

Arrival and Departure of Mails at Brownsville Postoffice.

Table with columns for Time of Closing and Arrival. Includes times for various locations like St. Joseph, Mo., and Omaha, Neb.

Miscellaneous Directory. State Fair, Omaha, Sept. 20 to 26th. Republican State Convention, Lincoln, Sept. 1st.

State Fair, Omaha, Sept. 20 to 26th. Republican State Convention, Lincoln, Sept. 1st.

State Fair, Omaha, Sept. 20 to 26th. Republican State Convention, Lincoln, Sept. 1st.

State Fair, Omaha, Sept. 20 to 26th. Republican State Convention, Lincoln, Sept. 1st.

State Fair, Omaha, Sept. 20 to 26th. Republican State Convention, Lincoln, Sept. 1st.

State Fair, Omaha, Sept. 20 to 26th. Republican State Convention, Lincoln, Sept. 1st.

State Fair, Omaha, Sept. 20 to 26th. Republican State Convention, Lincoln, Sept. 1st.

State Fair, Omaha, Sept. 20 to 26th. Republican State Convention, Lincoln, Sept. 1st.

State Fair, Omaha, Sept. 20 to 26th. Republican State Convention, Lincoln, Sept. 1st.

State Fair, Omaha, Sept. 20 to 26th. Republican State Convention, Lincoln, Sept. 1st.

State Fair, Omaha, Sept. 20 to 26th. Republican State Convention, Lincoln, Sept. 1st.

State Fair, Omaha, Sept. 20 to 26th. Republican State Convention, Lincoln, Sept. 1st.

State Fair, Omaha, Sept. 20 to 26th. Republican State Convention, Lincoln, Sept. 1st.

State Fair, Omaha, Sept. 20 to 26th. Republican State Convention, Lincoln, Sept. 1st.

State Fair, Omaha, Sept. 20 to 26th. Republican State Convention, Lincoln, Sept. 1st.

State Fair, Omaha, Sept. 20 to 26th. Republican State Convention, Lincoln, Sept. 1st.

State Fair, Omaha, Sept. 20 to 26th. Republican State Convention, Lincoln, Sept. 1st.

BUSINESS BREVITIES.

Nice cool evenings. Soda pop at Johnson & Palmer's. Coffins and hearse, by Stevenson & Cross.

For first class groceries call on T. L. Jones. Groceries of all kinds by Stevenson & Cross.

Nickell's diarrhea cure never fails. Sample free. 50 cents for THE ADVERTISER to December 1st.

Coffins, furniture and wagons at Stevenson & Cross. Best brand of flour and cigars at Johnson & Palmer's.

Smoked halibut, codfish and No. 1 mackerel at Galt's. Barley forks, hay forks, and copper rivets, by Stevenson & Cross.

Canvassed Hams, and canned meats of all kinds at T. L. Jones. Coffins and furniture, a large stock of all styles by Stevenson & Cross.

Money to loan on Real Estate security. Apply to Wm. H. Hoover. Call at A. W. Nickell's drug store for a bottle of Thomas' electric oil.

Ice cream and soda pop at Johnson & Palmer's. Lamp chimneys of every description at Jones'.

Dr. Collins, Dentist, Brownville, Office hours, 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Not at home on Fridays.

Money loaned on improved farms, 10 per cent. interest. No commission. 4509 T. L. SCHICK.

Johnson & Palmer have the finest ice-cream parlor in the city, and make the best ice-cream. Call and satisfy yourself.

Work in the first degree at K. P. Castle Hall, this evening 12th inst. A full attendance is desired.

D. D. ADAMS, K. R. S. Fish, wirecloth, barbed wire, slates, hoes, bird cages, picture frames, clothes wringers, queensware, whips, flower pots, rope, choice teas, etc., by Stevenson & Cross.

Died, on the morning of the 5th of August, Mrs. Jno. Lawrence, daughter of Thos. Collins. The deceased was interred in Walnut Grove Cemetery, Brownville, Thursday afternoon.

T. L. Schick, Esq., and Col. Sam Rich will address the Garfield Club at Sheridan Friday evening. The Garfield Guards and probably the Brownville Glee Club will be in attendance.

We make our best low to Gov. R. W. Furnas, who expressed to us yesterday a basket of fine Hartford grapes from his farm at Brownville. We enjoyed the fragrance for a few minutes and the flavor we left for our sick chief.

Lincoln Journal. Gov. Furnas can raise good grapes and we are here a living witness of the fact. The train from Brownville this noon brought in a fine basket of grapes marked "Globe", and on the opposite side of the shipping tag we read: "With compliments of the Furnas property, Lincoln, Neb. How's it up?"

The call for a Republican county convention appears in our columns. We suggest to the Republicans of this county to nominate their most energetic and wide awake men for the Senate and House. There is one, and probably more, old windbroken, spavined, sleepy political hacks asking the nomination. For the Lord's sake don't touch them. They have been on the track two or three times, and they can't run worth a cent. Show them to one side, and put up vigorous, active, competent Republicans who have energy, and friends to rally around and elect them. We do not want any gawky drones this time—we want, and will have, 500 majority if we nominate live good men.

LOCAL PERSONALS.

Prof. W. Rich, Principal of the Falls City High School, is in this city. Mrs. Sina Morris is visiting this week with Mrs. C. M. Hayden at London.

H. Swartz and John Harding returned from Leadville Tuesday evening. Mr. L. Lowman and wife returned from their Colorado visit, Tuesday evening.

Will Rogers, son of Jake Rogers, Council Bluffs, was in the city several days last week. Gus Moore and Andy Davidson went to Lincoln Wednesday morning to see the baby elephant.

Miss Alice Judkins returned Saturday from a visit of several weeks to friends in St. Joe county, Indiana. Judge J. H. Pohlman, of Washington, was in the city this week, and gave us a pleasant and substantial call.

Mrs. Ada Van Pelt, P. G. W. C. T. of the order of Good Templars will be with Brownville lodge on next Friday evening.

Will Conyes would have gone to Lincoln this morning to see Barnum, but the train left before he was out of bed. Too bad Will.

Hon. Church Howe and S. A. Osborn, Esq., are advertised to speak at Union school house, Howard, on Monday evening 16th inst.

Judge J. S. Stull went to Lincoln Monday to attend the meeting of the 2d judicial district central committee, and returned Tuesday evening.

If the fellow who stole the collar of Harve McGee's little dog, will return the same and get the reward, there will be no questions asked.

Hon. H. C. Lett and family, and goods, went to Lincoln, their new home, Wednesday this week. We regret the leaving of this estimable family, and wish them prosperity.

David Adams, formerly with H. C. Lett, in the drug business, this city, is now filling the place vacated by Edward Dort, with W. H. McCreery, Mr. Dort goes to Pawnee City.

Mr. Edward Poon, a very promising young man of this city, took the train Wednesday morning for Plattsmouth, where he will take a situation in the B. & M. shops. We bespeak for Ed, many friends wherever he may go.

On the night of the 6th inst., the residence of Mr. Wesley Penny on the Missouri river bottom, two miles below this city, was burned down with nearly its entire contents. A subscription party to help this deserving family, is circulated, and the donations are quite liberal.

Gov. Furnas is invited by the Garfield and Arthur club at Juniata, to address the people at that place on Saturday next, at which time there will be a grand rally and pole raising. A prior engagement to speak on the same day at another point will prevent an acceptance of the Juniata invitation.

The many friends of C. L. Srope, formerly a resident of this county, near Neenah City, will be gratified to learn that he is now finishing his plain and ornamental penmanship at the Jacksonville Commercial College. Expecting to make the art a profession, C. L. will soon be among our best penmen.

Judge Stull returned from Lincoln Tuesday evening. He informs us the Republican 2d judicial convention was called to meet at Lincoln on the 31st inst.—day before the assembling of the State convention. Nemaha county was given ten votes in the district convention. Judge Stull did excellently in securing fair representation for his county.

Mr. Charles Body, and family departed this week for Fairmont where they will reside in the future. Mr. Body engaging in the butchering business. Mr. and Mrs. Body have a host of friends here who bid them farewell with heartfelt regrets. He desired to carry on his business as a butcher and being pledged, when he sold out his interest in that business to his brother, not to engage in it again here, is the cause of his seeking a new locality. Charley, may good luck attend you.

It is with sincere regret, that we are called upon to chronicle the departure of the Hon. H. C. Lett and family, from our midst to their new home in Lincoln, Neb. They leave here a host of warm friends whose best wishes for their future happiness and prosperity follow them; and we heartily commend them to the citizens of Lincoln, as a valuable addition to their society, and as faithful workers in every public enterprise for good.

Produce Wanted

BY STEVENSON & CROSS. COFFINS, STOVES, HARDWARE, Furniture, Queensware, Tinshop and Furniture Repaired.

MONEY TO LOAN ON IMPROVED REAL ESTATE AT 10 PER CENT. INTEREST. ON 5 YEARS TIME, WITHOUT COMMISSION.

Address or call on John F. Lyon. AT MARSH HOUSE, Fridays and Saturdays of each week.

McGEE & MOORE Are closing out their summer goods at cost. Call early and take the benefit of the low prices offered for the next 30 days.

Cash Paid for Wheat. The highest market price paid for good wheat at Glen Rock Mills.

Furniture! Furniture! The largest stock, the best assortment at the lowest prices now on hand by the Regulator, THOMAS RICHARDS.

Will close out ladies shoes, and slippers, misses and children's shoes and slippers at private sale, only to change business.

The Union House. J. G. Russell the present proprietor of this popular old house is now running it in first-class style.

The New Bakery of Wm. Furman is now in full blast and ready to supply the city with good fresh bread.

1,000 Yards of Prints to be Sold. In the next 20 days at 6 1/2 to 7 cents per yard.

Don't forget that the Henderson boot and shoe is the best made. Sold only by J. L. McGee.

Farmers I want your produce for which I will pay the highest market price. Dolen.

Closing out my entire stock of clothing and gentlemen's furnishing goods at reduced prices for cash.

Better Times. The Democrat, New Orleans, La., says: "Suffering among such as have been troubled with diseases of kidneys and liver, has been promptly better since the introduction among us of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure."

Grain! Highest market price paid by D. E. Douglas & Co.

One horse and two horse Buckeye grain drills. Call and see sample. Robert Teare agent.

Ladies hoops at J. L. McGee's. For sale. A House and Lot. Enquire of S. W. Tanner, at Photograph Gallery.

2000 yards of chevots just received at Dolen's, 8, 10, 11 and 12 1/2 cents per yard.

Call for Republican County Convention.

The Republican electors of Nemaha county are hereby called to send delegates from their respective precincts to meet in convention at Sheridan on Saturday August 28th, 1880, at 12 o'clock m., for the purpose of nominating one candidate for State Senator, three candidates for Representatives in the Legislature, one county commissioner, and electing nine delegates to the State convention to be held at Lincoln September 1st, and electing ten delegates to the 2d Judicial District Convention to be held at Lincoln Aug. 31st.

The precincts are recommended to hold their primaries on Saturday Aug. 21st, at 3 o'clock p. m., at the usual places of voting in said precincts, and that no poll to be kept open less than one hour nor later than 6 p. m.

A. W. MOIGAN, A. H. GILMORE, Ch'n pro tem, Sec'y. Central Com.

Machine Oil. All grades, at reduced prices at the drug and book store of W. H. McCreery.

A full line of choice goods of all kinds at Dolen's, cheap for cash.

Obituary. KENT, ILL., AUG. 7. G. W. Fairbrother, Dear Sir:—Enclosed please find the following death notices for your paper, clipped from the Freeport Journal of the 28th of July.

Stewart—Departed this life at Kent, Ill., July 9th, 1880, Mrs. Alice Stewart, aged 26 years, 10 months and 28 days. The deceased was a daughter of Mrs. Peter Kleckner. Was beloved and respected by all who knew her.

Mrs. Alice Stewart was the wife of R. J. Stewart formerly from Nebraska, son of R. A. Stewart of Bratton, Nebraska. Was married only about two years.

More of the best barb wire in the city, for sale by Stevenson & Cross.

Fruit jars at McGee & Moore's. The largest stock of embroidered ribbons, buttons and fancy goods, closing out.

1000 yards of new dark prints just received at Dolen's.

Don't forget that the Henderson boot and shoe is the best made. Sold only by J. L. McGee.

Farmers I want your produce for which I will pay the highest market price. Dolen.

Closing out my entire stock of clothing and gentlemen's furnishing goods at reduced prices for cash.

Better Times. The Democrat, New Orleans, La., says: "Suffering among such as have been troubled with diseases of kidneys and liver, has been promptly better since the introduction among us of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure."

Grain! Highest market price paid by D. E. Douglas & Co.

One horse and two horse Buckeye grain drills. Call and see sample. Robert Teare agent.

Ladies hoops at J. L. McGee's. For sale. A House and Lot. Enquire of S. W. Tanner, at Photograph Gallery.

STRAW.

The Quincy, Mo. & Pacific. A Quincy, Ill., correspondent says he was shown correspondence Friday, between Henry Root, President of the Quincy, Missouri and Pacific railroad, and a branch of the Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific, and Solon Humphreys and A. L. Hopkins, of the Wabash, from which the following facts are gleaned: Work on the western extension of the Quincy, Missouri and Pacific from Milan will begin September 1. It is not fully determined whether the road will go on the line surveyed through Trenton or through Bethany. It depends greatly on encouragement received. The correspondence reveals the fact, not heretofore made public, that at the same time that work is to begin on the west end, a new line from Quincy eastward, crossing the Wabash about Mt. Sterling, running on to Beardstown, thence to a point on the Peoria, Pekin and Jacksonville some where about Chandlerville, giving the Wabash a short line and easy grades to Chicago. It is further shown that the objective point on the west is not a point on the Missouri river, but Ft. Kearney, making an air line east and west from where it strikes the Peoria, Pekin and Jacksonville to Ft. Kearney. Mr. Amos Green, who has charge of the work of extension, has orders to have the surveyors have everything ready for active work by September 1. This would make a short Eastern connection for the Union Pacific with the Wabash.

THE MO. IOWA & NEB. R. R. The Rock Port Journal last week has the following: We learn from various sources that the surveyors of the Missouri, Iowa and Nebraska Railroad, are in Nodaway county, running a line from Hopkins in the direction of the Missouri river. At last account they were near Conception, aiming towards Dawson, the first station north of Burlington Junction on the Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific. It was the original intention to make the western terminus of this road at the Missouri river opposite Brownville, and since the road has become the property of the Wabash line it does not seem improbable that everything still the object. Another thing tends to confirm this belief: Work on the extension of the Q. M. & P., which is also owned by the Wabash, has been ordered and it is run through Nodaway county on the original survey, will strike the Wabash road at Stanberry and leave it near Dawson, thus forming a junction of the three lines, all under one and the same control. Hence it will be seen that one line from this common point west to the Missouri river, and on to Ft. Kearney, will answer all purposes, and give the Wabash company a western out-let for its system of roads. Our people should think of these things, and, if necessary, take some action in relation thereto.

LONDON. Let all who care for the welfare of this republic, beware how they vote for Hancock.

Republicans, do you not think Thos. Majors is just the man for that office? "That one-horse Campbellite preacher." What a fool a person can make of himself if he tries.

The Christians will hold their county meeting in London the last Lord's day in this month, August 29th, in the grove on the Harding place during the day, and at the meeting house at night.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord for they do rest from their labors, and their works do follow them." Another beautiful soul has passed to its home in paradise; another noble woman has made a good record on earth, and passed to her reward.

Mrs. Fannie H. August, at her residence in Brownville, after a short illness of one week, departed this life August 3d, for the higher and better one. She was a woman of great force of character, and fought successfully the battle of life; however hard above the level. England was the place of her birth, but in early life she sought the shores of America where she has been a useful citizen, up to the time of her departure. She was a Christian in theory, yet more beautifully expressed in a Christian life. She gave to the poor; she visited the sick; she spoke evil of no one. To sum up in the language of the Master, of a woman of old, "she hath done what she could." Her neighbors held her in high respect; her friends deeply loved her; enemies she had none. Many are the memories fondly and gratefully cherished, we hear expressed, by those who knew her long and well. Much heartfelt grief we hear expressed at the departure of this dear friend and sister. To her companion this is a heavy blow. It is a severe trial to give up the counsel and companionship of his noble and faithful wife. But all events of life, however sad, may be made to contribute to our good, and may this bereavement tend to direct his thoughts and affections to the high and holy relationship in the heavenly world. This blow comes with crushing weight on the daughter—the invalid of many years—and who has passed through sore trials, and this mother has been the trial friend, and comforter through all; but even now dear sister faint not, for "there is strength sufficient for you." "Earth has no sorrows, which heaven cannot heal." Human sympathy may fall like balm upon the wounded spirit, but it is only the consolations from the Father in heaven through the Christ, our elder brother, that can heal the broken heart. May these consolations be abundantly administered to all the mourning friends of this departed sister. Again, friends, are we admonished of our mortality. It is but a few days ago we exchanged friendly greetings at London with Mrs. August, at the grave of Father Empton. As we look down into the grave of our neighbors, we know not how soon the soles must fall upon our coffin. Let us be ready for the call.

Notice. Is hereby given that I will examine all persons who may desire to offer themselves as candidate for teachers of the primary or common schools of this county, at the Court House, in Brownville, on the first Saturday in each month. Philip Crocher, 21-1/2 Co-Superintendent.

Ladies linen suits at cost at McGee & Moore's.

Attention Smokers. T. L. Jones has ordered the largest stock of fine cigars ever brought to this market. Come and see him.

French Kid Buttoned shoes finest in the city at J. L. McGee's.

STATE MATTERS.

Lincoln Globe: Is it legal for the clerk of the Supreme Court to collect of every attorney who may be admitted to practice in that court a fee of $2.50? And does the Supreme Court know that this is the practice? This the Lincoln Democrat says the recent murder at Tecumseh was political and committed by leading Republicans. This falsehood causes the Chiefly to casually remark that the editor of the Democrat is an infamous liar, and the Chiefly guessed it the first time.

Beatrice Courier: The Nemaha County Granger reminds one of a small boy with a pop gun in his advocacy of Hancock. The truth is that this paper has been a hypocrite so long that it could not be true if it wanted to.

Tecumseh Chiefly: Twenty-five carloads of long-horned cattle direct from Texas, were unloaded at Sterling, last Monday night. They will live on some of the surplus corn of Johnson county this winter.

Tecumseh has not a saloon now—and this is to her credit. Tecumseh Chiefly: Captain Bryant has purchased a hay press, and will engage in pressing and shipping hay to the far west. Success to you, Cap., in your new enterprise.

Rum, it is said, was the cause of the downfall of the defaulting treasurer of Franklin county. The defalcation amounting to $2,000.

The Chiefly speaking of putting in a new mill dam at Tecumseh says the water in the Nemaha was a dam site lower than it ever was before.

Hastings Nebraska: The attack of Rosewater over his own signature in the Bee, on Mr. Dawes, is as unbecoming as it will be painful. Mr. Rosewater and the Bohemian paper which he quotes, draw on their imagination for their facts. The Columbus convention was under no obligation to Rosey, nor were the delegates elected with the understanding that he was to be placed on the National Committee. On the contrary the convention was decidedly opposed to the editor of the Bee, personally, and made no secret of the fact.

Lincoln Globe: If you want to know what fine grapes can be raised in Nebraska, go and see those at Thomas Sewell's. They are raised at the nursery "Evergreen Home," of ex-Governor Furnas, at Brownville, and fresh supplies are received every day.

The Bloomington Argus says, Table Rock via Pawnee City is the objective point on the A. & N. where the B. & M. east of Red Cloud will intersect.

The new appointment will give old Otoe but one senator and two representatives unless Otoe sends men to the legislature smart enough to get more in the grand tussle, sure to take place when the time comes.—Nebraska City News.

The representative and senatorial districts of the State, if they consider their own interests, will send to the next legislature their best and most able men. And counties that neglect this will come out at the little end of the horn.

The Lincoln Globe's point against Auditor Leitke is certainly not well taken. In pocketing the insurance fees received by him he appears to be honest and sincere; has, and cites, precedents which while they may not be sustaining entirely, gives him very reasonable ground for doing as he has done. We can see no intent of embezzlement, but think we clearly see that the worst feature of the case that can be made against him is a misconstruction of the law. From the auditor's actions and defense made by his letters, we must believe he has acted with no dishonest motive or intention, but in accordance with law as he understands it, and that if the Supreme Court decides against him he will cheerfully submit as an honest man and good officer should, and promptly place the funds in dispute where they belong under the judgment of the court.

It is said that ex-Gov. Garber is afflicted with consumption and cannot live long.

The Lincoln Democrat says "English's letter of acceptance is considerably too long. Candidates for vice president need not be so windy." How about Hancock's letter to Sherman? Is it essential that little Generals in the army should be so windy?

Nebraska City Press: The musical convention which was in session during last week, in Plattsmouth, under the able leadership of Prof. D. B. Worley, closed with a grand concert on Saturday evening, held in Fitzgerald's Hall. The audience was large, intelligent and appreciative, and the concert was in every way a success.

A few days ago Mr. B. F. Holloway, a farmer near Dunbar, Otoe county, descended into a well, and before he could be got out died from the effects of the foul air in the well. He was about 50 years old and had been a citizen of Otoe for about nine years.

Notice. I have written two letters to show that the Granger was misrepresenting facts in the Credit Mobilier charges against Gen. Garfield, and I have shown conclusively that the whole affair is a mere tissue of partisan lying which the most prominent and respectable Democrats denounce. I stated that the Granger's first charge was fraud and its second perjury, which leads the editor to say: "We made no charge but simply published what was found in the official records and asked Republicans to tell what it meant." An admission that he has the meanness to insinuate what he has not the courage to charge. I showed first that the committee did find that Garfield was not guilty of "any impropriety or even indecency" in reference to the matter of the Credit Mobilier stock, and secondly that his veracity had been also triumphantly vindicated by his constituency in four subsequent elections to high positions where these charges were met and discussed.

These facts have so completely disposed of the editor of the Granger that he last week had recourse to the usual refuge of all weak minds—abuse, a retreat in which he is secure from me. I will add in reference to that portion of the charge which he has now three times published, that it is upon a matter wholly collateral to the question before the committee; that the committee find that there is nothing in the facts of the case calling for any recommendation. The issue which they were trying was whether he was guilty of fraud, not of perjury. Whether there was in fact a sale or not, or whether the $229 balance was a loan or payment of dividends were disputed questions, of fact. The committee simply assumed the least favorable state of facts for Gen. Garfield, for the purpose of showing that in any event there was no ground of accusation against him, a thing which it is not at all unusual to do. Whether he did or did not buy the stock and take the dividend was in the opinion of the committee wholly immaterial since to constitute guilty action, there must be guilty intent. To break the force of my reply that Garfield has been vindicated by the voice of his constituency, he makes the transparent statement that Garfield's majority in 1874 was less than in 1872. Any man with petty brains ought to know that 1874 was the "off year" in politics, and that the difference was not one of majorities, but one of aggregate votes cast. Now I must be excused from imposing on your generosity by repeating my arguments for them. He repeats a large number of questions which have all been disposed of in the several letters I have written. He is either so great a fool that he does not know when he is answered, or so much of a knave that he will not admit it. As to many of his profound interrogatories, I have only to say that "it takes a fool to ask questions that a wise man can not answer." GARFIELD AND VICTORY.

Credit Mobilier.

Editor Advertiser: I have written two letters to show that the Granger was misrepresenting facts in the Credit Mobilier charges against Gen. Garfield, and I have shown conclusively that the whole affair is a mere tissue of partisan lying which the most prominent and respectable Democrats denounce. I stated that the Granger's first charge was fraud and its second perjury, which leads the editor to say: "We made no charge but simply published what was found in the official records and asked Republicans to tell what it meant." An admission that he has the meanness to insinuate what he has not the courage to charge. I showed first that the committee did find that Garfield was not guilty of "any impropriety or even indecency" in reference to the matter of the Credit Mobilier stock, and secondly that his veracity had been also triumphantly vindicated by his constituency in four subsequent elections to high positions where these charges were met and discussed.

These facts have so completely disposed of the editor of the Granger that he last week had recourse to the usual refuge of all weak minds—abuse, a retreat in which he is secure from me. I will add in reference to that portion of the charge which he has now three times published, that it is upon a matter wholly collateral to the question before the committee; that the committee find that there is nothing in the facts of the case calling for any recommendation. The issue which they were trying was whether he was guilty of fraud, not of perjury. Whether there was in fact a sale or not, or whether the $229 balance was a loan or payment of dividends were disputed questions, of fact. The committee simply assumed the least favorable state of facts for Gen. Garfield, for the purpose of showing that in any event there was no ground of accusation against him, a thing which it is not at all unusual to do. Whether he did or did not buy the stock and take the dividend was in the opinion of the committee wholly immaterial since to constitute guilty action, there must be guilty intent. To break the force of my reply that Garfield has been vindicated by the voice of his constituency, he makes the transparent statement that Garfield's majority in 1874 was less than in 1872. Any man with petty brains ought to know that 1874 was the "off year" in politics, and that the difference was not one of majorities, but one of aggregate votes cast. Now I must be excused from imposing on your generosity by repeating my arguments for them. He repeats a large number of questions which have all been disposed of in the several letters I have written. He is either so great a fool that he does not know when he is answered, or so much of a knave that he will not admit it. As to many of his profound interrogatories, I have only to say that "it takes a fool to ask questions that a wise man can not answer." GARFIELD AND VICTORY.

These facts have so completely disposed of the editor of the Granger that he last week had recourse to the usual refuge of all weak minds—abuse, a retreat in which he is secure from me. I will add in reference to that portion of the charge which he has now three times published, that it is upon a matter wholly collateral to the question before the committee; that the committee find that there is nothing in the facts of the case calling for any recommendation. The issue which they were trying was whether he was guilty of fraud, not of perjury. Whether there was in fact a sale or not, or whether the $229 balance was a loan or payment of dividends were disputed questions, of fact. The committee simply assumed the least favorable state of facts for Gen. Garfield, for the purpose of showing that in any event there was no ground of accusation against him, a thing which it is not at all unusual to do. Whether he did or did not buy the stock and take the dividend was in the opinion of the committee wholly immaterial since to constitute guilty action, there must be guilty intent. To break the force of my reply that Garfield has been vindicated by the voice of his constituency, he makes the transparent statement that Garfield's majority in 1874 was less than in 1872. Any man with petty brains ought to know that 1874 was the "off year" in politics, and that the difference was not one of majorities, but one of aggregate votes cast. Now I must be excused from imposing on your generosity by repeating my arguments for them. He repeats a large number of questions which have all been disposed of in the several letters I have written. He is either so great a fool that he does not know when he is answered, or so much of a knave that he will not admit it. As to many of his profound interrogatories, I have only to say that "it takes a fool to ask questions that a wise man can not answer." GARFIELD AND VICTORY.

These facts have so completely disposed of the editor of the Granger that he last week had recourse to the usual refuge of all weak minds—abuse, a retreat in which he is secure from me. I will add in reference to that portion of the charge which he has now three times published, that it is upon a matter wholly collateral to the question before the committee; that the committee find that there is nothing in the facts of the case calling for any recommendation. The issue which they were trying was whether he was guilty of fraud, not of perjury. Whether there was in fact a sale or not, or whether the $229 balance was a loan or payment of dividends were disputed questions, of fact. The committee simply assumed the least favorable state of facts for Gen. Garfield, for the purpose of showing that in any event there was no ground of accusation against him, a thing which it is not at all unusual to do. Whether he did or did not buy the stock and take the dividend was in the opinion of the committee wholly immaterial since to constitute guilty action, there must be guilty intent. To break the force of my reply that Garfield has been vindicated by the voice of his constituency, he makes the transparent statement that Garfield's majority in 1874 was less than in 1872. Any man with petty brains ought to know that 1874 was the "off year" in politics, and that the difference was not one of majorities, but one of aggregate votes cast. Now I must be excused from imposing on your generosity by repeating my arguments for them. He repeats a large number of questions which have all been disposed of in the several letters I have written. He is either so great a fool that he does not know when he is answered, or so much of a knave that he will not admit it. As to many of his profound interrogatories, I have only to say that "it takes a fool to ask questions that a wise man can not answer." GARFIELD AND VICTORY.

These facts have so completely disposed of the editor of the Granger that he last week had recourse to the usual refuge of all weak minds—abuse, a retreat in which he is secure from me. I will add in reference to that portion of the charge which he has now three times published, that it is upon a matter wholly collateral to the question before the committee; that the committee find that there is nothing in the facts of the case calling for any recommendation. The issue which they were trying was whether he was guilty of fraud, not of perjury. Whether there was in fact a sale or not, or whether the $229 balance was a loan or payment of dividends