General Grant has been placed upon the army retired list.
The 5 cent Garfield postage stamp will be ready to lick March 1st.

Milford, Neb. is to have a new paper, to be called the Seward County Democrat.

Vifquain of the Lincoln Democrat retires from that paper and a Mr. Watkins takes editorial charge.

A supposed horse thief, named Layney, was recently captured in Kansas, who had been dealing in horses at Fifth Neb.

The State Journal says several B. & M. conductors have recently been dismissed from the service, one of whom was "Hutch." No reasons given.

At Plattsmouth last week during a drunken quarrel over a gambling debt, a young man named Charlie Dowers shot, mortally it is thought, John Mayall.

President Arthur has appointed Roscoe Conkling Associate Justice of the supreme Court of the United States, vice Judge Hunt, resigned. In this case the office certainly seeks the man. It is doubtful if Conkling accepts.

Thos. Miller, who has hitherto been second assistant general freight agent of the C. B. & Q., at Chicago, has been promoted to the position of general freight agent of the B. & M., vice Harris, resigned. Mr. Miller's headquarters will be at Omaha.

Ex-Senator Sargent of California has received the appointment of minister to Germany. This is quite a disappointment to his friends who were confident that he would be Secretary of the Interior. Kirkwood, it is now believed, will be retained.

The congressional committee on contested elections have adopted resolutions that neither Cannon nor Campbell are entitled to a seat in Congress as Deligate from Utah, and that the seat is vacant. That beats Cannon and all other polygamists for Congress.

Church Howe is getting his batteries in working order in Nemaha County, and we may soon expect to hear the thundering toes all along the line. "Howe for Governor."—Beatrice Independent.

We see Mr. Howe frequently, and he never said "Governor" to us; and having no better evidence than items from a distance, like the above, from those who are not apt to know anything about it, we are unable to say whether he is a candidate for governor or not.

The Tecumseh Chieftain says: Some recent developments go to show that the plans of the B. & M. are, to build the Hastings and Arapahoe cut-off, the line from Chester into Kansas, the line from Pawnee into Kansas, the line from the river to Beatrice, now being graded through this place. A line is to be built from Kansas City to Topeka, from Topeka to Pawnee. Between this new route and the old one via Plattsmouth and Lincoln, lies the new route through Tecumseh, which will be the main line from Chicago to Denver, crossing the Missouri at Aspinwall. It is entirely probable also that the Topeka and Pawnee City line will be extended to Tecumseh. The line now being graded into town will be extended to Beatrice.

Miss Lydia Bell will give an entertainment in the Normal Hall, Peru, Neb., under the auspices of the Philomathean Society. The entertainment will take place Saturday, March 4th. Doors open at 7 o'clock. Exercises will begin at 7:30. An admission fee of twenty-five cents will be charged at the door.

In Calvert.

THE NEBRASKA ADVERTISER in becoming an institution of Calvert, bows with friendship and dignity to the people. The ADVERTISER needs no introduction to the people of Nemaha county, for it is "an old settler," but having changed its base of operation will say something by way of "going upon the record." Why is the ADVERTISER here? The prime cause is, our faith is here. The reason of our faith is in the fact that two competing lines of railroad, owned by two of the strongest and most enterprising railroad corporations in the world, cross here at the center of this, the "Garden County" of Nebraska. These facts are sufficiently convincing to us, that here, at the center of the county, are the inducements, advantages, incentives, that will enlist the confidence of capital and labor to build, not only the town of the county, but a real city, live and progressive. When the last effort to move the county seat was made, the ADVERTISER used the substantial argument that at that time the people did not know where the county seat should be located, and that they could not know until the B. & M. railroad, then in prospect, should traverse the county east and west. We believed then that when that road should be built the people would select a point centrally upon it and make it the county seat. In keeping with this view of the matter, when that road had reached the center of the county and Calvert was located, we without delay established a printing office here. Many others, impelled by this idea "took stock" in the new town. All this was done when there was no hope or thought of another great thoroughfare spanning the county centrally north and south. But the M. P. has come, and its coming makes certain that which was only probable before. We say "makes certain" upon the belief that Calvert and Sheridan, with adjoining town plats, will not falter, through trivial selfish considerations, in consolidating their interests, at least so far as the general "boom" at the center is concerned, by a wiping out of division lines. If this shall be done the sanguine expectations of the people and of the towns will be certain and speedy. The county seat and rapid growth of Calvert and Sheridan, or their comparatively tardy growth, depends upon the amount of genuine wisdom exercised by the citizens, and especially the town companies or proprietors, who control in a great measure, the destiny of these towns. It will be the duty, and therefore the business, of the ADVERTISER to do, whatever a local paper may, to prosper this locality. Other towns in the county will find us fair and magnanimous, as we have always been—ready at all times to say any good thing we know of them, and if we do not know, we ask them to write for themselves, as we always welcome local news and decent correspondence to our columns.

The Apportionment Law.

The following is a copy of the congressional apportionment bill which has become a law:

Be it enacted, etc., That after the 3d of March, 1883, the House of Representatives shall be composed of 325 members, to be apportioned among the several States as follows:

| | | | |
|---------------|----|----------------|----|
| Alabama | 8 | Mississippi | 7 |
| Arkansas | 5 | Missouri | 14 |
| California | 6 | Nebraska | 3 |
| Colorado | 1 | Nevada | 1 |
| Connecticut | 4 | New Hampshire | 2 |
| Delaware | 1 | New Jersey | 7 |
| Florida | 2 | New York | 34 |
| Georgia | 10 | North Carolina | 9 |
| Illinois | 20 | Ohio | 21 |
| Indiana | 13 | Oregon | 1 |
| Iowa | 11 | Pennsylvania | 28 |
| Kansas | 7 | Rhode Island | 2 |
| Kentucky | 11 | South Carolina | 7 |
| Louisiana | 6 | Tennessee | 10 |
| Maine | 4 | Texas | 11 |
| Maryland | 6 | Vermont | 2 |
| Massachusetts | 12 | Virginia | 10 |
| Michigan | 11 | West Virginia | 4 |
| Minnesota | 5 | Wisconsin | 9 |

SEC. 2. That whenever a new State is admitted to the Union, the representatives assigned it shall be in addition to the number of 325.

SEC. 3. That in each State entitled under this apportionment number to which such State may be entitled in the forty-eighth and each subsequent congress, shall be elected by districts composed of contiguous territory, and containing as nearly as practicable an equal number of inhabitants and equal in number to the representatives to which such State may be entitled in congress, no one district electing more than one representative: Provided, That unless the legislature of such State shall otherwise provide, before an election of such representatives shall take place as provided by law, where no change shall be hereby made in the representation of a State, the representatives thereof to the forty-eighth congress shall be elected therein as now provided by law. If the number, as hereby provided for, shall be larger than it was before this change, then the additional representative or representatives allowed to said State under this apportionment may be elected by the State at large, and other representatives to which the State is entitled by districts as now prescribed by law in such State; and if the number hereby provided for in any State be less than it was before the change was made, then the whole number to such State hereby provided for shall be elected at large, unless the legislature of such State have provided or shall otherwise provide before the time fixed by law for the next election of representative therein. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Brownville Items.

—Church Howe was in the city Wednesday night, and went up to Lincoln Thursday.

—The ADVERTISER presses, type and fixtures of the office was hauled to Calvert last Thursday, by the teams of Burger and Boyce.

—T. C. Hacker, postmaster, is circulating his petition for re-appointment. Everybody signs it. The time for which he was appointed is up in July, and he is taking time by the forelock. No other applicant for the place that we know of.

—Parties who attended the Washington birth day ball at the Opera House say it was well attended and a very pleasant affair throughout.

—A youthful drunkard of the city, not yet out of his teens, was pitched out of Fraker's saloon Thursday morning, heels over appetite. We thought it a good shove—for the boy's good.

—Mrs. H. C. Lett and her son Willie were in the city last week.

—Robins and blue birds still insist that spring is at hand.

—Not long ago Cy. Kauffman had a sick horse. He called on George Hatchett and Phil. Fraker, both eminent "hoss doctors," to go and see what was the matter with his horse. The horse doctors, after critical and scientific examination, and looking at his tongue and lifting his tail, unanimously said, "glanders—no cure—dangerous disease—awful 'ketchin'—shoot him." And thereupon Kauffman had his horse killed. Well, in a few days another of his horses was taken sick. Hatchett and Fraker were called again, and again they diagnosed the case to be "glanders—shoot her." This animal being a favorite and valuable mare, her owner couldn't bear the idea of killing her; he hesitated, came to town and consulted Luther Robinson, who knows beans from peas, and knows something about the diseases of horses, although not professing to be an accomplished veterinarian. Robinson looked at the mare, and said she was yet worth a ten acre lot full of dead horses, and that he could cure her sound in a week or two. Which he has done. So the impression is engraven upon our mind that even horse doctors do not know as much as they think they do.

—Capt. A. R. Davison, cashier of the First National Bank, started for a three weeks' visit in Pennsylvania, on Thursday last.

—District court 28th inst.
—Stevenson & Cross, we notice, are opening a fresh invoice of bird cages, hanging and table lamps, table casters, etc.

—Snow gone long ago, leaving mud in abundance.
—G. W. Fairbrother, Sr., will continue to reside in Brownville.

—Mrs. Wightman, wife of the principal of the Brownville high school died on Monday night, 27th ult.
—The river was full of ice and slush Tuesday morning, hindering the ferry boat for a short time.

MANY persons will take no medicine until prostrated on a bed of sickness. This is folly. Nature always calls for assistance when needed to throw off impurities. With our habits of life, it is necessary to render this assistance. PRICKLY ASH BITTERS will not force nature, but acts mildly and renders the assistance required. Try them.
