Morton, in honor of Mrs. Woodruff's eightieth birthday.—Mrs. Ruth Tally, Mrs. Mary Baldwin, Mrs. S. James and Mrs. N. Pearman.—Nebraska City News. Hon. T. E. Calvert, the godfather of our flourishing little city, was at the Holdrege last Tuesday evening, in company with John Fitzgerald, of Lincoln, and Hon. Tobo Castor. They were here on business connected with the completion of the road to Tecumseh.—Calvert Courier. Geo. B. Moore claims the Granger has the largest circulation of any paper in the county. Will he allow any two disinterested persons to count the subscription lists of THE ADVERTISER and Granger? This paper has over two hundred and fifty more subscribers than the Granger has, and Geo. B. Moore knows it. A NEW GAME.—The latest game out is called the "printer's delight." It is played thus: Take a sheet of writing paper, write your name and address thereon, fold it around a bank note large enough to pay all arrearages and a year in advance for your newspaper, and forward it to the editor. It is a game that ought to become popular. Try it.—Ee. We have received an invitation to attend the ball and banquet to be given at the Marsh House, Brownville, on the evening of the 22d inst. That hotel has a wide reputation for the elegance of its entertainments, and the names of the committees who have the present affair in charge is a sufficient guarantee that the reputation will be fully maintained.—Calvert Courier. Dated January 12th, 1882. JOHN S. STULL, County Judge. IN STATE OF MOSES S. COLLINS, DECEASED. In the County Court of Nemaha county, Nebraska. In the matter of allowing the final administration account of Mary D. Collins, executrix of the estate of Moses S. Collins, deceased, notice is hereby given that March 6th, A. D. 1882, at 10 o'clock p. m., at the office of the County Judge of Nemaha county, Nebraska, in Brownville, Nebraska, has been fixed by the court as the time and place for examining and allowing said account, when all persons interested may appear and contest the same. Dated February 4, 1882. JOHN S. STULL, County Judge. LEGAL NOTICE. Sarah H. Swan, defendant, do take notice that on the 20th day of January, 1882, Louis M. Swan, plaintiff, herein filed his petition in the district court of Nemaha county, Nebraska, against said defendant, the object and prayer of which is to obtain a divorce from defendant, on the ground that defendant has been willfully absent from plaintiff for more than three years last past, without any just cause. Plaintiff prays for a divorce that he be divorced from defendant. You are required to answer said petition on or before the 6th day of March, 1882. Dated January 29, 1882. LOUIS M. SWAN, By his attorney, J. S. STULL. LEGAL NOTICE. Nemaha county, Neb., Jan. 23, 1882. To Eliza M. Hill, and all the tax assessors that the following described real estate, viz: The north half of the northeast quarter, containing 80 acres, and also the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter, containing 40 acres, sit in section fourteen, township four, north of range fourteen east, situated in Nemaha county, Nebraska, and taxed in the name of Eliza Mellor, was on the 4th day of November, 1878, sold for the delinquent taxes, 1877, the eighty acre tract for seven and 80-100 dollars, and also taxes paid by her for the years 1878, 1879, 1880, 1881. Also on the forty acre tract the sum of four and 23-100 dollars, and all the taxes accruing thereon to date. And that the time for the redemption of the said property, above described, from such tax sale, will expire on the 25th day of May, 1882, at which time the undersigned will apply to a tax deed. J. ARVINS, CHURCH, Owner of said certificates, by his agents, OSBORNE & TAYLOR. GEO. R. SHOOK, County Surveyor, HILLSDALE, NEBRASKA. All calls for surveying promptly attended to. 31-44. Harness Shop PERU, NEBRASKA. A. J. Williams, Proprietor. He has saddles, bridles and halters of all sorts, and that they are all right to one who has a putte. He has good harness too, both single and double. You can have what you want without any trouble. He has collars and harness and whips and all such. Of good harness all he has ever so much. Indeed he keeps all that certifies to his line, in all of which goodness and quality combine. He works good material and does his work strong. And you need have no fear that there's anything wrong. For this is a matter we would have understood. All that's made in his shop is warranted good. If your horses or mules are subject to fret, he can keep off the flies with a splendid fly net. And if they are skittish and inclined to do wrong, he has lines that will hold them and his bridles are strong. If your harness needs mending you need not get scared, but bring them to him and have them repaired. He'll make or he'll mend as you may desire, and do it as well as where prices are higher. If you want anything made or mended come here. About prices and styles you have nothing to fear. To do his work right he takes special care, and we are quite sure his prices are fair. Now to farmers and horsemen we have this to say. Williams gives the full worth of all that you pay. At some other places you may do pretty well. But you'll find at this shop they are bound to excel. CUSTOMER.
