A full stock and everything nice. Drop in at the Good Samaritans.

Last Sunday afternoon we had a very heavy rain and a sprinkle of hail.

Morton, Saturday night, repeated the exploded lie that the committee founded Garfield guilty.

We regret that "Clay's" article on the Sheridan copperhead bow-wow, reached us too late for this issue.

The Hancock boom in Nemaha county is proving to be the blackest thing-out—a dead flash in the pan.

Tipton goes to California to tell the people there what a great mistake the Republican party made in nominating Garfield, and leaving Grant out in the cold.

Morton's most intimate friends and admirers say his speech in this place Saturday evening was the poorest they ever heard him make—a complete failure.

Dr. A. S. Holladay now, and always as heretofore a dyed in the wool Democrat, this year trains politically with, and will vote with William A. Polock, heretofore the blackest of black Republicans.

When Chicago was so terribly scourged by the great fire, and other wealthy men were subscribing their $100, $500, $1,000, and $5,000, English, the Democratic candidate for vice President was called upon for a contribution. He gave just one dollar. He is estimated to be worth three millions dollars.

Notwithstanding the advertisements, and hundreds of flaming posters, stuck on every tree, fence and pig pen in the county, announcing the Hancock rally at Sheridan, there never was a more ridiculous failure and fizzle than that affair.

By actual count of men, women, children, Democrats and Republicans, there was less than 300 people present to hear Grant Tipton speak, and that magnificent bag of wind puff and flounder through an hour of lies about Republicans and apologies for rebels. The Garfielders at several of their meetings here, with-out an effort for a big crowd, was far ahead of that Sheridan collapse.

The speech of J. Sterling Morton at the opera house in this city, on Saturday night last, was a rehearsal, simply, of his agricultural speech at Hastings last fall—"The crop of taxes and who planted them." He don't understand how it costs more to run a State with a half million of people, than with less than sixty thousand, when we were admitted a State, and in addition, grossly misrepresents the fact. He charges all the railroad, school house, court house and agricultural implement debt of the State to the Republican party. Matters no more chargeable to a political organization than the rain and hail storm of Sunday last.

He also charged the public lands used in building railroads in this State to the Republican party. That was rather a delicate subject to touch upon in this county, as chargeable to Republicans. It was something like Polock's reference to the salary grab, while Tipton was on the platform near him—somebody's toes—some of the brethren—were stepped on. He dropped that feature of his harangue rather suddenly; doubtless remembering he was striking at some of his own political family. He made an unfortunate reference too, to the matter of McBride and a National Bank in Lincoln. The president, and principal stockholder of that bank, is Mr. John Fitzgerald, an uncompromising Democrat, if we are correctly informed.

Morton still harps on "Dave Butler" and the admission of Nebraska as a State. He never will forget the political drubbing Dave gave him in that race.

Like all other Democratic spouters of to-day, Morton is a great admirer of Union generals who trounced the rebels during the war. During the war these same Union generals for the same acts, were denounced as brutes, tramping under foot, helpless American citizens. He thinks Washington, Jackson and even the Savior were pignies beside Hancock.

He claimed the "solid South," with about all the Northern States except Nebraska, for Hancock.

Died, in this city, on the 3d inst. Mrs. Fannie H. August, wife of F. ed. August, in the 54th year of her age. Mrs. August was an excellent woman, and in her death Mr. August has sustained an irreparable loss. He has our heart-felt sympathy.

The Democratic newspapers speaking of Gen. Garfield say of him derisively—"The one-horse Campbellite preacher." There are many of the Christian people in this county, who knowing Gen. Garfield intimately, and personally, will appreciate this left-hand compliment.

The honest and pious editor of the Orange don't seem to like my reference to his famous gold pen transaction. Would he like to hear something in relation to a certain Library and Musical Organ transaction, when he was principal of the Brownville High School—or rather when he left the school? Would he?

On the evening of Friday 13th inst., the Republicans will hold a rousing meeting at Sheridan. Col. Sam Rich and T. L. Schuck, Esq., will be the speakers, and will be accompanied by Sheridan by the Brownville Garfield Guards, in force, uniforms, flambeaus and martial music. Let the Republicans of the county rally to Sheridan on that occasion.

It began raining here Thursday night last week and kept it up with only slight intermissions until noon Friday. It rained very hard much of the time, and the ground was thoroughly soaked. The benefits of this rain was nearly incalculable, considering its good effects on the late and early corn, potatoes, cabbage and hay fields. The average cannot be less, with early corn, than 70 bushels to the acre.

The Democrats claimed too that Col. O. H. Irish, formerly of this State, now of Washington City, had gone over to Hancock. The Colonel publishes a long strong letter of denial, closing by saying: "I shall support General Garfield, who in war and in the peace that followed has served but one party, and that the one which has always followed the flag of the Union, rather than Hancock, who has left the side of his compatriots, and now seeks to lead those who sought our flag's humiliation."

If there should be any lack of means on the part of the Democracy to defray the expenses of Senator Tipton in canvassing this and other counties in the State, we are authorized to say the Garfield club will meet any deficiency that may be found. Tipton is doing magnificent work for us. Last fall he did the same thing. We hope he will continue to preach State rights as interpreted by Bob Toombs and Jeff. Davis. If Bro. Toombs would give us a few turns on "back pay" pension lock pay, as well as "salary grab" "back pay," it would aid our cause very materially. Come, gentlemen, tell the people all you know about "the corrupt Republican party." You have aided in running it so many years you ought to know all about it. The people would like to know how you managed things, and just where you cut loose from the corruption part of the machine. Wasn't when Tipton's son failed in appointment he desired Grant to give him, or when Polock failed to obtain the census position so ably filled by Col. Rich? Which?
