

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President of the United States. JAMES A. GARFIELD, Ohio.

For Vice President of the United States. CHESTER A. ARTHUR, New York.

Call for Republican State Convention.

The Republican electors of the State of Nebraska are hereby called to meet in delegates from the several counties...

The several counties are entitled to representation in the State Convention as follows: based upon the votes cast in each county for Hon. Amasa Cobb...

Table with columns: County, Votes, Delegates. Lists counties like Adams, Antelope, and their respective votes and delegate counts.

It is recommended that no proxy be admitted to the Convention, except such as are held by persons residing in the counties from which the proxies are given.

By order of the Republican State Central Committee. JAMES W. DAWES, Chairman.

Call for a Republican District Convention.

The Republican electors of the Second Judicial District of the State of Nebraska are hereby called to send delegates from the several counties...

By order of the Second Judicial District Central Committee. C. W. SKYMON, Chairman.

The Democrats of Colorado have nominated John L. Haugh for Governor.

The temperance people of Main have nominated Hon. Joshua F. Osgood for Governor.

Maud S. and St. Julien, the king and queen of the turf, each recently made a mile in 2:13 1/2, on the Rochester course.

The colored citizens of Lincoln have organized a Garfield club. A colored state convention will be held at Omaha, 31st inst.

To the surprise of the treasury officials there is large, and daily increasing, calls for silver from the west, both dollars and fractional pieces.

Mrs. Chisolm has written a letter making an eloquent and heartfelt plea for Garfield. The murderers of her husband, son and daughter are unanimously for Hancock.

Said a Democrat from Central New York: "Had a vote been taken thirty days ago in my section Hancock would have been elected, but he is losing every day, and I am going to vote for Garfield myself."

The greenback orators who went down to canvass Alabama, got their eyes opened. Good enough. They found the condition worse than Republicans have portrayed it.

The State Journal says, two brothers, John and Andrew Young, while at work in a well at Factoryville, Cass county, Monday last week, were overcome with "well damp" and before they could be taken out, died.

It seems that it is not believed at the census headquarters that the Southern States have gained a percent, of population double that of the Northern States, as census returns show; and therefore another census has been ordered in South Carolina.

Charles H. Tardy, President of the Colored Relief Board, St. Louis, has advised that 10,000 negroes will emigrate from Mississippi and Louisiana within the next two months, and will arrive here en route for Kansas and other Northern States.

A few days ago one of the ward registrars of Omaha, appointed under the State law, lost his registration book. After the book had been gone a few days, the registrar in the meantime advertising for knowledge of its whereabouts, it was traced to Edward Rosewater, editor of the Bee, and he was, after some trouble, forced to give it up; whereupon he was arrested for stealing the book and placed under bond to appear before the district court to be dealt with for the offense.

The law fixes the penalty for the delinquent at not to exceed $300 fine or not more than three months in the county jail, or both fine and imprisonment. The registrar thinks Rosewater got into his office by crawling in through a window which could only be reached from the outside by climbing up a ladder. Rosewater has by arbitrary and unprecedented measures placed himself at the head of the county central committee, and inaugurated a scheme of registration for the Republican party of Douglas county which was especially offensive to a majority of the party, and they would not register their names nor submit to the arbitrary rules and doctrines of the obnoxious and hypocritical Rosewater.

According to the Republican, Rosewater is a thief and the Omaha Herald is a thief, the Republican being the party who in both instances has detected the criminals. We suppose this is on the principle that it takes a thief to catch a thief.—Bee.

It appears that the thief was caught all the same.

The New York Times recently received letters regarding the situation, from thirty-four of the fifty-eight counties of that State, from reliable gentlemen; and without an exception they report the prospects for Republican success as most encouraging.

Mr. G. W. Kendall, of Omaha, was formerly a resident of McGregor, Iowa, and says the old man recently arrested as Bender, is not one of the founders of that town as he claimed, nor even a son of them.

Mr. Kendall is convinced that while this part of their story was false, the prisoners were really the genuine Republicans and put Democrats in their places.

One day last week a young man asked us if we had been a prisoner in Andersonville. Upon answering in the affirmative, he said that his father, a member of the 10th Iowa, died of starvation in that hell on earth, and that he could remember seeing his father but once, when home upon a furlough, and but a child; that his father was soon after captured and sent to Andersonville, to starve and die.

It is now said, and we rely on the authority, that the Union Pacific railroad company will have a direct east and west line over the old survey of the Brownville and Fort Kearney survey before snow flies. This looks as if Jay Gould meant business with his air line road from Quincy, Illinois, to Chicago, which company was formed last week.

It is now said, and we rely on the authority, that the Union Pacific railroad company will have a direct east and west line over the old survey of the Brownville and Fort Kearney survey before snow flies.

It is now said, and we rely on the authority, that the Union Pacific railroad company will have a direct east and west line over the old survey of the Brownville and Fort Kearney survey before snow flies.

It is now said, and we rely on the authority, that the Union Pacific railroad company will have a direct east and west line over the old survey of the Brownville and Fort Kearney survey before snow flies.

It is now said, and we rely on the authority, that the Union Pacific railroad company will have a direct east and west line over the old survey of the Brownville and Fort Kearney survey before snow flies.

It is now said, and we rely on the authority, that the Union Pacific railroad company will have a direct east and west line over the old survey of the Brownville and Fort Kearney survey before snow flies.

It is now said, and we rely on the authority, that the Union Pacific railroad company will have a direct east and west line over the old survey of the Brownville and Fort Kearney survey before snow flies.

It is now said, and we rely on the authority, that the Union Pacific railroad company will have a direct east and west line over the old survey of the Brownville and Fort Kearney survey before snow flies.

It is now said, and we rely on the authority, that the Union Pacific railroad company will have a direct east and west line over the old survey of the Brownville and Fort Kearney survey before snow flies.

During September Senator Conkling will speak in Indiana, Ohio, and probably Pennsylvania.

The Democratic State Convention of Connecticut, 18th inst., nominated James H. English for Governor.

The Moline Review says: "Chairman Barnum is not showman Barnum. He has no show—neither has his party."

Nobody but Democrats believe that South Carolina, Alabama, Kentucky, &c., have advanced in population in the last ten years more rapidly than even Kansas or Nebraska, yet the Democratic census takers have reported that it is a fact.

According to the Republican, Rosewater is a thief and the Omaha Herald is a thief, the Republican being the party who in both instances has detected the criminals.

It appears that the thief was caught all the same.

The New York Times recently received letters regarding the situation, from thirty-four of the fifty-eight counties of that State, from reliable gentlemen; and without an exception they report the prospects for Republican success as most encouraging.

Mr. G. W. Kendall, of Omaha, was formerly a resident of McGregor, Iowa, and says the old man recently arrested as Bender, is not one of the founders of that town as he claimed, nor even a son of them.

Mr. Kendall is convinced that while this part of their story was false, the prisoners were really the genuine Republicans and put Democrats in their places.

One day last week a young man asked us if we had been a prisoner in Andersonville. Upon answering in the affirmative, he said that his father, a member of the 10th Iowa, died of starvation in that hell on earth, and that he could remember seeing his father but once, when home upon a furlough, and but a child; that his father was soon after captured and sent to Andersonville, to starve and die.

It is now said, and we rely on the authority, that the Union Pacific railroad company will have a direct east and west line over the old survey of the Brownville and Fort Kearney survey before snow flies.

It is now said, and we rely on the authority, that the Union Pacific railroad company will have a direct east and west line over the old survey of the Brownville and Fort Kearney survey before snow flies.

It is now said, and we rely on the authority, that the Union Pacific railroad company will have a direct east and west line over the old survey of the Brownville and Fort Kearney survey before snow flies.

It is now said, and we rely on the authority, that the Union Pacific railroad company will have a direct east and west line over the old survey of the Brownville and Fort Kearney survey before snow flies.

It is now said, and we rely on the authority, that the Union Pacific railroad company will have a direct east and west line over the old survey of the Brownville and Fort Kearney survey before snow flies.

It is now said, and we rely on the authority, that the Union Pacific railroad company will have a direct east and west line over the old survey of the Brownville and Fort Kearney survey before snow flies.

It is now said, and we rely on the authority, that the Union Pacific railroad company will have a direct east and west line over the old survey of the Brownville and Fort Kearney survey before snow flies.

It is now said, and we rely on the authority, that the Union Pacific railroad company will have a direct east and west line over the old survey of the Brownville and Fort Kearney survey before snow flies.

John I. Redick, although considered smart is certainly very fickle and unsteady so far as principle is concerned. Before the Chicago convention he was crazy for Grant's nomination, but when he went to the convention and saw Garfield man, as he said in his remarks at the ratification meeting at Omaha.

I had the pleasure of attending the Chicago convention and seeing and hearing some of the great men in this country—Conkling, Frye, Brooks, Hale and nearly all the great men of the Republican party, and among them I had heard him take the platform and show his fairness when that question arose about the delegates from Virginia under the resolution of Conkling, from that time till now I have been a Republican.

The statement furnished me by the Democrats, that they have been economical in reducing the appropriations, is a very funny affair. We know about what it was, as we have often heard it, and like our democratic friends, would pronounce it the pettish whine of a sorehead, in his dotage, who has his own indignation, been personally wronged by some member of the republican party, and for that reason changes his complexion, becoming a democrat.

The statement furnished me by the Democrats, that they have been economical in reducing the appropriations, is a very funny affair. We know about what it was, as we have often heard it, and like our democratic friends, would pronounce it the pettish whine of a sorehead, in his dotage, who has his own indignation, been personally wronged by some member of the republican party, and for that reason changes his complexion, becoming a democrat.

The statement furnished me by the Democrats, that they have been economical in reducing the appropriations, is a very funny affair. We know about what it was, as we have often heard it, and like our democratic friends, would pronounce it the pettish whine of a sorehead, in his dotage, who has his own indignation, been personally wronged by some member of the republican party, and for that reason changes his complexion, becoming a democrat.

The statement furnished me by the Democrats, that they have been economical in reducing the appropriations, is a very funny affair. We know about what it was, as we have often heard it, and like our democratic friends, would pronounce it the pettish whine of a sorehead, in his dotage, who has his own indignation, been personally wronged by some member of the republican party, and for that reason changes his complexion, becoming a democrat.

The statement furnished me by the Democrats, that they have been economical in reducing the appropriations, is a very funny affair. We know about what it was, as we have often heard it, and like our democratic friends, would pronounce it the pettish whine of a sorehead, in his dotage, who has his own indignation, been personally wronged by some member of the republican party, and for that reason changes his complexion, becoming a democrat.

The statement furnished me by the Democrats, that they have been economical in reducing the appropriations, is a very funny affair. We know about what it was, as we have often heard it, and like our democratic friends, would pronounce it the pettish whine of a sorehead, in his dotage, who has his own indignation, been personally wronged by some member of the republican party, and for that reason changes his complexion, becoming a democrat.

The statement furnished me by the Democrats, that they have been economical in reducing the appropriations, is a very funny affair. We know about what it was, as we have often heard it, and like our democratic friends, would pronounce it the pettish whine of a sorehead, in his dotage, who has his own indignation, been personally wronged by some member of the republican party, and for that reason changes his complexion, becoming a democrat.

The statement furnished me by the Democrats, that they have been economical in reducing the appropriations, is a very funny affair. We know about what it was, as we have often heard it, and like our democratic friends, would pronounce it the pettish whine of a sorehead, in his dotage, who has his own indignation, been personally wronged by some member of the republican party, and for that reason changes his complexion, becoming a democrat.

The statement furnished me by the Democrats, that they have been economical in reducing the appropriations, is a very funny affair. We know about what it was, as we have often heard it, and like our democratic friends, would pronounce it the pettish whine of a sorehead, in his dotage, who has his own indignation, been personally wronged by some member of the republican party, and for that reason changes his complexion, becoming a democrat.

The statement furnished me by the Democrats, that they have been economical in reducing the appropriations, is a very funny affair. We know about what it was, as we have often heard it, and like our democratic friends, would pronounce it the pettish whine of a sorehead, in his dotage, who has his own indignation, been personally wronged by some member of the republican party, and for that reason changes his complexion, becoming a democrat.

The statement furnished me by the Democrats, that they have been economical in reducing the appropriations, is a very funny affair. We know about what it was, as we have often heard it, and like our democratic friends, would pronounce it the pettish whine of a sorehead, in his dotage, who has his own indignation, been personally wronged by some member of the republican party, and for that reason changes his complexion, becoming a democrat.

The statement furnished me by the Democrats, that they have been economical in reducing the appropriations, is a very funny affair. We know about what it was, as we have often heard it, and like our democratic friends, would pronounce it the pettish whine of a sorehead, in his dotage, who has his own indignation, been personally wronged by some member of the republican party, and for that reason changes his complexion, becoming a democrat.

The statement furnished me by the Democrats, that they have been economical in reducing the appropriations, is a very funny affair. We know about what it was, as we have often heard it, and like our democratic friends, would pronounce it the pettish whine of a sorehead, in his dotage, who has his own indignation, been personally wronged by some member of the republican party, and for that reason changes his complexion, becoming a democrat.

The statement furnished me by the Democrats, that they have been economical in reducing the appropriations, is a very funny affair. We know about what it was, as we have often heard it, and like our democratic friends, would pronounce it the pettish whine of a sorehead, in his dotage, who has his own indignation, been personally wronged by some member of the republican party, and for that reason changes his complexion, becoming a democrat.

The statement furnished me by the Democrats, that they have been economical in reducing the appropriations, is a very funny affair. We know about what it was, as we have often heard it, and like our democratic friends, would pronounce it the pettish whine of a sorehead, in his dotage, who has his own indignation, been personally wronged by some member of the republican party, and for that reason changes his complexion, becoming a democrat.

The statement furnished me by the Democrats, that they have been economical in reducing the appropriations, is a very funny affair. We know about what it was, as we have often heard it, and like our democratic friends, would pronounce it the pettish whine of a sorehead, in his dotage, who has his own indignation, been personally wronged by some member of the republican party, and for that reason changes his complexion, becoming a democrat.

Republican and Democratic Economy.

WASHINGTON, AUG. 12.—The Treasury Department has published a statement showing the amount of the annual appropriations made by Congress for each fiscal year from 1874 to 1881, inclusive, together with the coin value of such appropriations, computed upon the average prices of gold for each year in question.

The amounts in round numbers were as follows, in round numbers: For 1874, $1,000,000; for 1875, $1,000,000; for 1876, $1,000,000; for 1877, $1,000,000; for 1878, $1,000,000; for 1879, $1,000,000; for 1880, $1,000,000; for 1881, $1,000,000.

The amounts in round numbers were as follows, in round numbers: For 1874, $1,000,000; for 1875, $1,000,000; for 1876, $1,000,000; for 1877, $1,000,000; for 1878, $1,000,000; for 1879, $1,000,000; for 1880, $1,000,000; for 1881, $1,000,000.

The amounts in round numbers were as follows, in round numbers: For 1874, $1,000,000; for 1875, $1,000,000; for 1876, $1,000,000; for 1877, $1,000,000; for 1878, $1,000,000; for 1879, $1,000,000; for 1880, $1,000,000; for 1881, $1,000,000.

The amounts in round numbers were as follows, in round numbers: For 1874, $1,000,000; for 1875, $1,000,000; for 1876, $1,000,000; for 1877, $1,000,000; for 1878, $1,000,000; for 1879, $1,000,000; for 1880, $1,000,000; for 1881, $1,000,000.

The amounts in round numbers were as follows, in round numbers: For 1874, $1,000,000; for 1875, $1,000,000; for 1876, $1,000,000; for 1877, $1,000,000; for 1878, $1,000,000; for 1879, $1,000,000; for 1880, $1,000,000; for 1881, $1,000,000.

The amounts in round numbers were as follows, in round numbers: For 1874, $1,000,000; for 1875, $1,000,000; for 1876, $1,000,000; for 1877, $1,000,000; for 1878, $1,000,000; for 1879, $1,000,000; for 1880, $1,000,000; for 1881, $1,000,000.

The amounts in round numbers were as follows, in round numbers: For 1874, $1,000,000; for 1875, $1,000,000; for 1876, $1,000,000; for 1877, $1,000,000; for 1878, $1,000,000; for 1879, $1,000,000; for 1880, $1,000,000; for 1881, $1,000,000.

The amounts in round numbers were as follows, in round numbers: For 1874, $1,000,000; for 1875, $1,000,000; for 1876, $1,000,000; for 1877, $1,000,000; for 1878, $1,000,000; for 1879, $1,000,000; for 1880, $1,000,000; for 1881, $1,000,000.

The amounts in round numbers were as follows, in round numbers: For 1874, $1,000,000; for 1875, $1,000,000; for 1876, $1,000,000; for 1877, $1,000,000; for 1878, $1,000,000; for 1879, $1,000,000; for 1880, $1,000,000; for 1881, $1,000,000.

The amounts in round numbers were as follows, in round numbers: For 1874, $1,000,000; for 1875, $1,000,000; for 1876, $1,000,000; for 1877, $1,000,000; for 1878, $1,000,000; for 1879, $1,000,000; for 1880, $1,000,000; for 1881, $1,000,000.

The amounts in round numbers were as follows, in round numbers: For 1874, $1,000,000; for 1875, $1,000,000; for 1876, $1,000,000; for 1877, $1,000,000; for 1878, $1,000,000; for 1879, $1,000,000; for 1880, $1,000,000; for 1881, $1,000,000.

The amounts in round numbers were as follows, in round numbers: For 1874, $1,000,000; for 1875, $1,000,000; for 1876, $1,000,000; for 1877, $1,000,000; for 1878, $1,000,000; for 1879, $1,000,000; for 1880, $1,000,000; for 1881, $1,000,000.

The amounts in round numbers were as follows, in round numbers: For 1874, $1,000,000; for 1875, $1,000,000; for 1876, $1,000,000; for 1877, $1,000,000; for 1878, $1,000,000; for 1879, $1,000,000; for 1880, $1,000,000; for 1881, $1,000,000.

The amounts in round numbers were as follows, in round numbers: For 1874, $1,000,000; for 1875, $1,000,000; for 1876, $1,000,000; for 1877, $1,000,000; for 1878, $1,000,000; for 1879, $1,000,000; for 1880, $1,000,000; for 1881, $1,000,000.

The amounts in round numbers were as follows, in round numbers: For 1874, $1,000,000; for 1875, $1,000,000; for 1876, $1,000,000; for 1877, $1,000,000; for 1878, $1,000,000; for 1879, $1,000,000; for 1880, $1,000,000; for 1881, $1,000,000.

The amounts in round numbers were as follows, in round numbers: For 1874, $1,000,000; for 1875, $1,000,000; for 1876, $1,000,000; for 1877, $1,000,000; for 1878, $1,000,000; for 1879, $1,000,000; for 1880, $1,000,000; for 1881, $1,000,000.

The amounts in round numbers were as follows, in round numbers: For 1874, $1,000,000; for 1875, $1,000,000; for 1876, $1,000,000; for 1877, $1,000,000; for 1878, $1,000,000; for 1879, $1,000,000; for 1880, $1,000,000; for 1881, $1,000,000.

ALABAMA.

A Greenbacker's Experience. J. H. Randall, Greenback campaign orator, has written a letter relating his experiences in Alabama. He went to Kizer Hall, to a barbeque and joint discussion between Democrats and Greenbackers. Of course he got the worst of it.

He says of the first Democratic orator: "In the course of his speech he said: 'The Confederacy still exists, my friends, and Jeff Davis, its president, and devoted to our interests, and if Hancock is elected, and we have no doubt he will be, you will be paid for all property you have lost by Radical rule, and you must stand by the great Democratic party of the solid South which will give us entire control of the General Government, and we can redress all our wrongs.' His thirty-minute speech was almost entirely in this order. As soon as we reported, it was decided that we speak in behalf of the Greenback party one hour and fifteen minutes and that Mr. Taylor, of Butler, reply to us in the same time. We opened our case in a calm and pleasant appeal to everybody not in sympathy with the Democratic party, while we presented the facts in relation to the present situation, and we soon had engaged the serious and earnest attention of everybody on the ground within hearing of our oratory."

He says of the first Democratic orator: "In the course of his speech he said: 'The Confederacy still exists, my friends, and Jeff Davis, its president, and devoted to our interests, and if Hancock is elected, and we have no doubt he will be, you will be paid for all property you have lost by Radical rule, and you must stand by the great Democratic party of the solid South which will give us entire control of the General Government, and we can redress all our wrongs.' His thirty-minute speech was almost entirely in this order. As soon as we reported, it was decided that we speak in behalf of the Greenback party one hour and fifteen minutes and that Mr. Taylor, of Butler, reply to us in the same time. We opened our case in a calm and pleasant appeal to everybody not in sympathy with the Democratic party, while we presented the facts in relation to the present situation, and we soon had engaged the serious and earnest attention of everybody on the ground within hearing of our oratory."

He says of the first Democratic orator: "In the course of his speech he said: 'The Confederacy still exists, my friends, and Jeff Davis, its president, and devoted to our interests, and if Hancock is elected, and we have no doubt he will be, you will be paid for all property you have lost by Radical rule, and you must stand by the great Democratic party of the solid South which will give us entire control of the General Government, and we can redress all our wrongs.' His thirty-minute speech was almost entirely in this order. As soon as we reported, it was decided that we speak in behalf of the Greenback party one hour and fifteen minutes and that Mr. Taylor, of Butler, reply to us in the same time. We opened our case in a calm and pleasant appeal to everybody not in sympathy with the Democratic party, while we presented the facts in relation to the present situation, and we soon had engaged the serious and earnest attention of everybody on the ground within hearing of our oratory."

He says of the first Democratic orator: "In the course of his speech he said: 'The Confederacy still exists, my friends, and Jeff Davis, its president, and devoted to our interests, and if Hancock is elected, and we have no doubt he will be, you will be paid for all property you have lost by Radical rule, and you must stand by the great Democratic party of the solid South which will give us entire control of the General Government, and we can redress all our wrongs.' His thirty-minute speech was almost entirely in this order. As soon as we reported, it was decided that we speak in behalf of the Greenback party one hour and fifteen minutes and that Mr. Taylor, of Butler, reply to us in the same time. We opened our case in a calm and pleasant appeal to everybody not in sympathy with the Democratic party, while we presented the facts in relation to the present situation, and we soon had engaged the serious and earnest attention of everybody on the ground within hearing of our oratory."

He says of the first Democratic orator: "In the course of his speech he said: 'The Confederacy still exists, my friends, and Jeff Davis, its president, and devoted to our interests, and if Hancock is elected, and we have no doubt he will be, you will be paid for all property you have lost by Radical rule, and you must stand by the great Democratic party of the solid South which will give us entire control of the General Government, and we can redress all our wrongs.' His thirty-minute speech was almost entirely in this order. As soon as we reported, it was decided that we speak in behalf of the Greenback party one hour and fifteen minutes and that Mr. Taylor, of Butler, reply to us in the same time. We opened our case in a calm and pleasant appeal to everybody not in sympathy with the Democratic party, while we presented the facts in relation to the present situation, and we soon had engaged the serious and earnest attention of everybody on the ground within hearing of our oratory."

He says of the first Democratic orator: "In the course of his speech he said: 'The Confederacy still exists, my friends, and Jeff Davis, its president, and devoted to our interests, and if Hancock is elected, and we have no doubt he will be, you will be paid for all property you have lost by Radical rule, and you must stand by the great Democratic party of the solid South which will give us entire control of the General Government, and we can redress all our wrongs.' His thirty-minute speech was almost entirely in this order. As soon as we reported, it was decided that we speak in behalf of the Greenback party one hour and fifteen minutes and that Mr. Taylor, of Butler, reply to us in the same time. We opened our case in a calm and pleasant appeal to everybody not in sympathy with the Democratic party, while we presented the facts in relation to the present situation, and we soon had engaged the serious and earnest attention of everybody on the ground within hearing of our oratory."

He says of the first Democratic orator: "In the course of his speech he said: 'The Confederacy still exists, my friends, and Jeff Davis, its president, and devoted to our interests, and if Hancock is elected, and we have no doubt he will be, you will be paid for all property you have lost by Radical rule, and you must stand by the great Democratic party of the solid South which will give us entire control of the General Government, and we can redress all our wrongs.' His thirty-minute speech was almost entirely in this order. As soon as we reported, it was decided that we speak in behalf of the Greenback party one hour and fifteen minutes and that Mr. Taylor, of Butler, reply to us in the same time. We opened our case in a calm and pleasant appeal to everybody not in sympathy with the Democratic party, while we presented the facts in relation to the present situation, and we soon had engaged the serious and earnest attention of everybody on the ground within hearing of our oratory."

He says of the first Democratic orator: "In the course of his speech he said: 'The Confederacy still exists, my friends, and Jeff Davis, its president, and devoted to our interests, and if Hancock is elected, and we have no doubt he will be, you will be paid for all property you have lost by Radical rule, and you must stand by the great Democratic party of the solid South which will give us entire control of the General Government, and we can redress all our wrongs.' His thirty-minute speech was almost entirely in this order. As soon as we reported, it was decided that we speak in behalf of the Greenback party one hour and fifteen minutes and that Mr. Taylor, of Butler, reply to us in the same time. We opened our case in a calm and pleasant appeal to everybody not in sympathy with the Democratic party, while we presented the facts in relation to the present situation, and we soon had engaged the serious and earnest attention of everybody on the ground within hearing of our oratory."

He says of the first Democratic orator: "In the course of his speech he said: 'The Confederacy still exists, my friends, and Jeff Davis, its president, and devoted to our interests, and if Hancock is elected, and we have no doubt he will be, you will be paid for all property you have lost by Radical rule, and you must stand by the great Democratic party of the solid South which will give us entire control of the General Government, and we can redress all our wrongs.' His thirty-minute speech was almost entirely in this order. As soon as we reported, it was decided that we speak in behalf of the Greenback party one hour and fifteen minutes and that Mr. Taylor, of Butler, reply to us in the same time. We opened our case in a calm and pleasant appeal to everybody not in sympathy with the Democratic party, while we presented the facts in relation to the present situation, and we soon had engaged the serious and earnest attention of everybody on the ground within hearing of our oratory."

He says of the first Democratic orator: "In the course of his speech he said: 'The Confederacy still exists, my friends, and Jeff Davis, its president, and devoted to our interests, and if Hancock is elected, and we have no doubt he will be, you will be paid for all property you have lost by Radical rule, and you must stand by the great Democratic party of the solid South which will give us entire control of the General Government, and we can redress all our wrongs.' His thirty-minute speech was almost entirely in this order. As soon as we reported, it was decided that we speak in behalf of the Greenback party one hour and fifteen minutes and that Mr. Taylor, of Butler, reply to us in the same time. We opened our case in a calm and pleasant appeal to everybody not in sympathy with the Democratic party, while we presented the facts in relation to the present situation, and we soon had engaged the serious and earnest attention of everybody on the ground within hearing of our oratory."