

THURSDAY, APRIL 14, 1881.

— Snowed lightly here April 10th.

 — Wagon timber and iron by Stevenson & Cross.
 — Don't go the bottom road to Nemaha—its bad.

 — Early Rose potatoes and nice fresh garden seed for sale by Stevenson & Cross.
 — The wreckers have made it pay within the last ten days. Lots of driftwood caught.
 — Quite a snow storm 12th inst., two inches snow falling, and the weather turned quite cold.
 — Mrs. F. M. Fairbrother and Mrs. C. B. Scott, of Tecumseh, were elected members of the school board.
 — Last Friday evening all the rolling stock on the Neb. R. W. was taken up the road out of danger of the flood.
 — Keystone Corn Planter—the standard light running and accurate drop of the country. STEVENSON & CROSS.

— Court last week was very thin. We need more saloons or something in this county to make our courts loom up better.

— Died near this city on the 10th inst., Mr. Lemon Plasters, aged about 74 years. The deceased was an uncle of Davidson Plasters.

— Sunday last the Nemaha grain elevator and the B. & M. depot stood as it were in a lake of water, and the best way to get to either building was in a skiff. Caused by back water from the Missouri.

— On account of washouts on the railroad on this side the river between here and Nebraska City, and the flooded condition of the country between this place and Phelps, and the washouts on the K. C. St. Joe & C. B. for the past week our mail facilities have been cut off, and we became real anxious to see a fresh daily paper.

— The third quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church, Brownville, will be held next Saturday and Sunday. Sermon by the presiding Elder at 7:30 on Saturday evening and quarterly conference. Love-feast at 9:30 on Sunday morning. Divine service at 10:30 and the Lord's supper; Sunday school at 2:30 p. m. and meeting again at 7:30. The Rev. H. T. Davis will be present all the time.

E. J. WILLIS, Pastor.
 — Our city council adjourned from its first regular meeting in April to meet Monday evening, 11th inst., but as councilman, Hackney, Body and Gilmore were absent on that occasion, there failed to be a quorum, and no business was transacted. There will probably not be another meeting of the council until the first Monday in May, the time of the next regular meeting, when the vote of the recent election will be canvassed and the new officers installed.

— Those who propose to open saloons in this city say they have no doubt that if they can procure license under the old law for six months or a year they will hold good for the time specified—that they have procured such legal advice as to warrant them of the validity of such a course. This probably is true of the counsel applied to, but they should not be too sure, for equally as eminent legal gentlemen hold a contrary opinion. And we are credibly informed that from casual remarks made by Judge Pound of the district court and Judges Cobb and Maxwell of the Supreme court, they are evidently now inclined to hold opinions that will be disastrous to those undertaking to run saloons under laws and ordinances which the new law repeals. Now, as to our individual belief in this matter, it was our first impression that licenses taken under the old law, before the new law is law, would be good for the time stipulated; but will be very well pleased if we find out that our ideas about that particular matter were and are erroneous.

— M. J. Fenn, of Peru, was in the city Friday.
 — Ab. Meutz, of Peru, spent Thursday night in Brownville.
 — Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hulburd came up from Humboldt last Thursday.
 — Hugh McVicker, representing the Peru Herald, was in town Friday.
 — Miss Mary Campbell will leave in a few days for Leavenworth, Kansas.
 — Miss Zora Matthews has returned from her visit to relatives at Thayer, Kansas.
 — Capt. Bailey says it will be impossible for teams to get to Phelps for several days yet.
 — S. C. Winters, David H. Mercer, E. L. Taggart, and Lyman Green were admitted as members of the bar at the late term of District Court.
 — We received a pleasant call last Tuesday evening from our old friend and fellow townsman, J. S. Hetzel, of Brownville, Neb. Mr. H. is traveling agent for the great clothing manufactory of Thos. M. Argall, 326, 328 and 330 Broadway, New York. Mr. H. is an old friend of days gone by, and it was a pleasure to meet him.—Greenleaf (Kan.) Journal.

The "Live Yankee," editor—a good one too. All right brother Bliss—we hand you the ADVERTISER. Glad to hear by Het. that you are prospering. May your shadow and your paper never grow less.

— The ice of the big gorges above Sioux City and Yankton reached this place Thursday morning of last week, and for forty-eight hours the river was literally jammed with huge cakes of ice from two to three feet in thickness. The water began to rise with the appearance of the ice, and continued to rise gradually until Monday morning, when it remained stationary until Monday night, and then began to only perceptibly recede. The water rose—feet above low water mark, running out of the banks of the river at low places, more or less flooding the bottom lands. The lower portions of Scott City, opposite Brownville, in Missouri, were covered with water, but most of the houses, being on the higher ground, while surrounded with water, remained dry, and while the inhabitants were considerably scared and inconvenienced, none that we know of moved away, and there was rejoicing when the rise ceased and the fall began. It is hoped that this is the biggest river we will see here for a long time. On account of the width of the river bed the water did not spread over the bottom lands as it did in several instances in previous years, but the water has not been so high before in twenty-five years.

— The river has been making sad havoc of the bottom below the city. Where the first State Fair of Nebraska was held is now the main channel of the river. The old Zook homestead is destroyed, Rosdell's place is gone and the Hoadley field rapidly going. Mr. Abraham Penny after a residence of twenty years or more on his river farm, has seen it crumble away little by little, year by year, until now he is compelled to get out of house and home, the river getting dangerously near. It seems that the relentless old muddy will sweep the bottom entire.

— Ike Sears got off a good joke on the people while the big ice was running. He was up above Peru with some of his pals hunting and jumping onto a cake of ice; was carried out into the river and down stream in a hurry; and the sight of him in such a perilous situation created quite a sensation with the people along the shore. At Peru they saw a man on a cake of ice but could do nothing to rescue him. They however put the telegraph in operation, and dispatched to Brownville that "A man has just passed this point on a cake of ice—look out for him." But Ike was rescued before reaching this city by his crew who kept not far behind him.
