Church Howe also puts his views in print from which we gather that he favors the action of the regents, and we extract as follows:

"I believed then as I do now that the removal of either one of these factions and the retention of the other will not remedy the evil, and until there is a complete cleaning out from chancellor lots with his usual volubility. A Liar Condemned by His Own Words.

That George B. Moore, of the Granger is a most unscrupulous and reckless liar everybody, who has ever had any business dealing with him in Brownville knows well, and as we have on many occasions in the past proved him to be. An article in his paper last week is simply a tissue of falsehoods conceived in the editors own illshaped and debauched brain. His own words shall condemn him. He begins his article with the following broad and unqualified assertion:

'A few weeks since Church Howe took a bill of sale of the ADVERTISER office which also included the Calvert Courier office. Thus he became owner of the office, material, the good will of the paper, the subscription list and all that pertains to the ADVERTISER as a newspaper.'

There, the Granger transfers everything to Church Howe, leaving G. W. Fairbrother & Co. with nothing whatever pertaining to the ADVERTISER to "sell, barter or give away." But be-hold! and, listen to the following paragraph in the same article following the one quoted above: "The editor visited Lincoln last week and urged the B. & M. Town Company and the railroad men to buy him and whatever influence his paper may have.

And then in another paragroph in It must be remembered that, owing the same article it is stated that we did sell to the land company. Thus George B. Moore contradicts himself-gives bimself away-demonstrates that he lies and lies intentionally, but hasn't sense enough to lie consistently-for if we sold out slick and clean to Church Howe, we had nothing left to sell to other parties.

A Foolish Mistake.

Don't make the mistake of confounding a remedy of merit with quack medicines. We speak from experience when we say that Parker's Ginger Tonic is a sterling health restorative which will do all that is claimed for it. We have used it ourselves with the happlest results for Rheumatism and when worn out by overwork. See adv. -Times.
