Queensware! Queensware!

Do not buy any until you get our prices. The immense stock that we have just received, in original packages from England, will convince you that we can save you money by buying of us.

STEVENSSON & CROSS.

—D. C. Dovel has purchased the grocery store of O. P. Dovel, and removed it across the street, into the Roy building. He has a nice stock of groceries, flour, teas, candies, nuts, etc., and the finest stock of cigars in town. Give him a call.

—The boss watermelon was presented to this office on Tuesday by John Knobs. It weighed 21½ lbs., and made a delicious feast for the entire force.—Seaward Reporter.

You call such a dwarf a "boss"? We waded into one the other day that weighed thirty-eight pounds. What do you think of that, Thomas? Stevenson & Cross have a wagon load, now lying at their door that will pull down from 20 to 35 pounds. And we have the best corn in the state down here.

School commences Monday, Sept. 5th, Prof. A. R. Wightman, principal; Miss Emma Morgan, assistant; Mrs. T. H. Dey, grammar department; Miss Emma Schantz, higher intermediate; Miss Anna McDonald, first intermediate; Miss Emma Clark, Secondary; Mrs. F. J. Ebricht, Primary; Mrs. Caroline Johnson, Primary. Prof. Wightman is reputed an efficient educator, and the corps of teachers first-class. We congratulate Brownville in again securing the services of Mrs. Ebricht for the Primary department.

LONDON.

—Weather cooling down somewhat.

—We have been receiving for a number of weeks the Greenleaf Journal. It is a lively little paper, and the editor, J. W. Bliss, is a man well known about this neighborhood, he is a peculiar eccentric piece of humanity. There is generally much good, and sometimes evil in such people. His leading thought is "just let everybody mind their own business and he will mind his." That is right brother Bliss, but it is the hardest matter in the world to make people see it. We wish him success with his paper.

—Mrs. Warner, of Red Cloud, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Winters of London. A little son and daughter are with her.

—Mrs. Joseph Root starts soon for a visit to her friends in Iowa. May she have a pleasant visit.

—Mr. Jaspot, and Mrs. Alice McKenney are both very sick, with fever.

—Mr. and Mrs. Facemire, buried their little boy Saturday, Aug 29th. In this severe trial may these young parents be comforted with the assurance, they will again meet their darling.

—Infant child of Warren and Sallie Manning is very sick.

—Basket meeting at Christian Church next Sunday.

—[These items were intended for last week, but were received too late for publication.]

—A fine rain fall last Saturday and Sunday was so cool and pleasant.

—Notwithstanding the cold, wet spring and hot dry summer, the corn looks very well and the prospect is a fine yield.

—Most of the London sick people are getting better.

—Thomas Miles is now very sick.

—Little Murry Bacon is sick.

—Sam, Winters has come from Brownville to the residence of his mother and is sick.

—However some may not like the political career of Hon. Church Howe, all must admit his kindness to the afflicted, and the aid given to those strangers in a strange land, when sickness and want overtook them, speak well for him. Oh yes, Shakespeare, "How shines a good deed in a naughty world."

—Willis Hodgkinson is very sick.

—We notice by the Schuyler Citizen published at Rushville, Illinois, that the violators of the liquor law are being "put through" in a very commendable manner; and three or four druggists who hold high positions in society and some of their leading members of the church, have come to grief and disgrace. One of the latter seeing no escape, plead guilty to sixteen counts of an indictment, which cost him, costs included, about $300. He was placed under bonds not to repeat the offense. Another plead guilty on ten counts; another on five counts; another firm of three persons—one a doctor and the other two druggists—were each fined $50 and costs, and sentenced to 20 days in jail. Another was fined $50 and given 20 days in jail. All have their places of business closed until heavy bonds are given to not repeat the offense. There are parties in Brownville who are well acquainted with these illit whisky sellers, and know them to have been of the very highest social standing. They have a good liquor law in Illinois and at Rushville they have the nerve, it seems, to enforce it, irrespective of the wealth or the quality of the cloth or the cost of the church pew of the transgressors. Nerve is what is wanted to enforce law, and conscientious judges, juries and officials who are no respecter of persons.

—The Chieftain preaches the following sermon for the good of Tecumseh ministers: The best, and most fitting plan for ministers, is to pursue the "straight and narrow way, which leadeth unto the life eternal." A conscience void of offence against God and man, is a fitting jewel in the life and conduct of a minister of the Gospel.

—State Journal: "A minister of the gospel, residing at Tecumseh, is at the bottom of a big scandal sensation in that borg. There is a woman in the case, and the woman's husband got after the divine with a double-barreled mountain howitzer, and the divine fled to the valley, where he hid himself in the brush.

—Several trips into the country during the past week have convinced us the talk about a poor crop of corn is greatly exaggerated. Many fields will go fifty bushels per acre, while others are not so good.—Arapahoe (Furnas County) Pioneer.

—Born: Sunday evening, Aug. 21st, to Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hubbard, a bouncing boy baby. Pa and ma doing well. Dr. Stewart attending physician.

DIED:—Friday Aug. 19, 1881, RAYMOND, infant son of C. R. and M. E. Facemire.

But two short summers had passed over the head of the little one, when the icy hand of Death grasped the frail body, and the little lips just learning to lip the name of papa and mamma, were closed forever.

"Calm on the bosom of thy God, Young Spirit, rest thee now. Even while with us thy footsteps trod, His soul was on thy brow.

Just to its narrow house beneath, Soul, to its place on high, They that have seen thy look in death, No more may fear to die.

Lo! are the paths and sad the howlers, Whence thy sweet spirit is gone; But Oh, a brighter home than ours, In heaven is now thine own.

50,000 brick for sale

by H. H. Dolen.

—We are pleased to make a note of the fact that the

UNION HOTEL

this city has acquired under the management of J. G. Russell a popularity that it never had before. By the day it is only $1.50, yet its real substantial accommodations are first-class—comfortable rooms, good beds and excellent table fare with an agreeable landlord and landlady makes these headquarters a pleasant place for the average customer. Farmers, call and get your dinner for 55 cents.

The best place in town to trade is at Dolen's.

City Market.

The attention of the citizens of Brownville and vicinity is called to the neat market of at Body's old stand. Everything pertaining to the shop is neat and clean; meat is kept sweet and nice in the ice chest, cuts to suit customers, are handsomely made by expert butchers, and everybody is promptly waited upon. The choicest beef and other meats always on hand. Try the city meat market.

—There is not one chicken this year to where there were ten formerly. They should be left alone for another year.—State Journal.

If the Journal's premise is correct its conclusion is good. And if true of prairie chicken it is certainly more so of quail.

—Notice.—I have sold my interest in the firm of Furman & Palmer, and desire to return my sincere thanks to the people of this city and vicinity for their patronage in the past.

W. R. FURMAN.

—Fighting a constitutional law in the courts will prove about as costly a job for the offenders as for the county. Somebody forgot that when they wanted the license put at $100,000.—Telegram.

—S. C. Winters, Justice of the Peace, has opened an office over the postoffice—the room formerly occupied by T. L. Schlick. 101W

—We have received a copy of the neat premium list of the Furnas county fair to be held September 7th and 8th.

Wicked for Clergymen.

"I believe it to be all wrong and even wicked for clergymen or other public men to be led into giving testimonials to quack doctors or vile stuffs called medicines, but when a really meritorious article, made of valuable remedies known to all, that all physicians use and trust in daily, we should freely commend it. I therefore cheerfully and heartily commend Hop Bitters for the good they have done me and my friends, firmly believing they have no equal for family use. I will not be without them."

REV. —, Washington, D. C.

Brick! Brick!

Wm. Alderman has just opened a kiln of new brick, near the old brick yard at Brownville. These brick are of an excellent quality, and are for sale in large or small quantities at reasonable rates. If you want brick call and see Alderman's, and ascertain prices before you purchase.

Boarding House.

Opposite the Sherman House Brownville, Neb. E. J. HAWKINS, Proprietor.

At this Boarding House, though not a hotel, Travelers and boarders are always used well. The proprietor and lady are jovial and kind. And the waiters obliging as you'll commonly find.

They set a good table, with good victuals on it.

And have a safe place for your hat and your bonnet.

You can have a good meal any time in the day.

And get the full worth of all that you pay. If you are fatigued, they have seats that will ease you.

And if you are hungry, their victuals will please you.

If you think you'll do better at some other place, You will find upon trial that that's not the case.

And now at the close, permit me to say, If weary or hungry, just call round this way.

And I am quite sure it will never be said, I am sorry I came by any wise bond.
