

THE ADVERTISER

THURSDAY, JUNE 3, 1893

The Nebraska delegation is at the Palmer house, room 43.

The N. Y. Herald says Grant will be nominated and elected.

The next M. E. General Conference will be held at Philadelphia.

Deadwood has been selected as a suitable point for an assay office.

Reports of Indian depredations in North Park, Colorado, are said to be false.

Savoy, Texas, was destroyed by a cyclone on the night of the 28th ult., and nine persons were killed.

The Democratic State convention of Nevada elected delegates to Cincinnati, on the 27th inst. By a vote of 58 to 36 the convention decided Tilden to be the choice of the party.

Hon. E. B. Washburne, presidential candidate, is at present confined at his brother's house, Portland, Maine, by illness. It is reported that he has a serious attack of pneumonia.

Hurray for the Republican nominee! THE ADVERTISER will have no heartburnings and no crows to eat, not having prepared nor allowed others to prepare for it, the unsavory dish.

A bill has been introduced in the House of Lords, England, providing for permitting burial of dissenters in church yards and cemeteries without the church of England service.

The court of inquiry in the case of cadet Whitaker have unanimously agreed that the cadet mistreated himself. The points given in the summing up, make this theory look reasonable, and it's hard on the colored cadet.

News from New Mexico about Silver City, says the Indian war is on the increase, and that General Hatch is a deplorable failure as an Indian fighter. The report of parties having opportunities of knowing say he has been whipped in every fight in which he has been engaged, but lies about it. R. in his reports.

U. S. Courts are now suspended and suspending, in various parts of the country for want of money to pay expenses of officers, witnesses, jurors, etc. The Democrats of Congress are determined to bend and force everything to favor their political rascality, or stop the legitimate systems of the government. A few days ago Senator Windom endeavored to get through a small appropriation to pay the already incurred expenses of U. S. Marshals, but it was promptly voted down.

The Right Worthy Grand Lodge of Good Templars, in session in New York, passed the following resolution, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. President Hayes: Resolved, That the right worthy grand lodge, I. O. of G. T., representing the civilized world, in assembly met, desire with pride and hearty approval to make mention of the noble act of the president of the United States of America and his most excellent wife in prohibiting the use of wine at the receptions, and trust this worthy example will not only be followed hereafter at the white house, but the practice be adopted by the rulers of all lands.

The International Millers' Exhibition began in Cincinnati Monday this week, and will continue one month. A dispatch says: The hall of the building is filled with milling machinery from this country and Europe, and the exhibition promises to be of the most valuable character. The grain congress, which meets on June 24 and 30, and is composed of delegates from all the boards of trades and commercial organizations in the country, is expected to be of great interest. Samples of all grades of grain from the leading markets of the world will be on exhibition.

The following bill designed to defeat the federal election laws, passed the Senate on the 26th. Of course it will pass the House, and if approved by the President will be law; but we think the Executive will interpose a veto, as he should.

THE TEXT OF THE BILL. Be it enacted, etc., That the term of office Chief Supervisors of Election, provided for in section 2,026 of the Revised Statutes shall be two years. Such terms shall begin on the first day of May in each even numbered year. The terms of those now in office shall expire on the first day of May, 1890, and their successors shall be appointed from among the qualified electors of the proper judicial districts by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The President may appoint such officers during the recess of the Senate, who may hold and exercise their office until the next session of the Senate; and it shall be the duty of the President to send in such nominations within thirty days after the ensuing session of the Senate; provided, that no person now holding or who has held the office of Chief Supervisor of Elections shall be reappointed.

The question as to whether General Grant will withdraw, seems to be settled by the following from the Galena Gazette, the General's home paper, considered good authority as its editor is a personal friend of Grant's: "An item has been going the rounds of the press asserting that Gen. W. Childs of the Philadelphia Ledger, had stated that General Grant would order his name withdrawn from the contest at the National Convention in Chicago. Neither George W. Childs nor any one else has authority for making such an assertion. General Grant's name has never gone before the public as a candidate for the Presidency by any word

MERE MENTION.

A dispatch says the famous and popular actor, John Brougham, is dying, in N. Y. city.

Goss and Ryan, the bruiers, have arranged to fight, Wednesday this week, at some place within 50 miles of Pittsburg.

The strike of the miners at Leadville has ended.

At Ozark, Ark., Thos. Edmunds was hanged for murdering his wife and child. He declared his innocence to the last.

A mail house burned down, with 30,000 bushels of barley, at Buffalo, 28th ult.

T. C. Thurston, of Leavenworth, on the 28th ult., attempted to assassinate D. E. Anthony, editor of the Times. He fired a navy revolver at Anthony as they passed each other on the street, missing him but not falling in doing a laudable work, as two disinterested gentlemen were struck by the widely flying bullets; the Hon. Lucien Baker, a prominent young lawyer of Leavenworth, and a merchant named Douglas were the unfortunate. The latter was not seriously hurt, but Mr. Baker was shot through the body in the region of the heart, and recovery is thought to be impossible. Thurston some time ago shot and killed Embury his partner, and was acquitted; and the man Embury that he killed was the same who shot Anthony so seriously some three or four years ago.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The stand-silver dollar bill is expected to be passed today that will send them over the country by the rail-road. Delegate Downey, the post, moved an amendment to the sundry civil appropriation bill that all moneys appropriated in this bill over $20,000,000, be paid in standard silver dollars. This was adopted by a vote of 85 to 21. If it comes a law, no more vault room will be necessary. More than twenty millions—affording the amendment. The appropriation of $850,000 for the Cincinnati Custom House is in this bill, and according to the amendment, it will all be paid in standard silver dollars.

The Interior says, regarding this: Downey's amendment to the sundry civil bill, which was adopted in the House, may dispose of the question of the storage of silver. The bill appropriates over twenty millions. This amount is provided by the amendment, shall be paid in standard silver dollars. Should this become law there will not be very much left of the silver now in the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The senate Judiciary committee voted to report with some verbal amendments the house bill granting pensions to certain soldiers and sailors of the Mexican war and Indian wars with the Creeks and Seminoles. The amendments are of a technical nature, the revised statutes which provides that no money on account of pensions shall be paid to any person, or to the widow, children or heirs of any deceased person, who had any claim or claim of service against the United States prior to the rebellion against the authority of the United States.

A DEADLY DUEL. DENVER, May 28.—A News Buena Vista special says early this morning two men named Field and James Edwards—instinctly killed each other. They had some trouble and upon meeting drew revolvers and fired two shots each, when both fell dead.

TERRIFIC STORM IN TEXAS. BRACKET, TEXAS, May 28.—This morning a terrific storm visited Bracket, Texas, and is still pouring in torrents. All of Bracket except the portion on the hills is inundated. The water is from the Texas Gulf of Mexico, running down stream with most incredible rapidity. Business houses are from one to five feet deep under water. Great anxiety is felt for the safety of families on the hills. The loss of life and property was drowned. A dozen houses were washed away. All residences in the lower part of the town are being vacated as fast as possible. The greatest excitement prevails.

PRIZE FIGHT. PITTSBURG, May 21.—Jack Fleet of England, and George Turnbull, of McKeesport, fought a prize fight near that place to-day for $250 a side. Sixty-six rounds were fought, resulting in a victory for the Englishman. The fight lasted an hour and a half, and was most brutal. Fleet is fifty-four years of age, has fought twenty-five battles and was never whipped before. Turnbull is thirty-three.

FOOT RACE. SAN FRANCISCO, May 31.—The fifty-yard foot-race to-day between Archie McComb, of San Francisco, and George Roberts, of Rhode Island, for a purse of $2,000, was won by the latter. Time one minute and twenty seconds.

IMMIGRANT ARRIVALS. NEW YORK, May 29.—Two thousand and eight hundred immigrants arrived to-day, making the total arrivals thus far in May 53,000, a greater number than arrived in any previous whole month of May.

KEARNEY'S SWAGGER. SAN FRANCISCO, May 30.—Last night the workmen, headed by a brass band, escorted Kearney from his holding forth on a text from Solomon. They then took him to a staid and very large crowd gathered. Kearney addressed them in his usual style, announcing his intention of taking up the agitation where he left it, and making it more bitter than ever.

The Rev. Emperor Williams was a colored delegate to the recent colored M. E. Conference, and gave some of his experience as follows: In slave times we had a good deal of trouble about reading the Bible. I remember the time I tried to put me out of the church when I read from a Testament the words, "And Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea." And another time my master caught me holding forth on a text from Solomon. I was out in the graveyard, and he was behind a tomb where I could not see him. I was making a big noise, for I can make a noise when I try, and when I got through he stepped out and said: "Look here, Emperor, you and your God have bothered me long enough, and I am going to set you free." And so down we went and he made out for me before, if I am not going to preach a sermon, I give this part of the history of my life, and only a small part, and now I wish to hear some remarks from my brother here with me."

Topka has been thrown into a fever of excitement by the elopement of a beautiful 17-year old sister of Charly from the convent in that place. Her name is Katie Boyles, and she has been an inmate of the convent for ten years. During all this time she has striven hard to give up the world, but finally she was tempted by a surreptitious letter, and is now on her way to Colorado, accompanied by her mother.—State Journal.

The old man of Cipher Alley is blind in one eye, paralyzed on one side, and cannot speak above a whisper. He keeps at the old woman near him to attend him and to cut his steak and feed him. Like an old spider, says the New York World, he remains secreted in his lair weaving his political web; and seeing no one who would dare divulge his forlorn physical condition to the world outside.

LONDON.

"Is it such a fast that I have chosen a day for a man to afflict his soul? Is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? Will thou call this a fast, and acceptable unto the Lord? Is not this the fast that I have chosen? To loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens and to let the oppressed go free and that ye break every yoke. Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? When thou seest the naked that thou cover him, and that thou hide not thyself from their own flesh?"

The Christians will have a basket meeting next Sunday in London.

Elder Howe will preach in the Christian meeting house next Friday night, Saturday night, and Sunday morning and evening.

We are having rain in abundance.

Mrs. Jane Lovell is getting better.

Nathan Coleman is making some quite extended additions to his home.

Don't be in a hurry to get your fortunes told, even if the Gypsies are here, but seek the wisdom which will clothe you with moral strength to meet your destiny, with courage, as it reveals it to you each day.

Strawberries are ripe and quite plenty, and when all these green blackberries are ripe there will be an abundance of them, too.

Alas that anything so lovely should have a life so brief!

If men and women kept as close watch of their own errors and follies as they do of their neighbors, how much better it would be for them.

The National Temperance Society has just published a new four-page tract written by ex-Gov. Nelson Dingley, Jr., of Maine, giving the facts as to the present state of affairs in that State, conclusively showing that prohibition prohibits and answering many of the objections and enquiries recently raised in regard to the law.

We notice by the Gunnison, Colorado, Register, the first newspaper established in that magic city, that Gen. Geo. A. Stone was the purchaser of the first copy of the Review that came from the May 21st, enroute for Mrs. M. J. Morgan of N. Y. It is two feet high, and the gray foliage, tinged with pink, resembles a slipper with the hind half of the sole bare, and has a pendant tail of a foot long. That plant is valued at $300, and is a native of the East Indies.

Some fifty wagons and over 300 persons passed through Orleans Friday, May 21st, enroute for Washington Territory. They travel about 20 miles a day and rest every alternate Saturday and Sunday. They are an intelligent company, well organized and equipped.
