- During the past week the improvement in the condition of President Garfield has been constant; and we are pleased to say to our feaders that while he is not yet out of danger, there are reasons, based upon the healthful condition of the wound, for the strongest hope that he will entirely recover.
- The fact is Mr. Howe has been long making favor with the railroads. Sheridan Post.

Yes, Mr. Howe has worked, and is working, to induce the great railroads summer goods at cost. to come, to invest their millions within our lines, to rib our county with their steel bars, to bless our people. Mr. Howe is and has been doing this while the idiots of the Post are whining bout railroad monopolies and "railroad cappers." Now that the "monopolists" stand aloof, and Sheridan is likely to be left out in the cold, they in Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Groceries common sense as to wish that they too had been "making favor with the railroads."

LONDON.

- Weather, -Jupiter must have let Planeton have the car of the sun again, 95 in the shade.
- As reporters failed, last week, to tell of the fourth, (all ate too much, likely,) - Tom Stocker last week sold to we will say for this neighborhood, that B. M. Bailey about 40 head of very about every one went to Sheridan, and fine hogs, and received $5.30 per 400 many other neighborhoods went too, cwt, for them. A very good price, by from the appearance of things there the way. Twenty-six of stocker's hogs such a big crowd. As for our self, we went, but arrived there late, not too late however, to partake of an elegant din--Uncle Fred. Swartz starts this her at the table of Day and Dundas. As to the oration of Mr. Broady, all sylvania, and from there will go to have had a chance to judge of its ex-Germany to see his old home. Mr. s. cellence, those not there as well as those has not been out of Nebraska for 26 who heard it. And if any one has years, does not owe a dollar in the failed to see in it a production of much world, and thinks he is entitled to a merit, why they must be blind, morally and intellectually. But we presume no such one can be found

Stowell, Mercer, Winters and Howe added each a dainty side dish to the more substantial centre ones, in the intellectual feast. All very good.

Harvesting has begun. Barley is good, oats fair, wheat not so good in many places.

 Although not chronicled in due time, yet it is not too late to say that was a daughter that was born unto Mr. and Mrs. Facemire, and that it was a son that was born unto Jasper and Alice McKennie, just a few weeks ago.

- Two persons were baptised at London last Sunday, by Elder Thos, Edwards. The subjects were Eugene Winters, and Nellie Young. As they have "risen to walk in a new life," may they so form each a character that will give them an entrance into the beautiful city, when their earthly pilgrimage

"One sinner destroyeth much good," That a cloud of gloom has been thrown over this nation because of the terrible act of that human monster, Charles Mr. Beach is recently from Ottawa, terror stricken in viewing that fearful crime and bow in reverence before the mystery of that providence which permitted it let us write our prayers to the controller of events, the arbiter of destiny of all his creatures, for the recovery of our beloved President; and that we may be saved from crazy politicians, and religious fanatics, and conceited fools, and dogmatic raving of idiots.
