JUSTICE TO WOMAN. Men, especially Englishmen and Americans, are as a rule, wonderfully generous to women. Thousands of them labor for their mothers, their wives or their daughters all their life long, and the higher minded are full of chivalrous indulgence for all women. If we count over with speechless indignation the hundreds of men who in our country, yearly beat and trample their wretched wives to death, we must never allow that hideous fact-or any other of the many wrongs of our sex-to bind us to the counterbalancing truth, that the average Englishman means well to women and will make no small sacrifices for them; and there exists at least as many noble and high-hearted men, genuine champions of our sex, in parliament and out of it, as there are wife-beating ruffians in the slums of Liverpool and London.
