Maj. J. W. Pearman, of Nebraska City, "Big Medicine Man" of the Otoes, an old timer of the State of Nebraska, and a politician of the stem-winder and stem-setter pattern, has been appointed to a clerkship in the Beatrice land office at a good salary.—Express.

The Inter Ocean, in noticing the death of Hon. Henry S. Lane, of Indiana, gets the Lanes mixed, and speaks of the deceased as having run for Vice President on the Breckenridge ticket in 1860. That bourbon candidate was Gen. Joe Lane of Oregon. Henry S. Lane was as true a Republican as ever lived; and the Inter Ocean will not fail to do his memory justice. He died in the 80th year of his age.

We take occasion to look over the "Physicians' Record," in the county clerk's office and find the following names registered therein:

Our friend John Lewis, of Aspinwall precinct, called last Thursday and paid for THE ADVERTISER two years in advance. John is a "brick," and we are always glad to see him.

Torchlight: Our good looking cousin, Mr. G. W. Fairbrother, of Brownville, is spending a few days in Tecumseh. Geo. is the Tenor singer of the Fannie Arnold Company.

Mr. — Rowe, son of Eld. Chas. Rowe, arrived at home from the western part of the state, Sunday evening. He came by team, and says that Tecumseh is the liveliest town he struck on the route until he arrived at Brownville.

Davidson Plasters has been very sick for over a week, and it was thought that he would not recover but he is now getting better, and we trust will soon be all right. He has been removed to town, in order that he might be near his physician, Dr. Holladay.

Henry Shiffer, the boss miller, of Homewood's mills—and his wife were in the city Saturday. Mrs. Shiffer treated herself, we noticed to a splendid new spring Bain wagon, from Stevenson & Cross. Mrs. S. drives a "spanking" team and knows just how to handle the ribbons. Henry will be mighty pleasant now so as to get an invitation to ride occasionally.

Miss Fannie Arnold, and company repeated their musical entertainment, with some slight omissions and additions, at Tecumseh on Thursday evening last. One of the best audiences that ever assembled in their fine opera house, greeted the Brownville folks, and Miss Arnold expressed to us her unreserved appreciation of the many courtesies shown her and her companions, and for the very cordial manner they were received and entertained by the people of Tecumseh. We copy the following from the papers of that city. The Chieftain says:

The Fannie Arnold troupe, of Brownville, gave us a delightful entertainment on Thursday evening. Miss Arnold's vocalization is excellent and she is a careful artist. The attendance was large and it is due the troupe to say that the concert was very much enjoyed. Miss Arnold fully met the expectations of those who have been led to believe that she was a singer second to none who have visited Tecumseh. Her voice, herself, were all in her favor, and she will be warmly received when she comes again. Her rendition of the Waltz song from "Pirates of Penzance," was capital and gained her much applause. Mrs. Bailey and Miss Hitte sang difficult music acceptably, while Miss Furnas, Mr. and Mrs. Fairbrother, Mrs. Cross and Miss Smith, sang and acted well. The "Robin Redbreast" sang by Miss Alice Hitte was prettily rendered and well received. Mr. Huddart's make up as a darkey was stunning. We are glad to see them over here and are not disposed to criticize at all, and we hope they will come again.

The Torchlight says:

Thursday night, as per announcement, the Fannie Arnold Concert Company, of Brownville, composed of ten persons, gave an entertainment in the Opera House to a large audience. Our columns being full, we cannot give the members of the company an extended notice, as we would like to do, and of which they are deserving, but will only say, the audience was delighted with the music, both vocal and instrumental. . . . Miss Fannie Arnold, of Brownville, as a singer, is "with surpassing glory crowned," and has not her equal in the west. At the concert, Thursday evening, all persons present were charmed with her splendidly cultivated voice—and the outbursts of applaud that followed every song she sang, was evidence that the audience appreciated her talent.

Sunday School Picnic.

The London Sunday Schools gave a picnic Saturday the 18th of June, in Mrs. Loveless' maple grove. By ten o'clock, regardless of the roar of distant thunder and the flash of vivid lightning, the fences were lined with teams, and the grove was nearly filled with people. The exercises opened with prayer by Prof. McKenzie, of Peru, and a song by the schools. The Methodist school, superintended by J. H. Peery, came first on the programme; this was followed by the Christian school. The children in both schools acquitted themselves admirably, and their selections were good.

Mrs. Harding read a real interesting paper on the Mysteries of Christianity. All the exercises were attended by excellent music.

Next on the programme was dinner, and a more bountiful repast no one would wish to sit down to—pies, cakes, strawberries and cream, chicken, pickles, ice-cream and lemonade, saying nothing of the bread, butter, cherries, jellies, &c.—who would want a better place to spend a few hours.

In the afternoon there were a few short addresses, some good music and considerable miscellaneous talking. The whole occasion was an enjoyable affair, and the people of London cannot receive too much praise for their hospitality and interest in good things.

We can but say in the words of many others, "London is the place for good times and plenty to eat."

a full line of all kinds of Fourth of July goods call on McGee & Moore.

"Calvert" is the name finally adopted for the new B. & M. town west of Nemaha City. Lots are being sold at sensational prices—as is always the case in the beginning of new towns having fair prospects—and there is no lack of buyers. We have not been on the ground yet, but as everybody says "Calvert is going to spring into existence with an astonishing boom," it must be so. There are two or three lumber yards being established, and lively preparations for building, and the establishment of various kinds of business are going on.

Call for Homewood's flour. Try it—and you'll use no other.

If you want any kind of job work done, plain or fancy, blanks, bill heads or letter heads, horse bills, visiting cards, wedding cards, etc. We have one of the best job offices in the west, and will do your work promptly and cheap.
