

THE ADVERTISER

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1880.

OUR AGENT AND COLLECTOR.

Mr. A. W. SULTZBAUGH is our authorized agent to receive money from subscribers to THE ADVERTISER, and give receipt for the same, when required. He will commence on or about January 1st, to call on delinquent subscribers, and will see all of them as rapidly as he can. He will also solicit for new subscribers. We hope each one will be ready to pay the small sum due us. Although small, they are numerous, and in the aggregate amount to several hundreds of dollars. We know that all are able to pay, but through negligence, or forgetfulness, or failing to see us or our agent, have failed to do so. Now please hand the pay to Mr. Sultzbaugh, who will see that you are duly credited; and we promise you that in the future, as in the past, we will work incessantly to send you weekly one of the best country papers in the State.

Yours, "to live and let live."

G. W. FAIRBROTHER & CO.

— Coffins and Hearse by Stevenson & Cross.
— New supply of nice cakes at Furman & Palmer's.
— For the best and cheapest cook stove go to Stevenson & Cross.
— About three inches of snow fell here Friday last, and two inches more fell on Monday.

— For a "boss" set of glassware call on T. L. Jones. He has a large stock and more coming.
— Nemaha county is well healed, having a candidate for Speaker and a candidate for a committee.

— The best French china tea sets consisting of 55 pieces, moss rose, gold and other styles. See sample, Stevenson & Cross.
— Annual election of officers of Excelsior Lodge, No. 15, K. P., this, Wednesday evening, Dec. 29th.

J. H. BAUER, C. C.
— Anyone wishing to buy an outfit for housekeeping can save money by buying of Stevenson & Cross, as they keep everything in that line.

On the margin of your ADVERTISER, or on the wrapper, indicates that the time paid for has expired, and that a settlement and renewal is solicited by us.

— "Bread is the staff of life," and Homewood & Shaffer's flour is what ladies generally use now when they want a good article of the "staff." Can be had at the stores and groceries at Brownville and Nemaha City. 271f — We are authorized by the Hon. T. L. Schick, legislator-elect, to announce that he is a candidate for "some good committee." We hope Mr. Schick will make it, and earnestly request Messrs. Howe and Daily to intercede for him, that his towering ambition to "get on some good committee" is gratified.

— This cold weather, when constant hot fires are a necessity, and stoves are crowded with fuel, let every one use the utmost caution to avoid being burned out of house and home. See that your fires and smoke escapes are perfectly safe, and do not trust servants and children to take care that the fire is safe on leaving home, but see to it yourself. A little forethought and caution may prevent vast loss and suffering.

— The closing exhibition of the Brownville high school last Thursday evening was only moderately well attended. The reason that the opera house was not jammed and crammed with people, as is usual on these occasions, was doubtless owing to the small admission fee charged. Free shows draw the best in this city. We rather like Prof. Wilson's plan of charging a fee at the door, as it brings out a respectable audience of only those interested in school matters. The features of this entertainment were all very pleasant, and were creditable to teachers and pupils. Prof. Wilson, the principal, we are pleased to say, is doing good work in the school. That he is the right man in the right place is evidenced by the fact that the scholars like him, and the patrons of the school sustain and speak well of him.

— In our issue two weeks ago we said we hoped Mr. Schick would not permit himself to be used, as a mere tool, to serve the ends desired by Mr. Howe's malicious enemies. But it appears that that hope was not well grounded. The Lincoln Globe recently gave the remark of a gentleman from Nemaha, that "the but of Nemaha politics was in Lincoln," then, that same gentleman also said that "while Schick's candidacy is a farce, he is the best timber we have from Nemaha through which to stab Howe, and that's what we are after." Yet Mr. Schick has the effrontery to say, in his letter to us, that "your insinuations of malice on their part (those handling him) are unjustifiable." There is a map in Nemaha county that believes those "insinuations" are unjustifiable. Run by the way, we do charge, broadly, and unequivocally that Mr. Schick is being used, not as a bona fide candidate for speaker, not as a fit man for speaker, but as an instrument to defeat Nemaha county in securing the speakership. We seldom indulge in insinuations, as Mr. Schick ought to know.

— Be a good, law-abiding citizen, and you will be respected, and your house will not have to be watched, and you'll not get fined.
— Mr. Marion Thompson, an old and much respected citizen of Atchison county, Mo., residing at Phelps, died suddenly last week.
— Call now and pay for your paper and start in on the new year even with the printer, who has served you so faithfully each week, at a cash outlay, in the year that is gone.

MARRIED.—In Brownville, Dec. 23d, 1880, by Elder Chas. Rowe, Mr. Wm. Stinson and Miss Nettie Sedras.
Also, on December 28th, by Elder Chas. Rowe, Mr. T. B. Finch, of Nemaha City, and Miss Lucy Polock, of Brownville.
— The Union House, this city, is the most popular dollars-a-day house in the west, and is receiving patronage as it deserves and merits. It is the best place for farmers to stop to get a good dinner, and every day its tables are crowded. In the desk of the Union may always be found the best brands of cigars. Those who have not put up at this popular hotel are invited to stop and give it a trial.

— Brownville is beginning to realize the fact that Nemaha will make a city after all.—Nemaha Times.
— No more heartily wishes Nemaha continued prosperity than we do. But if the bridge, or transfer, is put at Aspinwall, three miles below Nemaha, will that not "boom" ahead of all? There are no better bunks on the river than at Aspinwall, and bed-rock has been found at a depth of thirty feet, and the surveyors are hunting a line west from Aspinwall. These facts, it seems to us, are not at all calculated to enhance either Nemaha or Brownville very much.

— This issue of THE ADVERTISER shall end all unpleasant or unfavorable notices of our always much esteemed friend, Mr. Schick, unless he deems further controversy profitable to him, and assaults us again. We should not have paid the attention to him that we have this week, only to repel the attack he made upon our veracity and motives in a neighboring newspaper. We have nothing but feelings of kindness for him, notwithstanding his unkind, ungenerous and entirely unjustified and premature attack upon us; hoping he will be an efficient legislator. THE ADVERTISER always has more of pity than spite for a young man who "bites off more'n he can chew."

— Christmas day was pleasant, and passed off very quietly in our city. There was snow on the ground, and the few sleighs and sleds in the city and country were out. There was a Christmas tree at each of the churches, and the children were never better supplied with presents, and the people generally had a merry Christmas. We, however, know of but one instance where the hand of plenty was extended to gladden the homes where luxuries are rare. Our big hearted county treasurer, Mr. Gilmore, supplied several such with their Christmas turkey and chicken. "He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the Lord." Mr. Gilmore never lets an opportunity pass to make such loans, and it is to be hoped that many others did likewise. Those who have not in these holidays made such a loan may yet do so—it is not too late. Deep snow covers the ground, severe winter weather prevails, and in every locality worthy opportunities are to be found—the opportunities of churches and of plenty, and a case of suffering and destitution should go unrelieved. Acts of charity are treasured in the green house of memory, and the blessings of the poor are the choicest flowers in the pathway of life. When you pray for the poor, then go at once and be the agent in answering that prayer. One "square meal" to a hungry child or mother, or a cord of wood to the destitute, is more appreciated than any prayer, however long and loud it may be.

LOCAL PERSONALS.

— Miss Sallie Jenkins arrived home, on a visit, Christmas morning.
— Master Eugene O'Pelt, of Lincoln, is visiting his young friends in this city.
— Elder M. M. Goode, will preach in the Christian church this, Wednesday, evening.
— Mrs. Annie P. Coe spent Christmas with Mrs. Chas. Body, at Fairmont, Nebraska.
— Miss Celia Furnas spent Christmas with her sister, Mrs. W. J. Weeber, at Osceola, Neb.
— Gov. Furnas eat his Christmas dinner with his daughter, Mrs. W. J. Weeber, at Osceola.
— John Thompson, now an employee of the Omaha Herald, is spending the holidays at home.
— Mrs. W. B. Hull and Mrs. H. M. Christy, mother and sister of Mrs. S. A. Osbo, who have been spending several weeks visiting in this city, left for their home at DeWitt on Monday last.
— We met Col. Tom Majors going to Omaha the other day, and he says well, he said a good deal the sum and substance of which was, though, that he was there and meant to be until Nebraska gets her due in congressional honors.—Nemaha Herald.
— Ex-Governor Furnas, of Brownville has been up here for some days on Masonic Insurance business. We were much pleased to see the governor again in a friendly way, and greatly enjoyed a visit from him, during which we talked over many things of the days gone by.—Plattsmouth Herald.
— Mr. and Mrs. O'Pelt, of the Arlington, and their help also, were remembered by Santa Claus on Christmas. The employees of the house, presented the hostess with a beautiful silver perfume case, and the host with a gold headed cane and a gold chain for his watch chain. The proprietor of the house did not forget his help. They were remembered with articles of apparel and a sum of money.—State Journal.

— Mrs. Geo. Louring, living in the southern part of the county, was operated last Wednesday by Dr. B. Bell Andrews for intra-uterine fibroid tumor. This case has been in the hands of several different physicians. Mrs. L. is getting along nicely.—Nemaha Times.
— There is no question that Dr. Andrews is the best surgeon in this part of the country. He has, with his much practice, a experience, and thorough educational qualifications, the very best and most approved instruments and appliances for quick, perfect and successful operations.

HOLIDAY CANDIES.
Largest display and finest variety in the city, opposite Postoffice, at Stevenson's.

— A farmer near Nayone, Nebraska, raised a small crop of broom-corn last season, and his experience rewarded him well. He sold his crop at $55.00 a ton, and his entire crop, which brought him $400.00, cost him, besides his own labor, only about $100.00. We suggest that some of our farmers experiment with a few acres of broom-corn the coming season.

ATLANTA, first-class groceries fresh and nice at S. Seeman's, opposite postoffice.

— Bain wagons the best and for sale by Stevenson & Cross.

Notice
Is hereby given that I will examine all persons who may desire to offer themselves as candidate for teachers of the primary or common schools of this county, at the Court House, in Brownville, on the first Saturday in each month.

"A Happy New Year" TO OUR CUSTOMERS.

Thanking you for your patronage in the past, and desiring a continuance in the future, we are

Respectfully Yours,
STEVENSON & CROSS.

BROWNVILLE, NEB., Dec. 22, 1880.
ED. ADVERTISER.—Answering your favor of Dec. 16 requesting more explicitness, I will say that I referred to the authority which you assumed to withdraw my name in favor of Mr. Howe as candidate for the speakership; I referred your earnest solicitation on that behalf as you well know. Your statement beside being untrue was an injustice to me as well as the friends who have had the kindness to honor me by mentioning my name in that connection. Your insinuations of malice on their part are unjustifiable.

Very Respectfully,
T. L. SCHICK.

ANSWER.
In order to make this matter intelligible to our readers we will first state that in the issue of THE ADVERTISER of the 13th inst. appeared a short article referring to an interview we had had with Mr. Schick regarding the use of his name in connection with the speakership of the Nebraska house of representatives. Soon after the paper was issued we received a note from Mr. Schick which said that he had not "authorized" us to make the statement we had. We at once answered his letter, briefly informing him that we did not regard his authority of much importance in preparing matter for our paper, and to state explicitly what portion of the remarks we had attributed to him at the interview were incorrect. We then waited patiently a week for Mr. Schick to give us the desired information, but it did not come, nor has it yet. On the 22d, just as we were going to press, after he had been six days laboring to make up his mind what to say in answer to our request, he sends us the above letter, which we find in the Sheridan Post. Had Mr. Schick answered our inquiry, even in the evasive manner he finally did, in time for us to publish it with such remarks as the subject demanded from us, it would have appeared in our columns last week.

Now then we will notice Mr. Schick's letter. First we declare that our report of what he said in the interview referred to was true, and that we gave as nearly as we could remember, his very words. Secondly, we assumed no authority to withdraw Mr. Schick's name, for we did not withdraw it, as the paper is evidence. We did not ask him to withdraw in favor of Mr. Howe, as Mr. Schick well knows, and never thought of such a thing from the very first. We simply fact that he did not impress us with the idea that he desired to be a real candidate for the speakership. After Mr. Schick had protested that he had no prior knowledge of the announcement of his candidacy in the Post, that he had no idea as to who was the author of it, and declaring that he did not desire to be, and had no hope of being successful, we then said to him, "well Schick, then let us say in my columns that I am authorized to say that you are not a candidate, and that will obviate the necessity of Mr. Andrews antagonizing you, as you well know I am advocating Mr. Howe, and of course cannot advocate you; and then harmony will be at least apparently prevail in the Nemaha delegation." We further told him, what we candidly believed, that such an announcement would not only vindicate him as a man of commendable modesty, but would be for his political welfare and a credit to his good sense and judgment. Mr. Schick was much mistaken in his opinion as to the object of our sought interview with him. He seems to think it was for an "earnest solicitation" in behalf of Mr. Howe. Nothing of the kind. It was to earnestly solicit Mr. Schick not to make a regular damphor of himself. He is not in Mr. Howe's way at all. Well, after we had made the request for authority to say he was not a candidate for speaker, and advised him the best we could, for his own sake, he hesitated for a brief time, and as he was about to give his consent, Major Daily or Tom Majors who stood behind him, in imagination, shook an imaginary pin into his rump, and spelt it all. And this is what he said—his very words: "No I guess you n—t say anything about it. I don't expect to be elected, but it may help me to a good committee!" And soon as we could recover from the shock of this peculiar announcement to a newspaper man, and a Howe man, we left. Mr. Schick we verily believe is the only legislator in the world that would thus give himself completely away, and then force its exposure in a newspaper. In giving the conversation that occurred between Mr. Schick and ourself last week, we in mercy to him suppressed that part of it, thinking that perhaps his good sense would suggest to him to not compel us to denounce him as a sham and humbug candidate for Speaker, seeking honorable positions on committees through false pretenses. Had we announced, as Mr. Schick charges us with doing, that we had not a bona fide candidate for a committee, it would have been the whole truth.

SANTA CLAUS.

We hope the above named good old gentleman has made the hearts of all the children glad with the gifts which he distributed on Christmas eve, through the agency of grand-pas and grand-mas, and aunts, uncles, and everybody who has a kind heart and reveres the name of the children's patron saint. Santa Claus is a familiar name, and all the young folks expect a visit from him at Christmas time, yet there are many who have no idea who he is, except that he is a jolly good old gray-beard, who comes down the chimney and fills their stockings with candy and nuts. Now we will tell the young readers of THE ADVERTISER something about him. We are indebted to the Dutch for the name of Santa Claus, or Klaus, that being the name of those people for St. Nicolas, and the traditions and good deeds of St. Nicolas are perpetuated in the name of Santa Claus in this country. Well, who was St. Nicolas—Nicolas, as some spell it? We do not know much about him, from the fact that he lived so long ago that his history is incomplete. But there is enough to inform us that St. N., in about the year A. D. 300, was bishop of Myra, in Lycia, a country in Asia Minor. Of his personal history hardly anything is certainly known, and the great popularity of the devotion to him rests mainly on the traditions, both in the West and in the East, of the many miracles wrought through his intercession. He is regarded in Catholic countries as the special patron of the young, and particularly of scholars. In England, his feast was celebrated in ancient times with great solemnity in the public schools. A curious practice, founded upon this characteristic of St. N., still exists in Germany. On the vigil of his feast, which is held on the 6th of December, a person in the appearance and costume of a bishop assembles the children of a family or a school, and distributes among them, to the good children, little presents to please them, while the bad children are punished. A legend of St. N. is that "he supplied three maidens with marriage portions by secretly leaving money at their window, and as his day occurred just before Christmas, he thus made the purveyor of the gifts of the season to all children in Flanders and Holland who put out their shoe or stocking in the confidence that Santa Klaus, or Knecht, Claus, as they call him, will put in a prize for good conduct, before morning. Another legend described the saint as having brought three murdered children to life again; and this rendered him in the patron of boys, especially school boys."

— The people of our state who demand some legislation to correct abuses and extortionate rates, are not in favor of "vesting and injurious legislation," but such wise measures as will be beneficial to the people as well as the railroads.—Seward Reporter.

There—that's good sense—a proposition to be just, to protect the people, encourage capital and enterprise. We are all in favor of that.

STATE MATTERS.

— The State editorial association meets at Lincoln January 12th.
— "Anything to beat Church Howe," is the word with those who are jealous, and envious of his energy ability and successes.
— J. W. Gavitt, of Nemaha county, tells us that he was driving to this place, one day last week, and when within a few miles of town one of the largest grey wolves he ever saw in this country snarled past him within a few rods of his team, unconcerned and with as little fear as a dog. Wolves are getting bold.—Humboldt Sentinel.
— "A squarer, fairer man than Tom Majors does not move in the political circles of Nebraska."—Item.

— A short time ago a young man named Gorman Bowers, Douglas county, was cruelly beaten by another young man named Lorenzo Pickard. Bowers died from the injuries he received, and Pickard is in jail to be tried for murder. Probably all this comes from a few drinks of rotgut whisky.

— The annual meeting of the Otoe old settlers association will be January 2d. The first ballot for U. S. Senator will be taken January 17th, and there must be at least one ballot a day until a Senator is chosen.

— F. C. Frye votes will be necessary to choose a speaker.
— Pawnee county has an old settlers reunion Jan. 1st.

— Miss Lina C. Masters, a teacher, near Elk Creek station, Johnson county, on Saturday morning last week, undertook to cross the A. & N. railroad track just ahead of the express train, slipped, fell on the track and was killed. She was a very estimable young lady.

— The present Christmas is the biggest Christmas on record. We have elected a good man for president, every man can get work who wants it; hard times have disappeared; Tecumseh is growing; corn and hogs are "up," and everybody feels good. Besides all this, the indications certainly point to a new railroad.—Chicago Item.

— The Grand Island Times, regarding the Olive case, agrees with THE ADVERTISER, and in the following, hits the nail on the head:

We never had any doubt as to the guilt of Olive and Fisher and that they would have been hanged, had Judge Gaslin entertained any regard for his official position, and not made it a case of persecution instead of prosecution. Through his intense eagerness to gratify public clamor and gain cheap notoriety, he has been guilty of committing the numerous errors upon which are based the grounds for a new trial. The cry that is being made by a lot of hair-brained idiots to immediately jump at the conclusion that the supreme judges have been induced by money in granting a new trial, is a shame and an outrage upon decency. To intimate that such men as Chief Justice Maxwell can be corrupted or influenced by money, is ridiculous and absurd, and will only be made by irresponsible blatherers who can only judge by what they would do if an opportunity for being corrupted by themselves to them under like circumstances.

— The hymnsters of Thayer county have sold $125,000 worth of baled hay this season, so they say.

— Salem, Richardson county, has organized a coal mine company.

— A hunter of Indianola recently killed 13 deer in one day—in violation of the statute.

— On account of the recent cold weather, grading was suspended on the high grades on the road and work is done mainly on deep ones.—Arapahoe Pioneer.
