General Beatty, hitherto e prominent "war Democrat" of Ohio, has recently declared his intention to act Wagonmaster McKinstry. and vote with the Republicans. His reasons are, the evident designs of the Democrats, especially of the South, upon the best interests of the country by their State rights doctrines: their attempt to destroy the army or render wound in the hip. it impotent to protect the people and the Nation in their rights, etc. Many Democrats-all. Democrate, we may say-who love their country more than the Democratic-party, wil do as General Beatty has done, and sparn the party that thinks more of a State rag than they do of the National Flag.

On one point, too, we all who have differed in the controversy can unite, and that is that christianity will receive no detriment in the re-election of Mr. Gaunett and the election of Mr. Carson. Mr. Gannett, although s "liberal" member of a then "liberal" board, helped vote into professorships eight members of orthodox churches, with only three Unitarians or "liberals." Mr. Carson is a Presbyterian of "the straightest sect" and one of the most generous and wisest men of that influential and respected denomination.

Hence the Republican says, let past controversies over this false "religlous" Issue be abandoned, and let Messrs. Carson and Gannett have the solid party vote. - Omaha Republican.

We have known Mr. Carson for many years, but have learned more about his religious views by parties at a distance than we ever knew before. If he is a "Presbyterian of the straightest sect"-and we believe he is not, if we know what "straightest sect" means—we know he is not a narrow minded bigot, Mrs. Carson, his wife, is a member of the Presbyterian church, but the Captain is not, and is therefore only a "brother-in-law" in the church-just about right for a good Regent.
