—Reference given to Hon. John H. Gear, Ex-Gov., John Zaiser, Mayor, Burlington Daily Hawkeye, Daily Gazette, and Merchants' National Bank, of Burlington, Iowa. Frank Hatton, of Washington, D. C., and First National Bank of Chicago, as to reliability of the Centennial Mutual Life Association.

—The Centennial Mutual Life Association, of Iowa, now offer the people of this State safe and reliable insurance at less than one third the rate charged by the old line companies. The Association is organized under the laws of the State of Iowa, with a paid up capital of $200,000. During the past five years over $400,000 have been paid to beneficiaries. The association practices upon the principle of a careful selection of risks and economical management. The cost of carrying a policy outside of the sum charged for expense is strictly governed by the actual losses experienced.

—"The Western Historical Company," of Chicago, have now a corps of writers in Nebraska, gathering facts, statistics, incidents, etc., preparatory for the compilation of a complete history of the State to the present time. A detail of the corps are now writing up Nemaha county. Messrs. W. O. Stetson and H. L. Wood, engaged in this work, arrived in Calvert Wednesday morning, and immediately proceeded to take in the history of the town. The historians above named called on THE ADVERTISER, and we were pleased in making their acquaintance. Their work is done with manifest ability, system and thoroughness. They are old hands at the business, having published nearly one hundred like histories, and before us are many testimonials of their efficiency and correctness. We have looked over the list of subscribers for their book of Nebraska and find that nearly all of the old settlers and best and most intelligent citizens are subscribing for it. We think all will be pleased with the work.

The following appeared in the Omaha Republican last week as an advertisement:

FOR SALE

If the Good Templars of the state were as prompt to pay their bills, as they are to berate all who are not of their way of thinking, this office would be more happy. One Gen. A. H. Bowen as representative of the state organization induced us to print the proceedings of their state convention, and there is due us from said Bowen and said state association $35.00. We are now ready to receive bids for said claim.

This coming to the notice of John S. Minick, Grand Worthy Chief Templar of Nebraska, he immediately wrote the Republican that he would give one hundred cents on the dollar for any and all proper claims the Republican could present against the grand lodge of Good Templars, for proceedings printed or any other printing. Mr. Minick reminded the Republican that the "Temple of Honor" and "Good Templars" are separate organizations, and requested the amende honorable, to which the Republican responds as follows:

We are pleased to know that the Good Templars pay their bills, and ask pardon of that organization for our "For Sale" article. Will the "Temple of Honor" now come to the front? The claim is still for sale.

Now what has "Gen." Bowen to say about that unpaid bill, which the T. of H. doubtless made due appropriation to pay, and believed to be paid up to this time? It behooves the "General," in his lordly and most dignified manner, to arise and explain why this is thus.

The finest line of queensware at Geo. Riechers'.

—A. W. Nickell, the Brownville Druggist, has just received an immense stock of wall paper, the most beautiful patterns at 12½ cents a bolt. Window curtains all styles and kinds, and curtain rollers of most every make. It is astonishing how nice a room can be made with so little money. He also keeps a full line of books, both school books, miscellaneous books, and blank books, writing papers, all kinds and sizes; envelopes of every shade and color. When you go to Brownville do not fail to call in at Nickell's drug and book store, and if he has anything you want, he will sell it to you as low as can be afforded and you can depend upon the quality and of getting exactly what you buy. We buy of Nickell because we find him reliable.

Harness Shop

PERU, NEBRASKA.

A. J. Williams, Proprietor.

He has saddles, bridles and halters to suit. And that they are all right no one will dispute. He has good harness too, both single and double. You can have what you want without any trouble. He has collars and harness and whips and all such. Of good harness oil he has ever so much. Indeed he keeps all that pertains to his line, in all of which goodness and quality combine. He works good material and does his work strong. And you need have no fear that there's anything wrong. For this is a matter we would have understood. All that's made in his shop is warranted good. If your horses or mules are subject to fret, He can keep off the flies with a splendid fly net. And if they are skittish and inclined to do wrong. He has lines that will hold them and his bridles are strong. If your harness needs mending you need not get scared. But bring them to him and have them repaired. He'll make or he'll mend as you may desire. And do it as well as where prices are higher. If you want anything made or mended come here. About prices and styles you have nothing to fear. To do his work right he takes special care. And we are quite sure his prices are fair. Now to farmers and horsemen we have this to say: Williams gives the full worth of all that you pay. At some other places you may do pretty well. But you'll find at this shop they are bound to excel. CUSTOMER.
