

THE ADVERTISER

THURSDAY, JANUARY 8, 1880.

U. S. court commenced at Lincoln this week.

The largest cultivated wheat farm in the world is near Fargo, Dakota Territory, and contains 40,000 acres.

It is said that J. O. Phillippi, present agent of the C. B. & Q., has been appointed Assistant Superintendent of the B. & M. in Nebraska, and will assume said duties February 1st.

A few days ago, while Alfonso, King of Spain, was out riding with his new wife somebody shot at him twice; but those would be King killers are proverbially bad marksmen.

W. W. Embury, of the Times, a few years ago, was shot and killed, on New Year's day, in Leavenworth, by his partner, T. C. Thurston. It was a saloon fight.

Gov. Garcelon submitted 12 questions to the Supreme Judges of Maine, but in no instance does he touch a point in controversy; and this of itself shows him to be the smallest kind of a rascal.

We have repudiated the so-called Democratic authorities in Maine discredited their action. We repudiate them on the part of the Democratic party because they are not Democrats. We discredit their action because it is wrong. - Louisville Courier-Journal.

By agreement, the ladies of Chicago, receiving callers on New Year's day, had no wine for their guests. The ladies of Chicago never did a better thing than to thus put their ban upon "that which intoxicates." The world moves.

Rev. C. W. Giddings, an old settler of Pawnee county, died 23d ult., in his 70th year. He was a Methodist preacher since he was twenty-two years old. We believe he has been connected with the Nebraska Conference for twenty years at least.

A Catholic priest of Ripley county Ohio, recently severely whipped three Catholic boys because they had acted as bull bearers for a protestant boy. And the best part of the matter is that the old wretch was arrested and fined $200 for whipping the boys.

Last week there died at Watsonville, Cal., a person known for the past twenty-five years as Charles Parkhurst, who has led the life of a stage driver and farmer during that time in California, when it became known for the first time that the deceased was a woman.

A new greenhouse has lately been erected on the model farm connected with the State University. The board of regents at their last meeting appropriated $3,000 to be used in making experiments with new grains and plants. Mr. Craig, of Lincoln, has been appointed superintendent of the farm.

Charles Stewart Parnell, M. P. of Ireland, and famous Land Reform agitator, arrived in New York on the 23d inst. His journey in this country is to solicit sympathy and aid for the destitute of his country and for the furtherance of the project of the Land League. Mr. Parnell is a fluent talker and presents his case in favorable lights. May success attend his mission.

Omaha News: It doesn't take the Lincoln Democrat long to settle a political question. It wastes no time on paltry argument or uninteresting proof. Speaking of Blaine it squeals as follows: "The statement of him, as James G. Blaine, in which he attempted to show that the democrat is to solicit sympathy and aid for the destitute of his country and for the furtherance of the project of the Land League. Mr. Parnell is a fluent talker and presents his case in favorable lights. May success attend his mission.

Omaha News: Nebraska City has repented. When the marine hospital was first broached, the Press and some of the citizens indulged in a little chuckle at the expense of the marines. This it seems has so exasperated our senior senator that, although the mirth was in no way directed at him, he has stricken Nebraska City out of the bill and left in its stead a vast and aching vacuum. Now come the citizens of that delightful site for a hospital and petition some 250 strong for the reinstatement of their former name in the text of the congressional document. The world is full of trouble, and senators are not to be fooled with.

The dissection of the powers of the President in the Maine case recalls the fact that Chief Justice Taney has left on record a decision in the Rhode Island case of Luther vs. Borden which will be of utmost interest to the Democrats.

The President has, under the act of Feb. 28, 1875, the power to decide for the purpose of the document a government organized in a State is the duly constituted government of that State, and after he has decided the question the courts of the United States are bound to follow his decision.

President Hays has already said enough to indicate that he will never recognize a Governor chosen by the Republican legislature, if the Republican majority will convene and choose Davis, the Governor elect. In this way there may be a peaceable solution of the trouble.

Inter Ocean: As will be seen from the Inter Ocean special this morning, the reception of General Grant upon his tour through the South, which was commenced yesterday, is marked by a heartiness and cordiality not less than that with which he has been greeted in other parts of the country. His progress through the Southern towns appears to have been one continuous ovation, in which the population, white or black, joined with enthusiasm, and the only disappointment expressed was that he could not stop at every town he reached to enjoy the hospitality of the citizens. There is a significance about this reception of the leader of the Union armies by the people of the South that cannot be mistaken. It looks like the initiative to the abandonment of dead issues.

The Republican Convention.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 31. - Chairman of the National Republican Committee, issued to-day the following call: "A National Convention of the Republican party will meet at Chicago, Wednesday, the second day of June next, for the nomination of candidates to be supported for President and Vice President at the next election. Republicans and all who will co-operate with them in supporting the nominees nominated are invited to choose two delegates from each Congressional District, four at large from each State, two from each Territory and two from the District of Columbia, to represent them in the Convention. (Signed) J. D. CAMERON, Ch'n. THOS. B. KROGH, Sec'y."

Genie Hosmer, the neglected young wife of a gambler, shot herself at Leadville, last week, and will probably die.

At St. Johnsbury, Vt., on the 30th ult., a young man named George Noyes, died in a dentist's chair from the effects of chloroform administered by the dentist preparatory to drawing a tooth.

Geo. H. Addicks, formerly connected with the N. Y. Herald and Philadelphia Post, while in a crazy, drunken poverty stricken condition, on the 30th ult., ended his misery by blowing his brains out.

The dead-end coach was fired into one day last week by road agents, and a Mr. Oates, only occupant, was killed.

Richard Smith, editor of the Cincinnati Gazette, was arrested last week for libel, in an editorial article which said the chief of police of that city broke up some gambling houses because the gamblers refused to pay the chief of police "blood money" to allow them to continue to run.

A fire occurred in Boston a few days ago which destroyed $1,500,000 worth of property.

George Hazard, a late Auburn, Ind., banker, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of two years, for concealing assets from his assignee in bankruptcy.

A. G. Carr, while drunk and resisting arrest at Grand Island, Neb., 1st inst., was shot but will probably recover.

John H. Morgan was shot, but not fatally, in Washington a few days ago, by a Miss Lucy Horton, for breach of promise. Morgan is a son of an Alabama Senator, and the woman he has wronged was formerly an employe in the treasury department.

A drunkard of Omaha last week was sent to jail for 60 days for abusing his family. His name is Fred Kumpf.

A fire broke out in a saloon in Winthrop, Mo., which destroyed six billings.

Col. L. A. Harris, ex-Mayor of Cincinnati, shot his brother-in-law W. H. Adams, 2d inst., in an altercation about a settlement. Wound probably mortal.

Fifteen of the "sporting" women of Lincoln were "pulled" one day last week. Instead of paying a license fee, these birds of soiled plumage are periodically plucked by the police judge.

Mrs. Helen Josephine Ward, Boston, living with her daughter, was shot and killed by the latter. The shooting was done after they had retired to bed, and Miss Ward says she knew not what she was doing until awakened by the report of the pistol in her hand, and which the woman had in bed with them as a protection against burglars. The young woman is under arrest.

Mrs. Elizabeth Newman, Peoria, aged 50, suicided by throwing herself into a sterno.

Miss Anna Jones, of Mineral Ridge, Ohio, on the 30th ult., drank carbolic acid by mistake and died within a few minutes.

Jacob Brown, a lad of Muncie Ind., was killed by the kick of a horse 30th ult.

A boy twelve years old, of Samuel Miller, in Barry county Mich., playfully pointed his father's gun at a little brother, and pulled the trigger. The load crushed through the child's body, tearing a hole three inches in diameter. The father had left the gun standing loaded where the children could handle it.

The Supreme Court of Maine has answered Gov. Garcelon's questions, and that rogue now wishes it wasn't him. Garcelon is a fool as well as a rascal, as the common sense answers of the court plainly shows him to be. "Nothing succeeds like success," but the present Governor of Maine makes a most ignominious failure. He is the smallest specimen of a political thief in the whole crowd.

Truth and Honor.

Query:—What is the best family medicine in the world to regulate the bowels, purify the blood, remove coarseness and biliousness, aid digestion and tone up the whole system? Truth and honor compels us to answer, Hop Bitters, being pure, perfect and harmless. See another column. - Toledo Blade.

The way of the P. M. is hard. Mail arrives any time after 9 o'clock at night, and departs long before daylight in the morning.

Still another substantial corn crib is being built, 112 feet long. If the farmers serve it they have the others, it will be full of corn before it is finished.

The State Journal gives Brownville credit for the Nemaha market report we gave a while back. It quotes the item as from the BROWNVILLE ADVERTISER, ignoring Nemaha City.

The Pawnee Republican says the Little Nemaha was lately stocked with 5,000 salmon. Think he means the "Big Nemaha." However the Little Nemaha should be stocked, and we presume might be, by calling the attention of the Fish Commission to the matter.

When the Platemouth bridge is finished we expect to see the R. R. Transfer boats become an establishment at Nemaha City. A good crossing will be found below the mouth of the Nemaha. Bring the Clarinda Branch to the river bank, opposite; close the gap from Nemaha to Beatrice, and you have the best line of R. R. between Chicago and Denver.

Gov. Nance has appointed M. B. C. True, of Crete, a member of the Board of Education for the State Normal School, vice Paren England removed from the State.

Nemaha City has four general merchandise stores, one drug store, one meat market, two blacksmith shops, one wagon shop, one lumber yard, two hotels, one boot and shoe and harness shop, one agricultural implement warehouse, one water power flouring mill, one steam elevator capacity 30,000 bushels, numerous grain warehouses, the best depot building on the Nebraska R. R. and the best town site on the Missouri River.
