Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure of spermatorrhoea or Seminal Weakness. Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to marriage, etc., also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

NEBRASKA ADVERTISER

The New York Tribune gives this short history of the word stalwart: "Blaine invented it; Conkling appropriated it; Guiteau spoiled it."

But the fun of it is Guiteau was a full fledged half-breed, after the Tribune's own style and stripe.

Now that the Senate sun has been blotted out and a mediocre established in that body corresponding with the luminaries of its co-ordinates, it is to be hoped that the benefits promised to the nation and the party as the results of the convulsion will be realized.

When you hear a man abusing lager beer as course stuff, only fit for a fat Dutchman to drink, it is a sign that he has sworn off for a week. Neb. City News.

The News man ought to swear off for a week, even so short a time would let the old machine wind up a little.

A little daughter of Mr. Wm. H. Seward was baptized last week at Auburn with water which was brought from the River Jordan by Secretary Seward many years ago. Exchange.

Well, did that touch the spot any closer than common water?

Next Thursday the Virginia campaign will be formally opened by the meeting of the Democratic convention at Richmond to nominate a state ticket. It is probable that the nominee for governor will be Connally F. Triggs, of Washington county, a young man of illustrious family and untarnished Democracy. St. Joe Gazette.

"Untarnished Democracy" -- then Mr. Triggs is not a Democrat at all. Such a thing is impossible.

Nothing so exhibits the change in management of the Lincoln Globe, as an editorial item the other day to the effect that Dr. Collins is exactly the right man for the reform school at Kearney. This is the first intimation of the kind we have seen in any paper of the state. Parmer Enterprise.

Well here's another—knowing Dr. Collins well, we are confident a better man for the position could not have been found in the State.

The district in which the James boys live, in this State, has a Republican Congressman. Mail.

The district in which the James Boys live has a Democratic majority of about 3,000. Mr. Van Horn, the present incumbent, owes his election to the bull-headedness of his two Democratic opponents—Crisp and Allen. It is characteristic, however, of Democratic organs to deceive, and in that line the Mail takes the lead. Rockport Journal.

The Tribune says the death of the President now would not make so much difference as it would three weeks ago, for the public has come to know the Vice President better. Yet General Arthur is the same man now he was three weeks ago. The inference to be drawn from what the Tribune says, therefore, is that the incendiary course and narrow partisanship of such sheets as the Tribune, might have caused trouble, if the President had been shot dead by his assassin. New York Commercial Advertiser.

When anything is said about the Brownville Advertiser's Church Howe "stalwartism," it flies off the handle. Seward Reporter.

And the Reporter seems to be capable of saying "anything" whilst a true and worthy journalist will say only the truth. It has got into a habit of lying in every reference it makes to us, and we tell it so, plainly; and that's the sort of flying off the handle that hits and hurts the sycopantic scribler of the Reporter.

While we think Mr. Conkling made a mistake in resigning, we have always admired him for his great talents, true Republicanism, unswerving fidelity to his friends, and honesty of purpose. In all the salary grabs, star route steals, jobbery, &c., that has disgraced Washington and in which so many of our leading men have been involved, Senator Conkling's name has never appeared, and he retires for the present from public life with a clean record. The differences between him and President Garfield could no doubt have been amicably adjusted had it not been for the officiousness of outside parties who worked to make the breach wider instead of healing it. Seward Blade.

This is the view that all fair minded and unprejudiced people take of the matter.

Lightning and Wire Fences.

There have been many fatalities from lightning in Nebraska this year, more perhaps than in any former season. Particularly with stock has the electricity played sad havoc. A wire fence does not afford much protection in a driving storm. But the animals imagine it does, and proceed accordingly to take refuge there. However, it is a position as unsafe from lightning as it is unprotected from the storm. We imagine a short time ago, an account of the killing of sixty-five head of sheep by a single stroke of lightning, and last week, in Dixon county, this state, eight or ten head of cattle were killed by a single bolt. In these cases the animals were seeking protection from the storm alongside the wire fence. In various portions of the state there have been many casualties among the stock in like manner, and it is getting to be a question whether, in view of the losses farmers and stock growers are sustaining, it would not be better to do away with wire fences altogether. Omaha Republican.

A year or two since, Rev. Kern, of Nuckolls county, lost nearly his entire herd of blooded cattle, worth several hundred dollars, in the same way. We have also noticed several other accounts of similar casualties. Indeed, the danger from such accidents is one of the principal drawbacks to the wire fence. Hastings Nebraskan.

KANSAS CITY, July 27—2 p. m.—It has been discovered that the wife and child of the notorious Frank James were guests of the St. James Hotel, in this city, from the 10th to the 19th of this month, and that Frank James was at the hotel, with his family, registered under the name of H. D. Wilson, Louisville, Ky., immediately before and after the train robbery at Winston, in which he is charged with taking active part. James, alias Wilson, left the hotel on the 12th and returned on the 17th. On the 19th the party left for Denver. It is alleged the head of the family was seen in conversation at the Union depot with Mrs. Samuels, mother of the notorious desperadoes, and that Mrs. James, alias Wilson, was recognized by parties that knew her as Miss Annie Ralston in Independence, Mo., where James married her in 1874.

It is nothing new for the James boys to visit Kansas City with impunity. They have been doing that for years. They could not play that successfully, as a habit, in any town outside of the State of Missouri.

Contradiction.

NEW YORK, July 26.—The statement made by a Washington paper that ex-Senator Conkling had declared his intention of withdrawing from politics and devoting himself to the practice of law is pronounced by his friends in this city to be untrue. Mr. Conkling has been retained as counsel in several important cases, and has been engaged for a week or two in preparing arguments, but his friends say that he has not withdrawn from politics, and does not intend to do so.

The Inter Ocean whispers this warning:

A cablegram from Glasgow reports the arrival there of a cargo of wheat shipped from St. Paul by way of the Mississippi barge line, via New Orleans. This is the first arrival of a direct consignment, and the pioneers are very jubilant. While there is no immediate danger to Chicago from this barge line, it is a warning to the railroad companies not to crowd the shippers too much in the matter of rates.

Stark County, Ohio, will learn after a while that it is not safe to give the control of public money to Democrats. Its County Treasurer, a Democrat, has been discovered to be $11,700 behind in his accounts, and his predecessor is in the Penitentiary for twelve years for getting away with upward of $50,000. Inter Ocean.

The question what degree of heat is necessary to destroy trichine in swine's flesh is of importance. A German expert says that if the pieces put into a pot to boil, are large, trichine in the middle are certain not to be killed by such degree of cooking as they are usually subjected to. As long as meat retains the pink color known as "rare," it has been insufficiently cooked to destroy the parasites. Smoking and pickling the meat are of no use whatever.

The price of wheat is 25 per cent higher than it was a year ago, and the aggregate crop will be about 25 per cent less in amount. So the farmers will receive as much for the crop as they did then. Inter Ocean.

$5,000 Reward.

ST. LOUIS, July 29.—Gov. Crittenden has issued the following proclamation, which will be published throughout the State, and 15,000 for general distribution:

STATE OF MISSOURI, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, July 28.—Whereas it has been made known to me as Governor of the State of Missouri, that certain parties whose names are to me unknown, confederated and banded themselves together for the purpose of committing robberies and other depredations within this State, and whereas said parties did on or about the 8th of October, 1878, stop a train near Glendale, in the county of Jackson, in said State, and with force and violence take money and other express, and whereas, on July 18, 1881, said parties did stop a train upon the line of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad company near Winston, and with force and violence did take, steal and carry away the money and other express matter being carried thereon; in perpetrating the robbery last aforesaid, the parties engaged did kill and murder one Wm. Westfall, the conductor of the train aforesaid, together with one John McCullough, who was at the time in the employ of said company on said train; and whereas Frank and Jessie James are indicted in the district courts of divers counties of the State aforesaid for the murder of John W. Shutz; and whereas the parties engaged in the robberies and murders aforesaid, and each of them, have fled from custody and absconded and secreted themselves; therefore in consideration of the premises, and in lieu of all other rewards, offered for the arrest and conviction of the parties aforesaid, or either of them, by any person or corporation, I, Thomas J. Crittenden, governor of the State of Missouri, do hereby offer a reward of five thousand dollars for the arrest and conviction of each person participating in either of the robberies or murders aforesaid, excepting the said Frank James and Jesse James, I hereby offer a reward of $5,000; and for the conviction of either of the parties last named, participating in either of the murders or robberies above mentioned, I hereby offer a further reward of five thousand dollars. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great seal of the state of Missouri. Done at the city of Jefferson City, this 28th day of July, A. D. 1881.

(Signed) THOS. J. CRITTENDEN,
Governor.

MICHAEL K. GRATH, Sec'y of State.

Mr. House positively asserted that they would not go to Calvert, that the only route beside the one by Sheridan is by Johnson, and assured us that so far as he was able to decide, we had no reason to fear for our welfare if all their requirements were promptly met. It now remains with our farmers, and we trust that all will see that the price of real estate will be considerably enhanced by the advent of so strong a road as all know Gould's to be, through our county, and imagine that they will follow the example of those who have already consented to donate the right of way across their farms. Post.

Then Sheridan isn't dead sure of getting the road after all, we are to understand. That little if seems to be in the way.

Can Sheridan and Calvert afford to kick each other when the best interests of the centre are considered? Let the Courier correctly represent matters at Calvert and the Post will accept it and do likewise by Sheridan. Post.

"An open confession is good for the soul," and doubtless the soul of the Post feels better after the above plain admission that it has been lying.

It is rumored that Manager Touzalin, of the B. & M., has been offered the position of manager of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe. We do not wonder at the offer. Mr. Touzalin is a man of extraordinary abilities, and a gentleman of rare personal qualities, and is one of the foremost railroad men of the country. But, we very emphatically hope he won't go! We can't afford to lose him. Hastings Nebraskan.

The Omaha Telegram has the Bee in limbo. Rosewater by fraud and falsehood obtained the contract for the city printing and the Telegram exposed the little shister reformer.

Atchison Globe: Col. Everest is authority for the statement that Jay Gould has not bought the Atchison & Nebraska road, and that the Missouri Pacific extension will go forward to completion.

Mary Kane, of Brooklyn, kindled the fire with an oil can, and she has gone to join the angels, as thousands have done in the same way before her.
