

THURSDAY, DEC. 11, 1879.

The N. Y. Tribune has begun issuing a Sunday edition.

On the 6th inst. $1,000,000 in gold was landed in New York from Europe.

A bill introduced into the German Reichstag reducing the army to 80,000, was rejected.

Officials of New York bitterly complain that the mild weather destroys their business.

A western paper says that 200 miles of railroad iron was unloaded at Napoleon, Neb., recently.

Gen. Van Wyck, Okeo county, treated his friends to a hoe-down on Thanksgiving night.

A bill has been introduced into the Senate of Spain providing for the abolition of slavery in Cuba.

Republican City will soon hear the report of the bullfight as it swoops down from Bloomington.

Since last January, 28,558 German immigrants have landed in New York, 7,900 more than the year before.

Harry Holz, Cincinnati, Ohio, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for life for committing rape upon a little girl.

Senator Plumb has introduced a bill for an additional article of war, prohibiting gambling by officers and soldiers.

A woman of Cologne recently gave birth to a litter of five children—one boy and four girls. They were very small, well formed, but all died.

In the Nebraska penitentiary a convict named Sanford Patrick was killed last week by a side of dry falling on him in a pit in which he was at work.

The Beatrice Courier says the price of property has risen, in that city, one hundred per cent, since last fall; and that corn is selling out there at 25c a bushel.

R. H. Sayers, a mail agent on an Ohio railroad, has been sentenced to three years in the penitentiary at Auburn, N. Y., for stealing money from letters.

A Mrs. Jordan, of Clay county, Neb., attempted suicide last week by shooting herself in the head. It is believed the wound will prove fatal. Cause unknown.

The New York agency of the Louisiana lottery was recently broken up and thirteen of the participants were arrested, and the books, papers, etc., of the business seized.

About the first bill introduced at this session of Congress was a rebel war claim, by a new Democratic member from Kentucky. How those geniuses do hunger and thirst to get their hands into the public treasury.

The Sutton Globe winds up a report of city council proceedings by quoting the following Scripture lesson: "If the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch;" and the inference is that the whole "outrage" around Sutton are blind.

True Citizen: Many are so slow to see that radicalism in the cause of temperance is the only way anything permanent can be done. So they stick to the old milk punch law, that ever has and ever will bury the people and the nation in the slums of intemperance.

In the House, on the 4th, Mr. Alken presented the petition of the National Grange and Patrons of Husbandry, asking for the enactment of such laws as will relieve the country from the unlawful exactions of transportation companies engaged in interstate commerce.

The Cheyenne Sun says the execution of the sentence of D. J. McCann, was suspended by order of the court until the next term of court. Meanwhile the unfortunate man languishes in jail, having failed to procure bonds, and he occupies the cell in which Doc Middleton was incarcerated.

Chicago bag quotations for the last week have run as follows: Dec. 3d.—$1.30@1.40. Dec. 4th.—Market opened 10c higher, but weakened, and closed at same prices as day before, Dec. 5th.—Market opened booming, and during day rose to 30c higher than day before, and closed at prices ranging from $4.50 for light, to $5.20 for choice heavy. Dec. 6th.—Market depressed and prices off 20c@25c. Mixed packing, $4.70@4.75; choice heavy, $4.80; light, $4.50@4.55. Dec. 8th.—Market firm, and prices ranged from $4.50@4.75 for light hogs and $4.85@5.00 for choice heavy. Dec. 9th.—Market strong and sales 50c@10c higher; day closed with prices ranging from $4.60@5.05.

Cattle—Prices ranged during week at about $5.50@5.65.

Wheat—No. 2 spring $1.28, winter $1.30.

Corn—Depressed somewhat for several days, but Tuesday 3c, came up to 4c and market closed at 52c. cash.

Some two years ago, in Gage county, one John R. Roode was prosecuted and sent to the penitentiary for the crime of forging a deed for lands. Lawyer Colby, of Beatrice, was the prosecuting attorney who put Roode through, incurring his bitterest displeasure. Being now out of prison, he writes a letter to Colby, which is published in the Courier, threatening to kill him unless he is paid six hundred dollars to reimburse him for losses sustained through Colby's instrumentality. Roode says he is ruined and life is no object to him, but prefers to have Colby die first. He says, "Many die suddenly. Settle up your affairs and be ready at a minute's warning, when God calls you to appear before him to answer for ungodly conduct toward me."

Gen. Grant and Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 5.—Preparations for General Grant's reception in Louisville are extensive and complete. He is to be received at Indianapolis depot and escorted by the Mayor and a large procession to the Court House, where the Governor and a committee of representative citizens will be assembled. The mayor will, at the Court House, make his speech of welcome, and after Gen. Grant's response, the Governor will speak for the state. Gen. Grant then goes to the Louisville Hotel, where elegant apartments are provided, and after lunch will receive the citizens and ex-soldiers who desire to pay their respects. At five o'clock in the evening, Hon. Henry Watterson, Mrs. Paul and her sister Mrs. Shreve, will give a handsome reception to Mrs. Grant from four to eleven o'clock. Main street, from eight to eleven o'clock, will be illuminated, and through which the General and Mrs. Grant will pass to the Galt House, where one of the most brilliant receptions ever given in Louisville will take place.

As Christmas comes this year on Thursday, the following quotation from an ancient MS. in the British Museum is pertinent for publication at the outset of winter as a prophecy of coming events the coming year: "If Xmas day on Thursday be, A windy winter ye shall see; At five o'clock in each week, And hard tempests, strong and thick; The summer shall be good and dry, Corn and beasts shall multiply; That year is good for land to till; Kings and princes shall die by skill; If a child born that day shall be, It shall happen right well for he. Of deeds he shall be good and stable, Wise of speech and reasonable; Who that day goes thieving about, He shall be punished without doubt; And if sickness that day betide, It shall quickly from them glide.

An instance of exorbitant freight was given us the other day by Mr. Linn, the lumber dealer. The freight for a carload of common fencing just received from Chicago, was $115; on another car it was $107, averaging $110 per car. The average number of feet in a car load of lumber is about 10,000 or 11,000. That the "dear people" may further understand that local lumber dealers are not unreasonable in their charges, he further stated that common fencing in Chicago cost $13 per thousand. Add the freight and the profits here, when sold at $24 per thousand, are seen to be scarcely enough to pay for putting in the yard, an 8c lumber to 1c.

Senator Carpenter has introduced a most sensible resolution, declaring that resumption, the circulation of gold, silver and greenbacks as lawful money, and the expectation that the finances would not be disturbed by precipitate legislation, had been followed by revived industry and general prosperity; that successful conduct of business depend on a stable financial policy, and that, therefore, in the opinion of the Senate, any legislation during the present session materially changing the existing system of finance would be inexpedient.

Nemaha county paid into the state treasury, $8,408.80, as state tax for 1879. Johnson county paid $19,327; Otoe, $5,744.83; Richardson, $2,575.45; Pawnee, $2,781.10. If the report that appeared in the Omaha Republican was correct.—Neb. City Press.

Nemaha is the smallest county, geographically, named, and casts less votes than some of them, but she's a head on the tax business, it seems. Our county is not only wealthy but has one of the most efficient county Treasurers in the State.

The Vice President recently laid before the Senate a communication from the Secretary of War, transmitting a letter from Colonel Gibbs, of the Seventh Infantry, calling attention to the fact that the citizen volunteers who participated in the battle of the Big Horn have not been remunerated for their services, and that no provision has been made for the widows and orphans of those who were killed there, and recommending action in the matter.

A Fair Association has been organized in Kansas and incorporated as the "Western National Fair Association." The first fair of the association will be held at Bismarck Grove in September of next year. This is a grand scheme.

The preachers of Chicago, en masse, called on General Grant at the residence of his son, Col. Fred, on the 4th inst., and exchanged some real handsome speeches.

There is a famine in Upper Selesla so serious that the population in many villages are starving. In Saxony also the people are similarly distressed.

Contributions are being raised amongst the Catholics of the eastern cities of this country, to relieve the wants of the suffering poor of Ireland.

A drunken beast named Beasty, at New Orleans, last week, threw the landlady of a boarding house out of an upstairs window, killing her.

The Tecumseh Chief says Jay Gould has bought the A. S. Jay road, and that it will be called the St. Joseph & Nebraska R. R.

Webster county lawyers have decided upon a fixed and uniform rate of fees governing in all cases.

Representative Weaver has introduced a bill for a law to make good to the soldiers and sailors of the late war, the difference that existed in the value between gold and greenbacks, when they were paid from time to time for their services to the country. For instance, if at any time, if you were a soldier, when you were "paid off," greenbacks were worth only 50 cents on the dollar, according to the gold standard, then your half dollar will be paid you, recognizing you as a soldier to be as good, and deserving of as good treatment as a bond holder. Is there anything wrong about that? We think not, but that it would be a proper and just act. The bill further provides that the government shall issue $500,000,000 of U. S. notes, of the denominations of $1, $2, $5, $10, $20 and $50, to meet the appropriation. There is one feature of the bill, if the text we have seen is correct, that is wrong. That is the limiting of its benefits to only private and non-commissioned officers; for if the intention of the measure is an act of justice—restoring a right of which those engaged in putting down the rebellion had been deprived, and we cannot conceive of any other just object, then the discrepancy between gold and greenbacks should be refunded, as well, to commissioned officers who were paid in legal tender greenbacks. There is no reason for discrimination.

"If a free and frank meeting of mind between General Grant and the people of the South shall tend to designate alike the 'sold South' and the 'sold North,' greater benefits may flow from it to both sections, perhaps, than General Grant's special friends just now anticipate."—New York World.

If there could be a "free and frank meeting of minds" between the North and South, we could do more patriotic things than to support the man who could bring about such a result. It would matter not to us who the President would be, so that every American citizen in every part of the Union is fully protected in all his rights.

To be a Democrat a man must believe, 1. That the Union is a mere petty partyship.

2. That the States are Nations.

3. That Secession is a constitutional right.

4. That Nullification is a constitutional remedy.

5. That the government belongs to white men, and the blacks have no political rights that the grand progressive Caucasian race is bound to respect.—Oklona States.

There is no doubt that this is the platform in a nut shell of the Democracy of the South.

"General Grant is again at his home in Galena. If he remains in Galena as long as Napoleon Bonaparte did, the Grant boom will eventually die out."—York Tribune.

The historian of the Tribune will please not abuse us for suggesting that he has got his G's and his H's a little mixed, and that a bona was never a resident of Illinois.

The Republican legislators of Maine have had to appeal to the Supreme Court for their right under the law to see and examine election returns. The order has been issued by the court commanding the Secretary of State to appear before said court and show cause why he refuses to give the complaining Senators access to the returns.

It is with regret that the news will be received that the "long, sweeping train" which has hitherto swept the dust and mud from sidewalks, are coming into disfavour. A fashion paper says:

Short evening dresses will be much in favor this winter, as well as those with the demure, the long sweeping train will no longer be the rule, but the exception.

Senator Paddock has introduced a bill for a marine hospital at Nebraska City. That sounds funny to us, but we acknowledge our lack of knowledge about marine matters. We don't think the Senator would do anything really ludicrous, and therefore presume it's all right.

The Leavenworth Times charged Carolla Patti with being drunk when she sang in that city recently. The St. Louis Post-Dispatch copied Times article; and now Carolla sets the Post-Dispatch for publishing the article which she claims is libelous and slanderous.

The spirit of '61 is still dominant and still defiant in the Commonwealth of the old Confederacy.—Oklona States.

The entire membership of the I. O. O. F. in Nebraska is about 2,300; number of lodges, 77; lodge resources $50,000; amount dispensed last year for relief and charity, $5,000.

The rumor is current that the C. & O. has bought the K. C. St. Joe & C. B. R. R. in order to prevent Jay Gould from gobbling it up. Jay is on it, and if anybody has any railroads laying around loose he is sure to take them in out of the wet.—Rock Port Journal.

On the 4th inst. Senator Paddock offered a bill providing for the sale of the remainder of the reservation of the confederated Otoe and Missouri tribes of Indians in Nebraska and Kansas.

Iowa has 12,540 public schools in the State, being an increase of 322 within a year. There are at present 577,353 children of school age in the State, of whom 43,317 are actually attending school.

Congressman Bingham has introduced a bill for an appropriation of $30,000 to erect an equestrian statue of General Custer in Washington.

Jay Gould and party have just finished a trip of inspection over all the western roads owned or controlled by Mr. Gould.

The citizens of Cameron, Mo., one evening last week came near being scared to death. Seven men, well mounted, rode into the town, and one of the number, as related by the St. Joe Herald, entered the Cameron Hotel and asked if supper could be furnished for himself and six comrades without delay. Receiving an affirmative answer, he registered and left. A moment later, some one looked over the page and found "Jesse James and six comrades," written. The word spread over the city and in a few moments the excitement became general.

All sorts of schemes were indulged in, and among others the one that they were friends of Johnson, the man who murdered Marshal Culver on Saturday last, and that they were on their way to Platteburg to release him. A dispatch was sent to the sheriff of Clinton county, and he replied that he was "prepared to hold the fort." This threw Platteburg into as great an excitement as Cameron; and several revolvers were brightened up and put in order, and a guard kept over the prisoner throughout the night.

The seven men are now at work selling fruit trees for spring planting throughout the Northwest.

Mrs. Nancy Hanks Lincoln, mother of Abraham Lincoln, died in her husband's cabin in Carter township, Spencer county, Indiana, sixty-one years ago last October. Abraham was then not quite ten years of age, but old enough to follow his mother's remains to the grave in an orchard in the present site of the tomb, which on Thanksgiving day the briars and tangled undergrowth were out away from around the grave and a white marble shaft set up over the hitherto unmarked mound. The shaft bore the inscription: "Here lie the remains of Nancy Lincoln, mother of Abraham Lincoln, sixteenth President of the United States."—St. Joe Herald.

Andrew Tracy was hanged at Smithport, Pa., on the 5th inst., for the murder of Miss Catherine Reilly in September 1878. Tracy was a young lawyer, and a full cousin of Miss Reilly. They loved each other but were Catholics and that church does not permit cousins to marry. He said he killed her because she loved her much, and as he could not marry her himself, concluded to kill her rather than see her the wife of another. He is said to have been a very handsome man and exceedingly intellectual and scholarly.

At Ansonia, Ct., 4th inst., a man named Union returning home drunk, threw a light lamp on his wife, the lamp fell on the grade and her bare back was burned to death; and the mother, trying to save her child, was, it is thought, fatally burned. The country is filled with crimes of all shades of villainy, and the saloon business has to answer for not less than two-thirds of them. The man who sells whisky and those who permit him to do so are guilty of heinous crimes against the public.

The Leavenworth Times, of the 5th, presents the views of the editors of Kansas on the Presidential question, as gleaned from replies to a circular sent to each newspaper. Of the Republicans, over one-half express a decided preference for a ticket composed of U. S. Grant for President, and James G. Blaine for Vice President.

Terrorism, as usual ruled the majority of American citizens of Louisiana, at the recent election in that State. In Delta Parish the Democrats received 2,000 majority. Republicans did not vote, being deterred by threats and actual outrages.

Shan't I Take a Blue Pill? No, don't take it and run the risk of mercurial poison, but when bilious and constipated get a box of the celebrated Kidney-Wort, and it will speedily cure you. It is nature's great remedy for constipation, and for all kidney and liver diseases. It acts promptly on these great organs and so restores strength and vigor.

High Priced Butter. Dairymen often wonder how their more favored competitors get such high prices for their butter the year round. It is by always having a uniform gilt edged article. To put the "gilt edge" on, when the pastures do not do it, they use Wells, Richardson & Co's Perfected Butter Color. Every butter maker can do the same. Sold everywhere and warranted as business as usual, and in operation.

When You Feel Mean take Kidney-Wort, advertised in not do it, they use Wells, Richardson & Co's Perfected Butter Color. Every butter maker can do the same. Sold everywhere and warranted as business as usual, and in operation.

Mothers do not let your darling suffer with the whooping cough. Use Dr. Marshall's Lung Syrup and the little sufferer will soon find relief. Price 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by A. W. Nickell.

The Wonderful Christmas Number of St. Nicholas. This monthly magazine for boys and girls, edited by Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge, has grown in circulation so rapidly as to warrant a permanent increase in size, beginning with November. The Christmas number, now almost ready, has a special holiday cover, and is the largest and most beautiful issue of our magazine for girls and boys ever published, containing more than one hundred pages and ninety-five pictures.

It contains twelve short stories by T. J. Troubridge, Washington Gladden, W. W. De Forest, Maurice Thompson, Sarah Winter Kellogg, and others; also the first chapters of a serial story by Louisa M. Alcott, written in the author's best vein, and the second installment of a capital serial for the boys, by William O. Stoddard, to run some months. (A long story, also for boys, by Noah Brooks, author of "The Boy Emigrants," will begin soon.) John Greenleaf Whittier contributes a long poem, while Lucy Larcom and Mary Mapes Dodge are also represented in verse. There is a Christmas Play for Festivals, by Edward Eggleston; an illustrated paper on Thorwaldsen, and an account, with twelve pictures, of the life and doings of New York Telegraph Hero, Gustave Dore, Knass, Mary Hall-look Fox, Kelly, Delian, Bonnell, Sheppard, Eytzinger, Jesse Curtis and Addie Ledyard are among the artists represented.

Buy this number and see what St. Nicholas really is. Your newsdealer will supply it and take your subscription for a year, as the money may be sent in check, P. O. order or registered letter to the publishers. Price, $3 00 a year, 25 cents a number. Scribner & Co., 743 Broadway, New York.

Common Sense. The best thing in the shape of a door lock was shown us a few days since by the agent of the Gilbert Lock Company, of Newark, N. J. It is called Gilbert's Solid Knob or Common Sense Lock. The knob are put on in such a manner that there is no possibility of their getting loose or coming off. There is no screw in the knob to annoy us in the old style of locks. Then there is but four pieces or parts in the entire lock, while all of the old style have from seven to fourteen pieces in each lock. Their front door lock, also their lock for stores, churches, school houses, and all public buildings, is a marvel of ingenuity and beauty, yet so very simple as to meet the approval of all. We have learned that the architect of our new State House at Lincoln approved of the Gilbert Lock over all competitors, as being the most simple in construction and most durable of any in America. Their cost is no more than any other lock of the same grade of finish. See them and you will never want to use any other. Stevenson & Cross have secured the agency for their sale at this place, 25-2

Try Them. Housewives who use Dr. Price's Special Family Food, and who have experienced its benefits often experience the use of the ordinary flavoring extracts. The personal attention of Steele & Price in superintending their Laboratory, makes Dr. Price's Extracts so reliable.

As a Cure for Piles. Kidney-Wort acts first by overcoming in the mildest manner all tendency to constipation; then, by its great tonic and invigorating properties, it restores to health the debilitated system, and restores to the body hundreds of millions of cells, where all else had failed. Use it and suffer no longer.

Don't Spoil Your Butter. Farmers, do not run the risk of spoiling your butter by using carrots, annatto or other cheap colors, when you can use the real and perfect Butter Color so much better. It is harmless as salt, and never gives a dull reddish color, or any taste or odor, and it is very easy to use in any manner by a skillful chemist, and can always be relied on.

When exhausted by mental labor take Kidney-Wort, it maintains healthy action of all organs.

An Expert. Dr. Price is well known as an expert in the study of Culinary Chemistry, and the manufacturer of Steel & Price's Laboratory Food, and other specialties. One of these specialties is the Cream Baking Powder, by the use of which light, sweet biscuits, cakes, etc., are a certainty.

A Democrat Cured. A leading democrat of Burlington, Mr. E. M. Sutton, speaks in the highest terms of the curative power of the celebrated Kidney-Wort. It cured him of a distressing kidney disease, and he now uses it whenever he has any symptoms of biliousness or indigestion. It acts efficiently on the bowels, and cures the worst cases of piles.

Jersey Butter. Jersey Butter is all the fashion, and it has become so, mainly because the makers have kept up a uniform color through the year, using artificial color when necessary. Dairymen wish to see in their fashion must use the Perfected Butter Color made by Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington, Vt. Hon. E. D. Mason, Fresh Dairy Agent, says: "It gives the brightest and most perfect color to butter of any substance I have ever used. I know it to be, as you say, harmless as salt, and it adds several cents per pound to the value of the butter." Kidney-Wort has proved the most effective cure for piles and constipation—be sure to try it.

Cause and Effect. The main cause of nervousness is indigestion, and that is caused by weakness of the stomach. No one can have sound nerves and good health without using Hop Bitters to strengthen the stomach, purify the blood, and keep the liver and kidneys active, to carry off all the poisonous and waste matter of the system. See another column.—Advance.

Fascinating. When a delightful odor surrounds the person, by the use of Dr. Price's exquisite perfumes, then it is that the utmost fascinations of beauty come in they are captivated by its admirer. Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes are appreciated for their peculiar delicate fragrance.

NEMAHA CITY CORNER

—Trade still on the increase. —Our school is closed for repairs to the Treasury. —Mr. J. B. Piper, agent for the Omaha Bee, was in town one day last week and secured several subscriptions for his paper. —The weather has prevented outdoor work for a week past. One reason why the new church building has not been raised. —The Johnson House improvements are about completed, and mine host Levi is ready, willing and able to accommodate his guests. —Mr. J. S. Minick has been sick for several days, and has consequently been absent from Nemaha City. —The hardware dealer will soon open up a stock in the Minick building, and then you can likely save miles of travel by being able to obtain heavy articles that live in Nemaha City. —Titus Bros. & Co.'s store is jam full of goods of every description in this line, and all hands are kept almost constantly busy in satisfying the wants of their numerous customers.

—On an eighty acres, close to town, owned by W. H. Hoover, corn has been raised this year, the averaged 47 bushels to the acre. The same land has been cultivated for more than 20 year and has never been manured. Such an eighty is worth a whole township in New England, or Old England either, for farming purposes.

—Closing Out. The undersigned will close out his entire stock of

BERKSHIRE & POLAND CHINA SWINE, as soon as possible. Consisting of as fine a herd as there is in the West, and representing some of the most fashionable strains, such as the Lucifer, Robin Hood, and Crown Prince Families. A fine lot of young sows, large enough to breed, can be paired with Berkshire record fairs, all eligible to Berkshire record fairs. Stock in good thriving condition; all bred and farrowed here, therefore will be well adapted to the requirements of the West and Pennsylvania. Those wishing to acquire original stock, or to purchase at less cost than from the east, besides having a chance to select for themselves, come early, as stock is going fast. Farm nine miles west and one-half mile west of Nemaha City, Neb.
