J. L. McGee.

—Another storm of a mixture of rain and snow on the afternoon and night of the 20th, and we have mud till you can't rest.

—One of our dealers has his little sleds marked "For Sail," 75 cts. Navigation in mud, snow and promiscuous slush is now open.

—Members Temple of Honor, your presence at the meetings of the Temple is earnestly solicited. Good meetings these times.

—The First National Bank, Brownville, will be closed Monday, December 26th, for Christmas, and Monday, January 2d, for New Years.

—The Presbyterian sociable will be held at the residence of Mrs. Hoadley next Thursday evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

—Mr. James Scoville, of Nemaha City and Miss Nellie Woodward of Atchison, Kas., were married, in the former place, on the 15th inst., by Esquire J. P. Crother.

—A correspondent of the Nemaha Times takes the Granger one in the short ribs for its sneaking stab at Gov. Furnas. It merits rebuke from everyone, and is receiving it from everyone who believes in decency and fair play.

There never was a better chance to dress up cheap—dress goods, trimmings and everything at cost at J. L. McGee's.

—We neglected last week to note the fact that O. P. Dovel had purchased the grocery store of D. C. Dovel. O. P. has a good stock of everything in the grocery line, cigars, tobacco, etc., and will be pleased to have you call. See card.

—Considerable lawing these times. Four cases last Thursday—two before Judge Stull and two before Esq. Hubbard. Before the latter was brought a Mr. Gagan, of London, who was placed under bonds to keep the peace toward everybody in general and Wm. Campbell especially.

—J. B. Finch, while at Plattsmouth last week undertook to thrash the two editors of the Journal. The reports as to the result of the matter are contradictory. Some say he did and some say he didn't. The best evidence we have, however, says that J. B. did not get licked, but had to pay a fine. Finch became exasperated at a slanderous editorial in the paper.

—Married, Tuesday 20th inst. at Nebraska City, Mr. Wm. Willing, the hardware man, now of Calvert, and Miss Phemie Barker, of the former city.

William took the train Monday morning, after getting his wedding cards into his pocket, saying to our ADVERTISER men, "Now, please don't say anything about this—see if you can't keep quiet for once." But we are so anxious to tender William our congratulations; and what's the difference anyway, when everybody will know it in the course of nine or ten months. The happily married couple will take a brief wedding tour east, and then return and resume business. Peace, joy and contentment ever be with you, William, and your fair bride.

LOCAL PERSONALS.

—Judge Church, of Bedford precinct, called Tuesday.

—Hon. John L. Carson spent several days in Omaha last week.

—Mrs. Schick, county superintendent, was in the city Friday.

—Dr. John McPherson, of Republican City, arrived in the city Friday last.

—Our esteemed friend, Henry Shiffer was in the city Saturday, and gave us a short call.

—Alfred Crane came up from St. Joseph Saturday and will spend the holidays at home.

—Miss Cora Clark, Mrs. Buchanan and Mr. Fred. Hoover, of Nemaha, were shopping in Brownville Saturday.

—Mrs. Ebright will organize a class in Elocution the fore part of January. And that will be a grand school for the young ladies and gentlemen of the city, for all have confidence in Mrs. E's ability to instruct them.

—On Saturday evening we enjoyed a social hour or so at the residence of Dr. Crim, Nemaha City, and heard some good vocal and instrumental music by Miss Viola Crim, Mrs. Nellie Scoville, nee Woodward, and Mr. Swift McCandless.

—Clem Howe, of Bedford, informed us that he was through gathering corn; that he had been at it about a month, and that it yielded 50 bushels to the acre.—The fun comes in at 50 cents a bushel. But Clem markets his in the shape of hogs and cattle.

—Geo. Lannon, Henry Andrew, Mrs. Spencer and Mrs. Geo. Andrew went up to Nebraska City, Monday, as witnesses in the trial of Frank Durant, arrested in this city last week charged with poisoning a child at Nebraska City. We have not heard the result of the trial.

—Mr. C. W. Butler, Monday last, residing two and a half miles west of Brownville, received a thorough bred Merino ram from McCulloch's noted sheep farm at Lee Summit, Missouri. Mr. Butler is not yet an extensive sheep grower, but a successful one, and is constantly improving his stock by the addition of the best blooded breeders.

—The residence of Mr. Sloss, at the head of North Avenue, burned down on Sunday morning last. It was caused by a defective flue. But little of the household goods were saved. The family are poor people, and this calamity renders them nearly destitute. They are good, respectable old people, and deserve any charity that may be bestowed upon them.

Deputy United States Marshal Culp assisted Marshal Bierbower in making the arrest of the notorious nihilist, August Arndt, yesterday in Omaha, and remarked to one of our reporters that they had in his opinion, the best of evidence that the assassin of Colonel Smith is at last secured. We trust that it may be so and that justice may be done. A generous reward has been offered and we don't know of anyone we would rather see get it than our friend Culp.—State Journal.

Now is the time to clothe yourself cheap, don't fail to call in time at J. L. McGee's.

GRAND SHOW.

You want to step in as you pass and see the old stand-by, JOSEPH SHUTZ. He has been fixing up—painting, graining, re-arranging his magnificent stock of jewelry, clocks, silverware, etc., and additions that make his establishment the LEADING JEWELRY STORE of Southeast Nebraska. He has, without doubt, the best and largest stock of fine jewelry and clocks, ever brought to Brownville. We can't enumerate, but invite everybody who wants a nice or rich article for a Christmas present, to call and see Joe Shutz.

He has the largest stock of silverware ever brought to the city, and will sell everything as low as it can possibly be sold.

Take in a lot of Boots, shoes, hats, caps, furs, etc., while you can get them at bed rock prices at J. L. McGee's.

—It is an easy matter for the Granger and Post to say that the ADVERTISER changes political positions, for it is so easy for them to lie. But to demonstrate and verify their assertions that we changed front regarding the late election they cannot do. It is less than a year since the Post stultified and humiliated itself by that sudden flop on the speakership, and were they other than idiots would be mum on the subject of flopping.

Annoyance Avoided.

Gray hairs are honorable but their premature appearance is annoying. Parker's Hair Balsam prevents the annoyance by promptly restoring the youthful color.

Great Slaughter Sale now going on at McGee & Moore's.

We are closing out our entire stock of winter goods at cost for cash only. Don't fail to go to McGee & Moore's.

A man named August Arndt, a Prussian by birth, is under arrest and in jail at Omaha for threatening to kill Judge Dundy for deciding a case against him. There is some pretty strong circumstantial evidence tending to show that he is the assassin of the late Col. Watson B. Smith, and this is the real cause of his being held, while the case is being worked up. Arndt it seems from accounts of his past career, is bad enough to commit any crime in the calendar, but we do not believe he murdered Smith. We have heard of no sufficient motive or provocation for even as bad a man as Arndt to do the deed.

Dressmaking.

We would respectfully inform the ladies of Brownville and vicinity that we are prepared to do dressmaking at our residence, corner of fifth and Atlantic streets, (old Jim Dye residence.) Solicit a share of your patronage, and will take great pride in giving new styles and good work.

MRS. W. A. COOK,
MISS JOSIE JORDAN.

Renew Your Lease.

There are times in every one's life when energy fails and a miserable feeling comes over them, mistaken for laziness. Danger lurks in these symptoms, as they arise from diseased organs. Parker's Ginger Tonic will restore perfect activity to the stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood, and renew your lease of health and comfort.—Advocate.

Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Marblehead line company was held in Parlor 1, of the Tremont house, the following gentlemen being present:

M. T. Greene, of Chicago.
Frank Colpetzer, of Omaha.
John M. Byrne, of Kansas City.
H. P. Foster, of Lincoln, Neb.
Henry F. Cady, of Nebraska City.
John Bratt, of Leavenworth, Kan.
S. H. Fullerton, of Beloit, Kan.
Fox Winde, of Newton, Kan.
Samuel Guerrier, of Emporia, Kan.
Thomas Williamson, Wichita, Kan.
George Pratt, of Winfield, Kan.
George Cross, of Brownville, Neb.
Robert Fullerton, of Des Moines, Ia.
Robert Pierce, of Topeka, Kansas.

The deliberations of the company were necessarily of a private nature, but it was ascertained that the company are highly pleased with their investment and have decided to double their capacity, and to continue to enlarge their facilities for turning out lime as rapidly as is required by the demands of business.

The quarries owned by this company are inexhaustible, and the stone is of the finest quality found in this country, yielding 94 per cent. of pure lime.

The meeting has a special significance from the fact that the members of the Marblehead line company also constitute the Chicago lumber company. It is probable, therefore, that the lumber company will virtually have the disposition of the entire product of these valuable kilns.—Quincy Whig, Dec. 15th.

When buying Christmas presents for your family, don't forget your better-half, but call on D. C. Jordan and buy one of his admirable Pneumatic Clothes Washers. You can't spend $5 in no way that will benefit you so much. It has been tested in this vicinity for months, with universal praise and commendation from all. It fills the bill; just what you need and what you will have eventually, and why not buy now.

The churches will observe Christmas in this city as follows: Preaching at the various churches on Sunday at the usual hours. Christmas trees at Christian and Episcopal churches Saturday evening at 7 o'clock; and at M. E. and Presbyterian churches on Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

Christmas goods, silk handkerchiefs, hoods, knit jackets, all at cost. Now is your time. J. L. McGee.

Feeble Ladies.

Those languid, tremulous sensations, causing you to feel scarcely able to be on your feet; that constant drain that is taking from your system all its elasticity, driving the blood from your cheeks; that continual strain on your vital forces, rendering you irritable and fretful, can easily be removed by the use of that marvelous remedy, Hop Bitters. Irregularities and obstructions of your system are relieved at once, while the special cause of periodical pain is permanently removed. Will you heed this?

We regret to observe that ex-Senator Paddock did not quite make it, the gentleman selected to be assistant treasurer being Thomas C. Action, superintendent of the New York assay office.

Society Belles.

On account of its remarkably delicate and lasting fragrance society belles are loud in their praises of Florestan cologne.

Benjamin Harris Brewster, the great Philadelphia lawyer takes a place in the President's cabinet as Attorney General. And the star route thieves are not happy.

Try the California peaches at J. L. McGee's and you will have no other.

"When a man takes advantage of his poor neighbors who cannot pay their taxes and buys their land at tax sale, and then writes to poor men whom he has owed for years that he is 'penniless' and cannot pay a dollar, it looks as though he was a liar, doesn't it? When that same man claims a tax deed in the name of some member of his family so as to conceal his property, doesn't it look as though he was also a fraud?"—Granger.

We learn that the latter referred to one of the most estimable citizens of Nemaha county, and who has done more to advance the interests of Nebraska than any other one man, the "latchet of whose shoes" the editor of the Granger "is unworthy to unloose."—Nemaha Times.

The Granger's allusion is a low, cowardly stab at ex-Gov. Furnas and his daughters, unprovoked and untruthful. It adheres to its usual style of hinting being a physical and moral coward, it is utterly impossible for the editor to speak like a man and say what he means, as that way would leave him no chance to prevaricate, or hole to crawl out of; and being of the snake family, he can take refuge in an exceedingly small hole. For several weeks the ADVERTISER has been publishing notices that tax deeds would be applied for—one by Miss Celia Furnas, the other by Mrs. Weeber, Gov. Furnas' daughters. Those ladies bought the lots named, upon which taxes had accumulated amounting to about the full value of the lots. They bought them with their own money which they had earned teaching school, and their father has no claim upon or ownership whatever in them. But what does all this matter to such a character as the editor of the Granger, who is at once dishonest, vindictive and malicious. His allusion to the Governor was mean enough in all conscience, but his dark hint that his two eminently respectable daughters are parties to a fraud, certainly indicates a disposition too mean to be described by words. If the editor of the Granger had a spark of sensitive manhood left in him, in view of his exceedingly bad reputation as a business man, he could not be induced to venture upon perpetrating homilies on honest dealing, thus inviting criticism of his own record.

—The Guiteau trial still goes on, and there are no indications of an end to it soon. It has been bad for the assassin during the past week, the testimony of many experts going to show that he is not nearly so insane as his lawyer desires to have appear. The testimony of the witness Gen. Reynolds, who visited him in jail directly after he shot the President, wipes out his pretentious gabble about being "impelled by the Deity to remove the President." Being under the impression that Reynolds was his friend, he spoke of his shooting the President, using the word "assassination," and did not think of the "removal" and "Deity" theory until the 19th of July. That testimony ought to settle his case for the gallows, if nothing else does.

Don't fail to get prices at J. L. McGee's before buying, and you will be astonished to see goods so low.

Card to the Public.

The undersigned, residing near Palmyra, Neb., adds his testimony to the efficacy of Mrs. Monahan's treatment of sore eyes. He suffered from granulated sore eyes for five years; has been under various treatment for about one year without benefit; Mrs. Monahan took charge of the case about four weeks ago, and at this time his eyes are free from inflammation and pain, sight better than for more than a year, and he doubts not that by proper care, a permanent cure will be effected. CHARLES L. TERPENING.

The hundreds of hearty, and healthy looking men, women and children, that have been rescued from the beds of pain, sickness and well nigh death by Parker's Ginger Tonic are the best evidences in the world of its sterling merit and worth. You will find such in almost every community.
