Window Shades at Nickell's.
Wagon timber and iron by Stevenson & Cross.
For first class groceries call on T. L. Jones.

New goods arrive daily at J. L. McGee's.

Furniture and tinware repaired by Stevenson & Cross.

Steamer "Lady Lee" passed up the river Friday.

Finest stock of wall paper ever in Brownville at Nickell's drug store.

Headquarters on dress goods at J. L. McGee's.

Want butter and eggs. Highest price paid by Stevenson & Cross.

Best Bread in the city at Furman & Palmer's—and don't you forget it.

The Copson broom wagon, of Hamburg, was supplying our city with brooms Tuesday.

Best Bread in Brownville at the new Bakery of Furman & Palmer—always fresh and clean. Give them a trial.

For buntings go to J. L. McGee's.

H. S. Degman, blacksmith, near Bratton's, West End. All kinds of smithwork done promptly and warranted. 2w2

We notice that Hon. J. H. Broady is to deliver the oration at Sheridan on the 4th. We'll insure a good one.

For the boss sets of glass-ware go to J. L. McGee's.

We are having intensely hot weather. Since Sunday last thermometers showed daily 90 to a hundred degrees in the shade.

Clark, the murderer of his wife and Mr. Sargent, has made no demonstrations lately, owing perhaps to the fact that he is kept chained in his cell.

New line of gents ulsters just in at J. L. McGee's.

The comet, in the north at which people have been gazing for the past ten days is said to be traveling at the rate of 300,000 miles a day and has a tail 4,000,000 miles long.

Ted. Huddart says he expects a carload of Marsh No. 4, Combined Reaper and Mowers in a few days, and asks the farmers to call on him for a good machine on reasonable terms.

This city was visited by a first-class, unclean, unsophisticated, beggarly this week. He would accept anything that was offered him, and wouldn't even refuse an invitation to take a drink.

Fancy ribbons at J. L. McGee's.

Section 10 of the liquor law inflicts a fine of $50 for selling or giving liquor to an habitual drunkard. A poor young wife, with a baby in her arms, who has a husband that is an habitual drunkard, was consulting a lawyer a few days ago as to what she should do for protection against the saloons which sold her husband liquor. She said the saloons had been getting about all the money her husband earned, and that she and her babe were absolutely destitute of food to sustain life. She was advised to go in person to the saloon keepers that are robbing her and her child, and beg them to desist from letting her husband have liquor, and taking the money that should buy bread. THE ADVERTISER advises that poor woman, and all others so unfortunately situated, to either have the saloon keepers arrested for selling her husband liquor, or else bring suit against them and their bondmen for damages. In that way she may make short work of them and protect herself. And that is probably the only way, for those excesses of communities who stock their farms and grow fat upon the bread and meat of the children and wives of drunkards can only be checked off by the rigid lashing of the law that they break every hour.

Stoves, furniture, and queensware by Stevenson & Cross.

LOCAL PERSONALS.

Col. Tom Majors was in the city Thursday.

L. H. Stewart, of Des Moines, Ia., is in the city.

Hon. Wm. Daily was in town Friday afternoon.

Miss Celia Furnas is visiting her sister at Ocola, Neb.

Hon. T. L. Schick has been on the sick list the past week.

Wils. Majors and wife, of Peru, visited this city Thursday.

Jeff. Dryden now wears the policeman's star. Stand from under!

Hon. Church Howe came in Tuesday and took the train for Omaha.

Miss Belle Eberly, of St. Joseph, Mo., is visiting friends in this city.

Jo. Huddart, of the Glen Rock Mills, was in town Thursday last.

W. S. Johnson, of Lincoln, special agent N. Y. Life Insurance Co., is in the city.

Jarvis S. Church, and Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Tucker, of Bedford, were in the city Tuesday.

J. L. Roger, commercial tourist, of St. Joe., and Edward Mitchell, of St. Louis, are in town.

O. J. Stowell, Attorney at Law, Sheridan, called on us Monday. See his card on first page.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Howe, of Bedford, were among the arrivals at the Marsh House Tuesday.

The "gay and festive" Jim Butts, after a pleasure trip to St. Louis and Topeka, has got back.

Geo. W. Taylor, of Hamburg, Iowa, friend of S. A. Osborn, Esq., was in the city several days last week.

Dolen has a Fourth of July Window that is the noblest arrangement in town, and makes his oranges, lemons, candies, nuts, etc, look delicious.

We were pleased to make the acquaintance of Dr. Joshua Miller, of the Kansas City press, Tuesday, who is in our city, visiting relatives and friends.

Fred. August is kept pretty busy these warm days, keeping down the dust in our streets. He says a little rain now and then would be very acceptable.

Misses Nellie and Minnie Lett, of Lincoln, are visiting friends in Brownville. They say they like Lincoln real well, but Brownville seems more like home to them.

Will. Conyes, with J. L. McGee for several years past, left this city Monday. He goes to Brownville, Mo., where he has accepted a situation in a large dry goods establishment.

We notice that Dave Campbell is selling a great deal of farm machinery. He has the best house of the kind in the city, keeps the best machinery and implements, and is the man to deal with.

Miss Belle Osborn, who has been visiting with her brother's family in this city for some time past, left Friday for her home at Tabor, Iowa. She was accompanied by her little nephew, Master Clyde, son of S. A. Osborn, Esq.

Sam. Winters is rising rapidly to official prominence. He was admitted to the bar at the last term of court; the commissioners made him a Justice of the Peace last Thursday, and on Friday he was appointed Police Judge by Mayor Bausfield.

Hon. C. M. Hayden and wife arrived in this city from an extended tour through the western part of this state and Kansas. Mr. H. purchased a half section of land about four miles from Concordia, in Cloud Co., Kansas, and will return in a short time and make that their home.

S. A. Osborn, Esq., is spending much of his time now at the new town of Calvert; having been employed by the town company to attend to the transferring of town lots and other business at that point. We congratulate the town company in securing Mr. Osborn's services, as a more active energetic and capable man could not be found.

In our list of registered physicians last week, Dr. S. W. McGrew's name did not appear amongst the registered. This was correct according to the record then, as the Doctor, when he registered, failed for some cause to report himself a graduate, which he is. He has since completed the registration and the book shows him to be a graduate of the medical college of Cleveland, Ohio, in 1868.

LONDON ITEMS.

To the readers of THE ADVERTISER, greeting.

To any who may ask, as my friend Prof. P—n did, where is Mrs. H.: is she dead? I will say in the words of the great Webster, "I still live." To those who say, have you and THE ADVERTISER parted company? the answer is, nay.

"We have long been friends together, and who should part us now?"

To those who ask, do you agree with THE ADVERTISER on the Garfield and Conkling "unpleasantness?" Answer, I do not. I do not see how the president could have done different, or better under the pressure of circumstances over him. To have acted otherwise would have been to play into the hands of Conkling, and surrendered all to his insolence, and ambition. The unfoldings of time will make plain where the trouble lies, and the remedy, too, we trust.

"What do you think of the new version?" Well, I think it an improvement on the old version, decidedly, in many ways. The Christian need not fear that his faith is to receive a shock. The unbeliever need not rejoice, he has gained nothing. The one who expected to see his creed, stand out prominently, in the revision will be the one disappointed. The revelation, in the gospel of glad tidings, exhibits a narrow way, running through a broad field, filled with dangers to the spirit of man, this narrow way is illuminated with a light from the spiritual world. The holy spirit from the Eternal Presence, guides the one, who walks in this way. Jesus the elder brother of humanity, has traveled over this road in mortal form, knows all the perils of the way, but has ascended triumphantly to the heavens, and has received a power, from on high, to conduct safely over this way all who will follow him to the beautiful city. The revision obscures more of this revelation. The great truth sounds out clearly "The soul that sinneth it shall die." The wages of sin is death. Again we hear the voice of the anointed son calling wondering souls, into the way of Life Eternal. Without doubt, the change among the words hell, hades, demons, devils, will modify the belief in the world of spirits, in spiritual beings, and in the idea of punishment in the place of departed souls, for which change I for one am devoutly thankful. This must suffice answering questions in this letter.

Respectfully,

JENNETTE HARDING.

These Tops are readily attached to any seat with seat irons and lifting rails. For sale by

B. F SAUDER, Manufacturer Dealer in HARNESS, SADDLES, &c. Brownville, Neb.

The Rows are of second growth Ash finely finished—are trimmed with the best rubber cloth, stationary quarters, back and side curtains complete. All iron neatly japanned. The Improved Continuous-shifting Rails which are furnished with each Top are of a recent tent, and far superior to any other.

600 yards Ingrain Carpet at 50 cents per yard at Dolen's.

We are pleased to make a note of the fact that the

this city has acquired under the management of J. G. Russell a popularity that it never had before. By the day it is only $1.50, yet its real substantial accommodations are first-class—comfortable rooms, good beds and excellent table fare with an agreeable landlord and landlady makes those headquarters a pleasant place for the average customer. Farmers, call and get your dinner for 25 cents.

For bargains in all kinds of goods see Dolen's International.

Calvert's boom is Sheridan's, as well.—Post.

Then what do you want to leave Sheridan for? Why your proposed treachery to Sheridan last week, when the business men had to nip it, and compel you to stay in Sheridan or sacrifice their patronage? Why say in your paper that "Calvert's boom is Sheridan's, as well," when outside you say the reverse? Who are you trying to soft soap?—the business men of Sheridan? You are a wretched outfit to make the best of you.

The Rock Port Journal incidentally mentions that "the seductive cloth peddler is abroad in the land, and if he sells to you, you can bet you are swindled."

Prunellos, currants, prunes, pitted cherries and everything in the grocery line cheap at J. L. McGee's.

Dissolution Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between Alex. Snow and Joseph Clearwater, proprietors Brownville livery stable, is dissolved, by mutual consent, Joseph Clearwater retiring from the firm. All accounts payable to Alex. Snow who will continue the business at the same place.

ALEX. SNOW. JOSEPH CLEARWATER.

BARB WIRE.

Notwithstanding our large trade in barb wire last season, 1880, we have again commanded the trade, and sold over 350 spools since Jan. 1st, 1881. This fact alone proves the excellence of our wire. We handle the following first class licensed wire: The Lohet and Baker & Scott's patents. Call and see us. WELLS BROS. & JORDAN.

The boss flour is made by Henry Shiffer at Home-wood's. Call for Gold Coin.

Senator Sessions, of the New York legislature, has been indicted for bribery by the grand jury, and held in $3,000 bonds.

A man was fined under the new law, Tuesday, for being drunk. The Slocumb law fixes a fine of $10 and costs for being drunk and every man who gets drunk is liable to be arrested and fined that amount. If the law in this respect should be strictly enforced the police officers would have plenty of paying business.

Dolen's is headquarters for 4th of July goods. Boys, call and see.

A press of matter crowded out the items of "Late" this week.

Fruit jars at J. L. McGee's.

The Comet has Come, So has Judkin's mammoth stock of furniture.
