BROWNVILLE, NEBRASKA. ANDY BERGER.

BARBER

Brownville, Neb.

Shaving, Shampooing, Hairdressing &c.

In the Latest Styles, BODY&BRO.

PHIL. FRAKER, Peace and Quiet

THE BEST OF BRANDIES, WINES,

GINS,

Main St., opposite Sherman House,

Brownville, . . Nebraska.

TACOB MAROHN

MERCHANT TAILOR.

FineEnglish, French, Scotch and Fancy Clothe Vestings, Etc., Etc. Brownville, Nebraska.

AUTHORIZED BY THE U. S. GOVERNMENT.

BROWNVILLE.

Paid-up Capital, $50,000 Authorized

IS PREPARED TO TRANSACT A

General Banking Business BUY AND SELL

DOIN & OURRENCY DRAFTS on all the principal cities of the United States and Europe

MONEY LOANED

On approved security only. Time Drafts discount ed, and special accommodations granted to deposit-rs. Dealers in GOVERNMENT BONDS, STATE, COUNTY & CITY SECURITIES

DEPOSITS Received payable on demand, and INTEREST al-owed on time certificates q f deposit.

DIRECTORS.-Wm. T. Den. B. M. Bafley, M. A. Handley, Frank E. Johnson, Luther Hoadley Wm. Fraisher. JOHN L. CARSON. A. R. DAVISON, Cashler, I. C. McNauGHTON, Asst, Cashler,

THE ADVERTISER JOB PRINTING

A fine assortment of Type, Borders, Rules, Stock, &c., for printing. BUSINESS VISITING & WEDDING CARDS.

Colored and Bronzed Labels, STATEMENTS. LETTER & BILL HEADS ENVELOPES.

irculars, Dodgers, Programmes Show Cards. BLANK WORK OF ALL KINDS. With neatness and dispatch

CHEAP OR INFERIOR WORK NOT SOLICITED. FAIRBROTHER & HACKER. Carson Biock, BROWNVILLE, NEB.

Having a first class Steam Ferry, and owning and controling the Transfer Line from BROWNVILLE TO PHELPS.

J. Bosfield, Gen. Supt.

BROWNVILLE, NEBRASKA.

on hand, and satisfaction guar-

J. L. ROY.

Keeps a full line of Ornamented and Plain. Also Shrouds for men, ladies and infants. All orders laft with Mike Felthouser will receive prompt attention.

Bodies Preserved and Embalmed.

Time to Me. Time to me this truth hath taught, 'Tis a truth that's worth revealing :

If advice we would convey, There's a time we should convey it, If we've but a word to say, 500.000 Many a beauteous flower decays, Though we tend it e'er so much: Something secret on it prevs. Which no human aid can touch !

> So, in many a loving breast, Lies some canker-grief concealed That, if touched is more oppressed.

Oft, unknowingly, the tongue Touches on a chord so aching, That a word or accent wrong Pains the heart almost to breaking.

Many a tear of wounded pride,

By a quiet voice of kindness! Time to me this truth hath taught, 'Tis a truth that's worth revealing: More offend from want of thought,

One event in the life of Jacob Lohr qualified him, in my opinion, to be

Valley, near Schenectady, New York, pig-sty. with his young wife, Polly, emigra-from the house, near the brook, just return, his wonder was threateningly ans- made fast inside the house.

steps in front of him.

produce very placid slumbers, even if having failed, the panthers might position for a christian community whole family of hungry panthers.

gan to dawn, and he heard his jailers At once two pairs of eyes flashed at around the pen.

It was with extreme caution, how- was he regarded it safer to shoot them ever, that he opened the door a little as quickly as possible, through a and peered out.

A panther is like a cat in slyness or Upon placing the dead animals side cunning, watching stealthily for prey by side near the house, he discovered and springing upon it in the most un- that they were mother and full-grown expected way.

And so, before he ventured out, he with thick, glossy fur. scanned with sharp eyes the edges of I have only to add that he was paid the woods across the brook; for he by the State a bounty of twenty-four did not fancy being the mouse for dollars apiece for killing the panthers, these three great cats. Satisfying which was quite a fortune for a piohimself as well as he could that the neer in those days. Their red-brown way was clear, he sprang forth, closed skins, sewed together, made a larger the door quickly behind him and and nicer lap-robe than the hide of rushed for the house. But no panth- any buffalo: and years after, with ers appeared: they had probably re- Jacob's children, I took many a tired into the deep shadows of the sleigh-ride under this warm covering. hemlocks.

"His "Wide-Awake" night was ended. Upon investigating the scene of the night's operations, he found the sty The Wonderful Magnetic Power of amazingly scratched and gnawed in many places, proving the strength of tooth and nail and the ferocity of his From the Forest, Ohio, Review, iailers. Several long deep gashes on one of the pigs showed where a pan- there resides in the vicinity of Harther had thrust in his paw by a crack risburg, an out-of-the-way place in and tried to seize a victim.

But my story is only half told. An old adage says, "It is a poor rule markable child only five years old, that won't work both ways;" and so who seems to have the power of thought Jacob. He resolved in the charming birds at will. Her mother morning, that if the creatures should first noticed this strange fascination come back the next night, as they the child possesses about a year ago.

ca. Here Jacob began clearing a farm, place to have a tooth, or a paw, in the turn to the child again. She then built a log dwelling-house, planted division of the spoils. Knowing this took several of them into the house to corn and potatoes, and in a few years peculiarity of panthers, Jacob and show her mother, who, thinking that Polly held a consultation, and as it she might hurt them, took the birds But the pride of his forest farm was was about time in the autumn to and put them out doors, but no soonhis nigs. He had built a strong pen make pork of the pigs, they decided er was the door opened when the of logs, with a heavy door, in order to to perform that work during the day, birds flew in the room and lit upon protect them in the night from wild The scent of blood would serve as a the girl's head and began to chirp. animals. It stood about five rods double inducement for his visitors to The birds remained about the premisthe city, was the edge of the dense done, the pen and vicinity being the parents of this remarkable child beted to roam at large in the woods, eat- Every such thing was arranged to at- that that much dreaded visitor, death, soon taught the pigs the habit of ear- structed as to open and shut some- the birds so gently that a humming- is what I got for my seventy cents: ly retiring. Gradually, however, Mr. thing like the lower sash of a window, bird once in her hand, does not fail to .. Lohr's punctuality in this matter by sliding up and down, a peg hold- return. This winter a bevy of birds abated, until one evening it had be- ing it open by day and closed by have kept her company, and she plays come fairly dark ere he went to shut night. When the door was open, this with them for hours at a time. Every them in. As he walked down the peg had only to be pulled out to let it morning the birds fly to her window, beaten path, a rustling in the adja- shut down like a flash; and, being and leave only when the sun sinks in cent bushes made him think that the shut, no animal could open it. Jacob the west. There is nothing peculiar pigs might be still out; and to satisfy went along the brook and obtained a about the child's personal appearance himself on the point, he entered the quantity of bark from the moosewood except her wonderful magnetic eyes, pen and felt around, saying as he did (Dirca palustris), of which he made a which sparkle like diamonds. The so, "One, two, three-all here." Then strong cord, long enough to reach parents of this little girl are poor, as he turded to the door, he wondered from the pen to the house. One end superstitious people, and have been what caused the rustling across the of this he tied tightly to the peg that reticent about the matter until lately. brook. But as he stooped to go out, supported the door, and the other he fearing that some great calamity was sold by our saloon keepers, what, in wered by a low growl from a dark When night came, he was ready for

Stationing themselves at the win-With swift hands he elosed the dow, he and Polly watched and list-Hardly had it become dark, when of that State, two years ago, said;

mal leaped on the roof over his head they heard the mewing of the panth- "When I think of the victims to the and began flercely scratching at the ers, at no great distance, in the forest. use of intoxicating liquors in every cover. At the same time a mewing Persons who are familiar only with village of the Commonwealth; when at the door, and a snuffling at the side the mewing of cats, have little idea I consider our almshouses, and hospitof the pen showed him that he was a bow a panther's stronger, but similar als, and homes for the fallen and prisoner, with at least three panthers voice will ring through the woods. | friendless; when I look into our jails, as his jailers. But, unlike jailers gen- In a little time they distinctly heard work-houses, houses of correction, erally, these were more eager to get one of them leap upon the pen, and and the State prison; and when I try their captive out than to keep him in; begin scratching as the night before; to compute the losses and charges upwhile the prisoner, instead of wish- and in a moment more, by the confin- on our industries, by reason of iming to "break jail," was anxious not ed sound of purring and growling, it perfect labor, and the taxes for the panthers were growling and scream- Then Jacob gave the bark cord a my heart and my manhood rebel ing, scratching and digging around vigorous jerk and they heard the door against any system that would permit pieces and seize the occupants. Al- I suppose it would be impossible to ery and crime to exist by authority of though feverishly excited, he felt quite describe the excitement of Polly and the Commonwealth. My convictions secure, because the sty was so sub- Jacob at this moment, but the girls against the policy of such a move-Yet such lodgings and neighbors, They did not dare to go out to see if me to hesitate as to my duty. It seems within or without, would not tend to they had caught the panthers, lest to me that the only safe and sound catch them Various plans were tried by Polly, Before morning, however, they of absolute and unqualified opposition his wife, who had become aware of were sure enough that one or more to the traffic." the situation, to drive away the crea- was captured, for there was a great | When W. E. Gladstone was Prime deal of smothered howling, just as it Minister of the United Kingdom, a out on the roof of the pen, her head sober population, not wasting their asleep. By this they knew that oth- revenue." - West-Side Review, (St. Discovering that they had scratched ers were confined inside, for whose John, N. B.) at some of the larger cracks between escape this one was waiting. It was the logs, until they could thrust in but a brief task for Jacob, who was a their noses, he peeled a piece of tough good marksman, to point his rifle bark from the side of the pen, and be- through the window and give her its gan striking at them, giving them contents. Without a struggle the splendid animal straightened her And afterward, when relating the powerful limbs and died. Reloading story, he would laugh heartily at re- his gun, Jacob walked cautiously tomembering the sneezing, snarling ward the pen, watching in every diand grumbling this occasioned. Al- rection, lest there might be another though he had so much to keep him one outside ready to spring upon him, excited, the night seemed very long. but seeing none he went up and peer-council, and then all was silent all against the state of affairs.

mewing and purring together as if in him, and fierce growls remonstrated iness and ought not to be assessed to Had Barnum flourished in those New York who would sell liquor if That Analysis.

Correspondence Central City Courier. That men love to be cheated and humbugged, and will even pay a good round price for the luxury, is a saying which has long since become trite and kittens, all very large and plump, common, but it is no more a truism than that the masses of the people delight in delusions and will cling to the most ridiculous and absurd of them with a fondness and tenacity which are simply marvelous and be- His father up the stairs did dart yond accounting for. The world is full of popular delusions which one meets at every turn, but there is not, He cried aloud, "Say, Freddie, say! perhaps, a more common or dangerous one than that which the man addicted to the use of, alcoholic bevera--Rev. I. L. Beman, in Wide-Awake.

We learn from a correspondent that Hancock county, about three miles west of Mount Blanchard, a very remustered into the army of "Wide would be quite apt to do, he would The little girl was out playing in the village or county. So much having turn the tables and try to teach them door-yard among the bevy of snow- been said on this subject here lately, He was a native of the Mohawk the pleasure of being imprisoned in a birds, and when she would speak to and, desiring to test the matter in one them they would come and light up- case at least, as well as to render a and when about twenty years old. Anybody who has lived in a region on her, twittering with the utmost service to the drinking portion of our infested by carnivorous animais glee. On taking them on her bands community by letting them know A ringing bell, a mother's call, ted to the wilds of Western Pennsyl- knows how they prowl around the and stroking them the birds, instead just what kind of stuff was being fur- But the only sure thing after all, vanis. This was more than seventy settler's cabin the night after any fat of trying to get away from their fair nished to them here, I recently sent a lisa father when he's mad. years ago, when the magnificent for- animal, cattle or swine, is killed, for captive, seemed to be highly pleased, pint of whisky, which was purchased ests of that region afforded some of the meat. They snuff the blood from and when let loose would fly away a at the saloon of H. L. Silf, in this the finest hunting-grounds in Ameri- afar in the forest, and hasten to the short distance and immediately re- place, to Hon. Sam'l Aughey, profeschased the liquor I stated distinctly that I wanted nothing but the very best, and was assured by the person who sold it to me that it was pure. While I am not posted in regard to the different qualities of liquors and es all winter, flying to the little girl their prices, this being the first and across which, and not thirty feet from So, in the afternoon, the task was whenever the door was opened. The only liquor I ever bought, it seems to me that a reasonably pure article scene of the slaughter, and all the came alarmed, believing that this at least, ought to be afforded for sev-During the day they were permit- bloody tidbits placed inside the door, strange power was an ill omen, and enty cents a pint-the price I paid for this sample. The whisky was secureing nuts, by which they fattened for tract the animals into the sty, if pos- was about to visit their home. But ly sealed up and sent to Prof. Aughey the larder; but when night approach- sible. The meat was placed safely in death did not come, and during last without comment by me, and I have summer the child had numerous pets just received from him a statement of secured in the pen, a practice which The door of the pen was so con- from the birds. The child handles the result of his analysis. And this Alcohol, 8 per cent.

Strontia, 1-5 per cent. Tobacco-quantity undetermined. Cayenne pepper, Caramel.

Here is a most delightful beverage, surely! And who can wonder that men will rob wife and children and barter manhood itself to obtain it?-But if this is the best and purest liquor the name of all that is abominable, must the cheaper and poorer grades be like? The famous nectar of the fabled gods of ancient times has been immortalized by the poet's muse, but this delicious and tempting mixture of coal oil, tobacco, cayenne pepper, strontia, and acetate of lead has been reserved for the fastidious and discriminating palate of the nineteenth

GEO. A. PERCIVAL. 'Only las' week,' said Brother Gardner, as the secretary finished, 'I axed de members ob dis club to let de wedder alone, an to take de cold an' heat an' rain an' snow just as dev cum .-I'ze seen it too cold to snow an' too bot to snow, an' I'ze seen de time dat de snow tumbled down like it meant to oberwhelm de just an' de opjust, but it's de duty ob human beins to keep der heads shet 'bout matters dey can't control .- Free Press.

The average human body is made up of several pails of water, a mass of charcoal sufficient to cook a good dinto take in regard to this matter is that large enough to make a pocket knife,

Physicians' wives are usually their severest critics. A lazy physician who had been out hunting, on coming home complained that his luck had been very bad, and wound up by saving, 'I didn't kill anything.' 'That's because you didn't stay at home and attend to your legitimate business,' spitefully retorted his wife.

'I never thought but once,' said old deacon Webbing, 'that it was a sin to steal an umbrella.

'And when was that?' asked

'Well, it was when some pesky thief stole my new silk one,' answered the deacon.

and found out that somebody had while he was snoring.

The boy lay in his little bed. Though oft his mother called: "Get up! come down to breakfast. Fred! Ges up!" his father bawled.

Yet quiet and serene he lay, As though he heard them not; Oppossum did the youngster play,

The time passed on-he did not start, But took another nap: And gave his door a rap.

But stlently young Freddie lay,

"For I must soon begone: And"-but a justy anore replied-Pa's patience nearly gone.

A moment at the doorway stood. In still yet deep despair.

That grated on his ear, With angry push he op'ed the door And slammed it to again;

With noisy strides across the floor,

There came a sound like threshing wheat Or butcher tendering steak ; "Hear screams! hear mouns! hear scampering feet!

Ah, Freddie is awake."

BROOMS AND BEAUX.

One day while on a visit to one of our smaller Massachusetts cities, I hailed a horse-car, settled myself in a and this was their conversation.

"How came that about"

have their whims. Out with It." "Well then, yesterday, a man from | "This man is a bad man, and he load of brooms, which he hoped to "How?" dispose of at the house-furnishing "Why, we'll send him to State stores; but not finding a market for Prison for a year or more." them, and the roads being so bad, he determined not to take them home again. He drew up at the corner and made no reply.

ing for their two o'clock mail.

ing, 'They are dirt cheap; give me jous to befriend him. half a dozen.' They were handed out. Now what of the family? Even be-

They are both widows, you know. carrying the broom as indifferently as the most of them. if it had been a silk umbrella or a roll "He's got such a dose as will make "The Misses Stoughton, however, the public. healtated about accepting the gift. The "dose" is forty extra pounds of she had never seen a broom before bury. and supposed it to be an insignia of ner and started down Pearl street, I ran round to another room in the store to look at them. Mr. James. 'Dot vos a mean choke,' said Hans, who had just come in, followed, after he had got through coughing, chuckling, after me, and we peered through the closed shutters to see thrown Scotch snuff into his mouth what they would do. Nellie had laid the obnoxious article against the whom they made excuses, Japa laughing, and nearly bending berself double, and covering her face with her hands in a paroxysm of merriment, and Nellie giggling, and holding that 'dreadful broom' gingerly in her hand.

"After awhile they compromised the matter by locking arms, taking the despised article between them, covering the brush with their drapery, mineing slowly away. "'Little things test the character," chuckled Mr. James. 'The wife of a poor man who has got his way to make in the world musn't be afraid to handle a broom. "Thank you, Mr. James,' said I. All my interest in the Stoughton family has vanished with that broomhandle. I think I shall transfer my attentions to Kate Holt." "Ah!' said my employer, 'she's a girl in a thousand-quiet, intelligent and lady-like. There she goes now.

Put on your hat and walk with her to the bank; here's a draft to be cashed.' "I obeyed, and matters wars settled eatisfactorily with Kate, as she walked along by my side, broom in hand."

"Ha! ha!" laughed the tall young man. "I'm glad that your eyes are opened at last, Joe. I was afraid you intended to throw yourself away upon that bundle of affectation. Nellie Stoughton, and asked the question I did for the purpose of giving you advice, which I am glad to hear is uncalled for. But we part here, Good morning."

Good morning." and with a shake of the hand, one left the car on one side, the other on the other. But the little narrative made an abiding impression upon my mind. - Zion's Her-corner, and looked out on the shifting He wasn't such a bad man, as men scenes of the streets. Two young average, though he was not a hard men, evidently book-keepersor clerks, worker and he didn't have a good followed me in, and took seats near husband's and father's interest in his me. They were friends, it seemed, family. What they were and what they ate he earned, whether it was "Whom are you going to take to good or bad, and wife and children the Walter Scott Society, this winter, depended upon him. One day, when Joseph?" asked the older and taller of he had been drinking he got into a row, stabbed one of the party, and was "I had intended to do myself the taken to the station. There was not honor of inviting Miss Nellie Stough- two dollars' worth of provisions in ton to go with me, but yesterday I the house, but there was a wife and five children, and while they wept over the fate which had overtaken "You will call me whimsical if I husband and father, their faces paled at the thought of the almost empty "What if I do? The wisest of men cupboard, their scant clothing and the rent over due.

Who is Punished !

the country drove into town with a must be punished," said the public.

"And his family?" The public shrugged its shoulders curbstone near our store, and com- The man was a bad man, but his menced selling his stock from the wife was a praying. God-fearing sleigh about the time people were go- woman, and his children had innocent harts. They were not to blame "They were good brooms. The for the deeds of the father. Yes, the price was low, and they went like the man must be punished, and he was first hot chestnuts of the season. punished. He was punished by a Quite a group gathered around him, year in Prison, where he was well and it seemed that almost every rep- clothed, well fed, furnished with a resentative of a family bought one or good bed, attended by a doctor when more. Ever so many women took necessary, and his work was but play one and walked along naturally and to his strong muscles. Instead of feeling degraded he entered Prison "Mr. James, one of the partners of with his head erect and the firm conthe house where I am employed, and viction that he had vindicated his who is a bachelor, stood by my side manhood by stabbing the fellow who looking out of the window; with a had struck him. For a year he was very evident enjoyment of the scene. better fed and better lodged than since All at once he dodged out of the door- he could remember, and he gained way, and as the south wind blew his flesh. Thus was he "punished" to gray hair in every direction he ran come home and find himself a corneracross the sidewalk to the cart, say- grocery here and plenty of men anx-

He paid for them hastily, and turning fore the husband was arraigned for triround, gave one to Bidd Flyn, who al the wife had to sell the best of her sweeps the store, two to Parson Pot- furniture. He was not yet sentenced ter, and one to an old lame man who when the children were sent out to lives with his wife in the alley back beg. The day they "punished" the of the store. Just then, Nellie and bad man by starting him to a comfort-Jane Stoughton and Kate Holt came able Prison his family were turned along. Mr. James knows them all into the streets and remained there well, and he now greeted them cordi- all day and all night. When they ner, a quantity of hydrogen sufficient words which are always at his went begging for food and the mother ally, and in a few of the pleasant, pat found a home in a hovel the children tongue's end, sent a broom to mother for work. In a year exposure and Holt, and one to mother Stoughton. suffering had consigned the mother and three children to paupers' graves, "Kate Holt took the one tendered and the other two had been sent her, saying, 'I thank you, gratefully : among strangers to find homes. The we were just needing a new broom "punished" man comes out, fat and sadly. Mother will be glad, but I healthy, to discover that he has only shall appreciate it the most, because bimself to look after, the law having you see, I do all the sweeping,' and kindly made vagrants and beggars of she tripped gracefully up the street, his family and then killed and buyled him behave himself in future," says

Neither of them offered to take it, but fat, a system cleaned of whisky, and as it was held out to Nellie, and she a more rugged look than he had cardared not offend Mr. James, who is ried for twenty years, having scarce the superintendent of her Sabbath- enough interest to ask when his wife school, by refusing it, she carried it a died and what had become of the little distance, looking exactly as if children the law didn't kill and

It is nothing if "law" breaks up homes and makes beggars and paupers and skeleton corpses by the half dozen to punish one man, over whose actions the sufferers had not the least control. Law-makers are wise men. and we must admire their wisdom .-

Remoras, it is said, is what made lamp-post, and was determined to Beverly Douglas a drunkard. While Cheerfulness is most conducive to leave it there. But Jane would not a Major in the Confederate Army, be

COMPANY.

we are prepared to render entire satisfaction in t transfer of Freight and Passengers. We run a regular line of Meat Market.

BUTCHERS.

Undertaker

More offend from want of thought. Than from any want of feeling.

There's a time in which to say it!

Left unto itself-is healed.

Many a fault of human blindness, Had been soothed, or turn'd aside,

Than from any want of feeling. -Charles Mackay. Jacob Lohr and the Panthers.

ed they were called and zealously se- the garret of the house.

crouching object, only two or three visitors. door, shutting himself in; and none ened. too soon, for instantly a heavy ani-

Awake," as were also the pigs, for the of meat. and upon the pen, trying to tear it to drop.

She held a torch where it shone to- would sound from animals shut in a deputation of brewers waited on him, ward the pen; she screamed through pen. the narrow casement, and rattled a Previous wakefulness made sleep would sustain by any farther restricttin pan at the animals; but she did necessary during most of the night, ions on the liquor traffic. His reply, not know how to load and fire the but at daybreak they were astir and at as reported, was: "Gentlemen, you Go d, Sweet, Fresh Meat gun; and as to going outside the door, the casement to catch the first possi- need not give yourselves any trouble it is doubtful if even the boldest ble glimpse of the situation. As it about the revenue. The question of hunter, well armed, would have dared became light enough, they discovered revenue must never stand in the way so much at night, in the face of a a huge, handsome panther stretched of needed reforms. Besides, with a Meanwhile, Jacob kept up a lively lying across her paws, like a cat earnings, I know where to obtain the

At last, however, the daylight be- ed through a crack.

Half an hour later Polly called to days, Jacob might have found a mar- compelled to support the paupers and health and happiness. Luther said allow that, and they quarreled about shot one of his soldiers when in a 56 Main Street, BROWNVILLE, NEB. him that they were gone away. | ket for the animals alive, but as it criminals be makes by the sale.

The Liquor Traffic and Taxes. Thomas Talbot, Governor of Massachusetts, addressing the Legislature about to befall them.

was evident they had entered the sty support of these institutions for re-All night long he was a "Wide and were disputing over the morsels formation and punishment, my judgment uncualifiedly condemns, and the great source of all wrong and misand boys can imagine something of it. ment are too solemn and resistless for

to remind him of the loss the revenue ed upon the farmers of New York is from the support of the criminal and pauper products of the saloons, hotels, and dram shop drug stores. The farmers are not only compelled to support the liquor dealer in idleness, but his victim as well. The manufacturers of criminals and paupers ought to support his finished wares. The farsupport it. There is not a man in Taxes.

Nearly one half of the taxes assess-ges hugs so fondly to his breast, viz; "Speak, Freddie!" once again he cried, a belief that the liquors he drinks are practically pure and free from harmful adulteration. Tell any drinking man that the so-called whisky which Up to his face quick ran the blood, he pours down his throat with so Hetore his andurn hair, much gusto and complacency is composed of the vilest compounds and rankest poisons, which, under any other name than the magic one of 'whisky" he would turn from in disgust, and he will be very likely to laugh in your face and call you a temperance fanatic. But I will venture the assertion that there has never been a single glass, even, of absolutely pure liquor sold or drank in this sor of natural science and analytical chemistry in the State University at Lincoln, for analysis. When I pur-

Coal oil, 12 per cent. Acetate of lead, 1 per cent.

century. Verily, "there's no account-a lump of phosphorus large enough to make a half dozen boxes of lucifer matches, also various proportions of soda, potash, lime, magnesia, oxygen, chlorine and nitrogen. Where is the

that "the devil hates a good laugh." it until some people came up, to passion.

A New Casabianca.

Though things were getting hot.

Why don't you leave your bed?" As though he were quite dead.

And shouted 'gain with thunderous knock, "Young scoundrel, do you hear?" While in the hall loud ticked the clock.

To the bed he walked again.

"As these two girls turned the cor-

Detroit Free Press.